OBITUARY

In Memoriam

DR. JOHN LLOYD PITNER

Our hearts are moved by a deep and common grief in the death of Dr. John Lloyd Pitner. His brief illness and his sudden going have brought our whole Conference, as in fact all our Southern California Methodism, to stand with bowed heads and hearts in the presence of a great sorrow. While our grief is assuaged and our sorrow mitigated by the profound conviction that God "doeth all things well" and that a good man has gone to his eternal reward after a hard day's work, we sit quietly and wonder sadly at the mystery of it all.

Dr. Pitner was born in 1847 at Jerseyville, Ill., having received from his sturdy parents the priceless heritage of a splendid physique and a vigorous mind. His early education was secured in the public schools of Jerseyville, but when only sixteen years of age the war cloud that had come up from the South had burst in the fury of that terrible conflict that called for "the last full measure of devotion" on the part of such a host of our American youth, and our hero went forth to valient service for his country. As a member of the Fifth Illinois Cavalry he won distinction and honor.

After the war Dr. Pitner entered the University of Indiana and prepared himself for the practice of law; was admitted to the bar and later became city attorney of Bloomington, Illinois. Soon after his law career was well launched and in the midst of his successes as a young and rapidly rising attorney he heard the voice of God calling him to the ministry, and with the same courage and unfaltering fidelity that so characterized him all through his marvelously useful and eventful life, he turned his face resolutely toward this new field of operation. After his theological training he was sent to his first charge at Bowling Green, Indiana, and thus began a career of splendid achievement for Christ and the Church.

At the last session of our Annual Conference no one thought Dr. Pitner was walking in the twilight of his earthly day. As a Conference we had thought of nothing else than a more or less indefinite continuation of his wise counsel, his strong leadership and his statesman-like ability. He is gone from us, but in a deep and profound sense he is still here. His splendid personality, his remarkable achievements, his genial and brotherly spirit will always abide with us who knew him; and when long years of service have gone by, in the evening time of our own earthly lives, there will continue to come to us those inspirations and tender memories that now so greatly help us in the performance of life's tasks.

Dr. Pitner was first of all a great and good man. Someone has said that "Preaching 's divine truth plus a man." Dr. Pitner was a preacher not simply because he was a scholar, nor homilist, nor theologian, nor rhetorician, but because in the full, radical and robust sense of the word, he was a man. As an orator he stood in the first ranks of all our Southern California Methodism. It was not merely his learning, nor his logic, but his vehement soul-power that constituted him a man of eloquence. While he was possessed of a speculative mind, and had great enjoyment in wandering far out into the impenetrable mysteries of God's great Universe, yet he had firmly fixed convictions as to the fundamentals of the religion of Jesus. Dr. Pitner, knowing so well that we must see Christ ourselves in order to make others see Him, was want to inspire his own soul by silent, adoring sympathetic contemplation of the Lord whom he preached. In the sanctuary of his own heart he erected the Cross and because of this he convinced others of its reality.

In the Book there is written, concerning another, words that may fittingly be applied to our brother, "There was a man sent of God whose name was John." He was a man sent of God. With the tenderness and gentleness of a woman he met repentant and sin-burdened men and gave them hope; with th spirit of a warrior, intrepid, fearless in his assault on the righteous indignation against all forms of sin. In this man, so strong, so virile, there was not only that which excited fear on the part of the wrong doer, but also that which demanded his highest respect and even his admiration, because of the loftiness of his purpose, the poise and balance of his well-rounded manhood and the exceeding largeness of his ability.

Dr. Pitner was everywhere a leader; and in all his leading he was thoroughly conscientious. No one could think of him as attempting anything but that which called for the full measure of his manhood, that which was pre-eminently worth while. He never allowed his character to become weakened by doing anything but that into which he could put the whole force of his personality. It was because of this that he refused to accept an honor which men would have thrust upon him when he was solicited to become at one time a candidate for Mayor of the city of Los Angeles. He was sent of God to preach the everlasting Gospel of His Son, and this alone could engage his undivided attention.

Throughout all his ministerial career one of the notes that sounded out prominently in his preaching and blended into the beautiful harmony of his message, was that of patriotism. Dr. Pitner was a lover of his country. As a true patriot he instilled in the hearts of his hearers somewhat of the same devotion to country that he himself so proudly possessed. His voice is still heard in the loyalty of thousands of those to whom he ministered and in their devotion to the old flag. It was no mere sentiment that caused loving hands to fold about his dead body that flag which he so loved and cherished. Seldom has such an honor in death been more highly merited. It is because such men have lived and served that the Nation's children gather under the folds of our glorious flag and fling its colors into the untainted atmosphere of American loyalty. May God still give us such men until every star in our Nation's banner becomes a star of promise and its bright stripes, radiant with beauty, shall symbolize the sunrise of universal peace.

It was in his capacity as District Superintendent that many of us came to know and to appreciate the real worth of this man of genius. With what great delight to us did he enter our homes! Many times wearied by a long journey and burdened with the multitude of arduous duties that devolved upon him, and yet with such glad salutation and such cordial, genial brotherliness! Many of us can go back in memory to the days gone by and hear his prayer again at our altars. Oh, what consolation, what instruction, what blessing!

With what splendid dignity did he preside at our Conferences, with what profound and unerring judgment did he deal with the affairs of the Church, safe-guarding every interest of the Kingdom! Dr. Pitner's fine legal learning stood him well in hand in the administering of the affairs of his office. All up and down the great San Diego district there stand today monuments of his wisdom and skill; and only eternity itself can disclose how well this man wrought.

As a Conference we cannot forget that we owe to this splendid man of God two great institutions that are helping us solve the tremendous problems that are confronting our Southern California Methodism. Dr. Pitner was the instigator and the one whose constant insistence brought into glorious reality the "Missionary and Evangelistic Society" of our Conference; that society which has become such an integral and necessary part of our work that it will continue to exist when the very last man of us shall have gone to be with God.

Then again it was Dr. Pitner's vision and wise counsel and energetic endeavor that has given to us our great Huntington Beach Camp Meeting equipment. It was with the wisdom of the old time seer that this Prophet of God planted in the heart of our Conference that permanent institution that ministers so effectively, and shall continue to minister to the spiritual needs of men throughout the coming years. What more fitting monument could there be erected to his memory than that which, as a Conference, we have in the "Missionary and Evangelistic Society" and the Huntington Beach Camp Meeting organization? We are profoundly thankful to God that, in his kind providence He directed in the course of events, that brought to this important field of labor such a wise leader and counselor, such a gifted and stalwart soldier of the Cross.

Dr. Pitner's ministerial career stretches over a period of forty years. During this time he held some of the most prominent pulpits in our American Methodism and has represented his Church in its supreme legislative body. As his constant inspiration, and as his untiring helper, his faithful wife, to whom he was married in 1870, has contributed her part to his truly great and eventful career. Five children, all of whom survive their father, also added zest to his ministry and gave purpose to his life.

It would seem that God gave this good man, not only the personal equipment but the attendant blessings and inspirations that were required for the accomplishment of the very great tasks of his life. Dr. Pitner, yielding himself to God's purposes and plans, has finished his work and now dwells in the morning of that new Day. His last words were, "My People, My People," evidently referring to those who were under his pastoral care in the First Church, Fresno, his last charge. He loved them and in death his prayer was for them.

"Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

CLYDE MONROE CRIST.

MRS. A. A. BURGE

Ada Bradley Burge, the wife of the Rev. A. A. Burge, was born in Los Angeles, Cal., May 7th, 1877. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bradley, and the sister of Mrs. G. F. Bovard, Dr. E. R. Bradley, Clinton Bradley and Mrs. E. S. Hogle. Her father was for many years an active member and trustee of the First Methodist Episcopal Church in Los Angeles. He was a member of the General Conference of 1880, which met in Cincinnati. Ada Bradley began her Christian life in early childhood and joined the First Church. She was always active in Sunday school work and was a charter member of the well known J. O. C. Class, which for so many years has been conspicuous in the work of this large and flourishing Sunday school. She was married May 23d, 1899, to the Rev. A. A. Burge, who joined the Southern California Conference in September, 1910. She has been a most helpful and faithful co-worker with her husband in the Christian ministry, and has been greatly loved by the people of his parish. She has been especially successful in Sunday school work during the past year in East Santa Monica, and her loss is very keenly felt by the entire community. She died in Santa Monica, after a very brief illness, June 14th, 1913. The interment was at Hollywood Cemetery, June 17th. She leaves to bear their loss, supported by a Christian faith and comfort, her husband, three daughters, Helen, Rena and Dorothy, besides her mother, two brothers and two sisters and a large circle of friends. The grief is not to her, but to those from whom she has been called away; for "to live is Christ and to die is gain."

MRS. C. H. LAWRENCE

Mary Jarvis was born of sturdy English parentage, in the ancient city of Quebec, Canada, August 14th, 1857, and was called home in the great "Empire Day" disaster at Long Beach, California, May 24th, 1913.

She was the eldest of three daughters and grew to womanhood under the most careful influences of a Methodistically religious home, which, with an early personal experience of saving faith, sufficiently accounts for her most unselfish, life-long devotion to her Lord and His Church.

Having obtained a liberal education on general lines, she made music her life study, and it mattered not to her whether it were the cabinet organ in the mid-week prayer service, or the pipe organ in the great Sabbath congregation, she was always at her post, the very embodiment of faithfulness and efficiency.

On August 25th, 1886, she gave herself in marriage to Rev. C. H. Lawrence, then of the Montreal Conference of the Methodist Church of Canada; but for the past twenty years a member of the Southern California Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

For over twenty-six years she shared, with her husband, the joys of the itineracy, always leaving behind her on every charge a precious memory of service rendered, which is today as ointment poured forth.

Three children were given to Sister Lawrence's care. The eldest daughter, at eleven years of age, preceding her mother to the homeland in 1898; while a son and daughter, the former a graduate of our U. S. C. and the latter a student at the State Normal School, remain to share with their father his great sorrow.

Her funeral service was held on the 28th of May in the South Main Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Los Angeles, built by Brother Lawrence in his last pastorate, Rev. F. M. Larkin, Dist. Supt., Dr. E. A. Healy, Dean of Theological School, Dr. J. A. Wood and Rev. R. J. Taylor taking part; while many other ministers and a host of sympathizing friends filled the edifice.

Interment was made in the family lot in beautiful "Evergreen," in Los Angeles.

To one who was present came this thought, that if the Man of Galilee had been present again as in the long ago, He would have once more said, "Not dead—but sleeping."

"'Tis only a semblance, like dreams of the night;
Refreshed and revisioned, she walks in the light."

MRS. P. Y. COOL

Sarah Mahala Cool passed away at her home in Los Angeles, December 14th, 1912. She was born in Cleveland, Ohio, August 14th, 1836. She was the daughter of Joseph Aram, late of San Jose, California, and Mahala Aram (nee Birdsall), and was the widow of Peter Y. Cool, one of the pioneer Methodist Episcopal clergymen of this State.

Her father, Joseph Aram, and his family were members of a party of early pioneers who crossed the plains in 1846. They arrived at Sutter's Fort, at Sacramento, in October of that year, and found this coast in a state of turmoil, as the war with Mexico was in progress. Acting under the advice of Col. Fremont, whom they met at the Fort, the company proceeded to the old Mission of Santa Clara, and upon arrival there the seventeen men of the company, with some other Americans in that locality, formed a company for defense and enlisted for the war, and Mr. Aram was commissioned Captain by Fremont and was placed in command of the post, and he and his company participated in the battle of Santa Clara.

During the winter of 1846-7, Mrs. Olive Isabel conducted a school at the Military Barracks, and taught the few children there. Mrs. Cool was one of the pupils. Books were not very plentiful and comprised such as a few thoughtful parents had brought with them from their Eastern homes. This was probably the first American school held in this State.

Captain Aram was a member of the first Constitutional Convention and of the first Legislature of this State, and took an active part in its early-day history. His widow, Mrs. Grace Aram, resides at Carmel-by-the-Sea.

The Rev. Peter Y. Cool was ever a most zealous worker in the cause of Methodism. Many church edifices in this State were built under his personal supervision. He was of a most genial personality and was beloved by all who knew him. He passed away at Los Angeles November 6th, 1882, since which time Mrs. Cool has made her home here and has been an earnest worker in church affairs.

Mr. Cool, during his ministry, filled the following appointments: Volcano, Santa Cruz, San Jose, Centerville, Watsonville, Placerville, Santa Barbara, Los Angeles, Nevada, Compton, Santa Barbara District, San Diego, and Florence. He was one of the organizers of the Southern California Conference, and one of the most prominent of the founders of our church institutions in all this region.

Mrs. Cool is survived by an only brother, Eugene Aram, an attorney of Sacramento, California, who is the last of the Joseph Aram family of five children.

Mr. A. E. Pomeroy, well known in Los Angeles, is a brother-in-law.

Mrs. Cool had a most amiable disposition; none knew her but to love her.

In her demise the church has lost a most zealous Christian worker and society has lost one whose every effort has aimed for the upbuilding of all that is moral and good. Her neighbors have lost a kind friend and her relatives will ever miss her many little deeds of kindness, her many words of love, that make life here below akin to the life above.

They were asked the Disciplinary questions and the Bishop, in a most forceful, practical way, addressed them on "Ministerial Balance," showing that—

The preacher must maintain his balance in expression. It is not only what he says, but how he says it. The preaching, pastoral, financial, and administrative work must each have its share and no more than its share.

The minister must maintain the balance in his preaching, else he will be only logical, or only descriptive, or only illustrative.

He will be tempted to become sociological or individualistic in his style. He should be both ethical and spiritual.

A right proportion of appeal to the mental, emotional, and volitional part of men's lives must be sought.

"Keep your feet on the earth," said the Bishop, "but preach hell, and heaven, and earth. Preserve the biblical proportion in your preaching of doctrines; maintain a sane balance between the public and private sides of your ministry, between the active and the meditative life. May God hold you steady, so that when you meet life again in the light of eternity and the presence of God, He may say you have done your duty, your whole duty and nothing but your duty."

Conference Evangelist—Chas. Edward Locke introduced the following resolution and it was adopted:

"Whereas G. W. Wilson, being a member of this Conference and having resigned his Chaplaincy at the Soldiers' Home after eight years of honorable service, desires to resume the evangelistic work in which he enjoyed notable success and which he relinquished when appointed Chaplain;

Be it resolved, That we respectfully request Bishop Edwin H. Hughes to appoint G. W. Wilson as a Conference Evangelist."

RESOLUTIONS AND REPORTS

I

Pastoral Address

To the Churches in Southern California, greeting:

We, your pastors and fellow-workers in annual Conference assembled, send greeting and pray that grace, mercy and peace may be multiplied to you.

We thank God for the privilege of co-partnership with you in the grace and kingdom of Jesus our Lord, and for your steadfast loyalty and devotion through another year. You are our crown and rejoicing and we live if you stand fast in the Lord.

As you know, the past year has been one of great severity for many of our communities, some suffering very heavy financial losses, thus seriously retarding advance movements already planned. Yet we rejoice to report to you that steady progress has been made in every direction throughout the length and breadth of our Conference and many noble victories have been won.

In material things there have been built during the year nineteen churches and eighteen parsonages. For the great missionary and educational movements of the church $212,180 have been contributed; while for the support of the churches in their own regular work the noble sum of $443,308 has been raised. Our membership has advanced from 42,327 with 1,868 probationers last year to 45,043 members and 2,265 probationers this year, while our Sunday Schools have increased in the enrollment of officers and scholars from 50,977 to that of 61,548 this year, and our League membership to 10,934, while in many of the churches many more of our men have this year organized themselves into Brotherhoods for the larger culture and service of life.

In spiritual matters we note not only a heightening ideal of religious life, but also a deepening dissatisfaction with present conditions and an earnest longing that once again the Church may be filled with the power of the Spirit. And we also gratefully make known to you that in many of our churches the old-time converting power still waits on our ministry as evidenced by the fact that 400 souls, young and old, have during the year definitely surrendered to Jesus Christ.

We greatly rejoice with you over these victories, but challenge you by the comparative fewness of conversions in our churches to give yourselves in unreserved consecration to this task. The glory of Methodism has been her converting power. This lost, nothing can compensate for it. But to this end a deeper spiritual life must manifest itself in the churches. Prayer must come back again to its central place of power. The old passion of the fathers for souls must possess us their children. Less and less must we depend upon exterior agencies, but more and more on the grace of God, ever immanent and effective, and on our own capability for the conduct of this work. More and more must the message of the old yet ever-new gospel of the Son of God be depended upon and magnified as the one unchanging and all-availing power unto salvation. Crowds are desirable, but conversions more so, and we must make this the supreme objective of our united labor. Only this really builds up the church and meets the need of the multitudes on every side, and we earnestly entreat you, with us, to consecrate yourselves to this work. We are powerless without you, but with you, in closest fellowship with God, we believe that in winning souls greater victories than ever shall rest on our banners.

We urge this reconsecration to this great task in view also of our impending crisis of opportunity. Multitudes of all races and faiths are crowding upon us, and the challenge of the hour is, What shall the evangelical church do for them? Whatever other expedients we may try the greatest is to give them the knowledge of salvation, and ours is the responsibility of both opportunity and enlightenment. We have the open Book, we have a Christian experience; we claim the unhindered communion with God. Our very possession of the Light makes us responsible for its diffusion, and God is giving us such opportunity as seldom comes to His church when he puts in closest association with us multitudes who do not know Christ.

We note also with serious solicitude the deepening antagonism, in many quarters to the highest things for which the church stands. Much of the social life of our day tends to a deeper degradation. Low moral standards become flagrantly widespread. The Sabbath is desecrated with a shameless abandon. The theatre is so often the school of licentiousness. The sacredness of the marriage vow is broken by the almost unhindered divorce. Much of life is increasingly as though God were not. False faiths spread with startling rapidity. Our educational institutions, with sad havoc upon the moral life of our youth, seem more and more to be permeated with materialistic conceptions of life while the public press often delights in the fullest exploitations of vice.

There is but one sovereign remedy. It is the larger manifestation, through consecrated living, of the grace and power and challenge of the stainless Christ. By bringing the multitudes to Him we must not only meet their need, but demonstrate to our day that He is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believes—He, and He alone, and that life, all life, can be regenerated only as it comes under His mastery. Though ordinary men and women, we must show that the extraordinary thing has come into our lives and so lift our age out of its materialism by showing the supremacy of the spiritual through its mastery over our own daily conduct.

The Church is the social conscience. We must vitalize that conscience and make its demands imperative. We therefore entreat you as fellow workers, to join us in insisting that there shall be a single standard for both men and women, and that all forms of brutality against the human body shall be driven from the body politic or visited with severest punishment. We rejoice with you over the victories won against the shameless liquor traffic; but we beseech you to guard against all its subterfuges, and not to cease fighting until it is entirely driven from our midst. In the issues that so often sharply divide our industrial world, see to it that the democracy of Jesus finds its expression in your insistence that justice be done to all, and, that your young people may find within the Church, itself, the Christian response to their social instincts, we earnestly urge the development of an attractive social life in all our churches, and wherever possible, the building of halls suitable for such social life. Fight the good fight of faith against every form of evil in your midst. And may you all by your purity, your sincerity, your honesty, your stainless integrity, your Christ-likeness, put to shame the immodesty, the impurity, dishonesty, and blighting worldliness all around you, while you co-operate with the many other noble, high-souled men and women who are striving for the betterment of our common life.

And now we commend you to God, to Him who is able to build you up and give you an inheritance among His people. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS.

District Superintendent's Reports

FRESNO DISTRICT

In presenting the report of the Fresno District, with its large territory and voluminous activities, I realize how inadequate a paper of three or four thousand words is to do justice to the consecrated labors of preachers and laymen.

This District stretches along the Southern Pacific Railroad from Acton in Los Angeles County 321 miles across Antelope Valley, over the Tehachapi and through the famous and fertile San Joaquin Valley to Patterson in Stanislaus County, and along the coast from Santa Barbara 271 miles to Soledad in Monterey County.

The larger part of it is in the wonderfully productive San Joaquin Valley, a valley having glorious spiritual possibilities as well as physical productiveness. It will be interesting to those living south of the Tehachapi to know that in Tulare County alone there are 39,000 acres of citrus groves, and when these are in full bearing it will mean a crop of 40,000 car loads of oranges and lemons annually. Besides this, the valley produces 100,000 tons of raisins every season, and ships train loads of watermelons, cantaloupe, peaches, prunes, figs and other luscious fruits. Further than this, there are hundreds of square miles of wheat, barley, and alfalfa grown in this empire valley of the West. On account of the drought of the present season, 49,000 acres of wheat and barley were planted in the drying bed of the Tulare Lake, and this land produced from twenty to thirty sacks per acre.

Uncle Sam in his scientific and competent judgment says this valley is capable of sustaining a population of 22,000,000 souls, and it does not take much of a prophetic vision or faith to declare that some of the young men now being received into our Conference will live to see as many appointments in the territory covered by the Fresno District as are now included in all the territory south of the Tehachapi.

The planting of the church in this choice country, and the bringing in of a Christian civilization, through the salvation of the individual and the united action of Christian people for social and civic good, has been well begun. My immediate predecessor, Harcourt W. Peck, with a wisdom commensurate with the opportunity and with a heart filled with spiritual and physical dynamics, under the commission of the church and with the loyalty of the preachers, organized societies and planted churches to the remotest bounds of the District, besides crowding the northern bounds of the Conference many miles nearer to the active metropolis of our sister Conference on the north.

I also desire to bear testimony to the good work of T. C. Miller, J. B. Green, and S. A. Thomson, who superintended the District in former years. These brethren have left indelable marks of spiritual achievement, and created precious, inspiring memories in the hearts of many of our people. It is a great honor to enter into the labor of such fathers of the church.

In reporting the spiritual achievements of the splendid company of preachers who have served the churches this year, it is impossible to mention every name or to record all progress in detail; but I am conscious in reporting progress that at the heart of every developing institution is a worthy and faithful personality.

The District work has been done under much discouragement in many places on account of the drought. Finances have suffered from this condition. Nevertheless, the spiritual interests have not lagged, and the statistical records will show a healthy advance of the work.

Our forces have been weakened by sickness and death. Our most eloquent preacher, Dr. John L. Pitner, was smitten by death April 25th, after a sickness of but a few days. He was a mighty preacher of the Christ, thoroughly loyal to Gospel fundamentals, and was in the midst of his most successful ministry, when he fell, greatly beloved by his church and brethren in the ministry. This Conference knows of his ability as an organizer, debater and administrator. It was my privilege to share the fellowship of his home life, where I saw him as a loving father and Christian gentleman, and a warm and genial comforting friend to all who sought his counsel. I have in the picture gallery of my soul a treasured image of a full-grown man in Christ, and this image is enshrined in the fragrance of sweet fellowship, the atmosphere which has ever made the Christian home the vestibule of Heaven. As the haze in the summer time enfolds and softens the contour of our California mountains, so the home life of Dr. John L. Pitner softened and beautified and made fragrant his life.

Another gap was made in our ranks by the serious illness of V. Hunter Brink, who, on account of nervous prostration, was compelled to give up his work at Visalia. Rev. John Hedley, late of Tienstin, China, has supplied the charge most efficiently since April, and leaves for Canada with the confidence and love of all the people.

Willard Aldrich, who has done good work at Easton, was compelled to undergo a serious operation in August, and it became necessary to operate again September 20th, and our brother is now in the hospital at Fresno. The church at Easton has been very kind to our unfortunate brother, and Rev. O. W. Ostrum of the Swedish Conference has acceptably supplied the pulpit in the pastor's absence.

New Churches—There have been four new churches built on the District this year. The cement-block church at Alpaugh, costing $4,000, was dedicated by the District Superintendent January 26th. The church had been a long time building and represented much sacrifice; but when the people were asked to subscribe $1,500 to cover all claims against the building, they promptly subscribed over $2,200, and the surplus will go toward building a parsonage.

With appropriate services and inspiring sermon, Bishop E. H. Hughes dedicated the splendid buff-brick church at Tulare, June 29th. This is the best and most expensive church of our denomination in the San Joaquin Valley. The building and furnishings cost over $30,000. This enterprise has been blessedly qualified by a revival that has been continuous in the regular services of the church. There is a debt of $7,000 on the building, but the pastor, Walter C. Buckner, and his spiritually minded people will settle this in due time.

Another splendid building achievement has been realized at Irwin, under the efficient leadership of J. C. Gowan. A spacious church, costing $3,000, was dedicated, free of debt, by Bishop Hughes on the evening of June 29th. Since then this busy preacher, church builder, and money getter has begun the building of another church at Stevenson on the same charge. This is a pretty fair record for a superannuate.

Through the heroic efforts of a small band of our people, and with the help of the Visalia Church and pastor, the old Presbyterian Church at Visalia was purchased and moved out to Goshen, and after expending some $700 to improve the same, our people have a neat building in which to worship. It was dedicated, free of debt, August 24th, by the District Superintendent.

Parsonages have been built at Caruthers and Sultana; and one room has been built at Atwater, but is can scarcely be dignified by the name of parsonage. A new six-roomed parsonage has been built at Wasco, and at Hanford the old parsonage, which was six blocks from the church, has been sold and an elegant eight-roomed house built on lots adjoining the church. It was dedicated with appropriate ceremonies May 14th. It ought to be the custom to dedicate every Christian home with religious exercises for the sake of its influence on our civilization.

The parsonage at Fowler has been remodeled and two rooms added to the same, making it practically a new home.

Evangelism—Revival fires burn brightly on the district, the pastors proving themselves efficient soul winners. A revival which added 27 to the church gladdened the heart of Pastor Reynolds at Laton, and Wasco has nearly doubled its membership by conversions through the earnest, spiritual labors of Harvey Bailey, who has supplied the charge very acceptably. Brother Boyd of Parlier helped Pastor Brown at Sultana in a meeting which resulted in the conversion of 40 souls, and Chesbro Memorial, with the help of Pastor Wenz of First Church, Bakersfield, had one of the best meetings of the year.

Many other preachers have held their own meetings with good results. R. T. Smith, Samuel Hughes, and Don A. Allen have acted as evangelists and helped the brethren at Livingston, Clovis, Selma, Caruthers and Rolinda and Tehachapi, besides holding special meetings on their own charges.

There is much wild evangelism and false teaching in the land, and it behooves our preachers to exercise care in the selection of evangelistic help. Lindsay, and Corcoran and Waukens have suffered from some extreme holiness teachers, who claim to be friendly to Methodism, but as their actions most thoroughly deny their words we have asked the preachers not to admit such evangelists or teachers to our pulpits. There is a vast difference between scriptural and critical holiness. Holiness that divides the body of Christ and dogmatically damns the race for whom He died, and many of the churches at work to save it, does not represent the pentecostal power of the apostles, nor the constructive teachings of Methodism.

One of the problems of the District is to supply evangelistic help to some of the smaller churches, and to find evangelists uncommercialized, willing to do the work. Evangelist G. LeRoi Clarke was employed at a stated salary for six weeks to work under the direction of the District Superintendent. He did excellent work at Alpaugh, where some 50 souls were converted. He also did good work at Lindsay, Santa Maria, San Miguel, and Paso Robles, and was evangelist at the Arroyo Grande Campmeeting. Evangelist C. R. Haudenschild did some good work on the District, having a successful meeting with Pastor Ryder at Delano, and rendered acceptable service at the Sequoia Park Campmeeting.

Those splendid winner of souls, Evangelists Brown and Curry, held excellent meetings at Sanger and Santa Barbara, which were highly profitable to our churches. At Santa Barbara I helped to receive 45 into our church the first Sabbath after their meeting closed.

A Ministerial, Epworth League, and Sunday School Institute was held at Visalia, beginning November 21st. It was a meeting of spiritual power and profitable discussion. The addresses of Dr. Oren B. Waite, Superintendent Vernon B. McCombs, and Chas. H. Scott were of a high order and fully appreciated. The influence of this convention has been felt all through the San Joaquin Valley; and another convention is already planned for this fall to meet at Hanford.

Eight Sub-District Rallies were held by the District League Cabinet, with Howard B. Clark as President, on the valley side of the District. The meetings were full of profit and opportunity for the development of leaders among our young people. Sister Dundas, the wife of our pastor at Sanger, is a talented and elect spiritual lady, and is one of the best and most efficient institute workers to be found. She rendered first class service at these rallies, as did also the other members of the cabinet.

The two camp meetings on the District are institutions of much spiritual worth. The Coast camp meeting was held at Arroyo Grande, June 7th to 21st. The time set was too early, and while the attendance was good, it would have been much better if the meeting had been later. Dr. Chas. Edwin Locke preached and lectured to the spiritual profit and delight of large congregations. Dr. Waite and F. G. H. Stevens did excellent work for the Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues, respectively; while Sister Dundas won the way for her practical spiritual message to every heart; and Superintendent McCoombs ably presented the interests of the Spanish and Portuguese work.

The Sequoia Park camp meeting, held at Springville, was more largely attended and resulted in more definite spiritual good. Bishop Hughes was with us the Fourth of July, and gave an address that was highly instructive and patriotic to the large audience; and in the evening of the same day preached an evangelistic sermon, at the close of which some eight persons, mostly young men, came forward and found Christ as a personal Saviour. It was a great day.

This camp meeting demonstrated the practical idea of social salvation. There had been built, under the supervision of Bede A. Johnson, tennis courts, croquet grounds and basket and volley ball courts, where our young people played and exercised themselves in healthy, social exercise. There had also been purchased fifteen acres of additional land in order to get control of three splendid swimming pools.

The Sequoia Park Camp Meeting Association believes that religion has to do with the whole of life, and that too many of our young people are lost through ungodly play and its companionships. The Association stands for clean games and playful fellowship, and it feels well repaid for its efforts. It was an inspiring sight to see our young people partners in a social game that spelt social freedom and health and to see these partners of the playground later in the day companions in prayer and service for Christ at our camp meeting altar.

It was a camp meeting of young people, and out of its life and environment were born some divine purposes that will reach into eternity. One choice young man received a call to preach while attending this gathering.

Brothers Waite and Stevens rendered good service for the institutions they represented, and Rev. John Hedley gave several rare addresses on missions. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Potts had charge of the music, and Dr. C. R. Haudenschild was the evangelist. The District Superintendent tried to be helpful at both these camp meetings in conducting the Pentecostal services. Much might be said of the untiring labors of pastors Gortner and Clark, who did so much to make their respective meetings a success.

The Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies were busy at both camp meetings, and through the services of Miss Winnifred Spaulding and Mrs. P. H. Bodkin and Mrs. Libby Allen instructed and inspired the people to larger life and giving to the cause of missions.

Improvements—There have been many improvements on churches and parsonages. It has cost Bakersfield First Church $1750 to improve its basement and pay for street work. This church has a good subscription toward a new two-story brick parsonage, which is greatly needed. Taft has moved its church and parsonage down town, put a cement basement under the church and added two rooms to the preacher's home at a cost of $1350. This society has had a fruitful year in every way under the leadership of F. P. Morgan. Lemoore has spent $150 on plumbing and parsonage improvements, and Laton has spent $200 for bathroom furnishings in order that the preacher and his family may enjoy some of the things that come next to Godliness.

The parsonage at Newman has been renovated and painted, and an organ purchased at an expense of $254.

Visalia has spent $1040 for heating plant, chairs and street improvements. Lancaster has put in new seats; and Parlier and Dinuba have both purchased lots for the future expansion of their churches. Paso Robles has renovated and painted its church at a cost $250. Reedley has spent $300 in the construction of a hall for the primary department of the Sunday School, and Madera has spent $200 on its yard and basement. Lompoc has made a social hall under the church at a cost of $2000.

Twenty charges have spent on improvements $8000; and the total for building and improvements will total $60,000.

The Ladies' Aid Societies have rendered most excellent service.

Societies with but fifteen or twenty members have raised hundreds of dollars, and the reports of this organization have been the best and most business like of any.

Benevolences have suffered in some places on account of lack of crops; and at one time it was thought there would be a serious falling off in missionary giving, but later reports are more optimistic. Hanford increases its offering for missions, and Arroyo Grande adds $120 over and above last year's gift, and Dinuba makes a similar increase. Selma bids the church advance with an added gift of $212; Santa Barbara moves into the front rank, and Porterville, as would be expected from its missionary pastor, leads the District with an increase of over $400. Twenty charges report an increase to the missionary cause of $1470. Much of this advance is due to the faithful and efficient work of Dr. S. J. Carrol and his competent assistant, Bede A. Johnson.

We fear that some charges have not sustained the record of last year for lack of missionary vision. When the preachers realize more fully that money for missions means souls for Christ and a new civilization for the race, there will be less blanks and fuller reports in the statistical records. Some of our churches are spiritually undeveloped, and many of our people are spiritual dwarfs, because there is no world vision or vital connection with the world plan of God. How can a soul grow to "the full stature of a man in Christ" without character development in connection with whole passion and purpose of Christ? How will a preacher make full proof of his ministry who neglects this most vital life and service?

Ministerial Changes—First Church, Fresno, being unable to get an efficient deaconess, asked for an assistant pastor, and in March W. H. Mumper was released from Patterson to become the assistant of Dr. John L. Pitner. In a little more than one month Brother Mumper became the acting pastor in full charge of this great church. He has done well, and the church has in many ways shown its appreciation of his services.

S. A. Prince, a supernumerary member of the Genessee Conference, has supplied the church at Patterson, and the society has grown under his ministry. It became necessary to make a change of pastors at Alpaugh at the time of dedication, and R. L. Vivian, a supernumerary member of the Central Illinois Conference, was appointed to the charge. The people have been well served under his wise leadership.

Harry C. Warner asked to be released from Ducor in June, in order to attend summer school at the University of Southern California. He was excused, and Claude A. Smith, a probationer in the Indiana Conference, secured to take his place. The Tulare Circuit, an important field for spiritual investment, suffered much in the early part of the year from experimentation with local preachers, until we were in danger of losing the opportunity; but we finally secured the transfer of C. J. Oleson of the Northern New York Conference. He arrived in June and has been doing very effective service ever since. Brother Oleson is a graduate of Northwestern University and of Boston University School of Theology, and is a brother of O. N. Oleson of our Conference.

There have been many pastoral changes on the District, twenty-three in all, and the Superintendent's job has been no easy one. One charge has had four changes of pastors and another three. The work needs men trained for the task.

The most painful thing to the District Superintendent is the smallness of the salaries paid to our preachers and the utter lack of business methods in financing some of the churches. It is a matter of deep concern to my heart to know that some of my brethren are not only underpaid, but also that one-half of a salary of less than $800 would not be paid till two or three months before Conference. The problem is to help the Church realize its obligation, and to bring our officary into spiritual business touch with God.

After a careful study of the living expenses of the District, I conclude that $800 and a parsonage is the minimum salary upon which a minister and his wife can live in respectability among people; and I question if it is right to ask an educated man to go to a charge and expect his to do good work for any less. But even with a salary of this size a consecrated man may find comfort and inspiration, if it is paid regularly.

The Conference will be pleased to know that more of the churches are adopting practical business methods; and I am more than pleased to report that twenty-five churches have paid an increase of over $4000 on salaries this year.

Reform Work—The growth of Christian civilization can be noted by the growth of the sentiment that votes out the saloon and pool-rooms. Last November saloons were voted out of Ingomar, Gustine and Livingston in the San Joaquin Valley. And it is a happy coincidence to report that the first conversion ever known in Livingston was experienced at our church altar the same night that the saloons left town.

At the same time, over on the Coast the good people voted twelve saloons out of the town of Soledad. And on May the 13th, an unlucky day for evil, after one of the most wisely planned and sanely conducted campaigns I have ever known, Santa Barbara voted twenty-five saloons and six licensed restaurants out of existence. Our pastors were active leaders in all this work. Harry W. White did some excellent work at Santa Barbara with original lantern slides with thoroughly illustrated the iniquity of the traffic. He has a story to tell that will help to win other battles. The Anti-Saloon League has rendered efficient service in all these campaigns.

District Problems—Methodism is strongly entrenched in the field covered by this report, but there are some vital problems connected with the future. In many communities we are the only Church; and if these churches are manned by community preachers and pastors, the future belongs to us. This work is worthy of our strongest men; but such churches cannot be developed by one-year preachers. If we can get men to go into this field with a vision, and a plan reaching thirty years into the future, we can make the whole country ours.

If our preachers will take hold and keep and spiritualize the children of our families just for one generation, the whole moral and civil life of the State will be changed and a Christian civilization realized. The saloons can be gotten out of the city of Fresno and of San Luis Obispo County, and the indecent civic conditions of Bakersfield and Madera be remedied.

New Work has been opened at Calwa City, the Santa Fe center, just out of Fresno. A new preaching place has been opened at Enterprise, on the Tulare Circuit, and also at Munson, near Sultana. Richgrove will add a new preaching point to Ducor, which must be made part of a Circuit. Plans have also been made for the establishment of our work at Chowchilla, where 108,000 acres of land have been opened for settlement.

The Santa Fe is building a branch line to tap the rich citrus territory of Tulare County. This means the opening up of valuable fruit lands and the building of thriving towns and villages; and Methodism is already entering this land of promise. A preacher has been designated to open work at Orange Cove, and another to begin work at Cutler.

Kingsburg, through the effective service of Don A. Allen, a supernumerary member of the Des Moines Conference, becomes an independent charge, having promised a fair salary and furnished house for next year.

The efficient superintendency of the District is a matter of much concern, and after holding most of the Second and Third Quarterly Conferences, which in most places were not largely attended, and which I found to be of very little profit to the churches, I conclude that the Superintendent can touch the work of the District more helpfully by giving service where more vital interests are at stake. And, following out this plan, I am glad to report that every one of the Fourth Quarterly Conferences voted "to excuse the District Superintendent from holding the Second and Third Quarterly Conferences wherever possible, in order that he may give that time to the more vital problems of the District."

The benevolences have been emphasized in the Quarterly Conferences and the people have been informed as to what the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension is doing for the District.

The preachers have faithfully looked after the matter of Conference entertainment, over 90 per cent. of the churches having paid toward this fund; and every church has voted to pay for the Conference Minutes.

I desire to thank Dr. Peck for the brotherly way in which he helped the new Superintendent to get hold of the work, and for his wise and kindly counsel throughout the year.

With gratitude to Almighty God for His unfailing Mercy and Presence, and with thanks to the preachers for their courtesy and kindness, I am,

Your fellow-servant,

JOHN OLIVER.

PASADENA DISTRICT

The year has been prolific in results. Though the mercury went dangerously near to zero, the spiritual temperature never fell.

The evangelistic note has been dominant. Souls have been saved. Fully a thousand persons have been received on probation, and 708 have been received from probation into full membership. The number of full members has increased from 10,961 to 12,068, a gain of 1107.

With a few exceptions, the health of the pastors and their families has been good. For twenty-two days Sister Houlgate was quarantined in the Montebello parsonage with her son Carroll, who had scarlet fever. The other children, Louise and Herbert, were with an aunt in South Pasadena. They did not return home until it was considered perfectly safe for them to do so. Soon after their return Herbert Paul, who had scarcely experienced an hour of illness during the four and a half years of his life, was attacked with malignant scarlet fever and died the third day thereafter. His sudden death was a great shock to his parents. Though sorely bereaved their consolation is great.

Several weeks ago Arthur E. Johnson suffered a severe attack of ptomaine poisoning, from which he has not fully recovered.

Charles Coke Woods is convalescing from typhoid fever, having been confined to his bed for eight weeks.

E. H. Fretz, Frederick Miller, and S. H. Munger were the victims of accidents, but are at Conference, ready for good appointments.

The parsonage population of the District has been increased during the year. In the Lincoln Avenue and the Simi parsonages are two robust, happy boys, each seven months old, named, respectively, Wesley Maurer Scott and Dwight Phillips.

Twenty-seven charges increased the pastors' salaries $4895.

Despite the damaging freeze, the material progress of the District has been unequalled. We began the year with fifty-four charges; we close it with fifty-seven. The new ones are Grace, of Ontario formerly a mission of Ontario First Church, but which began an independent existence in May with the blessing of the mother church and twenty-six of her members, and with Arthur Chalfant, a supernumerary member of the West Wisconsin Conference, as pastor, and which closes the year with fifty members; San Gabriel, with twenty-four members, gathered and ministered to by G. G. Stewart, pastor of Mountain View Church, and organized on the 24th of June; and York Boulevard, Los Angeles, started July 31st, with the appointment of a class leader and seven stewards, and where, a week ago last Sunday evening, the District Superintendent received forty-four persons by certificate, nine on profession of faith, one from probation, eleven on probation, and baptized two children; where a church building to cost not less than $6000 is being erected on valuable lots presented by Mr. Ralph Rogers, and where a salary of one thousand dollars is promised the new pastor.

Four churches have been dedicated during the year, and five are in process of construction. January 19th Bishop Hughes dedicated an eight thousand dollar church at Fillmore, W. L. Miller pastor. April 27th the "Edmund W. Keen Memorial Church," at Simi, S. Phillips, pastor, was dedicated by the pastor, the District Superintendent, and Byron H. Wilson. An unusual feature of the dedicatory services was that no money was raised, as the pastor had previously raised it all, and the building with its elegant pews and its bell was paid for before the day of dedication. The cornerstone of the Van Nuys Church, C. C. Hartzler, pastor, was laid on the 12th of April by Matt S. Hughes. The dedication occurred September 7th, with Dr. Hughes as the preacher. The cost of the building, without pews, was $8700. The cornerstone of the Ramona Church building at Alhambra, M. K. Stone, pastor, was laid June 29th. Last Sunday afternoon, September 28th, the church was dedicated, Dr. Hughes preaching the sermon. The cost of the building, with furniture, was $3200. At Alhambra First Church a building for the Sunday School is nearly completed, at a cost of $22,000. At Baldwin Park a cement basement is all ready for the superstructure which will soon cover it. Several weeks ago the old church at Glendora was razed in order that a more suitable one might be raised; and from a great excavation on the site of the old building reinforced concrete walls are rising for a $25,000 structure. The cornerstone of a brick church at Tropico was laid a week ago last Sunday, September 21st, the address being delivered by W. A. Knighten. The building will cost about $6000. An addition of a social hall and kitchen has been made to the Mountain View Church, at a cost of $900. Pasadena First Church has expended $3600 in improvements on the church building. Lake Avenue is making improvements of the value of $2000. Santa Paula Church has been renovated at a cost of $1150. The San Fernando Church is being enlarged at an expense of $1200.

Parsonages have been built at Marengo Avenue for $2500, at Puente for $1943, and at West Glendale for $2000.

F. D. Stevens, father of the pastor of Lake Avenue Church, in behalf of the Stevens Company, presented to that church, for a parsonage, the beautiful home now occupied by the pastor and his wife. The value of this gift is not less than $3000.

Other expenditures for improvements have been as follows: Altadena, $125; Annandale, a corner bought for a church site for $1600, $145 of which has been paid; Azusa $60, Bardsdale $150, Burbank $50, Casa Verdugo $25, Chatsworth $15, Chino $75, Covina $132, Cucamonga $30, El Monte $35, Glendale First $40, Lamanda Park, enlarging and renovating the parsonage, $100; Lordsburg $267, Asbury $500, Garvanza $730, Highland Park $416, Montebello $130, Moorpark $47, Ontario $438, Lincoln Avenue $100, North Pasadena $141, Scott Chapel $300, Piru $100, San Dimas $280, Simi $280 for pews, $80 on parsonage, South Pasadena $225, Tejuanga $175, Upland $600, Ventura $400.

North Pasadena and Monrovia churches are just beginning the erection of parsonages to cost, respectively, $3000 and $4500.

Wisely directed by their pastor, A. L. Baker, the Ventura Church, by several real estate deals, has come into possession of the finest site for a church building in the city, and at the same time is about $1000 to the good.

Under the broad visioned and inspiring leadership of Matt S. Hughes and at his suggestion, the Official Board of the First Church of Pasadena proposed a plan for the payment of the indebtedness of the city churches, the erection of a building to cost $25,000 for the Sunday School of First Church, and the erection of a church in the northeast section to cost $30,000. The parsonage for North Pasadena Church and $2000 for improvements on Lake Avenue Church were also included. According to the proposed terms, Lincoln Avenue would pay considerably more than its indebtedness, North Pasadena would pay somewhat more than the amount of its small indebtedness and the cost of the parsonage, while Lake Avenue, burdened with a debt of $14,000, would pay $2000 less than that amount. The other pastors favored the plan. But just as their churches were coming into line with the movement, the campaign in the interests of the Methodist Hospital was launched. Members of First Church contributed nearly $5000 to that worthy institution, besides giving more than $5000 to the Spanish-American School for Boys, nearly $800 to Lamanda Park Church, about the same amount to Ramona Church, and $500 to the Spanish Mission. It was deemed wise to hold the local church extension movement in abeyance for a time. However, the First Church purchased lots on the corner of East Orange Grove and Lake Avenue for a site for the proposed church, for $3000; and one Sunday the Lake Avenue congregation subscribed the whole amount of their indebtedness, $14,000.

The various organizations of the churches have been active and efficient. The Ladies' Aid Societies and Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Auxiliaries have been aggressive and successful. The annual reports of their presidents to the Quarterly Conferences were inspiring. The spiritual tone of the Sunday Schools and the Epworth Leagues was never better. There are eighteen Junior Leagues, some of which are doing excellent work along spiritual lines. Several of the Methodist Brotherhoods are wisely active.

The District Epworth League convention, held in Monrovia in May, was largely attended, and was an inspirational meeting.

The Ventura Chautauqua was a success. It seemed to be the general opinion that the program was the best in the history. The excellent local support given it is an indication that it is taking hold of the thought and life of the people of the county.

The David and Margaret Home has been a blessing to many children. Fifty-two children are now there. "Founder's Day," May 21st, was a great occasion. Probably seven hundred people were present. It was well worth a trip from a long distance to hear Dr. Hughes' address.

Starting with the best—the spiritual advancement of the district—I have reserved the second best for the closing.

Paul said, "Now concerning the collection." The statistics in the Minutes of the Annual Conferences for 1912, show that only two Conferences, the California German and the Southern California, gave an average of over $3 per member for the "benevolent collections ordered by the General Conference, as reported by the Conference Treasurer," including the offerings of the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies. The California German Conference gave for those causes an average of $3.26 per member. The Southern California Conference gave an average of $3.69. The Pasadena District gave for the same causes an average of $5.10, and so was the "banner District of the banner Conference of the Church."

For all of the benevolences, including "Other Benevolences," only six churches of the denomination gave an aggregate of over $10,000 each. In the order of their giving they were as follows: Christ Church, Pittsburg, $18,272; First Church, Los Angeles, $17,209; Central, Detroit, $14,965; First Church, Pasadena, $14,176; Richmond Avenue, Buffalo, $11,450; Union, St. Louis, $11,409.

I am happy to report to you that this year the offerings of First Church, Pasadena, are, for Foreign Missions $3560, Home Missions and Church Extension $7730; Woman's Foreign Missionary Society $4575; Woman's Home Missionary Society $5508. Total for Missions $21,373. Increase over last year for Missions $9523. Total for all benevolences $25,633, an increase of $11,457. It is not probable that any other church in the entire denomination will equal this. Some of the other churches of the district increased their offerings, a few, largely, while others, on account of unusual financial conditions, have failed to equal the contributions of last year. However, the aggregate of the offerings will so far exceed that of last year, as to make it improbable that any other district will supplant it as the foremost District of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the World.

F. D. MATHER.

SAN DIEGO DISTRICT

It gives me pleasure to report for the third time the work done by the splendid company of men laboring on the San Diego District. I cannot speak too highly of them and assure you it has been a privilege of unspeakable and constant joy to be associated with them. And if mention is made of but few by name it is only because your time is so valuable that this report must be as brief as possible.

For causes mentioned later the year could not be one of large outward constructive work; but it has been one of steady strengthening so that in no case where such was possible has the Church failed to make real growth. Very few new communities have arisen calling for work; but the brethren have been keen to note any chance for entrance into new fields. Some efforts have been made to enter what seemed promising openings only to prove that the time had not yet arrived, and some names of places will therefore disappear from our minutes. These changes, however, will make possible the pushing of work in other directions.

Our forces have wrought with but little change. Death has not entered any of the homes of our ministers. Several of the brethren has passed through severe and critical illness, all, however, to be restored to health and to be fully ready for work again.

The changes on the district have been few. Shortly after conference B. T. Stauber withdrew from Coronado and S. W. Simonds took his place. H. G. Burgess was moved from Murrietta to Blythe, N. N. Bormose taking his place at Murrietta. I. A. Engle took that of Geo. E. Twomley at Perris, and J. W. Sherwood that of J. B. DeBord at San Marcos, who had to retire on account of the very severe illness of his wife and who will ask for a supernumerary relation this year.

Our force has been strengthened by the coming to us of H. T. Lewis of Randsburg from the California, I. A. Engle to Perris from the Idaho, Wm. Rogers from the Columbia River, Scott E.

Winebrenner from the Puget Sound Conferences, and we give these brethren a very hearty welcome among us.

There will go from us Leslie E. Fuller, received on trial last year, who becomes Associate Professor of the Department of Old Testament, in the Garrett Biblical Institute; G. W. Marine, who early in the year withdrew from us to join the Free Methodist Church, and F. A. Smith who retires to enter the ranks of the Church of the Nazarene.

The field as you know is wide and is very diverse in character. The churches in the strong centers have made notable advances, Anaheim, "First," Redlands, Corona and Santa Ana making large gains, and almost all the churches in the less strong but important places have grown in every direction, speaking volumes for the fidelity of the pastors to every interest of the church. Weak churches in small and almost decadent communities have struggled to maintain themselves and that with varying success. Some of them will report serious loss in membership; but in every case pastor and people have worked heroically, both alike making great sacrifices to maintain the Church.

This District presents in unmistakeable fashion one of the most urgent religious questions of the day, viz: What shall be done for the Country Church? Of the seventy-seven charges that formed this field last year at least 42 of them would fall within the U. S. definition of the country church, i. e. either entirely rural or in communities with population less than 2500. Many of them are in attractive and growing sections, yet present all the difficulties of the rural church and call for all the skill and devotion necessary to solve this urgent problem, a problem which holds within itself the very life of the country itself. Not the city but the country is the great task before us, for unless we save the country the city will inevitably die, for it is always at its heart moribund. Always must the new life-blood flow in to the city from the country for the city to save itself.

Here then is our great challenge; to take the country church, sometimes in the very center of a waste and dreary wilderness, and to make it the center for all the forces that shall go out for the redemption of the rural life. This is the biggest challenge of the hour, one I know so often turned from, but one that promises the richest return for the making of life. In the city the individual minister is buried in the overwhelming mass; in the country he may become the forceful leader of virile men. It calls I know for a new consecration: to turn from the glitter of seeming advantages to the dull obscurity of hidden but vast potentialities. Oh for a band of young men whose hearts God would touch with a passion for the redemption of the rural life.

The year opened auspiciously. Crops were promising and the outlook for advance in every direction bright. Then came the devastating freeze, followed by the withering drought, that financially crippled many of our members.

But the loyalty and liberality of our membership have been so great that, with few exceptions, all the current expenses of the churches will have been met and the amounts asked for benevolences in most cases fully raised. If the reports should show any decrease of benevolences, it is because the people have been so loyal to their pastors they were determined these should not suffer if even the great missionary enterprises of the Church did.

These things have also halted advance movements initiated at the beginning of the year. Church after church which proposed extensive alterations has been compelled to temporarily abandon these projects and await the return of the prosperity for which we so confidently look during the coming year.

One church suffered destruction by fire—that of our beautiful and commodious building at Colton, which had been built but four years and the indebtedness for which had not yet been fully paid. The society, however, quickly rallied under the leadership of John Nicholson and determined to rebuild better than before. The old location was sold, a fine new one bought, plans secured and the building begun, the cornerstone of which we hope to lay next week. This part of the building will cost $15,000, though only the auditorium is being erected at this time.

Early in the year the building at La Habra, twice enlarged during the pastorate of Henry Stranberg, again becoming too small, the Church determined to rebuild and already a very attractive building seating 250, and costing $5000, is almost completed and will be dedicated shortly.

San Jacinto, with J. J. Post as pastor, has built the Sunday School Department of its new structure and would have completed its auditorium but for the set back in the winter. We dedicated this part the first Sunday of the new year.

Somerset, under the leadership of Arthur F. Torrance, has built and largely paid for a very neat and commodious bungalow chapel at a cost of about $1800. This young society has had a remarkable growth and will before very long become one of the most attractive of our suburban churches.

At Perris the almost impossible has been accomplished by Irvin A. Engle and his people in the erection of a very attractive auditorium-addition to the little old chapel, which with its basement and Sunday School class-rooms now give a fine equipment for our work there. Its cost was about $2200, which was fully provided for at the dedication Sept. 14th.

At Escondido a bungalow chapel, for Sunday School and social purposes has been built adjoining the church, and at Cardiff-by-the-Sea, midway between Oceanside and San Diego, J. L. Minney, a supernumerary of the Idaho Conference, has during the past six months gathered together a small congregation and under much difficulty built and paid for a very neat chapel on lots donated us by the land company operating there.

Commodious and attractive parsonages have been built at Calexico, Garden Grove, Santee and Wintersburg, each costing not less than $2000, while a very comfortable modern home of five rooms has replaced at a cost of over $1000 the old barn-like parsonage at Murrietta.

Extensive enlargements of the parsonages have been made at Corona, Oceanside, "Fairmount," San Diego, Santa Ana, while improvements on churches and parsonages have been made at Anaheim costing $400, Artesia $125, Buena Park Circuit $150, Bard $50, Banning $100, Brawley $313, Chula Vista $150, Colton $250, Del Rosa $300, Elsinore $100, Holtville $400, Highland $300, Imperial $200, Nestor $30, Orange $130, Perris $60, Redlands, First $1000, Randsburg $500, Riverside, Arlington $33, Riverside, "Grace" $1400, Riverside, "First" $150, Rialto $50, San Diego, "Central" $250, San Diego, "Taylor" $75, Santa Fe Springs $50, Silsbee $250, Winchester $20, and Fullerton $350 and at a cost of $600 has secured a new location for its parsonage.

During the year, feeling that our church at Clair would have so much better field at the new and growing town of Stanton, I urged the removal to that place, which was accordingly done. The work in that section of Orange County through the excessive multiplication of churches of the various denominations is very discouraging, but I am sure the new location of this church will prove a great gain. It is not, however, strong enough to stand alone and will for the coming year be united with the Buena Park Circuit.

A few miles west of Riverside, E. H. Kiefer has gathered together at Glenavon a fine Sunday School and congregation, which promises before long to become a self-supporting church.

The following churches have wiped out these amounts of old indebtedness: Santa Fe Springs $25, Imperial $50, Rialto $50, Bard $70, Olinda $75, Silsbee $100, Somerset $235, Corona $250, Central, San Diego $320, Taylor, San Diego $400, Alamorio $450, "Grace," Riverside $600, Holtville $900, El Centro $2000, Colton $2300, First, San Diego $4000, "Mission Hills," San Diego $500, and Santa Ana $6000, in all $17,755. This is a brief and very bare summary of the fine work done by the pastors and must be read between the lines to see its true value. For it takes no account, for instance, of such successes as that of Crawford Trotter who, in an entirely rural section—Nestor—scoured the country for miles around and gathered into association with the Church over 100 young people, many of whom had never before heard anything about the Church, and who, had they had the slightest chance of adequate equipment, could have welded this large host into a band of most devoted followers of Jesus; or of Luther Rice, who, going to Chula Vista, faced a most delicate and complicated situation, but completed the enterprise with rare skill and has so far carried the work forward in spite of the terrific reverse his community has sustained this year, reports almost double the membership he found; or of Frank Edwards, who, in addition to his work as pastor of La Mesa, 18 months ago opened up that at Santee and has built and paid for a $5000 church and has within the past 6 months secured and almost paid for the $2500 parsonage already mentioned; or, such triumphs against the saloon as that largely led by Norcross at Calexico or Laizure in San Bernardino County, or Peck at Redlands, or that being led by Sutherland in that stronghold of liquordom—Anaheim. These are but samples of the work that has been done which cannot be measured by bare statistics.

City Missions: There has been organized during the year at San Diego a city Missionary Society which is hereby recommended for your approval, and which further asks your request for a grant in aid of city work of at least $500 for the coming year from the Board of Home Missions. I am confident that such an organization was needed, and that it will become of great value in building up the work in that rapidly growing and now the second largest city in Southern California.

Sunday Schools: No work on the District has commanded my earnest attention more than that of the Sunday Schools and kindred organizations for the religious culture of our youth. In over forty of the churches the Sunday Schools are graded, the majority of them fully so, and everywhere there is an earnest striving to make this great arm of the Church of fullest value to our growth. More and more the churches are coming to see that the Sunday School is worthy of the best equipment possible in both material things and teacher qualification. And there has also been a notable extension of the Home Department and Cradle Roll Division.

I have made diligent inquiry touching the literature furnished our schools and have found the almost universal use and appreciation of the publications of our own church.

The Leagues—Senior, Intermediate, and Junior—have gone steadily forward and are becoming more and more a real power in the life of the churches. Many of the Senior Leagues have entered very heartily in the general missionary work of the Church at large, and especially into the plan for the evangelization of our Mexican population, to the great gain of their own interest in a missionary program. If the present educational work is continued, the next generation in our churches will be deeply imbued with the missionary spirit.

In many churches the Intermediate League is filling a real need growing out of the fact that so frequently the membership of the Senior League is very senior indeed and often out of touch with the religious life of the really young people.

One branch of this work calls loudly for renewed interest. I refer to the Junior League, the hardest I know to maintain, but after all the most important. I regret that there are but fifteen Junior Leagues on the entire district. Can this be wholly due to the difficulty of the work? Or can it be in part due to our lack as pastors of a real devotion to the spiritual needs and possibilities of the childhood committed to our oversight? Could we not most wisely give less attention to the adult part of our congregations and give ourselves up to an intelligent, tactful and devoted ministry to the boys and girls under our care? Surely here is our largest and most promising field of labor, a field we can neither sow nor reap by leaving it almost entirely to the workers in the Sunday School.

In some of the churches, in order to awaken a deeper interest among the boys, Boy Scouts and other organizations have been formed, and one of them, that in our "Fairmount," San Diego, Church, under the leadership of its pastor, J. P. Barker, has been very successful in leading the boys, as Knights of King Arthur, to surrender to Christ.

That our Sunday Schools are, however, not ignoring the spiritual side of their work is evidenced by the fact that over four hundred conversions are reported as from the Sunday Schools of the District.

Membership: Early in the year, carrying out the program decided on at our last session, and making our adopted motto—"50,000 for 1913"—our rallying cry, the matter of earnest and persistent effort for souls was laid before every quarterly conference of the District as well as every group meeting of the pastors. For one I felt the supremest thing we could do was to bring about a gracious revival, and to this end for the first quarter especially I gave my unceasing devotion. That great revival on which we had so set our hearts has not yet come; but gracious blessings did come to many of the churches.

Revival meetings were held on at least 35 of the charges resulting in gracious quickening of the Church and leading to the conversion of more than four hundred. Some were union efforts, the majority however, were held by our own people. More than forty churches report increase in membership, aggregating about 1000. Of that number more than thirty report receiving about 350 from probation. One rejoices over these increases. They speak volumes for the fidelity of the pastors. Nevertheless these figures bring us face to face with the deepest problem of our ministry. When faithful devoted pastors report results of revival efforts as "meager," "slender," "small," "nothing," something demands inquiry. Either our method is faulty or the Church is largely lacking the spiritual vitality necessary for giving birth to souls. Whatever be the cause, the result is sufficient to bring us to a pause.

Whatever others may think, I believe that this Conference could do nothing better than pause in the midst of its deliberations over the details of our organized life and give itself to the consideration of this most urgent problem, and, if necessary, quickly pass over all other business that through prayer and consecration we might find the answer to this perplexity and power to meet this urgent need. Unless souls do bow at our altars in definite surrender to Jesus what are we to do? What would happen if the tide of immigration from the populous centers of the East, where our Church is powerful, were to cease? Steady decline. What can happen even if this tide continues? The Church must lose in spiritual vitality and so in moral power for the tasks that lie before her, unless her life is renewed by the constant incoming of new-born souls.

You will pardon me, my brothers of the San Diego District, if for want of time I pass over many things I might mention, and if, loving you with a deep and abiding affection, and thanking you with all my heart for the cordiality of your fellowship, and rejoicing with you over your many triumphs of the past year, I challenge you to a new consecration, to the giving up of yourselves to the supreme work of bringing men to surrender to Jesus Christ. That, I say, is your supreme work, and that is your highest glory.

"Oh, what joy it will be when His face we behold,

Living gems at His feet to lay down.

It will sweeten our bliss in the city of gold,

Should there be any stars in our crown."

God give you many souls during the coming year.

ALFRED INWOOD.

LOS ANGELES DISTRICT

The past year has been equal to, if not in advance of any previous year of the Los Angeles District, for aggressive work on the part of laity, pastors and District Superintendent. I am grateful for the fact that through the blessings of a kind Providence, I have not missed a single appointment in four years on account of ill health.

The prophecies of a year ago in reference to church development, have been more than fulfilled. Like all other years it has brought joy to many hearts and sadness to a few. Serious illness has visited some and death has come to two of our pastors' homes.

The wife of A. A. Burge, pastor of East Santa Monica was stricken with a serious illness in the month of June. She was taken to the hospital for an operation from which she did not rally. She died June 14th. Services were held in the Church at Santa Monica and the interment was at Hollywood Cemetery.

Two of our pastors' families and many of our laymen were greatly afflicted in the Long Beach calamity. F. A. Leak, wife and two children went down in the crash. Brother Leak held his baby in his arms and both escaped without serious injury. He rescued his wife and daughter, each of whom had a broken arm, and then exhausted himself in the work of rescuing others. Because of severe strains and nervous exhaustion he had to give up his work for the rest of the year. We are glad to report that his wife and daughter are now well and he has almost entirely recovered and will be able to do full work this coming year.

It is with the deepest feelings of sympathy that we record the sorrow that came to C. H. Lawrence. His wife had been with friends at the gathering and was one of those who lost their lives. Funeral services were held in South Main Street Church, where she had worked so many years with her husband, and where she was so greatly loved. The interment was at Evergreen Cemetery.

The material development upon the District has probably never been exceeded in the aggregate in any twelve months. This has been accomplished at great financial cost to the people who have given with unparalleled generosity. If it is true that the best possible tonic to church finances is a religious revival, then it must also be true that material prosperity must be a "visible sign of an invisible Grace." By this test the District is in excellent spiritual condition.

During the year thirty-six churches have made improvements at a cost of $129,536, as compared with $54,423 last year, an increase of $75,113.

The amount paid on old indebtedness is $85,490, as compared with $57,800 last year, a net increase of $27,690.

All the benevolent causes have been carefully presented and the grand total will show a handsome increase in the regular offerings, though there will probably be a decrease in special gifts. The indications taken from the pastors who have reported are that, in church membership, Sunday School scholars, and Epworth League, there will be increases of about ten per cent.

The debt on the lot of the Belvedere Church of $900 has been paid and three hundred dollars expended on improvements.

Boyle Heights paid $2,000 on its debt and every department of church work is active and successful.

Other churches conspicuous in debt paying are as follows: Compton $2900; Epworth $700; Hollywood First Church, a new pipe organ was purchased at a cost of $4000 and $2000 paid on debt, and it has the largest net increase of any church in the District, viz, 174.

First Church, Long Beach, has had an excellent year, having paid $11,500 on its debt. The Ladies' Aid Society of this Church raised last year $2000 and made five thousand calls; Redondo raised a subscription to pay its total indebtedness of $3950, $1600 of which has been paid in cash, and the balance is provided for by interest-paying, negotiable notes; First Church, Santa Monica, paid $1900 on its long standing indebtedness. This sum completes the payment of one-half of its debt in just one-half the time planned for in the subscriptions, leaving the present indebtedness at $5500.

St. James Church has paid its debt of $6000; South Main Street, paid $2100; Union Avenue $615; Whittier $2400 on debt and improvements and Wesley Chapel $2000. Many other churches have paid smaller sums, but relatively as large for the financial strength of the churches.

Vincent Church has had its entire building renovated within and without, enlarged its Sunday School equipment, all at a cost of $1900. It is one of the most efficient plants in the City.

Normandie Church, which was dedicated last year, has added a Sunday School room and a Social hall at a cost of $1700.

Three new parsonages have been built during the year as follows: At Edendale, Florence and Huntington Park, all fine modern dwellings, the one at Huntington Park valued at $4500. The number of members given in the minutes last year of this was an error. It should have been 217—today the Church is about 250. University has had one of its most successful years—a large increase in membership and a banner year in giving for benevolences.

Seven new church buildings have been completed during the year and three more are in process of construction.

Two lots were secured as a gift at Harbor City, conditional upon the building of a chapel valued at $1500. The work was undertaken and carried through by the Los Angeles City Missionary Society.

The name of Florence Heights charge will disappear from the list of appointments and West 79th Street will be substituted. the former name having become a misnomer by the growth of the City. During the year the little chapel was reconstructed under the direction of its pastor at a cost of $1300, making it a new church building.

Brooklyn Heights completed and dedicated a new and commodious church, well adapted to the needs of that growing section of the city, at a cost of $5500, a large enterprise when the financial ability of the church is considered.

The relocation of the Melrose Avenue Church and the completion of a delightful, attractive chapel is now a fact. This is one of the most important tasks undertaken during the past four years. The new church building is on a beautiful avenue, three blocks from the new Normal School site of twenty-five acres. This is now being transformed into a beautiful park, upon which are being erected buildings which will cost in the neighborhood of a million dollars.

The Hobart Boulevard Church referred to in my last report was completed and dedicated during the year. A fine, modern, church building, with every equipment, valued at $25,000; $16,000 has been paid and the balance provided for in good subscriptions. This church has increased in membership more than 400 per cent in three years.

The West Adams Church was dedicated Sunday, March 16th, the sermon being preached by Bishop Hughes. This building, without doubt is one of the most beautiful and artistic church edifices in the city of Los Angeles. The entire value of the property is $80,962, upon which there is an unprovided indebtedness of $16,000. G. A. Henry, who has been pastor of this church during the past four years, arranged for an exchange of pastorates with W. L. Y. Davis of Oxford, Ohio. The exchange has proven mutually agreeable to both the pastors and the churches.

One year ago in September, Bishop Shepard dedicated the Vermont Avenue Square Church, and on that day raised funds for the enlargement of the building. This enlargement has proven to be practically a new church building. The first building cost $6000, this year $10,000 more have been expended, making this church building one of the most complete modern church buildings in the City. It has a modern Y. M. C. A. equipment for social service work. There has been a net increase in membership of about one hundred and fifty. The Sunday School enrollment is over 600.

We take pleasure in recording our grateful appreciation, as well as that of the churches, to Matt S. Hughes for his efficient assistance in preaching at the dedicatory services of four of the churches.

Another church which just failed of dedication before this Conference session is the Grace Church of Long Beach. A beautiful new building, completely furnished, including a fine pipe organ, costing in all about twenty thousand dollars, will be dedicated during the present month.

Euclid Church, Boyle Heights, has begun a $12,000 church building, the corner stone of which will be laid October 12th. This church has had an exceptional growth during the year with a net increase in membership of 100. The new Church property will be unique in Southern California. A private park of several acres was purchased and subdivided. A large lot was reserved for the church, at the end of a parkway lined with large palms. All the lots have been sold to Church members. The restriction as to improvements will make this property one of the "show places" of the city of Los Angeles.

Another milestone has been passed in the history of the First Church, Los Angeles. This mother church has had a remarkable history, which we doubt has ever been surpassed in Methodism. Fourteen years ago the property on Broadway was sold for about $100,000. The present site was purchased for $35,000 and a building erected. The history of a church building in American cities usually extends over twenty-five years. In about one-half this time both the building and location have been outgrown. At the Fourth Quarterly Conference, the Trustees were authorized to purchase a new site at the corner of 8th and Hope Streets, 200 feet front on Hope and 155 feet to an 185-foot corner on 8th Street. The Trustees have secured this lot for $340,000. This lot will undoubtedly be nearer the center of Los Angeles by the time the new building is completed, than was the site on the corner of 6th and Hill Streets at the time of the dedication of that edifice. The new church building will be the cathedral of Methodism in Southern California, providing for every department of church work in the City. This great Church continues to grow in membership and in Christian beneficence. Last year it ranked second among all the churches in Methodism. Its benevolences total $4000 in advance of 1912; Home and Foreign Missions $16,556, making a grand total of $22,440.

Several new charges will appear in the appointments at the close of this session, as follows:

Harbor City, Wilmington, Venice, West 54th Street, Los Angeles, Downey and San Antonio, and two new charges, Trinity and Zaferia, will be added to the three prosperous churches within the city of Long Beach, probably the most Methodist city in the Conference, judged by population, church membership, church property, eminent pastors and prohibition.

A number of institutions required to be reported to the Annual Conference, demand brief mention.

The Spanish Industrial School located at Gardena will be reported by the Superintendent of that work.

The Los Angeles City Missionary Society has had a successful year. Its revenue will exceed that of any previous year in its history. The rescue Mission has been opened every day in the year, and prospects for a great downtown institutional church, for which I have worked for the past four years, seems now to be entirely possible, and we hope that before another year passes this institution will be firmly established with a property valued at more than one hundred thousand dollars.

The past year may well be called "Hospital Year" for our Conference. The work of the Field Secretary in connection with the special campaign for funds has placed in the hands of the trustees assets valued at $80,000 to be used for the first building which will accommodate one hundred patients. The old building has been moved to one side of our large lot and work has been commenced on the main building, which we hope to see formally dedicated at the next session of the Conference. We should all rejoice in this magnificent advancement. Methodism is to have the best if not the largest fire-proof hospital building in Southern California.

The coming year should be University Year. We cannot safely postpone a great campaign for funds. Our institution is overcrowded with students, our professors are overworked, our opportunities to do a great work for Christian civilization through this University are unexcelled. The Trustees have secured the services of R. J. Coyne as Financial Secretary. A strong Campaign Committee has been organized. We earnestly bespeak the right of way in all our churches this year for the University of Southern California.

Every indication points to a normal increase in benevolent offerings this year. While there have been adverse conditions growing out of the loss of a large part of the citrus crop, which affected country and city alike, and the general financial stringency of the money market, we do not anticipate any shrinkage in the regular collections, though there may be in the special gifts.

The Ladies' Aid Societies have everywhere shown great activity and efficiency in promoting every interest of church life.

The Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies continue to violate the letter of the discipline and carry out its spirit, in raising sums of money for Christ's Kingdom. The aggregate of these two societies will undoubtedly be in excess of the amounts raised for the parent boards, so-called.

The new plan of apportionment should receive the careful attention of the Conference. We would recommend that the question be referred to a special Committee for careful consideration and action. A large part of the new system is based upon fiction. The assumption that because a church has property of large value, it therefore has members who are very wealthy, is pure fiction. One of our churches with the highest average wealth among its members, has property of about the same valuation as another church with the lowest averaged wealth of its members. Another fiction is the assumption that members develop the grace of giving harmoniously with the growth of the bank account, forgetting 'the young man who went away sorrowful for he had great possessions.'

We would be unthoughtful, if we did not make mention of the personal services rendered to this Conference during the year by our Resident Bishop, E. H. Hughes. By sermons and addresses and in taking of special collections at dedicatory services and in debt-raising campaigns, and in special Episcopal supervision, he has exceeded all other years, and we are glad to report that all have really enjoyed the special Episcopal supervision and are duly thankful.

We wish again to express our appreciation of the pastors and people of the Methodist Episcopal Church. For the development of intelligent spiritual life, for the promotion of every reform for the welfare of civilization, for the "Christianizing of the social order," we believe that they are unexcelled in devotion and efficiency. We record here our gratitude to both pastors and official laymen for the uniform kindness and co-operation extended to us during the year.

An essential part of my personal creed is expressed in the words of Edwin Markham:

"There is a destiny that makes us brothers:

None goes his way alone:

All that we send into the lives of others

Comes back into our own.

I care not what his temples or his creeds,

One thing holds firm and fast—

That into his fateful heap of days and deeds

The soul of man is cast."

SPANISH AND PORTUGUESE DISTRICT

The report of the first year of the Spanish and Portuguese District shows seven charges with the following totals: Exactly 100 probationers received during the year with 101 probationers now enrolled as against 23 last year. The total membership has increased from 113 to 220. Last year we had three Sunday Schools with 123 scholars; this year we have eight Sunday Schools with 259 scholars. Last year we were ministering to about 300 and this year to not less than 1200. Our Mexican people this year have given $365, as against $130 last year. This shows an increase of more than 100 per cent along all lines. Last year we had three charges which have more than doubled in number, not counting several out-stations.

The University Church under the leadership of J. A. Geissinger, who feels strongly on social service, immigration, and, therefore, the Spanish work, has done a pioneer and splendid service in taking Antonio Jimenez as their Mexican Home Missionary, who has developed a four-point circuit during the year—Downey, Lankershim, Rivera and Montebello. He has a monthly service at each point beside reaching out to other points, such as Van Nuys, where he addressed over 100 Mexicans in their camp. He has scattered thousands of tracts and portions of scripture. At Downey there is preaching once a month and a Sunday School each week with two teachers and 25 scholars.

Like most of our new points, Lankershim was opened up at the urgent appeal of the local American pastor. Brother Price planned a "White Christmas," by which an apple, a bag of candy and a gift brought in by the American children made glad the hearts of about 50 Mexicans and Brother Jimenez and I told them that night of the Saviour. The people at Lankershim have raised partly enough money to purchase a large tent for the services. Seven have already been converted and received into the Church there.

Los Angeles Spanish Church has had a constructive year. Last year under American workers it was merely an irregular mission with very few adult Mexicans and its gifts came largely from the workers. It is now a regularly organized church with a newly organized Epworth League of 51 members and a Junior League of 45. Beside paying all its other expenses, this church has paid one month of its pastor's salary. We have prepared a parsonage for the pastor behind the Church and put in plumbing and light. We have a clinic under competent physicians and have classes in English and a Mother's Class, all so much needed among the Mexicans.

Watts is our most promising out-station. There is a large Pacific Electric section there beside many scattered through the community and we have regular services established Sunday afternoons.

The use of one of the best of the Bethlehem Institutions, 1201 North Main Street, Los Angeles, is now open to us. We expect to open regular services there and by the aid of the University Y. M. C. A. to establish an institutional work for the Mexicans, until we may secure a plant adjoining the Spanish Plaza. We are expecting to secure the Rev. E. M. Sein, who is visiting our Conference.

Our work in Los Angeles during the past year has had many novel features. The newly organized Epworth League at one of its first socials had a desperate character genuinely converted and $112 were subscribed toward the Spanish-American Industrial School for Boys. One night Pastor Narro was awakened by Kid Miranda, a Mexican prizefighter, who was in trouble and desired salvation. Brother Sein had six services there last month and 10 were received on probation. We have reached one well-to-do family indirectly. Our humble chapel is not inviting and is too far away so they attend Pico Heights. That Mexican family has given $125 toward the Boys' School and are giving $5 a month to our work. Pasadena First Church and Vermont Square also have Spanish girls who are deeply interested in the salvation of their people. When we have respectable and inviting church buildings in Pasadena and Los Angeles, we will have some of these people as the nucleus of a more nearly self-supporting work. We do not feel it wise to make extensive improvements on our present little church, because it is not centrally located among the Mexicans.

Pasadena is holding its own in its little chapel until the new Spanish Church is built. Brother and Sister Weaver have toiled on faithfully for over three years now under great handicaps. Pasadena has 27 members, a Sunday School of 47. They have given $71 in self-support and recently had a revival service led by Brother Sein in which 7 precious and tempted souls were saved.

One of the best things in the Pasadena work through the year has been the Friday night cottage prayer meeting around in the Mexican homes and in various parts of Pasadena.

It is with genuine pain that we consent to relieve Brother Weaver of this charge at his own request. He feels that a Mexican pastor will be able to do a larger work.

At Rivera a splendid layman, Dr. Trewbella, aided by Geo. W. Coultas' young people from Whittier have opened up a nice little Sunday School, at which point Brother Jimenez is able to preach once a month. They have received eight probationers. The Superintendent of the Sunday Schools in Rivera and Downey is sending his bright boy to our Mexican Boys' School and pays $8 tuition monthly.

Santa Ana has had a great year. Its 24 members of last year now number 95. It has a Sunday School of 65 scholars and has had 15 conversions in the Sunday School. The Conference is now acquainted with the pastor, Ambrosio C. Gonzales and his beautiful wife, who are working earnestly and wisely for the building up of a strong Mexican Church in that county seat, where Judge Cox says that 90 per cent of the crimes committed are by Mexicans. Santa Ana people have learned how to do things for the Mexicans; they have a Committee on Spanish work in the official board. The American Church is paying Brother Gonzales' salary, and we hope soon to build a parsonage. One man from the American Church has sub-divided a block into small lots upon which he is building simple California houses and selling these little homes to the Mexicans on easy terms. They are being bought eagerly. Our respectable church property in Santa Ana is attracting better class Mexicans. On their Dedication Day $200 were subscribed for the Boys' School. They have an orchestra, have bought a piano and have a flourishing Epworth League of 35 members. Brother Gonzales, like all our pastors, has frequently helped us in visiting the American Churches during the year.

Our prayerful effort has been directed since last Conference toward bringing to pass the founding of the Spanish-American Industrial Training School for Boys. This Institution was opened last month. It is about the first close contact that our comfortable

Methodism has ever had with the sad underworld. There are 10,000 boys in the 15,000 cheerless Mexican shacks in this Conference who stand in immediate need of Christian and industrial training.

Officer Stocking of Riverside said to me: "Not only more than 25 per cent of our crime in Riverside is committed by Mexicans, but more than half of our trouble cases, violent arrests, entailing much more than half the expense, is by Mexicans."

Chief Corrington verified these facts and also that the most perplexing problem is, what to do with the large families while the fathers are sent away to jail or to the penitentiary.

All benevolences are feeling an impulse and not an injury from the response to this very nearby and critical need. All of the Pasadena churches have offered increased support next year and have promised us a fine new $5000 Mexican Church. Watch also the great motherly church of Los Angeles which is just now taking up the larger part of the salary of Brother Sein, and the Long Beach First Church, whose Epworth League, two weeks ago, pledged $7 monthly for general work and $100 a year to keep a Mexican boy at the Boys' School. South Pasadena has subscribed nearly $2000 this year toward the Boys' School and general work and has the honor of bringing to pass the "Service-Carson Hall," the first building of the Spanish-American Industrial Training School for Boys.

We have received this year from the Board of Home Missions $1860 and $4692 from this Conference. This total of $6552 has been expended as follows: Salaries of six regular pastors, three other workers and the District Superintendent $4942; rents of chapels and parsonages $676; office expenses $270; and $664 has been expended for traveling, printing, the making of over 200 stereopticon slides, and for our eight-page monthly magazine, "El Mejicano."

Suppose that from the 18 nations to the South and from the rest of the 10 per cent of this earth who speak the matchless Spanish languages, millions should come to this region of Spanish traditions, what preparations here shall we have made for our own sake and theirs? Suppose the border between Mexico and the United States should disappear in the crash of an unwelcome conflict with that distracted republic, what shall these five wise virgin commonwealths here in the Southwest have done to meet their Lord in the maze of that opportunity?

This report might well be given the title "Up from Serfdom." If this nation found it impossible to exist half slave and half free, it is going to be equally impossible for half of this American Continent to remain in the grip of feudalism and for the rest of us to be socially and spiritually free. The boundary between Mexico and the United States is not an ocean but an 1800 mile border very easy to cross over. Dr. Butler of Mexico City recently wrote me:

"Increasing numbers of Mexicans are certain to come to Southern California. We are glad you are reaching them with the Gospel. It will be a great thing to send some of them back to help evangelize this afflicted nation."

Friends we are engaged in a task worthy of our daily prayer and a strong united effort. In the name of our 16,000 Mexicans, for whom we are doing something and our thousands of Portuguese, for whom we hope to do something this year, we thank you. We appreciate your cheerfully given aid and your sympathetic interest. As you see these brown-faced, sad-visaged, but really noble people, all about you during the coming year, try to imagine the sorrows of their lives and be assured that God can bless them and use them even as He does us, when they are given the chance. His Word says: "Though ye have lien among the pots yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove covered with silver and her feathers with yellow gold."

Reports of Standing Committees

EDUCATION

The Church, conscious of its mission, knows itself as the servant of humanity. The sphere of Christian service knows no limitations except the boundaries of human need.

There are some kinds of service which the Church cannot accomplish in the fulfillment of its definite function in society, by means of its stated services and the organizations of the local Church. This is peculiarly true of its educational function. Where vital religion prevails the Church and the school stand side by side. The Church was the pioneer of this great and flourishing movement in the United States. The first foundation in New England bears the name of a clergyman—the Rev. John Harvard. The cornerstone of Yale was a minister's library. Princeton was child of evangelism and the fruit of a religious revival. Columbia, once known as King's College, was founded by the Church of England, and its charter provided for its direction by the Church. Williams, Amherst and Brown were all born of the Christian impulse, guided by Christian men and founded on the theory that the Christian Church was debtor to society in the matter of education.

Then came the era of state education. The beginnings can be traced back to the famous Ordinance of 1787. The Northwest Territory embodied in its fundamental law the declaration that religion, morality and education were essential to good government, and, therefore, schools and the means of education shall be forever encouraged. The provisions which set apart a portion of the public lands for the support of education were the outgrowth of this sentiment. Then came the free public school and the popular belief that the State, as well as the Church, owed a duty to education in seeing that every child had opportunity. That principle, once adapted, could not be limited to elementary levels. Then came the creation of the great State Universities. This was supplemented by the Morrill Act, signed by Abraham Lincoln in 1862. This act of Congress gave us the land grant colleges of agriculture and mechanic arts in every state of the Union. Many of these, as in Illinois, Ohio, Wisconsin and other states, developed into State Universities. The State had been leavened by the Church and education became a national enthusiasm.

The Church and the State each has its own peculiar educational point of view. The Church has a point of view determined by her devotion to Christ, by her belief in an intelligent religion, by her need of equipped leadership, and by her sense of responsibility for the spiritual interests of her young. The State has a point of view determined by her ideal of citizenship, by her instinct of self-preservation, by her commercial, industrial and professional interests, and by the national relation of State and Church. The clashing between these institutions and their representatives at the beginning was probably inevitable. Happily for all concerned, that period of antagonism hastens to its close. The best representatives of the State Universities are seeking to promote the religious interests of the student body; and the Christian College is laying emphasis upon the college's main duty to the State.

There are those, however, who question the necessity of the perseverance of the Church in higher education. They argue for the delegation of the task to the State. The argument is founded upon the superior resources of the State institutions giving their advantages in faculty and equipment; upon the equalization of the charges for that which is a benefit for all; and upon the alleged freedom of learning. These considerations and others have led some to the hasty conclusion that the occupation of the Christian College is gone. That is being recognized as a grievous mistake by many of the leading authorities in State education.

The Christian College represents the cause of our young men and women. Recently at the inauguration of President Grase, of De Pauw University, Dr. W. O. Thompson, president of Ohio State University said: "I am in no way untrue to State institutions when I say that in our day a boy might become a bachelor or a master in almost any one of the best of them and be as ignorant of the Bible, the great literature which it contains, the moral and spiritual truth which it represents, and the fundamental principles of religions, the facts and methods by which they are defended, their nature and their value to society, as if he had been educated in a non-Christian country." As long as such possibilities exist, the Christian Church with its sacred guardianship of her young, dare not turn over higher education to the State.

The Christian College represents the cause of truth. Let me quote again from the same address: "The fear of State Universities and their eagerness to be free from sectarianism, together with their devotion to science, led them often to a narrow method of instruction in many subjects such as history and the humanities generally, since no adequate view of these subjects of instruction is possible while ignoring the place and function of religion in education and civilization. One of the misfortunes of education in our day is that most of our school histories ignore the religious element in the founding and building of our nation as completely as if it had never existed. The movements of God in human history, the influence of religious conviction born of the study of the Bible, the influence of moral ideals inspired by the Man of Nazareth, will some day be given their rightful place in the presentation of our national history, and for that we must look to the denominational college more than to any other source." In the interest of an intelligent American citizenship we must have institutions to keep alive the truth of our history, as well as the study of the Bible and religion, with allied subjects such as ethics and evidences of Christianity, which have been so largely eliminated from the courses of instruction in State Universities.

We must also insist that the Christian College represents the cause of education in any broad and comprehensive sense of the term. No reorganized definition of education will allow us to think of a broad and liberal education which leaves a part of human nature uninformed and undeveloped. The genius of our government has thus far forbidden the State institution to attempt anything in the way of formal religious instruction and training. Education is the development of the whole man, and just as long as present conditions exist our State institutions must work under a handicap and must be content to give an education which is confessedly defective in the highest things. The Christian College is the only institution in our land which can give a broad and liberal training by dealing with the whole of the man.

The Christian College represents the cause of the State. Let me again quote from President Thompson's address: "Under our terms of government expressed in Constitution and statutes, we have agreed that the State and Church shall be separate, but this does not deny the State's interest in religion. The Church is the recognized minister of religion. Without the aid of the school, the Church limits her own teaching power. The Church renders a most vital service to the State when she brings a generation to consciousness upon the importance of religion. * * * The study and investigations of our day have revealed clearly that the religious sanctions are fundamental in our morals. The Christian religion more than any other, has insisted upon the vital relation between religion and morals. The morality, the politics, the business and commerce that know not God and the binding force of religion in all the relations of life soon degenerate into mere expediency and later into lawlessness. The denominational college, more and better than any other institution among us, may bring to a generation the men who, representing this point of view, become the bulwark of our civilization." Thus Christian education is identified with the highest patriotism.

Last of all, the Christian College represents the cause of the Church. The first colleges in our land were founded to continue the succession of learned and Godly leaders in the Church. The leadership of our Church comes from the Christian College and not from the State institutions. Recent statistics reveal the sources of religious leadership in the following facts: State Universities give us 6.6 per cent of our theological students—our Church Colleges 80.9 per cent; State Universities have given us 7.1 per cent of our Missionary recruits—our Church Colleges, 84.3 per cent; our State Universities have furnished 6.3 per cent of our Home Missionaries—our Church Colleges, 84.8 per cent. Such statistics may not tell the whole tale of religious leaderships, but they are sufficiently informing to startle the Church into renewed interest on the subject of Christian education if there were no other motive than self-preservation.

The educational task of our churches, as far as that task may be termed extra-parochial, has been organized for us of Southern California in two directions and is represented by two institutions with which we are vitally connected and concerned. Our task as it has to do with the nation at large is performed through what we call the Board of Education. Through that Board we are engaged in aiding worthy and needy students in their efforts to secure an education; we are supporting and directing the mission schools among the mountaineers of the South; we are aiding our Methodist colleges, universities and secondary schools to meet their financial burdens and to maintain a higher degree of educational efficiency under modern conditions; we are promoting, or seeking to promote, the moral and religious care of Methodist young people in all institutions of learning everywhere; and we are seeking to unify and standardize our Methodist educational system so as to make it powerful in those directions in which the Church must aid the Nation and the World.

We help needy students by means of our Children's Day collections. That fund has grown out of free-will offerings taken in our Sunday Schools on the second Sunday of June. It can be used only for the one purpose—the aid of needy students. The invested fund for this purpose now amounts to over four hundred thousand dollars. Last year's contribution to the fund was $82,911. To this must be added $53,992, income from returned loans; $2,895, interest on outstanding loans; and $20,224, income from interest on the fund itself. Thus far in its history we have aided more than 21,000 students through this fund, and last year the number receiving our help was 2,100. This fund and the method of its operation has been untouched by any recent legislation. This mere statement of facts is sufficient to commend the fund to the pastors and people of all our churches.

We help needy institutions of learning by means of what is known as the Aid of Institutions Fund. This is found in our statistical columns as "Board of Education." The Commission on Finance has apportioned to this cause $135,000, or just about four cents per member for our churches. By recommendation of our committee and action of the Conference last year this fund is to be kept separate from our local educational interests. We again recommend that we assume the apportionment of four cents per member for the coming year in harmony with the action of the Commission on Finance, and that this be reported independently of any other educational collection. In this connection it should be added that this fund is for maintenance only, and is not designed to be used for endowments, buildings, grounds or other purposes. This work is the outcome of legislation by the General Conference of 1812 and is only at its beginning. It should, therefore, have the enthusiastic co-operation of all our pastors. It promises to be fruitful of good to the general cause of Methodism in our land.

The other institution through which we attempt to pay our educational debt as churches of this Conference, is the University of Southern California. Here under the administration of President George F. Bovard success continues to be an increasing burden. Our ministers who are the connecting links between this institution and the churches should have with them some items of information. In the College of Liberal Arts, the enrollment yesterday had reached the mark of 916. This does not include the students in the Preparatory Department. This means that the Liberal Arts before the close of the year will have an enrollment of more than 1000 students. In addition to this, a six weeks' summer session this year, enrolled 335 men and women, the number including more than 300 teachers in our public schools. The registration in the professional keeps up to the high mark reached last year. It is also a matter of profound gratification to the friends of the institution that the increase in numbers is attended by enhanced religious interest and a rising tide of spiritual life in the student body.

The Maclay School of Theology continues its service to the Church. In 1911 the Religious Education Association appointed a Commission to investigate the subject of the preparation of religious leaders in colleges and universities. That Commission reported among other things that it had propounded this question to the leading college presidents of the country: "Should higher institutions provide opportunities for religious workers similar to those which are now provided for doctors, lawyers and other professional men?" The answers received were overwhelmingly in the affirmative; 18 qualified answers; and only 9 "No." When it comes to such a preponderant sentiment among our educators for adapt courses for lay-workers, the necessity of provision for a trained ministry may be regarded as a closed question. There never was a time in the history of the Church when the pulpit had to meet such keen competition as today. It goes without saying that an equipped university only will be equal to the demands of the coming generation. It has been a matter of satisfaction to those who are acquainted with Maclay and its work, to hear the name of student after student as the District Superintendents unrolled the record of splendid achievements of the year in their annual reports. Some day the God-prospered laymen of the Church will realize that when they prepare a minister for his work they thus touch every interest of the Church. When that day of vision comes, we shall have here on the Pacific Coast a theological institution which shall be the peer of any in the land and it will bear the honored name of Maclay.

Your Committee recommends the continuance of the present apportionment of 35 cents per member for our local educational collection with the provision that two-sevenths of the amount collected shall go to the Maclay School of Theology. Your Committee further asks that the Conference requests the Board of Trustees of the University of Southern California to use the proceeds of the collection for the School of Theology in directly strengthening the work now being done by that school. We also urge our pastors to larger endeavor in behalf of their collection. We have increased our collections about 70 per cent in the past five years. Last year, omitting the membership under 15 years of age, our Conference collections ought to have brought $14,000 to the work of the University. Instead of this amount our receipts were only a little over $8,000. Surely we can make a handsome advance over that sum for the coming year.

It is a pleasure for your Committee that the long-anticipated campaign for increased endowment is at hand. The plans outlined by Mr. George I. Cochran and adopted by the Board of Trustees, are given the hearty endorsement of your Committee and presented for your approval and assurance of co-operation. The plan is for a three-year campaign to raise $500,000 for the University endowment. Of this amount $100,000 is to be for the Maclay School of Theology. The plan as devised, divides the $500,000 to be raised into ten classes of $50,000 each, as follows:

5	subscriptions	of$10,000.....	$50,000
10	"	 5,000.....	50,000
20	"	" 2,500.....	50,000

100	"	" 500.....	50,000
200	"	" 250.....	50,000

2000	"	" 25.....	50,000
	"	"Any Amount.....	50,000

Total$500,000

Each class of subscription is to be payable on three months notice after it has been fully subscribed. All subscriptions are to be in cash or its equivalent and the Committee is to be the sole judge thereof. Each class is to be numbered and each subscription in each class is to be numbered, this bringing the campaign to a definite program and a systematic basis. We believe the campaign as outlined to be timely and feasible and are calling upon the the Conference for its adoption and pledge of hearty co-operation. In this connection we note that the Board of Trustees have elected Robert J. Coyne to be Field Agent for the University, and your Committee recommends his appointment to that work by the presiding Bishop at this session of the Conference.

We believe that the clock of opportunity is striking the hour for the University of Southern California. We are not calling upon the friends of Christian education to try an experiment. We are summoning them to the strengthening and enlargement of an institution whose permanence is guaranteed. The University would live and work if it never received another dollar of aid. So much the fathers have assured. But it would present a fine example of arrested development and it would be the shame and not the glory of our administration. Let us call upon our people everywhere to remember the work of the University is an activity of the Church, and let every pastor of the Conference give cordial and continuous co-operation in the campaign, with the consciousness that in so doing he is serving the State, opening doors of opportunity for the young, preserving Christian ideals and conserving all the interests of the Church in which he is a minister.

MATT S. HUGHES.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS

The Sunday School may well be regarded as the most important single institution within the Church, and yields the largest returns for the investment of money and effort. It is well, therefore, that the institution that is giving our children their first and more important impressions of religion ought to receive our most careful consideration.

The past year over three thousand conversions have been reported from the Sunday Schools of the Conference, a marked increase over previous years. This is in keeping with the returns from the whole connection, indicating a steady increase in evangelistic efficiency within the Schools. The increase in the number of conversions throughout the Schools of the Church is relatively greater than the increase in enrollment. The graded course of instruction with its balanced educational emphasis need not lessen our appreciation of the full meaning of salvation from sin for the individual and for society. We believe the conviction is growing that teaching affords as good an opportunity for the expression of evangelistic passion as does preaching, and that evangelistic teaching as well as preaching will perpetuate the spirit of the fathers.

Another fact that points to the increased efficiency of the schools is that the average attendance is steadily creeping toward the enrollment.

For the work of the coming year we ask the Conference to adopt the following Plan of Campaign:

1. We urge the thorough organization of our schools for reaching the unschooled children. Let us not be deceived by our splendid total of 61,633 members of our Conference Schools; let us rather remember with shame that two out of every three children of school age in Southern California are receiving no systematic religious instruction.

2. We recognize as the imperative duty of the Church more adequate provision for the training of our teachers.

3. We ask our District Superintendents to urge in the First Quarterly Conferences the importance of the Sunday Schools, and to see to it that in all building enterprises adequate provisions be made for this work.

4. We earnestly commend to our churches the splendid work of our General Conference Board of Sunday Schools, with its record of great achievements in the past six years. We urge every school to set aside the ten per cent of the missionary offerings for this cause. In addition to the twenty-six missionaries in the Home Mission fields the General Board is responsible for missionaries in Sweden, Germany, Italy, Japan, China and the Philippine Islands.

5. That we ask the Program Committee for the next session of our Conference to secure a presentation of our Sunday School work.

6. That the Sunday School work in our Conference shall go forward we ask for a thorough organization along District lines. To this end, the members of the Conference Board of Sunday Schools from a given District shall be the District Board of Sunday Schools, whose duty it shall be to organize early in the year and plan for the pushing of the Sunday School work within the District. Recognizing the need of efficient leadership in this work we request the appointment of O. B. Waite as Field Secretary of the Conference Board of Sunday Schools for the coming year.

SPANISH-AMERICAN SCHOOL

At the Annual Conference of 1912, the report of Eli McClish, President of the Board of Trustees, showed that initial steps had been taken to secure a fund of $25,000 for the establishment of an Industrial School for Boys, and that an option had been obtained on 10 acres of land at Gardena.

During the Conference year, progress has been made. Subscriptions have been secured aggregating $25,150, of which amount nearly one-half has been paid. The 10 acres of land, with a good well and pumping plant, a six-room cottage, and other improvements, was purchased for $12,000.

On this property a two-story substantial building has been erected, with concrete foundation and plastered exterior. It is known as "Carson Hall," and is arranged as a home for 25 to 30 boys, with rooms for matron, a reception room, a library and a well-equipped school room. The cottage has been enlarged so that dining-room and kitchen are adapted to the use of the school. The work of construction was completed in September and the buildings furnished. On Thursday, September 25th, the school was opened. Thus a beginning has been made in the Christian industrial education of Spanish-speaking boys as a companion to the successful school for girls at Hollywood, conducted by the Woman's Home Missionary Society.

In addition to the elementary course of study, special training will be given in farming and gardening, also in carpentry and other trades.

With optimistic vision and untiring energy Vernon M. McCombs has devoted himself to the interests of this school. As Superintendent of the school, John P. Howe, with true missionary spirit, begins this helpful ministry to boys with confidence in its success. Already he faces the unpleasant necessity of refusing admission to the school, of boys who ought to be received if we were able to care for them.

The immediate and urgent need is for two more buildings, a dormitory for 35 boys and a cottage for the Superintendent. They must be built as soon as the necessary funds can be secured.

The growth of this school and the value of the work to be accomplished depends largely on the sympathy and personal interest of each member of the Southern California Annual Conference.

Assured of this, we go forward with confidence, asking God to guide and bless this too-long delayed endeavor to uplift and save the Spanish-American boys, of whom there are so many thousands within the bounds of this Conference.

FRANK S. WALLACE.
President Board of Trustees.

PUBLIC MORALS

The Church of Jesus Christ is the rightful teacher of morals and the only efficient teacher. Morals and religion cannot be divorced and the moral character of an individual or a community cannot rise above the religious character of that community or individual. The inefficiency of any institution or system of teaching, not Christian, lies in its lack of true religion. All efforts at reform that ignore the essentially religious, fail. Their failure makes the obligation on the Church the more binding. We, therefore, beg to submit the following report and recommendations:

1. There is need for the fearless teaching of Prophets who have had the vision of Jehovah and whose lips have been touched with the coal from off the altar. The Priest is not so much needed as is the sane and fearless teacher of truth revealed, concerning life and duty. Ours is not a day when the Prophets of God can dally with the Revelation made through Christ our Lord. We need to be as fearless and as faithful as were the Prophets of Israel or the early Christian Teachers.

2. There are evidences of an awakened public conscience, particularly in the realm of National and Municipal Government, resulting in the asserting of the rights and powers of the people where political machines have too long been dominant. Our own California cities are showing signs of this awakening, for which we should be thankful and take courage for renewed effort.

3. There is need for constant vigilance and sympathetic watchfulness on the part of the Church over the public schools of our respective communities. Christians, desirous of being very fair, may be guilty of neglect at this vital point. Other teachings ever ready to cry out viciously at even the mention of the name of Christ in our public schools, are themselves striving to be propagated in these very same schools. Our children are thus under distinct, non-Christian influences. Pantheism and anarchy may both be taught under attractive forms. It is our opinion that conditions in many public schools justify the calling on our pastors and laymen to a closer scrutiny of their work and teachings. The moral instruction in the public schools in some of our cities, Los Angeles included, seems to be sadly inadequate. The result of failure to properly teach moral truth will be reaped in tears in the future. We do not hesitate to speak in praise of much of the manual training work and work in other departments of these schools. But no degree of excellency in manual training or in all other departments can atone for the lack of true moral teaching. We must bring to bear all the influence we can to correct this situation and to supply this deficiency..

4. There should be a demand ever more insistant, for a single standard of purity for men and women. "The Conviction that no product of the world is so valuable as men is slowly taking command of thought in all civilized lands." The bringing into the world of fit children through holy and sacred marriage is honorable and blessed. There is no single menace to our race so fearful as that of unfitness as a result of disease. Too long have we demanded high standard of conduct for our women while we have looked leniently on the foibles of men.

A degraded manhood means a diseased manhood. And a diseased manhood means a diseased family and an unfit offspring. The very benefits of science and charity become curses in prolonging the lives of the unfit unless there be an arousing of our race to the sin and danger in bringing unfit children into being through the degraded selfishness of men. Contamination through lust results in the dragging of disease into the home. Human welfare demands vigorous action in the establishing of a single standard of purity.

5. We cannot escape our responsibility in the matter of the liquor traffic. It is our old and powerful enemy. We believe that its force is abating and that the not very distant future will witness its death. Our present call, however, is to battle with this foe. Fifty-one per cent of the people of United States of America live under prohibition. Less than twenty-five per cent of the people of California now live under prohbition, but there is progress in California.

6. We would call to your attention a condition that evidently was paralleled at the time of the writings of the General Rules of Methodism, viz. The extremes in style and extravagance in the matter of the dress of women. This is a thing regarding which we should speak out seriously and earnestly. The customs of society have changed as they affect women. More and more are young girls working in laundries, stores, factories, etc. They breathe an atmosphere that is at best not healthy; they find associations in which they hear much of dress and styles. The temptation to have fine dress overbears all too many. The mind of Christ, if we could but give him mastery, would teach us to be modest and simple and even in matters of dress to have regard for the weaker ones. Surely Christian women will seek to follow the mind of their Lord and to refrain from ostentation in dress for the sake of their poorer sisters.

7. There is at present an effort put forth to have the people of California vote on the question of eliminating prize fighting from the State. This effort should not only have our endorsement but every Methodist congregation in Southern California should be a vital part of the movement.

8. Progress is being made by the Divorce Commission toward the securing of better and uniform divorce laws. We would give expression of our sympathy with and willingness to co-operate in all wise movements looking toward proper control of marriage and divorce. The question of eugenics may well call for careful thought on the part of the leaders of the Christian Churches. Eugenics, must learn to know Him and to take Him as He is and ever more best thought.

9. There is to be submitted to the people of California, by the enemies of righteousness and through the referendum, the Red-Light-Abatement law, passed by the last legislature. It is our duty as church leaders to thoroughly familiarize ourselves with this question and to throw the weight of influence of our great Church toward the sustaining of this law.

10. We would recommend the appointing of two representatives from this body on the Inter-denominational Peace Committee of the Pacific Coast Churches. This is in harmony with the actions of other church bodies and the request of the said Peace Committee.

11. The report of the Methodist Temperance Society with headquarters at Topeka, Kansas, was before your Committee and we would recommend the endorsing of the work of that society by this Conference.

12. The General Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of America asks this Conference to endorse the Anti-Saloon League's declaration for National Prohibition and to elect two members and two alternates to attend as delegates the coming National Convention to be held at Columbus, Ohio, November 10-13 inclusive. Your Committee would recommend that both of the above requests be granted and that the delegates asked for be named by this body.

We rejoice to say that it is our firm conviction that the truth of our Lord and Saviour is making its way into ever enlarging sections of human life. The sanity and holiness and sweetness and poise of Christ are being more and more imparted to men. We must learn to know Him and to take Him as He is and ever more to bring every thought into subjection to His obedience. Of this we may be confident; the future belongs to Jesus Christ.

EDWIN P. RYLAND.

AGGRESSIVE EVANGELISM

Aggressive evangelism has been the aim of our Church as declared by each succeeding General Conference. This purpose was again expressed by our Board of Bishops in the last Episcopal Address, viz.: "We believe that God's design in raising up the Methodist Episcopal Church in America was to aid in evangelizing the continent and to spread Scriptural holiness over these lands."

Many of our leaders, including our Chief Shepherds, have warned us of the danger of losing the dominant note of evangelism.

Our Church is doing many important things along the lines of material and intellectual development of which we are proud; but unless we continue to win and save the souls of men in ever increasing numbers we will sadly fail to measure up to God's design for our Church in America. Methodism must be intensely evangelistic or it must die.

While our methods should and must be adapted to the condition of our times, we should not lessen the number, much less abandon our time honored special revival meetings, in which public appeal is made to sinners and the Church is trained in the art of soul winning. However, the Church must not depend entirely upon special revival periods. Individual and constant effort on the part of pastor and people will be necessary to maintain a normal, healthy and Pentecostal condition in the Church. We are told that after the Pentecostal revival in the early Church "There were added to the Church day by day those that were being saved."

We heartily endorse much of the effort within the Church which is sometimes called the work of "Social Salvation," but it must not stop short of the genuine conversion of those whom it seeks to help.

The coming of the Rev. F. Watson Hannon, D. D., from Drew Theological Seminary to this session of our Conference has been of great profit to us. His evangelistic sermons and addresses have been clear, convincing and uplifting. His presentation of the subject of evangelism has been intellectually high and spiritually deep.

We appreciate the several messages of our presiding Bishop, Edwin H. Hughes, D. D., LL. D., in which he has urged and encouraged evangelistic effort and efficiency.

One year ago your committee recommended and the Conference adopted a request that the Program Committee set apart some time each day during the session in the interest of evangelism. This has been well carried out, and we again request that the subject of evangelism be given some place on the daily program at our next session.

A. W. CUMMINGS.

STATE OF THE CHURCH

The present State of the Church is marked by signs of true devotion, unselfish sacrificing and abounding activities. The various organizations raised up within the Church are being successfully operated and are achieving great results. But certain well marked tendencies seem to menace the future, and to implead warning and entreaty.

There is great laxity of Church life in respect of Sabbath observance, which is deepening in many places toward Sabbath desecration. The multiplication of swift, commodious and comfortable methods of travel is drawing many families into habits of pleasure-seeking on that day which our Lord has commanded to be kept "holy."

The Church was once powerfully reinforced by the Christian fireside, where the reading of the Scriptures and daily prayer, in the home, gave impress, bias, and momentum to child life. We earnestly entreat our people to observe and cherish this time-honored means of grace.

The problem of holding children to the Sunday School hour and to the preaching service, where both occur the same forenoon, is difficult to solve. Yet if pastors and parents will work together in this matter great gains will occur to the Kingdom of Christ. Children ought to hear preaching. Pastors ought to preach in a way to interest and save children.

Great emphasis is being laid upon intellectual, social, and financial movements in the Church, and rightly so. But we believe the time has come when there is great need for the utmost emphasis of the spiritual note. Nothing else will maintain the strength of the Church itself. Nothing else will fortify our people against fads false religions. A good, genuine revival in every pastoral charge this year would set the Kingdom of Christ forward by leaps and bounds throughout the entire territory of Southern California. For this let us both pray and work.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

Some of us are tempted to say of people that seem useless or backward: "These many years we have looked to them in vain for fruit; away with them. Why do they cumber the ground?" The ninety-seventh report of the American Bible Society is notable as an argument which might silence such impatient mutterings.

The marvelous increase of demand for the Scriptures shown in the report of the American Bible Society justifies our opinion that this demand is new evidence of the likeness and unity of all nations.

The translation of the Scriptures and the revision of translations already made are noiseless works of the Bible Society, as expensive as they are important. During the year work has progressed in Siam, both in the Laos language and in Siamese; in South Africa, where the Zulu version is being thoroughly revised; in Bolivia, for Quechua Indians; and in Syria, where the Arabic version is being enriched by the issue of a large reference Bible under the supervision of the Rev. Dr. Hoskins of the Presbyterian Mission. Progress is steady also in the revision, at the expense of the Bible Societies jointly, of the Chinese Wenli and Mandarin versions; of the Portuguese Scriptures; of the Spanish version; of the Japanese version, and of the Korean version.

The receipts of the American Bible Society for the year ending March 31, 1913, were $601,966. Its expenditures for the same period were $757,942. This deficit shows without further explanation that the Society has been obliged to use a part of its available reserved funds to meet the cost of the work of the year. Although the usual items of the Society's income last year did not nearly make up the amount, the Board of Managers authorized expenditures for the year ending March 31, 1914, amounting to over $800,000.

METHODIST ASSEMBLY

The Trustees of our Methodist summer center are able to report the best year in its history.

The city of Huntington Beach has grown rapidly, and its progressive citizens have added a splendid pleasure pier and a modern system of street lighting to its attractions.

On our grounds the Tent City Company has erected a new headquarters building, and a spacious dining hall.

Two thousand Eucalyptus trees were planted last spring and already they have made our campus a sheltered grove. Our property is sharing in the enhanced value which comes from surrounding improvement. This year finishes our contract with the Huntington Beach Land Company, and will give us our valuable land without any obligations.

The gathering held this summer was attended by the largest numbers we have ever had. The mornings were devoted to the Sunday School Epworth League Institute. In its classes an eager throng of young people received training and inspiration for definite Christian service, and at its close over one hundred signed covenants to enter upon the ministry, deaconess work, home and foreign missions, personal evangelism, and proportionate giving to the support of the Kingdom.

In the afternoon a series of lectures was given on "The Doctrine of the Kingdom," by brethren of the Conference, under the direction of Dr. F. M. Larkin. They were largely attended and greatly appreciated by the people. The Evangelistic meetings were conducted for the third year by Brothers Brown and Curry. Under the searching Gospel which they preached, many turned to God for a new life, and the sermons and songs of the Camp ground will long move believers to righteousness. The one note of sadness which pervaded the camp was occasioned by the absence of the loved founder of the Assembly and President of this Board, Dr. John L. Pitner, who was translated during the year. May his memory bless the Church.

It has been reported that two other Christian denominations contemplate the establishment of gatherings like ours in the same city. With these in prospect, with the rapid growth of Huntington Beach, and the increasing population of Southern California ever seeking an outlet to the sea in the summer time, the outlook for our Assembly is brighter than ever before.

This institution offers the hope of Methodism to rescue our people from the common dissipations of summer resorts, by directing them to this gathering where instruction, inspiration and evangelism are mingled in the atmosphere of Christian recreation and fellowship.

CHAS. H. SCOTT,

Secretary of Board of Trustees.

SOCIAL SERVICE

The year has been one of constant and strenuous work seriously handicapped by very limited financial resources. Our Methodist Social Service work must be made a part of our connectional benevolences.

The Secretary has been given loyal support by all the pastors. Our Churches, Brotherhoods, and Young Peoples' Societies have enthusiastically received the Social Service message.

During the year the Secretary has traveled about 30,000 miles, speaking in 80 churches in 75 different cities and towns. Seventy-five sermons and 140 addresses have been given. Over 20,000 Social Service leaflets and pamphlets have been distributed. Two thousand copies of the booklet, "The Church and Labor Problem" distributed, one hundred copies of the book, "The Social Creed of the Churches" distributed. Eighteen hundred letters have been sent out.

Two trips were made to Sacramento in the interest of social legislation. We worked for the passage of the following bills which became laws: Minimum Wage Commission, Red Light Injunction and Abatement Act, Extension of Eight-hour Law for Women, Immigration and Housing Commission, Act in Relation to Pandering, Aid for Mothers of dependent children. The One-Day Rest in Seven Bill was lost. The Anti-Prize-fight Bill was lost by two votes.

Perhaps the most important feature of the year's work was the Social Service Tour of the State during January, 1913, by Secretary Harry F. Ward. Dr. Ward and the Secretary held campaigns in twenty-five cities and towns. Mr. Ward's addresses were especially helpful in bringing about a better understanding between the Church and Labor.

California should have a law giving industrial workers one day's rest in seven.

We would urge our pastors to co-operate in every possible way with the State Industrial Accident Board and the Industrial Welfare Commission.

The church must make effective the "Social Creed of the Church." We must make our actions conform to our resolutions, or we invite the charge of insincerity.

The General Conference of 1912 declared: "In its capacity as employer and landlord, through its Book Concern, educational institutions, denominational boards, and other business agencies, the Church should give a practical demonstration of Christian standards. It should lead and not merely keep pace with the best practices of modern business in matters of hours and wages, in provision for sickness and old age, in developing the principle of co-operation both in management and in the division of proceeds."

In order that we may be consistent with the declarations of our General Conference and in harmony with the action of the California Conference, and in order that we may take our part and place in the battle now on for the defense of the industrial classes against exploitation and in view of the fact that we are at present alienating large numbers of industrial workers, particularly in Los Angeles and San Francisco, and bearing in mind the fact that our Book Concern is not primarily a commercial enterprise and does not fall fully within rules that fairly apply to institutions intended for money-making purposes, still we would ask the management of the Book Concern, if it be found possible consistently with its efforts to aid our retired preachers by means of the proceeds of the business, to have such publications as represent the life of the church published in union shops. We further believe that these principles should control in the other publications of the church.

We recommend:

First—for the Conference: That we use every effort to secure the enactment of the Red Light Abatement Law and the Anti-Prize-Fight Law at the next general election. That we co-operate with the State Industrial Accident Board and the State Industrial Welfare Commission in their efforts to better the living conditions of the workers. That we investigate the question of seven-day labor in order that we may secure a practicable One-Day Rest in Seven Law.

Second—for the Local Church: That every pastor study the social needs of his community and lead his church, co-operating with other agencies in meeting those community needs. The attention which has recently been given to the problem of the rural church and community makes it possible for every church, no matter where located, to enter into this wider ministry.

We believe that all the organizations of the local church should assume some definite tasks in social service. The Sunday School should concern itself with child welfare, the Epworth League with the general conditions of life, the questions of education, culture, recreation and amusement of the young people, the women's organizations with the general needs of the girls and women of the community, and the Brotherhood should engage its men in civic action for community welfare.

E. P. RYLAND.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

The Epworthians are a growing, enthusiastic and militant host among us. During the past year they have added 368 to their numbers, have fostered the vital piety of all our young people, directed their great energy into channels of Christian service, and furnished them a social and recreational life which expresses the spirit of Christ.

We were favored this year with the presence of our two chief leaders. General Secretary Dr. W. F. Sheridan visited our Conference in February, and holding two-day rallies in nine different places, gave most of our Leaguers an opportunity to hear and know him. Dr. Dan B. Brummitt, editor of the Epworth Herald, was one of the Instructors at the Huntington Beach Institute, and also spoke in a number of our churches, and to nearly five hundred Leaguers, at a banquet in Los Angeles.

The greatest single enterprise of the Epworthians continues to be the work for the Mexicans. It has been aggressively undertaken by each of the Districts, and over $1500 has been contributed to its support.

The financial help is but an index to the spiritual interest which they feel. They are seeking and finding the conversion of the Mexican people to Christ. Largely through their efforts, Brother McCombs and his colaborers are being enabled to discover to us our greatest Missionary field in our very door yard. Success already embarrasses its leaders, but there can be no retract. They must be encouraged until this work which began by receiving a few hundred dollars from the Leaguers, shall receive thousands from the Church at large, and the few scattered Mexican Christians shall become an evangelized race. It is well for the Leaguers to start it, and continue to do their best, but it is too big a task for one arm of the Church. It will require the best efforts of the whole body to carry it to success.

Many of the Leagues are also carrying on Missionary work in the foreign fields. These need to be encouraged, and others incited to follow their example. For the past three years the San Diego and Pasadena District Leagues have carried on a school in Borneo. It must not be abandoned. Pledges to it should be continued until it is fully and permanently self-supporting.

The Los Angeles District subscribes for more copies of the Epworth Herald than any other District in Methodism. We ought to seek to put this inspiring paper in every home where there are young people.

Again we call your attention to the need of pastoral co-operation with the League. Every pastor should occupy his place in the League Cabinet, not to suppress, but to direct its energies.

The Epworth League is the normal place to direct the attention of our young people to our University of Southern California. We recommend that students and professors from the University be brought before the Leagues as often as possible, that the literature of the University be distributed among them, and that every means be used which will center their educational interest there.

It is the plan of the Leagues of our Methodism to specially emphasize personal evangelism during the coming year. A week has been set apart for a special campaign during November. We call upon our pastors to enter promptly and fully into this plan, and to make the most of it as an opportunity to urge our Leaguers into this vital form of Christian service. CHAS. H. SCOTT,

President of Conference Board.

BENEVOLENCES

A three-fold obligation urges the Church on to larger benevolence:

First—The laymen have been chagrined by the insufficient offering of the Church for the spread of the Kingdom. The recent Laymen's Association of this Conference deplores the fearful fact that for all current and benevolent expenses we are giving much less than one-half of the tithe. These earnest men, with farsighted vision, are ready to be led to larger achievements.

Second—The educational opportunities are pregnant with intense peril. At least six men ought to lay on the altar of the church $50,000 each to save the Christian College of Southern California for its task. The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension needs at least $100,000 extra this coming year, to finance the undeveloped field of California. The Freedmans Aid Jubilee Fund is a burden we cannot evade. If a few colored Conferences can raise $100,000 extra, will the great group of white Conferences be found wanting in raising the other $400,000?

Third—The non-Christian world is watching the churches, to see how far they are going to face these problems and force a settlement. One purpose which must be in the life of the Church and prominent in its rallying cry for 1914 is to raise as much for others as for ourselves. Not less than a tithe, and a free-will offering in addition, for special Macedonian opportunity.

1. The apportionment of the benevolences to every member of the Church, without regard to an age limit, thus encouraging each one, young or old, to assume a share of the burden.

2. Systematic education in the Sunday School, on Christian Stewardship, tithe covenant, and present-day problems and a more general use of the Duplex Envelopes. It takes constant culture, but it will yield results.

3. Endorsing the Christian Stewardship plan, and the tithe covenant, as announced in the advance program, for the Methodist Men's Convention.

4. A copy of the California Christian Advocate in every home of a church official and Sunday School teacher, at least, and in every home of the Church, if possible.

5. The re-appointment of Dr. A. N. Fisher as Field Secretary of systematic beneficence in this Conference, where, during the past year, he gave his earnest message to many of our churches, with profit and honor. We hold with the recent General Conference that "God's ownership and man's stewardship are best evidenced by the systematic application of a portion of all income to the advancement of the kingdom." Dr. Fisher's address is 71 South Euclid Avenue, Pasadena.

6. A fearless and urgent call of the Church to meet every apportionment for the coming year, as the least that ought to be striven for or expected.

CHAS. WENTWORTH.

DEACONESS BOARD

COAST SIDE CAMP MEETING

The property held by the Coast Side Camp Meeting Association at Arroyo Grande belongs to California Methodism. The Association consists of the pastor and two laymen from each of the eight pastoral charges that belong to the Coast Side section of the Fresno District. The property consists of a little more than thirty acres of land within the corporate limits of Arroyo Grande, a conservative estimate of the value of which is $2500. In the center of this tract of land, dotted with shade trees, stands a spacious, well furnished tabernacle and dining hall, the value of which is approximately $3000. The Association owns its own pumping plant and water system, and this year added a goodly number of tents to its camping equipment. The value of the entire plant is $7500. The indebtedness is $1000.

The camp meeting was held this year June 7-22. Among those who preached or lectured or rendered efficient service as class instructors were Dr. Charles Edward Locke of Los Angeles, District Superintendent John Oliver, Rev. F. G. H. Stevens, Dr. Oren B. Waite, Mrs. Alverta Dundas, Mrs. Bodkin and Miss Spaulding. Rev. G. LeRoi Clarke conducted the evangelistic services, and Brother Martindale Woods, a son of our Dr. Charles Coke Woods of Ontario, was our leader of song. Souls bowed at the altar and sought and found Christ, and the services strengthened character and were a real inspiration to the many who were privileged to be present.

Large plans have been made for the new year. It is the purpose of the Association to devote one week to Chautauqua and two weeks to camp meeting. Bishop Hughes has already promised to be with us to preach and lecture, and we expect to have a most attractive and inviting program to offer to the people, and believe that this new plan will mark an epoch in the history of this enterprise.

J. NARVER GORTNER.

SEQUOIA PARK CAMP MEETING

The San Joaquin Valley part of the Fresno District was, until Nov. 23, 1911, without a camp ground. On that date the Sequoia Park Camp-Meeting Association was organized, $200 raised to bind the trade, and the camp ground, consisting of forty acres was purchased at a cost of $3150. Of this amount $1000 has been raised and the balance borrowed from a bank. This year fifteen acres have been added at a cost of $400. The directors have erected a rustic tabernacle, dining hall, bought mattresses and cots, put in a water system, provided splendid recreation grounds, and procured swimming pools. The grounds with these improvements have cost $4,987, and are now valued at $6,847, against which there are outstanding notes for $2,550.

The Sequoia Park Camp Ground is located at the junction of the Middle and the North branches of the Tule River, one and one-quarter miles above Springville, is fifteen hundred feet above sea level; is at the gateway of the high Sierras, where three canyons meet and lofty mountains rise on all sides. The camp ground possesses two large knolls, one of which admirably meets the need of slope for seating in the tabernacle, and two famous soda springs furnish healthful drink.

This year's camp meeting was under the wise and able leadership of our District Superintendent John Oliver. It was honored by our highly esteemed Bishop, Edwin H. Hughes, who in a great address on the fourth of July, struck patriotic fire, and in a sermon thrilled the hearts of all and stirred penitential sorrow that brought sinners to the altar for salvation. Rev. C. H. Haudenschild was secured as an evangelist, Prof. C. A. Potts as a singer and Mrs. Potts as a pianist.

This Camp Ground is held by a Membership Association, incorporated March 6, 1912, and is run as a Methodist Camp Ground for the Fresno District, subject to the discipline and usages of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and may also be used for Epworth League or Sunday School gatherings, Chautauqua and other religious and educational meetings.

HARRY S. RYDER, Secretary.

HOSPITAL

The Christian Hospital has become one of the greatest philanthropic institutions of the Church for the twentieth century. Literally millions of dollars have been flowing into the coffers of the Church in the last ten years for this form of Christian philanthropy. The Christian Churches have been ministering to hundreds of thousands of sufferers through the Christian Hospital. The purpose of the Christian Hospital is to offer the best service that the highest medical skill and the tenderest Christian love can render, at a moderate price to those who are able to pay, a discount to those who need it, and free service to the destitute as far as possible. The only profit from the Christian Hospital is the profit in service to those who suffer. The only dividends paid are the dividends paid in loving service to suffering humanity. Every dollar of profit from the pay patients, as well as all income from endowment, goes to aid in caring for those who are in distress.

The Methodist Hospital of Southern California, in entering upon its great work of Social Service, is not trying an experiment, but is following in the beaten paths of success of the Hospital work in the great Methodist Episcopal Church with her millions of dollars invested in this form of Christian philanthropy. It has also the prestige of success of her sister denominations in their Christian Hospital work.

The success of our Hospital work during the past year has surpassed our highest hopes and our broadest expectation. The Board of Directors have secured sufficient funds to begin the construction of the Administration Building, which will cost about $100,000. The first contract on this building will be let immediately. The Field Superintendent, J. C. Elliott, will give the financial report for the Hospital.

Over fourteen hundred patients have been treated in the Methodist Hospital. During ten months of the past year, three hundred and thirty-one patients were treated. Three hundred and fifty children have been born in the maternity department. Seventy-five of these were born during the past year.

Your Committee on Hospitals presents the following recommendations:

"We recommend that a Hospital Sunday be observed in every charge.

"That the members of the Conference aid in every way the erection of the proposed $100,000 building, which is badly needed to meet the growing demands.

"That according to the recommendations of the discipline regarding hospitals, this Conference, by formal vote, become the patron of this worthy institution.

"That J. C. Elliott, whose consecrated financial skill, has been devoted to our work for the past years as Field Superintendent, and who has been unanimously requested to serve another year in the same capacity by the Board of Directors of said Hospital, be so appointed by the presiding Bishop."

MISSIONS

No phase of Christian work more fully exemplifies the altruism of Jesus Christ than the work of Missions, whether Home or Foreign, and yet there is no work of the Church which is paying larger dividends in spiritual results.

The quick returns from the small investment and consecrated service in the Spanish work in our Conference are but an illustration. The fact is being emphasized by all our Missionaries that we have come to a time of crisis in the task of Christianizing the world. All the Orient is in transition. The old religions have lost their hold. Large re-inforcements are needed at once. In India, China and Korea the missionaries are unable to baptize many thousands who are asking baptism, because they have no one to instruct the candidates.

In view of this great need we rejoice that our Conference stands well toward the head of the list in the matter of giving to missions, and that in the past year, with its adverse conditions, another increase upon the already large giving is reported. Our increase for the year for Home and Foreign Missions is $7778, and the total now reaches the goodly sum of $76,628, which added to the totals for the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies makes a grand total for Missions for the year of $165,209.

And yet, when measured by the standard of the world's need and what God requires of us, we still fall short.

The number of our members who give little or nothing to Missions is still large, and the gifts of many of those who do contribute are far too small. Any form of systematic giving which will increase the number of givers as well as the amounts of individual contributions is to be heartily commended, but we record again our profound conviction that the work of spreading the Kingdom of God over the world can never be adequately carried on until God's financial plan is adopted and all our people give one-tenth of their income, as a minimum, to God's work.

Resolutions

Resolved, that a special committee of five, consisting of the President of the Association and four others named by him, be authorized to consider the matter of the revision of the Constitution of the Association and to recommend to the annual meeting in 1914 such changes as they may consider wise. This action is recommended in harmony with a similar action taken by the Laymen's Association of the California Conference and with a view of giving the organization a more continuous character and enlarging the scope of its usefulness.

Resolved, that this committee be authorized to suggest a program of work for the Association, covering several years, with the purpose of providing for addresses and discussions that will bring specifically to the attention of the laymen each year one or more of the important interests of the Church.

Resolved, that we request the Annual Conference to take action formally inviting the Board of Bishops and the general committees of the Church to meet in California in 1915.

Resolved, that the delegates from this Conference to the meeting of Methodist Men in Indianapolis be authorized, in behalf of this Association, to extend a cordial invitation to that organization to meet in California in 1915.

Whereas, the cause of Christian education is one of the most important committed to the Church, and the University of Southern California is our great responsibility and opportunity, therefore,

Resolved, that we hail with joy the rapid growth and increased prosperity of our University; that we acquire the habit of often speaking of it favorably and recommending it to students.

Resolved, that we are in hearty accord with the purpose and approve the plans of the Board of Trustees to secure the sum of $500,000 as a building and endowment fund, and that we will cheerfully contribute to this fund according to our means.

Whereas, the veteran ministers of our Conference who have given their years of strength to the service of our church ought to be adequately provided for when advancing years or ill health compel their retirement.

Resolved, that we laymen pledge ourselves to increased effort in their behalf, and that we ask the President of this Association to appoint a committee of five laymen to confer with a like committee of the Annual Conference, if the Conference so approve, with the end in view of considering plans for more active co-operation of the laymen with the ministers in building up to satisfactory proportions our Conference Annuity Endowment Fund.

Resolved, that this Association extend its most hearty congratulations to Redlands, Long Beach, Ventura, Santa Barbara and other communities within the bounds of the Conference in which notable victories have been won for temperance within the past year and that we pledge the laymen of the Southern California Conference to an unrelenting warfare against the saloon until not only every community in this Conference, but also the entire State, is freed from the blighting curse of the liquor traffic.

E. P. CLARKE,
M. M. PARKER,
Committee.

L. C. Dale introduced the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Whereas, Professional Prize-Fighting has been and still is a menace to the moral, social and physical life of California, and

Whereas, the Boxing Contests, falsely so named by the promoters who labor solely from selfish and personal motives, are creating false ideals of manhood and of future occupations for the rising youth of our land, and are cultivating brutality and crime in our midst, therefore, be it

Resolved, that this Laymen's Association heartily endorse the present movement by petition to place the Prize-Fight question on the ballot at the State election in November, 1914, that the people at large may decide the attitude to be assumed by the State of California in relation to this great evil.

It was moved, seconded and carried that the Lay Association have a program covering a day and an evening.

A vote of appreciation was given for the use of the Presbyterian Church.

Adjournment.

MRS. G. E. FOSTER,
Secretary.

A Savings Bank Investment

Savings Banks are closely restricted by law as to the character of their investments, and so strict are these laws that an investment which meets the requirements is to be regarded as the highest standard of safety.

The great bulk of the funds of savings banks are invested in the same kind of mortgages as those bought and sold by this Company.

Ask for our list of choice local first mortgages in amounts from $500.00 up, everyone producing 6 per cent net to the investor.

In Memoriam

BISHOP ROBERT MCINTYRE

As I stepped out of the Hotel Metropole at Catalina, Monday morning, August 31, to buy a paper a friend met me with the startling announcement, "Bishop McIntyre is dead!" I was shocked and dazed as were all of you with the sudden translation of our dear friend and brother, and Bishop of our noble Church.

When the gallant soldier Abner the friend of King David was slain, the King said, "Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?" So I said when I heard that Robert McIntyre had gone up for his crown.

The fragrance of his memory is exquisite and abiding in this Conference and in Southern California. He was a prodigious worker of remarkable gifts, and no doubt hastened his end by his over-abundant labors in the Master's vineyard. The multitudes followed upon the ministry of this eloquent and captivating apostle of righteousness; and the Southern California Conference is especially sadly bereaved.

Our tenderest prayers and unstinted affection go out toward Mrs. McIntyre and her heart-broken family.

Heaven is still further enriched to us by his presence there, and life and its opportunities are made more sacred to us here.

May the Heavenly Father bless to our spiritual advancement all these sad dispensations of his gentle providences.

For nearly six years he was a dearly beloved and increasingly popular pastor and preacher among us, he stepped from its ranks to the larger honors and responsibilities of the Episcopacy.

The story of his life reads like the annals of romantic chivalry.

Robert McIntyre was of sturdy Scotch Presbyterian ancestry and was born at Selkirk, Scotland, November 20, 1851. As a little lad he came with his parents to America and lived for a time in Philadelphia. A little later his dear mother died. It was necessary for him as he grew older to assist his father in the support of the family; and he assumed the entire responsibility when he was seventeen years of age because of the sudden death of his father.

On the threshold of his public life as this young, ambitious chevalier was issuing forth as a somewhat daring defender of the false theories of infidelity, he had a vision of the Christ whom he was seeking to persecute; and after an honest inquiry, "Who art Thou Lord?" the young brick mason reverently asked, "Lord what wilt thou have me to do?"

This young Saul of Tarsus went bravely and gallantly forward nothing daunted. He spent the next year 1877 at Vanderbilt University, and in December of that same year was united in marriage to a beautiful Christian girl, a minister's daughter, to whom, next to his Christ, he often declared, he owed more than to all other influences combined, for any success which he enjoyed in the ministry.

In 1878 he was admitted into the Rock River Conference and was appointed to Easton, Ill., where he built with his own hands the little brick Church in which he first preached.

After ten years he was invited to leading Churches; and commenced his remarkable career which culminated in Chicago, Denver and Los Angeles. In 1908 at the General Conference in Baltimore he was chosen one of the Chief Shepherds of the great Methodist Episcopal Church.

He was what is sometimes erroneously called a selfmade man, but unlike the charge which John Bright made against D'Israeli, he did not worship his maker; for with all his colossal personality and extraordinary gifts, Robert McIntyre was a man of modest spirit. His reserve could be attributed to his modesty and not to his pride, for while he was a well-poised man who was sufficiently sure of himself, yet he possessed a natural restraint which was the result of his true humility.

In his strong and striking character, dignity and simplicity, reserve and frankness, seriousness and humor, imagination and reality, vigor and gentleness, were combined in such excellent balance as to produce a personality of unusual symmetry, and grace and power. He had a warm and tender heart, and was fervently loved by those who knew him intimately.

His always hopeful optimism made him a modern Isaiah who did not fail to rebuke the evils of the present, but confidently looked forward to the triumph of all righteousness.

In common with many true prophets he possessed to a marked degree the poetical instinct, and in his preaching he was able to carry his congregation in triumphs of faith and joy to Pisgah's exhilarating summits where the promised land was not only revealed but could be promptly entered.

Robert McIntyre was pre-eminently a preacher. While he was a prophet, and a mystic, and a poet, yet he stayed with the crowd, and he would talk to them in familiar and persuasive voice.

He loved the common people and never forgot them. He once said to a newspaper interviewer that if he ever felt any undue swelling of pride because of his humble successes, he always looked at his mason's trowel which he kept in a conspicuous place over his study table, and which reminded him of his lowly beginnings.

He loved the common things of which one day in exquisite meter he sang:

"There never was park like the prairie lawn,
Nor symphonies like the ocean's song,
Nor picture to match the amethyst dawn—
These blessings to all of our kind belong!

Heaven send us a prophet with wit to teach
Our race, which to folly so fondly clings,
That all that is good is within our reach,
The cream of life is the common things."

He had a fond lover's devotion for Jesus his Saviour, the Carpenter of Nazareth. One of his last and best poems is entitled "The Nazareth Shop."

"I wish I had been His apprentice, to see Him each morning at seven,

As He tossed His gray tunic far from Him, the Master of earth and of heaven.

When He lifted the lid of His work chest and opened His carpenter's kit

And looked at His chisels and augurs, and took the bright tools out of it

While He gazed at the rising sun tinting the dew on the opening flowers

And smiled as He thought of His Father, whose love floods this planet of ours.

When He fastened His apron about Him, and put on His workingman's cap,

And grasped the smooth haft of His hammer, to give the bent woodwork a tap,

Saying, "Lad, let us finish this ox yoke. The farmer must put in his crop."

O, I wish I had been His apprentice, and worked in the Nazareth shop.

If you would get a glimpse into the secret emotions and soul-aspirations of this good man, listen to him as he wrote one day:

"Of all the imps of perdition that ever came up through the hatches of woe to afflict the earth, I dread most the Devil of the callous heart. He crucified Christ, stoned Stephen, beheaded Paul, butchered the Bethlehem babes, and walks the world today sowing seeds of pride, selfishness, bigotry and aloofness everywhere. O God! If only one prayer of mine shall have pinions strong enough to mount to thy auditory, if only one cry of my soul shall have access to thy favor, it will be this, 'Deliver me from the stony heart, keep me warm, tender, liberal, neighborly, generous toward all people who on earth do dwell.'"

With all his extraordinary gifts as lecturer and poet and literateur, he was indeed pre-eminently a preacher. His pulpit was his throne, and his lasting fame will rest upon his ability to persuade and convince men to forsake their sins and accept salvation through Jesus Christ. He was a perfect wizard with words and saw pictures which he was able to reproduce in resplendent rhetoric with the facile skill of a masterful artist; and especially when he indulged in delineations of the Christ and of immortality did his transcendent powers reach the climaxes of true genius and entrancing eloquence.

In his farewell sermon as pastor of the First Church, Los Angeles, (June 21, 1908), after his election to the Episcopacy this humble preacher of phenomenal gifts, said:

"I have come to the parting, more honored than any man, far above my deserts, for I want to say to you, with an emphasis that shall carry it into your consciousness that you may hear it; that I am not worthy of the least of all that the church or the people have done for me. I am a plain man, a common man, an average man, an ordinary man; I bow my head in humility, but I lift it again and add, my lips trembling, 'But He who leads me knows my heart.' I am God's man; I have been for many years utterly so. I have no will of my own, have not had for a long while, but I have sunk down deep into the life of God in these latter days, and now I know beyond all doubt that He leadeth me. I will never doubt him again, no matter what faces me, or opposes me. I will say, O God, I cannot doubt the One who has brought me thus far; lead Thou me on."

Robert McIntyre was a good man, of sincere, and spotless, and transparent character, a fond husband and a father, a faithful friend, a rapturous patriot, a versatile scholar, a brilliant and ingratiating preacher, and an humble and holy disciple of Jesus Christ his Lord. Such men are a vindication of Divine Wisdom in creating man.

This knight errant who in his youth had vanquished unbelief and poverty, and in his maturity made a long, losing fight against the encroachments of insidious disease, never quailed or quivered before inexorable death. He seemed to live on good terms with this supposed arch enemy of human happiness. One day in his pulpit in Los Angeles he had a confidential conversation with him as in the course of his sermon he said:

"Dear old Death, we sometimes call you by the harshest and cruelest names, but you are one of our best and truest friends!"

When the billows of fatal illness began to roll over his soul and the angry waves of suffering dashed high against the humble magnificence of his noble genius; and death uninvited and ruthlessly crept toward him with the stealth and cunning of a thief; and the firm foundations of life began to crumble into sinking sands, he did not abandon himself to unutterable agony and woe, but he appropriated to himself the sublime assurances of God's own Word: "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on thee."

In response to some expression of fondest affection from the dear companion of his adversities and his triumphs, he answered, "Lovely." It was his last word, sublime in its poetic music and eloquent in tender ministry; "Lovely," a fitting finale for those lips over which like rills along mossy dells had flowed the sweetness and light of the poet-preacher's great soul.

And he rested his tired head in his hand upon the pillow, and went to sleep; adopting as his own the sweet comfort and true consolation of the One who said: "Our friend Lazarus sleepeth."

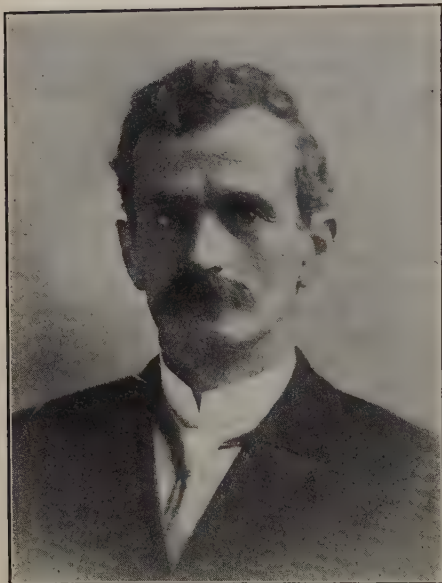

"The stars shine over the earth,
The stars shine over the sea;
The stars look up to the mighty God,
The stars look down on me.
The stars have lived a million years,
A million years and a day;
But God and I shall love and live
When the stars have passed away."

For death is not tragedy but triumph; not despair but hope; not a sob but a song; not the twilight but the morning; not death at all, but Life—all Life and Life forever more! Thank God! It is the death of death, and the birth of life everlasting!

"Thanks to be God which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ," who said, "Because I live ye shall live also."

CHAS. EDWARD LOCKE.

ARTHUR EDWARD JOHNSON

The men who knew Arthur Edward Johnson, saw in him the prophet, the man who saw visions and who was not disobedient unto them, the man who dreamed dreams and made them live in the character of himself and others.

In his veins flowed the blood of three races. On his mother's side his people were of the Scotch type, while from his father he inherited the sterling qualities derived from men who made England supreme on the sea.

Early surroundings helped to put the iron in his blood. His birthplace was St. Mary's, near Parkersburg, in the debatable ground that was then Old Virginia, but within the next months became West Virginia. The time of his coming was February 23, 1857, when families in that section were split asunder by the electric storms of men's passion and a state's rebellion. His family chose the cause of the Union and for that they suffered and soon removed to Ohio, settling on a farm near Hockingport. Here he received the training of body and mind which later stood him in such good stead in the toil of the pastorate.

The parents were formerly in the Methodist and Protestant Episcopal churches, but during his boyhood worshipped in the nearest church, which was of the Congregational faith.

As he emerged from boyhood into young manhood he felt the need and the value of religion. Following his convictions, an early and always present trait, he and his chum joined the Methodist Episcopal Church on probation and later were received into full connection, although both made it plain that they had not been converted. But to them the church stood for the type of life which they wanted. That same winter they were both soundly converted at that same Methodist altar.

To him Christianity meant service. Not surprising then is it that the same winter saw him as the superintendent of a country Sunday school some distance from home, and that in the first Sunday school class that he taught was his youngest brother, who was later converted and is now a prominent member of the N. E. Ohio Conference.

To a man of such type conversion was but the beginning of his Christian life. Soon he had the old temper to fight and because he knew how to go forward better than backward, he did the former. The doctrine of a full and complete salvation from sin had not been preached in his presence. He wanted it, that was all, and he started to secure it. But the devil told him that if he was to give up all he must give up his education. See what that meant to this lover of knowledge who pored over books before the fireplace of that country homestead. And he, the son of a man who, himself a judge, had chosen the law for his son.

But he went over completely to his God. And in the glow of that fireplace he heard and answered the call to the Christian ministry. Let me repeat that he had never heard holiness or entire sanctification preached. So he won an experience rather than a doctrine and ever afterwards to us who knew him he so fully lived the Christ life and had in him the mind that was in Christ Jesus that he needed not to label himself or his experience.

Like a Saul he felt that the call to preach meant the call to the quiet of Arabia. Two years in teaching, a college course in the National University at Lebanon and two years at Drew Theological Seminary, found him eager for the hand to hand fight of the Christian warrior.

Going to his own state of Ohio fresh from school he supplied until the meeting of the conference, when he entered the Ohio Conference in the fall of 1884. The Whipstown Circuit with its six preaching places and its 250 square miles of territory, was a good field to test out this young theologian. He answered the challenge by adding two preaching appointments to the six and building a brick church in his first year.

The next year he was assigned to Frazeyburg and better prepared himself by calling to his help the woman of his choice, Miss M. Aurilla Piper, and together they ministered.

Perhaps they knew how to minister the better because the sorrows of life touched them as the children came and tarried a bit, then went home to God. So we can repay to Mrs. Johnson and the two daughters at this time some of the love and sympathy which they have passed on to others.

His third appointment was at Third St., Columbus, when such men as Hutsenspiller at Towne St., and I. H. McConnell, father of our presiding officer, at Third Ave. helped to set a high standard. In his second year at this city church he had 115 accessions. Three years at Malta saw his health broken during a revival meeting the second winter.

A four year's term at Sixth St., Portsmouth, followed by a year at Washington Court House brought him to the greatest pastorate in his life, at Newark. A revival of sweeping power revealed as its tangible results 250 clear conversions, and 100 definite experiences of sanctification besides a thank offering gift of $5000 for a new pipe organ. During his five year term he received almost 600 persons into the church.

But the pace was killing and after a year on the Gallipolis district he was compelled to ask for a Supernumerary relation in the fall of 1903.

Within a few days he was in Southern California and had seen a presiding elder and asked for supply work. He remarked to him, "I'm good for ten years' work yet." He was a seer in his prophecy. A year at San Luis Obispo two years at Sawtelle, where a neat church in that hard field told of his daring toil, two years at Alamitos Park (now Grace) Long Beach, four years at Glendora with a new parsonage built, and a year at Marengo Ave., Alhambra, with another new parsonage, told the tale of the years. Ten years to a day from the time he entered California he went out to the eternity of service before the great white throne.

In the last days there was no fear. How true was his saying, that he was in perfect peace with God, as far as he knew in perfect peace with all mankind, and in perfect peace with his record. Well does the Board of Stewards remember his statement as he appeared before you last fall, not with a plea but with a bare yet manly declaration, "I have given myself wholly to the ministry."

This brother of ours was a preacher. He preached the word and gloried in it. Often he said to his wife, "I expect to hear from that sermon on the Judgment Day," and he will. He taught the word. For from his earliest ministry he gathered about him the probationers' classes, and organized the young people before the initiation of any great young folk's movement.

He lived the Word. For he hid it in his heart and it was sweet to his soul and he did not hesitate to declare the whole counsel of God.

He was a pastor. He knew the people and he shared their lives. Therefore they loved and followed him "for a stranger will they not follow."

He was a student. The devil tried to tell him that he must give up an education but Christ proved the devil a liar. His was a choice library, and his was a choice mind. No man during his life with us was heard oftener on the programs of the Preachers' meeting in Los Angeles. No discussion so foolish or so dense but he could clarify it all. And in his love of the poet he was intense and by nature he had the rhythm of life.

These were his own last words, incomplete, yet a message and a testimony:

That far, faint call which bids me home
At eventide to rest,
To me is sweet beyond all words,
It is my life-long quest.
If it should come this very hour,
My soul would leap for joy,
And yet—

A few days after the soul had parted company with the body we gathered in the church at Alhambra, a sad joyous company. The casket was brought from the parsonage home next door, the hymns of the redeemed were sung, the tributes of brethren were paid, and in the cemetery of San Gabriel, near the ringing of the mission bells, not far from the Highway of the King, we laid aside the body of this man who had the inlook of a poet, the outlook of a statesman, and the uplook of a saint.

REV. JOHN M. SPANGLER

John M. Spangler, preacher, teacher and missionary hero, after twenty-eight years of conspicuously successful work under the Board of Foreign Missions in Callao, Peru, and in Rosario, Argentine, came to California where he spent the last four years. Though impossible to ascertain all details concerning his birth and early life, many in Southern California are found who now testify to his large and earnest labors for his Master.

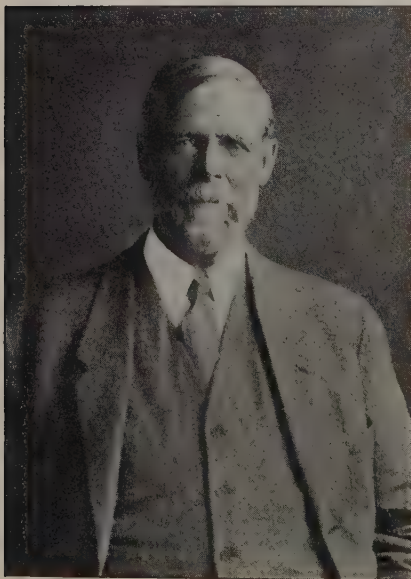

Workers in Peru still discover the laborious effort Dr. Spangler had made in recording the history of the work from its earliest beginning. While there he welcomed sailors and miners, bridge-builders, explorers, tourists and unfortunate wanderers, all of whom gathered to his preaching in that old English church in Callao. Suffering severely from rheumatism, he was compelled to go with his family to Argentine. Even after he had gone from Peru, young men came from far away Rosario telling of the talented and Christian home of Brother Spangler and his family.

Dr. Spangler was faithful and vigorous in his efforts along temperance lines. His Band of Hope in Peru and his efforts for "California Dry" both spoke of a new world in which there shall be no staggering drunkards. He was seen in the "California Voice" office only two days before his death. During the past four years Dr. Spangler was an instructor in the Nazarene University. His children are well known in many circles for their accomplishments in music and as educators. Just after the middle of last November, our Brother Spangler, at the age of 58, passed to be with his King. During his labors in three of the American republics he doubtless often felt the great truth expressed by Whittier in his own favorite lines:

"I know not where his islands lift their fronded palms in air,
I only know I cannot drift beyond His love and care."

REV. J. C. GOWAN

What we call living is dying, and what we term dying is living. "It is only the survivor who dies." "We are not deathless till we die."

All of human life can be included in five greatest blessings: It is a blessing to be born; to be born again, to labor, to love, but there remains one other greatest blessing—and that is to die.

It is natural to die; as natural as it is to fall asleep at the close of a weary day. So death at the end of humble, honorable living comes as a sweet and refreshing "sleep from which none ever wakes to weep."

"I would not live alway, no, welcome the tomb, Since Jesus hath lain there I dread not its gloom."

I would to-day place a cluster of forget-me-nots upon the tomb of one of God's best loved noblemen—Rev. J. C. Gowan.

He was born in Blacklion in the north of Ireland on July 12, 1843, and ascended to his coronation at Sultana, California, on January 4, 1914.

His godly mother at his birth dedicated him to the Christian ministry, and in his fourteenth year he was converted to God.

When he was about twenty years of age he emigrated to the United States, and in 1865 became a member of the Twenty-seventh street Methodist Episcopal Church, New York City.

Soon after this, having acknowledged his call to the Christian ministry, he entered the New Hampshire Conference Seminary and studied theology under Dr. L. D. Barrows.

He was a conscientious student and graduated with honor in the class of '68.

He joined the New Hampshire Conference and was appointed the same year to Haverhill where he remained for one year. In 1870 he was at East Jeffrey and in 1871 at Washington, Rhode Island.

He was then transferred to the New England Southern Conference where he faithfully served the following Churches: 1873, Pawtucket; 1875, Attleboro; 1877, Putnam; 1880, South Manchester; 1884, Niantic. In 1887 he was at Ensenada, Lower California.

In 1888 he came to the Southern California Conference and was located at Oceanside. In 1890 he was in San Bernardino; in 1893 at National City; in 1895 at North Pasadena; in 1896 at Santa Paula; in 1898 at Lordsburg; in 1901 at Fullerton; and in 1903 he asked for a superannuated relation. Later in 1909 he supplied the Church at Winchester; and in 1910 he was at Irwin and Stevenson. In the fall of 1913 he was sent to Sultana, and the following January, while in the midst of abundant and happy labors and enjoying the affectionate esteem of his devoted people, he was suddenly summoned "from labor to refreshment." The funeral services were held in Los Angeles, January 6, 1914, and were conducted by Dr. John Oliver, Rev. C. V. Cowan and the writer.

He was married in 1869 to Miss Laura W. Sanborn who died in 1906. Of this happy union there were seven children, four of whom survive their father.

In January, 1911, he was married to Mrs. Emily McIlvaney of New York City, who with one sister, Mrs. Jane Breeze, survives him.

Brother J. C. Gowan was a workman who needed not to be ashamed as he rightly divided the word of truth. He was a fervent and practical preacher of a practical and fervent Gospel. There was an atmospheric invasion when this Methodist preacher arrived in a community.

The personal equation in Brother Gowan was remarkable. He loved folks; and all men loved him. Even avaricious persons would relax their purse-strings; and if a man had any money he would part with it when this good preacher made his appeals for the Kingdom of Christ. He could build a Church in fields which all others had abandoned; and he could preach the gospel with such vigor and refinement, and such strength and sweetness, that men who had determined never to be Christians would humbly confess Christ with tears of repentance and joy.

He was an incorrigible optimist, and his optimism was infectious. Nothing daunted his confident spirit. He took Christ at His word and busied himself doing and accomplishing impossible things.

Because of mutual friends in the New York East Conference, Brother Gowan opened his big heart wide with cordial welcome when I came to California more than six years ago; and during these happy hurrying years he honored me with his regard and his confidence; and many an inspiring little visit I have had with him in the bay window of my office in the Church. My humble place this day is with those who truly mourn, and also truly rejoice in the translation of a loved one.

Brother Gowan will be tenderly remembered by what he has done, and by what he has been. His was a superb character which we shall never forget.

Dear Man—"God's finger touched him and he slept."

CHARLES EDWARD LOCKE.

REV. FRANK LUCAS

The Rev. Frank Lucas, pastor of Taylor church, San Diego, died in San Diego early Sunday morning, April 19, 1914. The immediate cause of his death was peritonitis, resulting from an attack of chronic appendicitis, at the close of his Easter services, a week before his decease.

Brother Lucas was born on a farm in Douglas county, Illinois, and was aged 45 years, 5 months and 14 days. His widowed mother and two sisters reside in Illinois, and a brother, R. E. Lucas, is a citizen of Newland, Indiana. Besides these, he leaves his bereaved wife and daughter, Frankie Lois, who is 17 years old and a junior in the San Diego High School. He prepared for teaching at the Normal School in Illinois, and while a teacher he felt the call to preach, and in order to fit himself for the work in the ministry, he took a special course of study in the University of Illinois. He was an alert, growing man. His work in Taylor Church has been remarkably successful. In six months his membership had increased more than 100, and his Sunday school more than doubled in its attendance.

He was interested in matters beyond the boundaries of his own parish. He was secretary of the "Dry Federation" in San Diego, and made the motion to invite Dr. Bulgin to come to this city for a revival campaign.

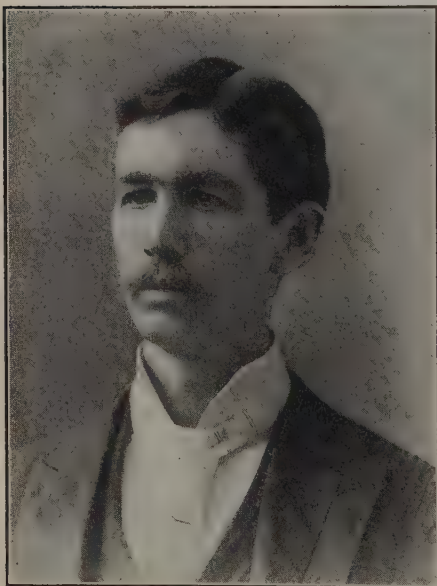

Twenty years ago, Brother Lucas was married to Miss Nan Elizabeth, the daughter of Dr. Purcell. As a real helpmeet, she entered heartily into his work in the pastorate.

The parsonage thus became a center of life and inspiration to social endeavor, always enriched by the sweet sanctities of piety. In 1896 Frank Lucas entered the Illinois Conference and remained there for thirteen years, serving Ludlow, Sedell, Edinburgh, Virginia and Leroy. In 1909, he was transferred to the Southern California Conference, and stationed at Imperial; in 1910 at Banning; 1911 at Grace Church, Redlands; and 1913, to Taylor, San Diego, from which he was called to his reward.

Funeral services were held in Taylor Church, which was crowded with a mourning congregation. Dr. Inwood, the District Superintendent, had charge; Dr. Hollington of the First Methodist Church, spoke for the Methodist pastors of the city; Dr. Geistweit of the First Baptist Church, spoke for the San Diego Ministerial Association, and Dr. McClish of Central Church, read a brief sketch of his life and labors.

REV. WILLARD ALDRICH

Rev. Willard Aldrich was born December 23, 1867, in Ionia County, Michigan, and died in Fresno, California, of intestinal cancer, January 5, 1914.

He grew to manhood in his native state and passed through the public schools, entered the State University and after graduation practiced law for one year. Hearing the call of God to the ministry of the Word he answered gladly and in 1905 gave himself heartily to the service and was received into the Michigan Conference and transferred to Southern California four years ago.

He served at Bowne Falls, Michigan, Carlton, Oregon; Holtville, California; Piru and Sespe, Fillmore, Lankershim and Easton, and was pastor of this church until his demise.

In 1898 he was united in holy wedlock to Miss Minnie Rickner and to this union were given three children, two of these died in infancy, while Dorothy remains to comfort her mother in the lonely hours that have come to her.

Brother Aldrich was a true shepherd of the flock of Christ. Wherever he went he left sunshine in the place of shadow. His presence was an antidote for the poison of discouragement.

The Bible to him was God's word and as such he received it and preached it. He had no fads or fancies to exploit, but preached certainties: those that faith could grasp, and on which the soul could rest secure. God was the Father, "too wise to err, too just to be unkind," with love for men so intense that Christ voluntarily gave himself to the scourge and contumely of the cross for man's redemption. Sin he reckoned great because of the greatness of the sacrifice.

Brother Aldrich was a hero whose courage never faltered or wavered. The hardness of the task had no terrors for him. He only desired to know that it was right and that God demanded it.

It is one thing to be courageous when surrounded by hundreds of applauding and cheering ones. The courage that charges down the valley where death stalks, amid the bursting of bombs and the shriek of shot and shell, with a world looking on, is courage. The history of Europe is in the making fast, these days and will have the counterparts of Balaklava, Jena, Austerlitz, Waterloo. Heroes will face the vomit of war's hell as in Shiloh or Petersburg, unscarred. This is courage. But of a different sort, and of higher proof is the courage of our Brother, who in secret suffered alone, and often stifling a moan for fear that the dear ones who heard it would be pained. A higher and holier courage is this, that alone, knowing that the sentence of death is writ large upon his mortal frame, when every ounce of energy exerted is one prolonged agony, yet he pursued his way unfalteringly till like St. Paul he could say, "I have fought the good fight, I have finished my course. I have kept the faith," when the crowning time comes and the heroes of earth are summoned before the throne of God to receive the reward of their labors, will not the crown of everlasting amaranth be placed upon the brow of the hero of the bed-room, the kitchen, the nursery, the shop, the pulpit and the operating table? For have not these "Come up through great tribulation, and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb?" Deep down in his own soul Brother Aldrich kept the knowledge of his own weakness, never murmuring nor complaining.

It was my esteemed privilege to be a close friend of this brother beloved, and the last time I visited him was a day or two before Christmas. I was greatly downcast because of the nearness to death of my friend but found that he was cheerfully looking forward to what might come. The comfort I tried to impart was returning to me four-fold. When I was leaving his room, he said to me: "Dear Brother, I have no fear of that which will come to me, it will be as God wills, I am in His hands."

He was always self-forgetful, but ever thoughtful of others. Brother Aldrich was not only a true pastor and a good preacher, but his literary work was sought by the Advocate and other papers.

He loved God mightily, man intensely, and having finished his course in triumph, went home to his coronation.

The funeral was held in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Fresno, California, January 8, 1914. Many of the Brethren of the district were present. The services were in charge of Rev. John Oliver, District Superintendent; Rev. Frank B. Cowgill, D.D., pastor of the church; Rev. H. S. Ryder, Parlier; Rev. W. H. Fulford, Caruthers, and Rev. O. W. Ostrom, who supplied Easton during Brother Aldrich's illness, took part in the service.

His body rests in peace in the beautiful Mountain View Cemetery, Fresno, borne to its final resting place by the members of Easton Quarterly Conference.

His life as we knew it said "Amen" to the following lines:

"If on the quiet sea
Towards heaven I calmy sail,
With grateful heart, O God, to Thee
I'll own the favoring gale.
And if the surges rise,
If storm or tempest come,
Blest be the tempest, kind the storm
That drives me nearer home."

Annie Lee Marshall was born in Nova Scotia, October 22, 1871, and died in San Diego Monday, August 3, 1914. She was married to Dr. Marshall June 17, 1899, and for fifteen years they worked together in loving fellowship and in the beauty of a most devoted home life. Two children were given them: Kenneth, translated when but a year old, and Annie Lee, who survives her.

More than a year ago her health began to fail, and in spite of every effort for restoration she steadily declined. Hoping that our salubrious climate would be of benefit, she was brought here last March by husband and friends. But it was too late.

Recuperation, promised seemingly for a while, stopped on the news of the death of a much loved sister. From that hour she rapidly declined and, as stated, on August 3rd passed to her eternal reward.

Mrs. Marshall was a woman of more than ordinary character and life. Converted in her early childhood, she gave herself up at once to Christian service, and devotedly through the succeeding years—too devotedly for her strength—gave her life to unstinted service for her Christ. For ten years she was engaged in special mission work in Boston under the direction of the Congregational Church, and then for fifteen years entered unreservedly into the life of the Methodist itineracy. In a more than usual sense she became the co-partner of her husband in the work of the ministry, ardently entering into all lines of Christian activity, never sparing herself, until exhausted she lay down to rest in the arms of the Savior to whom and for whom she had given her life. She rests from her labors, but her works follow her.

Oh, may we triumph so
When all our warfare's past
And dying, find our latest foe
Under our feet at last.

MRS. EMMA ANN GASCOIGNE

Emma Ann Gascoigne was born in Huntington, Pa., December 11, 1852, and was called home February 25, 1914.

September 5, 1868, she was married to Rev. Stephen Gascoigne, then of the St. Louis Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and for the past twenty-one years of this Conference. She has been a most faithful worker with her husband in the work of the Methodist ministry and has been greatly loved by the people they have served. For forty-four years she was the very helpful wife of a pioneer Methodist minister.

Her funeral service was held May 4th, the Rev. F. D. Mather preaching the sermon and Rev. Matt S. Hughes, L. L. D., giving a loving tribute to her memory, while a host of sympathizing friends filled the room.

"None knew her but to love her." The Master said to her come up higher, "To live is Christ and to die is gain."

MRS. EMMA JANE NELSON

Emma Jane, wife of the Rev. C. W. F. Nelson, was born in Waupun, Wis., April 18, 1858, and died of cancer in the sanitarium at Santa Marie, Calif., November 28, 1913. She was married May 1, 1897. In 1882 her husband became a member of the Wisconsin Conference and two years later was transferred to the Southern California Conference. At Hueneme, Sister Nelson endeared herself to the people to whom her husband administered in spiritual things. At the close of his pastorate in Highland, ill health made it necessary for Brother Nelson to retire and he removed to Arroyo Grande.

Sister Nelson was converted in early childhood, became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and was her husband's most efficient helper. Possessing much real ability, both natural and acquired, she was a successful leader in all departments of church work in every community in which she resided. For many years after her husband's retirement from the ministry, Sister Nelson was Superintendent of the Sunday School in Arroyo Grande, and gave up this responsible position only when the physical ailment which caused her death made it necessary for her to do so.

She was ready to go. When apprised of the fact that the time of her departure was at hand, she expressed her willingness to depart and be with Christ. "If I could have had my choice of diseases with which to die," she said, "I should have chosen some other disease, but God knows best and I am ready." The last time I saw her before she passed away she asked me to read the Twenty-third Psalm, and when I came to the fourth verse she caught up the words and repeated them after me. "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me."

Sister Nelson was the mother of six children; two of them died in infancy and four of whom are living, Mr. James Nelson, Mrs. Grace Whitlock, Mrs. Nettie Whitlock and Miss Elizabeth Nelson.

The funeral service was held in the Church at Arroyo Grande and conducted by the pastor, assisted by the Rev. H. H. Hocker and Rev. R. Logan of the local Presbyterian Church. The pastor preached from Rev. 7:16, 17. The body was laid away to rest in the cemetery just west of Arroyo Grande by the side of the bodies of the babes that had passed on before.

The bereaved husband and the children that have been left have sustained a great loss, but they sorrow not as those that have no hope.

We shall see her some day in the city of gold,
In the beautiful city on high;
Its glories no mortal can fully unfold
While on earth where some folks sicken and die;
We shall see her and dwell with her there where the light
Shall eternally shine from the throne,
And sickness ne'er comes, neither sorrow nor night,
And we ever shall know as we are known.

We shall see her some day and her voice shall be heard
With the voices of angels above,
With the voices that often the seraphs have stirred
In the regions of infinite love;
We shall see her and join in the chorus on high—
And with angels we gladly shall sing,
And shout "Hallelujah!" and never shall die
Where Jesus—Jehovah—is King!

RULES OF BOARD OF EXAMINERS

1. Committees of Examinations shall meet the classes on the day preceding the day appointed for the opening of the session of the Conference.

2. Candidates for the Conference classes shall be marked on a scale of 100, which shall be the maximum, and 70 shall be the minimum, and no person shall be advanced if conditioned in more than one study. A certificate of graduation from one of our theological seminaries will be accepted in place of examination in all the biblical and the theological studies in this Conference course.

3. Examinations will be held on the Tuesday preceding the opening of Conference at 9 A. M., at the seat of the Conference.

4. All applications for admission on trial must present certificates of graduation from a High School, or from an institution of, at least, equal standing.

5. All candidates holding bachelor degrees from accredited colleges shall be exempt from further examination in all the studies that are not included in the term biblical and theological, and all graduates of accredited theological colleges shall be exempt from examinations in theological and biblical studies. Certificates for this work should be sent to the Registrar not later than September 1st.

6. Sermons and essays shall be typewritten or in ink, and sent to Matt S. Hughes, Pasadena, not later than September 1st.

7. The Registrar and Examiners will be glad to communicate with undergraduates regarding studies. Enclose stamps for reply.

8. Deduction will be made on each paper in which the spelling, grammar, writing, or general execution is slovenly.

9. A notebook containing an outline of each book studied is to be presented to the Examiner at the examination, the notes will be used in marking.

10. Sermons should contain 2000 to 3000 words, and essays 2000 to 4000. The paper used shall be letter size and folded when sent.

11. Each undergraduate shall state to the Registrar that he has read the books required "to be read."

12. All applicants from other conferences or from another denomination, also theological students who have been excused from the course of study by virtue of their work in college, shall be examined concerning their personal attitude toward our doctrine and discipline, by a committee of three, said committee to report to the Board of Examiners.

13. As early in the Conference year as possible all applicants for admission on Trial shall send to the Chairman of the Board for application blanks, which are to be filled out with all care and returned to the Chairman.

14. On the completion of the entire course of study by an undergraduate, or in case of his retirement or transfer from the conference before its completion, he shall be entitled to a certificate, covering all his work, signed by the Chairman and Registrar of the Board.

15. The annual meeting of the Board of Examiners shall convene at the seat of and on the day before the session of the Annual Conference, at the hour of 9 o'clock a. m.

16. College or Seminary graduates, thereby excused from the course of study, shall be required to read the books assigned "to be read," and report the same in writing; they shall write the sermon or essay required; and shall also present a certificate with the grade of each study, for the work done in College and Seminary.

17. Inasmuch as thirty five years is the standard set by our Church as the measure of a full life of ministerial service, we should not receive into our membership those who do not seem to have the prospect of serving for at least the major part of that time; the age limit of 42 years being a general guide to be set aside only on the vote of the conference. It is the sense of this Conference that the educational standard of those to be admitted in full to this Conference shall be a college education; and a seminary course in Theology; except in cases of unusual ability on the part of the applicant, or exceptional need of the work.

The Bishop asked the Disciplinary questions which were answered in the affirmative, and addressed the class.

The Bishop's address was based on the three sayings of an old New England sea captain, who late in life had been converted. In his testimony, he was wont to say: First, "When in a tight place I keep off the rocks by keeping my lead a-going." Successful pastoral work consists in finding out what are the real, present, spiritual needs of your people. The second saying of the old Captain was, "Don't make a mess of it in getting around on to the other tack." The preacher's attitude toward the great socialistic movement, toward the theological thought of the day, toward new methods to meet the new situation, toward present day preaching to meet present day needs, requires the greatest skill. A merely nominal and perfunctory use of the ministerial office will not satisfy men of today. Third, the Captain told his experience when going into a fog, of climbing up the mast and so getting an outlook above it. You are ministers of the living God, with a great Gospel, and with an idea of God and of redemption and of salvation and of the dignity of the human life, that cannot be matched anywhere else. Forget the incidentals and petty details of your work and hold fast to these eternal verities and do your work in the light of eternity which soon will dawn upon us all. When in trouble or doubt, don't settle down in the fog but get to the top of your loftiest mast.

RESOLUTIONS AND REPORTS

I

FRESNO DISTRICT

The Fresno District has had a rich and blessed year in spiritual achievement. It has been a year of evangelistic life and service in which Christ has ministered in the lives of pastors and laymen to reconcile our part of the world unto God. The spiritual passion of the preachers has demonstrated the Holy Spirit's presence, and the investment of this passion in preaching and pastoral labors has resulted in the spiritual harvest measured in some small degree by this report.

The preachers were very well received, and during the first month of the Conference year, the superintendent received many letters from the churches in appreciation of the men sent to serve them; and the spirit of appreciation abides and its development is evidenced in the many resolutions of good-will concerning the preachers and the invitations to return, unanimously passed at the Fourth Quarterly Conference.

Twice we were saddened by the loss of J. C. Gowan and Willard Aldrich. Forty-five years spent in the ministry of the church is the measure of more than the ordinary life; and to have led in the building of thirty-six churches and parsonages during that time, measures a progressive, optimistic and spiritually minded personality. Such was the gift of John Carson Gowan to the church he loved.

Willard Aldrich was with us but a few years, just long enough to demonstrate his gentle, kindly but courageous spirit. In his flesh he lived a stormy tempestuous life, but in his spirit he demonstrated what faith can do in tapping the strength of the Almighty. Three times he went to the operating table, always conscious of the unseen Presence.

Building Enterprises—Two new churches have been built and two have been rebuilt. The new church at Stevinson, begun by J. C. Gowan and brought to splendid completion by M. S. McGee, was dedicated February 8th, by Bishop E. H. Hughes. All the money needed to pay for the building was subscribed. The church cost $2,000, but is worth much more, as nearly all the labor was donated. The giving on this charge represents over $100 per member for the year.

By Christmas both Sunday school and congregation crowded the Merced church to the limit, and the society was compelled to build. The old church building was moved back and, with the addition of a gallery, was divided into class-rooms and a social hall; and a fine auditorium, seating over 250, and elegantly furnished, was built on at a cost of $5,300. E. P. Perry, the pastor, planned and led in the completion of the enterprise. This gives us a plant that will seat 500, and a property valued at $12,000, exclusive of parsonage. The building was dedicated by the pastor and district superintendent May 3rd.

George A. Warmer has accomplished a fine work at Goleta. At the beginning of the year he found our forces somewhat disorganized by a so-called "union church" movement. But faithful preaching and personal work unified and brought faith to our people; and in a revival in which a number of young men were converted one of our splendid laymen consecrated himself and a large part of his income to the extension of the kingdom, and this made possible the improvement on the church property. The church was moved out to the street and a chapel, social hall and kitchen built on at a cost of $2,000, which is all provided for. Bishop Hughes dedicated the building July 19th.

Another heroic achievement has been accomplished at Springville, where the spiritual personality and strenuous labors of E. F. Gates has unified practically all the Christian forces of the community under our leadership. A fine church, adequate to the needs of the people, and costing $3,500, has been built, and will be dedicated October 11th.

Kingsburg is in the midst of the building of a new church, and Dinuba must build in the near future in order to accommodate its congregation and Sunday school, eight classes of which have to meet outside of the church building now.

An elegant two-story eight-roomed parsonage, modern in every respect, has been built by First Church, Bakersfield, at a cost of $4,700. This was a very much needed improvement. Through the faith and works of A. P. Peel, a good five-roomed preacher's home has been built at Atwater; and Alpaugh has constructed a neat four-roomed parsonage, the equal of any home of its size in the community. This improvement was made and is being paid for entirely by the Ladies' Aid Society. Lancaster, in order to quickly meet the needs of the pastor and his family, matched our itinerant system by purchasing a portable house and erected it as parsonage on lots near the church.

Improvements—Very many commendable improvements have been made on church and parsonage properties as follows: Parlier has spent $300 for bath-room and large screen porch. Paso Robles has paid $208. on improvements; Lindsay has moved the old church and built a garage, at a cost of $500; Santa Maria has spent $350 on parsonage furniture and sidewalk; Lemoore has paid $300 to fit up the bath-room and make sidewalks; Visalia has spent $600 on "rest rooms" and other enterprises; Dinuba has invested $200 in sidewalk and parsonage improvements; Del Rey has paid $500 for bath-room and electric lights for church and parsonage; Fresno First Church has made $534 worth of improvements and put $250 in new parsonage fund; Delano has made its old church look young by painting it, and has improved the League room at a total cost of $160; Clovis has paid $84 on piano; and the Ladies' Aid Society has paid $330 in seating and painting the church at Shandon; Taft has put pews into its auditorium at a cost of $300, and Newman has spent $156 for sidewalks; Bakersfield, First Church, has made an investment of $600 in fitting up its social hall in the purchase of gymnasium equipment; Lancaster $158 on improvements, and Ingomar has spent $658 on improvements and labor.

Debts have been paid on old and new accounts. Armona has paid $84 on its small obligation to the Home Board. Dinuba has paid $84 on its new lots and $650 on debt. Lompoc has paid $300 on the basement improvement and Parlier has liquidated an old debt of $482 against the parsonage. Taft has lifted every cent of indebtedness by the payment of $150. Lemoore has paid $364 on its parsonage debt. Chesbro Memorial has reduced its obligation by $125, Globe paid a $500 debt, and the Tulare church has raised $2,700 for and interest on its large debt. Grangeville has paid $140 to the Book Concern to meet an old obligation against the Sunday School.

The Ladies' Aid Societies have been a large factor in making this financial record. The societies have easily raised over $12,000 this year, and many societies have given real pastoral aid in visiting the sick and the new people moving into the community.

Benevolences—In view of the general financial stringency the money expended on building and improvement is large and represents much sacrifice. The same is true in respect to the benevolences. But sixteen charges report an increase of $244 over last year for Foreign missions, and seventeen charges report an increase of $266 over last year for Home Missions; and when the statistics are all made up I believe this District will report some increase over last year in the regular collection for missions. Special gifts have suffered. Tulare and Tulare Circuit, Orcutt, Irwin, Clovis, Arroyo Grande and Goleta report an increase in the regular offering for missions. Fresno First Church, Lemoore, Lindsay, Parlier and Selma also report a healthy increase.

Miss Charlotte Holman of India did inspiring work on the District for the W. F. M. S. Mrs. M. M. Northrup and Mrs. J. B. Green and Mrs. Lilly Allen helped Home Missionary work on the District, and increased the financial offerings of the society. S. J. Carroll, Foreign Missionary Secretary for the District, did good work for the Parent Board through printed and personal appeals to the pastors.

Evangelism—There is no better evidence of the efficiency of a Methodist preacher than his power to bring souls to decision for Christ and to lead the community in social and civic righteousness; and our preachers, judged by these standards, measure up with the most aggressive

Evangelism has been the key note on the District, and from the beginning of the year, "in season and out of season," the immediate need of salvation has been pressed on the people, and there are not more than three churches but which have held some special services to awaken sinners and strengthen the church, and most blessed results have followed this joyous and faithful service.

Union meetings under Evangelist Loose at Lindsay resulted in many conversions, some eighty of the choicest spirits uniting with our church. The candidate for mayor of the city was converted and united with our church the day before his election. Union meetings at Dinuba under Evangelist E. J. Bulgin greatly stirred the community and resulted in many conversions. As a result of these meetings our pastor baptized sixty one Sabbath and received more than that number into the church. Evangelist H. B. Ireland held a good meeting in our church at Clovis, and the faithful work of the pastor makes a net increase of fifty-two members. The same evangelist helped the evangelistic pastor at Tulare and reaped a spiritual harvest. J. Wesley Robinson did most thorough revival work at Livingston and also at Caruthers. Souls were genuinely converted.

W. G. Barron held a fine meeting at Porterville that brought thirty-seven in on probation and added spiritual strength to the church. H. W. White held his own meeting at Santa Barbara, and has received eighteen on probation and twenty-seven on profession of faith. The faithful spiritual work of C. J. Oleson has added twenty-two to the membership of the Tulare Circuit. C. B. Allen held a three weeks' meeting at Selma which lifted the spiritual interest of the church and saved some of the people. W. C. Loomis received thirty-seven into the church on Easter Sunday through the efforts of the church and pastor, and H. S. Ryder has added twenty-one to the membership at Parlier through his splendid work with the young people. Taft has added eighteen, and F. P. Morgan had another fine year's work.

D. K. Burnham held two special meetings at Lompoc and added to the membership. J. R. Clark has made a net gain of twenty-eight at Delano, and Sultana has gained fourteen through the evangelistic labors of Pastor S. W. Simonds. Alexander Hardie has had a blessed year at Lemoore, where his scholarly, spiritual ministry has added 20 per cent to the church membership and led this splendid people in the raising of a budget of $2,000. Merced reports a net gain of forty-three, and First Church, Bakersfield, as the result of a passionate revival effort made by the pastor and Charles H. Fowler as singer, makes an increase of sixty. Our church at Kingsburg led in a union revival effort under Evangelist Dan Shannon which added fifty splendid members to our church. Lancaster has increased its membership 8 per cent.

A year ago Fresno was a challenge to us and very few of our people saw the opportunity or felt like lending a hand in planting more broadly for Christ and Methodism in this city, destined to be the largest inland city of the state. Our forces were fourth in numerical denominational strength.

At our last Conference "Calwa and Fresno New Work" were made an appointment and Don A. Allen, a superannuated member of the Des Moines Conference, was given charge of the work. Services were opened in one of the temporary Normal school buildings and a Sunday school was organized. Later a class was formed and the new society was incorporated as the Van Ness Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church and a site was purchased on Van Ness avenue in a very choice location two blocks from where the state has voted to spend $400,000 in Normal school buildings. First Church turned over for the use of the new society $250, which remained from the sale of Epworth Chapel and also $500 from the sale of the Florence Mission property. This enabled the new church to pay $1000 on the lots which are to cost $3000. The new society now has a membership of twenty-nine and a Sunday School enrollment of 180, with an attendance of 114. In a few years, with vigorous administration, this church will rank with the strong churches of the Conference.

In January E. Guy Talbott, who was doing splendid work at Grace Church, asked to be excused from his appointment in order to accept the position as Secretary of the Church Federation at Sacramento, and also the Secretaryship of the State Church Federation with headquarters at Sacramento. He was released from his charge, and the transfer of Thomas Burden, a member of the North Dakota Conference, and a graduate of Wesley College, North Dakota, and of Boston University School of Theology, was secured to take his place. Brother Burden has fitted well into the situation and is making a fine record as pastor and preacher.

First Church has had in many ways the most fruitful year in its history. Frank B. Cowgill, with his large experience and fine brotherly spirit, has proven himself a master workman in organization and leadership. He knows how to put other people to work and his pastoral labors are of the highest quality. Twenty per cent of the present membership has been received into the church this year. On Easter Sunday forty-nine came into the church from probation and fifty-four by letter and on confession of faith. The Ladies' Aid Society has made over 1000 calls and the two missionary societies will report over $1000 each for the cause of missions, and the regular benevolences are in excellent shape.

Methodism in Fresno is now second in numerical denominational strength instead of fourth. We now have an enrolment of nearly 1200 in our Sunday Schools and a much larger church membership, and the future holds for us even larger possibilities.

New Work—Besides the new work in Fresno, the Lancaster and Springville societies have been incorporated. Macfarland is also in the process of becoming a legalized church, and hopes to build the coming year. Small Sunday Schools have been organized at Spa, Stoil and Angiola on the Alpaugh Circuit. M. S. McGee has organized a Sunday school of fifty and put in Methodist literature at Prairie Flower. A. W. Gray has organized a class of fifteen and an Epworth League of thirty at Fairview, six miles from Sanger. E. H. Barnhart organized a Sunday School at Wahtoke. A society has been organized at Mountain View on the Bakersfield Circuit which will pay a goodly sum for the support of a minister next year and will probably build a church.

The Fresno District should have at least $1500 more from the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension next year to help the consecrated preachers of the District to a comfortable support. If it were not for the funds of the Missionary and Evangelistic Society, some of our men would have to starve or quit. This collection has vital relation to the support of our men; loyalty to this fund means practical love to the brethren, and in the brotherhood of their spiritual endeavor the preachers and churches on the District have raised proportionately for the M. and E. Society more than any other District this year.

We are glad to report that there has been an increase of $4000 in the salaries of the preachers this year, but this increase is nearly all in the larger charges of the District.

Institutional Work—The Annual Preachers and Sunday School and Epworth League Institutes was held at Hanford, November 18-21, where the delegates were royally entertained by the Hanford Epworth League. It is no small task to entertain this large body of delegates, and it had been voted to divide the interests for next year.

Matt. S. Hughes was with us the entire two days of the Preachers' Meeting, and, besides taking part in the discussions with many helpful suggestions, gave three lectures which provoked the best thought of the preachers, enlarged their vision and deepened their purposes. The lectures were highly appreciated. District Superintendent V. M. McCombs ably presented the interests of the Spanish work and inspired a good response for the Epworth Leagues present. The institute gave a vital impulse to all the work of the District.

A Chautauqua was held preceeding the Arroyo Grande campmeeting in which Chas. H. Scott, Matt. S. Hughes, Bishop Hughes, and Dr. Thomas B. Hughes entertained and instructed the people. Tilman Hobson was the evangelist and did excellent work both at Arroyo Grande and Springville. These meetings were not largely attended and there is a growing conviction that the location of these summer gatherings must be changed, and the Arroyo Grande Assembly must be taken down to the beach and the San Joaquin valley meeting must be taken up into the cooler atmosphere of the mountains.

The District Epworth League cabinet held seven sub-district institutional rallies, which were well attended and highly profitable where the meeting had been thoroughly advertised. A third campmeeting was held this year at Gustine in the isolated territory of the "West Side" portion of the San Joaquin valley. The gathering was helpful to the Christian people and struggling churches of Cottonwood, Gustine, Newman and Patterson, and demonstrated that such a meeting held at a more opportune time might serve a real need. But a meeting of an institutional nature will be most profitable in this section.

Temperance—The fight for a California "DRY" is progressing favorably on the District. The present virile campaign of education is a high achievement and is sure to result in ultimate prohibition. All our preachers have their sleeves rolled up and are giving a good account of themselves in the front ranks of the battle line. There is not a weakling among them, and surely God has great confidence in us to accomplish His will on earth.

The preachers firmly believe they have a strangle hold on the liquor traffic of the State and hope on November 3rd to drop its carcass into the ocean of oblivion. As far as our territory is concerned, California is dead sure going dry. San Luis Obispo and Kern counties will probably go wet, but we expect Tulare, Kings, Fresno, Madera, Merced, Stanislaus, Santa Barbara, Monterey and our part of Los Angeles County to go dry by 60 per cent of the vote cast.

Recommendation—Our churches chafe under the irritation of so many "other benevolent collections." The four temperance organizations now working in the state have all been before our people for financial support, and the continuous appeals have bewildered some of the people and chilled their flow of benevolence. The Sabbath Rest League, the Anti-Prize Fight cause, the Red-Light-Abatement forces, the Purity League, and the Temperance organizations, local, state and national, beside many other societies, plead for the opportunity to come before our people for financial support.

I sincerely hope a commission will be created by this Conference with full power to decide what interests shall be presented in our churches in order that our people and our own benevolences may be protected and the channels of benevolence be kept warm by legitimate use.

Noteworthy—Some things worthy of special mention are being accomplished on the District:

Bakersfield has an adult and junior Brotherhood with a membership of 600 which meets in our church. This organization is an inspiration in the present agitation for better social conditions in that city. We think Bakersfield will go dry.

The Epworth League at Hanford raised $350 and built on a kitchen in order to provide good meals for the Convention delegates.

Hanford people subscribed $300 to purchase musical instruments for the Boys' Brigade, and now a band of twenty-five pieces is making harmony and symphonizing the ideals of some of the coming young men of the town.

The pastor at Alpaugh persuaded some of the colored people from the negro town of Allensworth to give a concert in his church at Alpaugh to raise funds for the Freedmen's Aid Society.

Four Epworth Leagues in the Parlier church—a senior, junior and two intermediates—meet the spiritual and social needs of the young people. A winter night school is conducted in this church for Japanese and Armenians.

Lompoc, San Luis Obispo and Bakersfield held street meetings in connection with their revival services. One who had been a bartender for twenty years, and another, a life-long gambler, were converted at Bakersfield.

The pastor's Bible Class at Merced has an enrolment of 100.

The Social Service Department of the Epworth League at Taft made eighty calls on the sick and every call represented a prayer meeting.

The Ladies' Aid Society at Wasco under the splendid inspiration of the pastor and his wife, raised $60 on benevolences.

W. J. Boyd, on July 12th, by invitation, delivered the annual address to the Orangemen of Humboldt county, California.

Charles Wentworth was given a four months' vacation, which he spent trans-Atlantic. He now has a great story to tell of "Escaping the wrath of Europe."

Spiritual Heroism—In reviewing the work of the District, I have sought to give credit to preachers and churches in their successes. But there are men and churches which have nothing of a positive nature to report, nothing to add to the statistical record; yet these men are heroes of God, preachers of whom their part of the world is not worthy, preachers and laymen who have fought in the trenches at Madera and Newman and Wasco and Kernville, and other places almost as bad, unsought and unseen, saved by Him whose vision never falters and whose judgment never fails.

The Superintendent's Work—By action of the churches last year the District Superintendent was excused from holding the Second and Third Quarterly Conferences "wherever possible, in order to give that time to the more vital needs of the District." This action has given the Superintendent some freedom as to the investment of his services during a part of the year; for while I found it necessary to hold three Quarterly Conferences in most charges, I was able to do some special work. Frequently I have consulted with the churches and committees planning to build. Occasionally I have had time to help the Church get rid of a financial burden. It has given me the opportunity to study more closely the opening of new fields, and once in a while it has given me the best of all privileges—the opportunity to help in special meetings for the salvation of precious souls.

I have preached or made addresses on the average of six and a fraction times each week this year. This District is getting too large for one man to effectively superintend. During the period of two months, except for a few hours' visit on six days, I was with my family but one whole day; and during this summer since the beginning of the fourth Quarterly Conferences I have been able to spend but seven days at home.

In the light of the new financial plan of the church in respect to benevolences, we have secured a review of all the valuations of church properties. Many of the brethren have adopted the suggestion of appointing one strong, workable committee on benevolences instead of the separate committees which were only used as figure heads. This change is lifting some of the burden of the benevolences from the shoulders of the pastors and helping in the education of and collection of benevolences.

Moving Courtesies—There is some friction caused by the lack of understanding as to the courtesies of moving. Where a preacher knows he is going to move, and is partially or completely packed up before Conference, and he is appointed to a charge where the pastor did not expect to move, but consented to change in order to make the necessary adjustment of certain of the preachers possible, it is easy for the first man to get to his new field of labor a couple of days after Conference; and, as it is impossible for the former pastor to do his packing and get out of the parsonage in less than four or five days, it is easy for the preacher who has arrived at his new appointment so quickly to imagine that his predecessor is the cause of his having to pay hotel bills, when the injustice is located in the unreasonable pressure put upon the former pastor.

It would be a wise precedent, and a gain to our ministerial brotherhood on this District of such magnificent distances, if it were definitely understood that every moving preacher should have at least one week to vacate the parsonage.

Appreciation—Our ministerial brotherhood is the most vital and sacred relation we have on earth among men. The collective parsonage fellowship is a rich inheritance to all who share its loving sympathy and prayers. When Mrs. Oliver was sick we found blessed comfort and life-giving power come to us from the parsonage homes of the Conference. It was good, brethren, to be remembered in your family devotions. We never knew the breadth and depth of our relation with you before, and in the blessed humility of thankfulness we have breathed the language of gratitude on our knees before our uncommon Father and enlarged our purpose to speak most highly of our brethren and to do all we can to add to the wealth of our spiritual companionship.

E. M. Crandall has had serious affliction in his family this year. His wife has suffered nervously and his youngest daughter is very ill. The family have found much comfort and blessing in the splendid ministry of the Santa Maria church and in the larger fellowship of the District and Conference, and it is hoped that all will soon be well again.

With gratitude to God for all His mercies to the lives of all our preachers and their families, and with thanks to the brethren and their wives for the courtesies of the parsonage homes, I am,
your fellow servant,

JOHN OLIVER.

PASADENA DISTRICT

"The Lord hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad." During the past year the pastors and people of Pasadena District have done some things for the Lord; whereof we are also glad.

No district superintendent could have more brotherly or more efficient co-laborers than the pastors of this district.

It may well be questioned if any like number of pastors ever were blessed with a like number of superior wives.

To be associated with such men and women in Christian service, and to have fellowship with them in their homes, is a privilege, an inspiration, and a joy.

Not the least of the pleasures of a district superintendent are the greetings and the companionship of the children of the parsonages.

The increase of the juvenile parsonage population, though not large, has been gratifying.

"One night, as good St. Peter slept,
He left the gate of Heaven ajar,
When through a little angel crept,
And came down with a falling star."

Next morn, in Pasadena town,
A pastor's wife awoke with pride,
Joyous to see, in dainty gown,
That little angel by her side.

A name was given the darling guest,
Who thus into that home had come,
Of all, the sweetest and the best,
"Lois Mary," as welcome as a son.

This event occurred on Friday, November 7th, 1913, the happy parents being the Rev. and Mrs. F. G. H. Stevens.

Early in the conference year F. L. Seaman took unto himself a wife, and more recently Robert Barton and S. L. Todd blessed themselves in like manner.

Two weeks after the close of the last conference session God's chariot swept down from the skies, and carried to his coronation that valiant "Knight of the Cross," Arthur E. Johnson, a man cast in heroic mold, tender in his sympathies as a woman; a preacher of the gospel of Jesus Christ who never sounded a false note, and who wielded the "Sword of the Spirit" with power and effectiveness.

Seven months ago, Mrs. S. Gascoigne, wife of one of our retired brethren, after eating what was supposed to be mushrooms, was taken violently ill and died in a few hours.

When the appointments were announced a year ago, Dr. Charles Coke Woods, who was re-appointed to Ontario, was in a hospital, ill with typhoid fever. The Rev. J. H. Henry was engaged to supply the Ontario church for as long a time as might be necessary, and Miss Geneva McCrory, who had been laboring there as a deaconess, was continued in that relationship. It was nearly three months before Dr. Woods became sufficiently strong to resume the pastorate. He found the church in good condition, and during the remainder of the year he has carried forward the work with earnestness and vigor.

On account of an affection of the throat, E. W. Pasko was compelled, in the middle of the year, to stop preaching. For five months the Garvanza church was efficiently supplied by A. C. Bunker. Brother Pasko, completely recovered, has been in charge the last month. Mrs. Pasko, who has been seriously ill most of the summer, is improving.

Mrs. Byron H. Wilson, who spent a part of the summer in the Methodist hospital, is nearly well again.

In April Mrs. C. D. Lewis became critically ill, but a surgical operation and a sojourn in a hospital resulted in her recovery.

D. H. Gillan was another hospital inmate, there for an operation, from which he rapidly recovered, and soon returned to his work.

W. F. Lusk and family have been considerably afflicted with illness. His own health and that of Mrs. Lusk are so impaired as to make it advisable for him to take the supernumerary relation at this session of the conference. They have the affectionate regard of the people of San Dimas, where Brother Lusk has labored with acceptability. Let us cause them to know that in this trying experience they have our profound sympathy.

Our sympathy should also be extended to our Brother, Dr. Morton C. Hartzell, who, because of physical disability, left his work at Lamanda Park in June, and going to Chicago, underwent a surgical operation and spent the rest of the summer in a hospital in that city. He has recently returned, somewhat improved in health, but unable to continue in the pastorate wherein he has been so eminently successful. During his absence the pulpit was supplied by various preachers, Dr. E. L. Miller of Iowa, supplying for two months, to the edification of the people.

Early in January, Bishop Hughes changed H. E. Murkett from First Church Pomona, to First Church Redlands, and transferring C. B. Dalton from the California Conference, appointed him to First Church Pomona, where he has wrought diligently and effectively, receiving seventy-four persons on probation, sixty-two from probation, and sixty-five by certificate.

In the middle of the year W. H. Mumper was promoted from Baldwin Park to Melrose Avenue, Los Angeles. J. N. Roberts was engaged to supply Baldwin Park, which he has successfully done.

In April, H. J. Hartzell was transferred by Bishop Hughes from Puget Sound Conference and appointed to West Glendale Church and has proved himself to be "a workman who needeth not to be ashamed."

Special meetings have been held; classes of children have been given religious instruction; Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues have improved in spiritual life and increased in spiritual power; personal evangelistic work has been done by members of the Brotherhood and others; "Decision Day" has been observed in Sunday Schools; all resulting in conversions and many accessions to the churches.

Nearly a thousand persons have been received on probation, and 634 have been received from probation into full membership. The number of members in full has been increased from 12,121 to 12,967, a gain of 864. This is exclusive of non-resident members.

Sixteen churches increased pastors' salaries $2,898.

Church buildings have been erected, completed, or enlarged during the year as follows: Glendora, B. D. Snudden, pastor, reinforced concrete walls, Gothic style, $27,000; York Boulevard, Los Angeles, F. J. Seaman, pastor, wood, attractive style, $9,000; Tropico, S. W. Carnes, pastor, brick surfaced, Gothic, $7,000; San Fernando, George R. Graff, pastor, addition to church building, containing seven Sunday School rooms, stone walls, $1,500; Alhambra, C. D. Lewis, pastor, $14,000 expended in completion of a $22,000 Sunday School building, and renovation and refurnishing parsonage; Lake Avenue, F. G. H. Stevens, pastor, changes and repairs, $3,167; Glendale First Church, B. A. Johnson, pastor, has purchased lots in a fine location for $3,500, on which a suitable church will be erected.

Parsonages have been built at Monrovia, W. C. Geyer, pastor, $5,500; Mountain View, Sheridan Phillips, pastor, $2,500; Washington Street, Pasadena, R. I. McKee, pastor, $3,100; Simi, R. T. Smith, pastor, $545, besides donated labor and material, (old parsonage burned, insurance money, $500, paid by Ventura County Mutual six days thereafter—the fire manifestly a dispensation of Providence, followed by a dispensation of grace).

Other expenditures for the improvement of church and parsonage property have been as follows: Marengo Avenue, Alhambra, $60; Altadena, $160; Azusa, $100; Bardsdale, $200; Burbank, $224; Casa Verdugo, $249; Chino, $750; Covina, $175; Cucamonga, $75; El Monte, $10; Fillmore, $150; Glendale First, $150; Glendale West, $120; Lankershim, $100; Lordsburg, $70; Garvanza, $400; Montebello, $109; Grace, Ontario, $58; Oxnard, $75; Lincoln Avenue, Pasadena, $200; Scott Chapel, Pasadena, $200; Puente, $40; San Dimas, $50; Santa Paula, $450; Simi, $70; South Pasadena, $700; Ventura, $603; Tujunga, $100. The total cost of new buildings and improvements was $80,095, and the total amount paid thereon was $56,003.

Payments of Church Debts

In accordance with Pasadena First Church plan, originated by its brainy and broad-visioned pastor, for church extension in Pasadena and to free the churches from debt, Dr. Hughes asked the congregation one Sunday morning for $6,000 for the erection of a church for the Spanish Mission, $4,000 for Lake Avenue Church, and $3,000 toward the purchase price of lots for Lamanda Park Church, a total of $13,000, not one dollar of which, you will notice, was to be used for First Church, and they immediately subscribed $13,500. For two years this church has exceeded every church of Methodism in the amount of its benevolent offerings, except Christ Church of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania.

Our churches in this city are all at their best, and are all improving.

Careful attention has been given to the benevolences. The reports made to me by the pastors indicate that the aggregate amounts will be in excess of last year, thus insuring for the eighth year, the continuance of this district in the honorable position of the foremost district of the denomination in the amount of per capita offerings. This result could not have been achieved without devoted pastors and generous people.

The women's organizations have been continuously and successfully active. The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary auxiliaries are always successful, and without the Ladies' Aid Societies some churches, if they did not have to go out of business, would live at a "poor dying rate."

The District Epworth League Convention, held in First Church, Pomona, in May, was the most largely attended of any ever held in the district, the registration of delegates numbering 710. In every particular it was a great convention. Its influence has been appreciable in the local chapters. Its success was largely due to the District President, Dr. Herman E. Beckwith.

The David and Margaret Home has had a good year. "Founders' Day" was, as usual, an interesting occasion; perhaps more than ordinarily so by reason of the fact that Lieutenant Governor Wallace was the principal speaker.

The Ventura Chautauqua was pre-eminently successful, for which George B. Cliff and W. C. Botkin were in large measure responsible.

The district superintendent, the pastors, and many of the men and women of the district are constantly sounding the war cry, "California Dry," and on the third day of November by their votes they will make it dry.

F. D. MATHER.

SAN DIEGO DISTRICT

A year of unbounded blessing, a year when triumph ever shone through the cloud of trial, a year of diligent and devoted labor, of steady and constant gain might put into one brief sentence the record of the work done by the company of men with whom I have been privileged to work through another year on the San Diego District.

Two homes—that of W. M. Harkness of Hemet, and of Arthur Schultz of Calexico—have been blessed by the coming of babes, and one new home has been created by the marriage of Arthur Torrance, pastor at Santa Fe Springs, to one of the best girls in the district—Miss Hazel Brice of Artesia.

Some shadows have alternated with the sunshine. After six months of very successful ministry at Taylor Church, San Diego, Brother Frank Lucas suddenly passed to his eternal reward. Gifted, optimistic, enthusiastic, he created a large place for himself in the love of his church and left it with a new outlook on its great opportunities. His ministry among them will linger for many a day as the heyday of that church's life.

Coming to the church as supply after Brother Lucas' death, Elmer E. Marshall, a member of the Baltimore Conference, was himself soon called to pass through the shadows in the death of his beloved wife. For fifteen years they had companied together in most devoted ministry and their expectations were high that our Southern California climate would restore her to health. Improving for a time, the sudden news of the death of a dear sister struck a blow she could not rally from, and on Monday, August 3d, she passed into the ranks of the church triumphant. Suitable memorials have been presented of both of these devoted workers.

Three of our pastors—Brothers Kemper, Beery, Ore—were temporarily retired through illness, but the two latter are themselves again, while Brother Kemper has steadily come back toward health. Thus some clouds have alternated with the sunshine, but true to California, the sunshine has been far more than the shadow.

The churches are beginning to catch a vision of broader service, to see and feel that they must relate themselves to the whole of life around them, and are steadily entering into that broader life.

This is notably true of our Leagues and Ladies' Aids. Through the influence of institute and convention League after League reports giving itself to definite and outreaching lines of service. They are facing the problems of the Home-field, while increasing giving towards the far distant foreign lands, characterizes most of our Leagues. One of the most gladdening notes of today is the widening vision coming to the young hosts of the church, and San Diego Districts shares with the others in this regard. Surely there will soon dawn a new missionary day on our church.

Raising large sums of money, earning for themselves unstinted praise, the Ladies' Aids of the District are doing something better than money getting. They are becoming more and more the creators of a genuine social life in the churches as they are giving themselves more and more the creators of a genuine social life in the churches as they are giving themselves more and more to the work of visitation, reporting in many instances hundreds of visits made for the church during the year, one society reporting no less than 2,736 such calls.

A notable advance has been made in almost every Sunday School of the District, bringing fully 1500 increase in average attendance.

Our denomination has assumed its Sunday School task with its face toward the morning, heartily appropriating the newest and best in ideal and method, and God has crowned our work here with universal success, while the churches' best brains and hearts have been given to this work.

Your campmeeting at Huntington Beach was at its best this year. Larger congregations, calling for overflow meetings; a deeper spiritual tone and, better, a larger number of genuine conversions characterized the meeting this year.

It has been my joy in almost every Quarterly Conference on the District to call attention to our great Anti-Liquor Campaign, and it is now my joy to report that every church under my care is heart and soul in this fight. And conference after conference has by formal vote set its pastor free for any service he can render in this campaign, and all over this District the confident expectation is of overwhelming majorities in favor of the amendment.

Listen now for a few specific details. Yonder in Calxico, Arthur Schultz has wiped out the debt on the parsonage, spent several hundred dollars in renovating the auditorium and has put our church into front rank in that rapidly growing prohibition city. A few miles north at Heber, Scott Winebrenner has built and almost entirely paid for a commodious parsonage costing over $1700, as well as securing lots for the parsonage and for a church some day. At El Centro, A. L. Baker has wiped out half of the big church debt and by his capture of the town has made imperative the building before long of a new auditorium.

At Imperial, Robert Wright has, at an expense of several hundred dollars, repaired and decorated the interior of the church and seated it with elegant pews. At Alamo and Verde, W. L. Jones has organized societies in each place. At Holtville, S. J. Lindsay has lead in a successful revival campaign resulting in a large addition to our membership. From Brawley, T. H. Wilkinson has gone and opened up work at Westmoreland and from Alamorio, Q. P. Royer, who comes to us from the United Brethren Church, has organized new work at Mulberry and Calipatria, at the former conducting a revival which resulted in a number of conversions.

At Bard, in the southeast corner of the state, James A. Crouch has wiped out the debt and spent $50 on improvements on the church there, while on the Blythe charge, H. G. Burgess has opened work at Neighbours and Fertilla and has built and paid for at Blythe a neat church at a cost of more than $1,000. And so deep is the love of this devoted pastor for this small flock that he has asked to be returned to this far-distant field, so isolated that his nearest ministerial brother will be a hundred miles away, but he is laying the foundations of our Church deep and abiding.

At Randsburg, in Kern County, H. T. Lewis has held that trying field in great acceptability to the handful of interested workers there, and largely with his own hands has put our parsonage and church property into excellent condition. He has also recently organized under my direction a new society at Hinkley, on the Mojave desert. At Victorville, Oliver M. Butterfield, a U. S. C. student, who enters Drew this fall, took up the work definitely organized by myself in March, and has conducted it very successfully. We are building a church here at a cost of $1,300, which we hope to dedicate in a few days. Here a fine opportunity awaits the right kind of a man. Twenty-five miles east of Victorville there has been organized a society at Lucerne Valley which as the community settles up will develop into an important point.

The churches in the San Bernardino group have had a year of much blessing. At San Bernardino, Charles H. Scott has made his church the great leader in that vicinity in the Anti-Liquor fight of city and State and is steadily bringing his church to a degree of efficiency never before enjoyed.

At Del Rosa, C. W. Babcock has largely reduced the indebtedness on our property. At Highland, O. N. Oleson's ministry has been a great blessing to that church, wiping out large current indebtedness, improving the parsonage, and creating in the church a hearty and united spirit that means much for the future.

At Grace, Redlands, E. D. Ashleigh, with quiet, loving, persistent service, has not only made extensive improvements, giving at cost of nearly $700, a social hall and primary room, but has put the church on a sound business basis and held it united and firm during the past year of financial trial.

As you know, early in the year H. W. Peck was called from First Redlands to the Los Angeles District, and H. E. Murkett was appointed in his place, under whose ministry the work of this great church has gone steadily forward.

Yucaipa has grown right along under the leadership of F. B. Trotter who, while attending school, has looked after this new and promising field. In every way his pastorate has been a success, and he will report quite a reduction of the church debt.

Rialto has had a most excellent year, with O. W. Reinius every department being in fine shape. He has also opened preaching services at Fontana.

Colton has had a crowning victory in the completion of its new church at a cost of more than $20,000. Centrally located, thoroughly equipped, architecturally beautiful, it is a credit to the town, an honor to our denomination and a preeminent tribute to the skillful leadership and wise business management of its pastor, M. G. Wenz.

At Banning, H. C. Mullen will report improvements on the church amounting to $250, fine increase in the membership and marked uplift in the life of the church.

The churches of the Riverside group—Highgrove, Arlington, First and Grace, Riverside, Glenavon and Corona—have also had a good year. Highgrove has suffered heavily during the past three years, yet, under the leadership of S. A. Smith, has this year renovated and beautified the interior of the church at a cost of over $200. Arlington, under the leadership of C. A. Norcross, has wiped out the debt on its church building and also some of the debt on the parsonage, while the society has steadily gained in members and efficiency.

First Church has had a notable year with L. D. Van Arnam. A gracious revival led by the pastor resulted in over sixty conversions, while Leagues and Sunday School and Church membership have had large increases. Grace Church, with D. Loofbourrow as pastor, has made improvements on its property costing $1,750, and has also been blessed with a fine revival. At Glenavon, E. H. Kiefer has secured a large lot for church purposes, and has begun the erection of a commodious church to cost $1,500. To the southwest, at East Vale, J. R. Yost has opened during the year another preaching place, which will eventually be connected with Glenavon.

Corona has had with J. F. Humphrey a year of judicious pruning, of unifying and advancement, and under his leadership has come where it ought before very long to undertake the task of building its much needed auditorium.

Come for a moment to the Perris Valley group. At the south is the Murietta charge. This, under the pastorate of N. N. Bormose, has made solid gain. This superb pastor has left no stone unturned in his limited field to build up the church, and in addition has opened up two new preaching places—Murietta Springs and Temecula—while the debt on the parsonage has been wiped out, and the year closed with a blessed revival.

Elsinore is a difficult field, but has for another year been led by N. J. Burton in such a way as to win for him the abiding love of his people. He has also raised $75 for improvements on the parsonage. A lover of the church during this year has given him $900 for benevolences; $200 of which is for conference claimants fund. I. A. Engle has led the Perris church with great acceptability. He has put his own enthusiastic spirit into every department of the church and in spite of great odds has succeeded in wiping out a big piece of the church debt. The door to great usefulness for this church has been opened by this young preacher. Winchester, as stated above, about the middle of the year suffered the loss of its pastor, F. J. Kemper, but A. L. Bear, a devoted local preacher of Riverside, stepped into the breach and very acceptably supplied till the close of the year. Florida is very small, and W. E. Mills, an honored member of the Friends' Church, has done this year all that any man could do on that field.

At Hemet, W. M. Harkness has had a conspicuous success, in that he has led his church to undertake the project of building a new auditorium. Six thousand dollars were subscribed, plans drawn, and work was expected to begin September 1st, but the war in Europe paralyzed the sale of their fruit and the project is temporarily postponed. But it will come. San Jacinto, J. J. Post, pastor, has not yet been able to undertake the completion of its auditorium, but has made its Sunday School Department of better use for its congregational life as well as paying $1,400 on its church debt.

Orange County Methodism is steadily forging ahead. La Habra, under the guidance of Henry Stranberg, has completed its new church at a cost of nearly $6,000, and dedicated it March 15th, with all cost provided for, and every department of the church has been brought into fine shape by this promising young pastor. Olinda has suffered by the serious illness of its pastor, Albert Ore, who had to retire for the balance of the Conference year; but W. A. Reynolds has very efficiently supplied till Conference time, and under his leadership parsonage improvements have been made costing over $80.

Fullerton has wiped out $1,500 of its debt, and its pastor, J. A. Jackson, will report a net increase in the membership of fifty-eight, with corresponding advances in all other directions. Anaheim has had a year of great prosperity with C. H. M. Sutherland as pastor. Every department has grown, as this year the church has given itself unreservedly to two great missionary enterprises—the building of a church for its Mexican brethren, at a cost of more than $2,000, and the driving of the liquor traffic out of Anaheim and Orange County. God pity the stronghold of Satan that Sutherland attacks.

At Orange, B. C. Cory has seen his church forge ahead so that extensive enlargements or a new church edifice were imperative, and the brethren decided to get ready for the latter by purchasing a fine corner lot at the cost of $5,200. He will also report gains in every direction.

Santa Ana! What shall I say of it? Congregations crowding the church; every department showing unusual interest; a parsonage bought for the Mexican pastor, and his salary paid by this church; a fine increase of its membership; the gift by one of its laymen of $500 for evangelistic work on the District; $4,200 paid on church debt and lots secured for a new enterprise in the southwest of the city are parts of the work of its pastor, E. J. Inwood.

W. W. Hull found at Garden Grove a most critical situation. A division, threatened for months, broke this church before the new pastor had really entered on his work. Premillennialism did its deadly work and split the church, fifty withdrawing from its membership on action taken by the official board to safeguard the church. But so faithful and diligent has the pastor's work been and so hearty the church's co-operation that they will report a membership equal to that of last year, and in addition extensive improvements made on the League room.

On the Buena Park circuit, George A. Hunt has so succeeded that the societies have asked to be no longer a student charge, but one with a resident pastor, and would cordially welcome their present pastor back for a fourth year. Unusual spiritual blessings have rested on the church at Artesia. Early in the year E. M. Sutton arranged for special Evangelistic work. The meetings were graciously blessed by God, one large and permanent result following: A Men's Meeting, which has steadily grown in interest and has not only been a great blessing to the church, but a means of winning a number of men to Christ. Artesia was never in so good a condition as today.

This with two other charges—Santa Fe Springs and Somerset—lie outside Orange County, but belong to that group and these two churches, the former with Arthur Torrance, pastor, the latter with J. Gabrielson—have had a good year under these student pastors. Both fields are somewhat limited yet the churches have done well. Santa Fe Springs had wiped out its debt, made improvements on both parsonage and church buildings and maintained a constant Evangelistic life all during the year. Somerset, though suffering heavily by removals and financial stringency, has wiped out part of its debt and expects to begin the year with better business and spiritual prospects.

Westminster closes the year with triumph. Its auditorium badly needing extensive repairs, L. W. Moore and his co-workers thought it best to take the old church down and rebuild. They did so and on September the 20th the church, worth at least $2500, was dedicated with all costs provided. Wintersberg, under the leadership of Daniel Dundas, rejoices over a revival which brought nearly thirty young people into the church and over the wiping out of the indebtedness on the parsonage and nearly all of that on the church.

Huntington Beach has at last come to its own. For years our society has been hampered by lack of a proper building and for some time has been talking of plans and ways and means. But W. L. Miller, going as pastor last year, was soon able to start the project. The Huntington Beach Assembly generously donated lots for the building (you have been asked to endorse this), subscriptions were taken, the building begun and on July 19th, the $11,000 beautiful church was dedicated, and since then a large number have united with the church and this organization will report success along every line.

Newport Beach and Harper are difficult missionary grounds, but have been very faithfully and successfully cared for by T. C. Maxwell; during the year lots have been secured for a church at Harper and we hope by the next conference to report the erection of a building. And should there be anyone in this congregation who wants to do a very fine piece of missionary work he could do nothing better than to give a lot for a church to our small but faithful band of folks at Newport Beach, where a church building is so greatly needed. Brother Maxwell also held preaching services at Balboa during the past summer, thus taking steps for the beginning of work there.

San Diego County brings its note of cheer. Fallbrook, Ocean-side, San Marcos, Escondido, under the pastoral care, respectively, of George Twomley, George Cocking, W. H. Rogers, and A. J. McKenzie, have had in many senses a good year. San Marcos has put a hundred and fifty dollars into parsonage improvements. Here W. H. Rogers has awakened the interest of the whole surrounding country in the work of the church and has been notably successful in his work among the boys. Escondido has spent $50 on its parsonage and A. J. McKenzie has greatly strengthened the church, and awakened it to the necessity of a new auditorium, which we hope will come during the next year. Fallbrook is a small and isolated field, but George Twomley has led his people with real success. At Oceanside, George Cocking has greatly endeared himself to his congregation and lays down the work for a while to the deep regret of his people and district superintendent.

J. L. Minney at Cardiff, has held the little flock together under severe discouragement, but all are very hopeful regarding the outlook for next year. Steps have been taken by him to organize work at Del Mar, where a church will probably be erected during the coming year.

Pacific Beach finds itself the same in strength as at the beginning of the year. A community not growing has made the work of the devoted young pastor, J. C. Trotter, difficult and the church asks to be connected for this coming year with some other point.

Early in December, G. L. Goodell came to Coronado from Nebraska and soon made himself felt in the life of the church and community. Large increases in the Sunday School and church membership makes certain the futures of this church and ere long Coronado will be one of the prosperous societies of this conference.

Nestor and Otay remain as before. Chula Vista has with L. A. Rice had a year of struggle and counting all circumstances of victory. A heavy debt of $8000 on this church makes the task difficult; but the pastor and people alike have nobly sustained the work there. L. G. Spring closes his sixth year as pastor of National City. He found the church about to die; he leaves it strong, vigorous, optimistic—ready to go forward to meet its great opportunity. For sometime we have all felt that the present location and equipment were not what we must have, and the brethren have this year purchased lots in the best center of this rapidly growing City and expect before long to begin the enterprise of a new church.

La Mesa and Santee have been very faithfully served by their respective pastors, F. C. Edwards and H. H. Weyant. Santee has paid $300 on its parsonage debt and Brother Edwards is closing his fifth very successful year with La Mesa and is cordially invited to return. En Canto is a new point opened during this year by J. E. Beery. Lots are being secured and a church will be erected before long.

In San Diego city, Methodism has had a good year. Eli McClish, at Central, has ministered with great profit and delight to his people. At Fairmount, J. P. Barker, spite of very trying financial situations, has kept his church steadily forging ahead and will report growth in every department. Taylor church has, as already stated, suffered the loss of its pastor; but E. E. Marshall has taken up the difficult task and carried it on with great acceptability.

Normal Heights is new. Organized since last conference, by D. W. Wilt, it has gained so steadily that it now numbers seventy-six in membership, with an average attendance in the Sunday School of over one hundred and gives promise before long of becoming a strong church. Brother Wilt has done a great work. Mission Hills has at last come to victory, under the pastorates of Brothers Beery and Setter. The old property has been sold, a new location secured and we laid the cornerstone for an elegant chapel, September the 11th. I am sure that before long this will be one of the most desirable appointments in the conference.

First Church under the leadership of R. D. Hollington, has had a year of continuous prosperity. Large increases in Sunday School attendance made alterations necessary and over $1500 was spent on this work. Besides unusual activity in all the regular departments, a new feature of social service, including free dispensary, labor bureau and legal aid has been added to the work this year, and has proved itself a great blessing to many, while more than 150 have been received as a result of revival meetings in which this church took conspicuous part.

All this may be summarized: preaching opened in 17 new places, nine churches built or in process of building and one parsonage completed, 3 new projects under way, while lots have been secured in 9 other places. Debts have been wiped out in part or whole on 17 churches and improvements made on 30 and for all expenses the great sum of $140,000 has been raised.

Over and above all these material things, 38 churches have held 100 weeks of revival meetings resulting in 581 being received in on confession of faith and the churches will report an increase in membership of about 1100 and for the fields outside their own territory, for the great missionary enterprises of the church at large, they will have given at least the sum of $32,000.

This is but a meager report of the work your brothers have done on the San Diego district and their work will abide, and this morning we join with you in laying it as the tribute of our love at the feet of our Master. Men of the San Diego district, greetings and all hail. I congratulate you on the year's work and pray that next year double success will be yours and mine.

Your Brother,

LOS ANGELES DISTRICT

We gratefully acknowledge our indebtedness to our heavenly Father for his mercies and protection both as pastors and people. Sickness has been in some of our parsonage homes, but death has taken none from our ranks.

My predecessor, Francis M. Larkin, early in last November, was appointed editor of The California Christian Advocate. Bishop Edwin H. Hughes, our resident Bishop, appointed the present superintendent on Dec. 4, 1913. The change in superintendency and the incidental delay have more or less retarded the work of the year.

I desire to acknowledge the very cordial and helpful assistance given me by Dr. Larkin in getting hold of the work and his frequent and valuable advice given during the year.

Brothers F. W. Otto and Mott Mitchell, at their own request, were granted needed rest from pastoral labors. W. H. Mumper was transferred from the Pasadena District and appointed to Melrose Avenue, and John Hedley was appointed to supply the vacancy at Redondo Beach. C. C. Hartzler and Carl S. Knopf, during the summer, were given leave of absence to attend our theological schools. Brother Hartzler's charge at Downey was reunited with Hynes, and Harry B. McFarland was appointed to the vacancy at Westland.

On account of the opening of new work, four more pastors have been added during the last five months. They are: Lawrence V. Lucas at El Segundo; Gilbert B. Traveller at Noel Church, Los Angeles; Arthur H. Bolton at Culver City; Ernest A. Miners at Hermosa Beach.

Revivals and Membership

There have been quite a number of genuine revivals during the year. In a few cases, however, the distinction between a "protracted effort" and a real revival was not apparent, either in preparation, the conduct of the meetings, or results. Some good was accomplished in such cases; but there is great need of a return to the apostolic and early Methodist emphasis upon experimental salvation, accompanied by a more systematic and thorough training of young converts and scholars received from decisions in the Sunday Schools, by competent and experienced leaders; or, if these are not to be had, then by the pastor himself. Such conversions and training would save many a young, earnest, but uninstructed soul from a lapse into worldliness and make a vital, spiritual force of him.

A marked feature of the revivals was the part taken in a number of them by a score or more of students from the University of Southern California and an Epworth League team from South Main Street Church.

The pastors have reported to me a net increase of 1507 full members and 199 preparatory members. Not satisfied with this, they and the Federation of Methodist Brotherhoods of the district, have carefully prepared plans for a district-wide and year-long revival, by which they confidently hope to win at least a like number out of the world while in no way neglecting to gather into our church fellowship those coming among us who have been already won for Christ.

We now have 64 Leagues, Senior and Intermediate, on the Los Angeles District, with a membership of 3680. That is an increase of 12 Leagues and 118 members. There is a steadily growing improvement in methods of work and a greater earnestness of spirit seen in most of the Leagues which speaks well for the work of the coming year. The district convention held at Central Church, Long Beach, had double the usual attendance and was thoroughly helpful and harmonious.

There are 31 Junior Leagues now, which is an increase of 9. They have 1109 members, which is an increase of 525. Some of the pastors who are not able to secure interested and competent superintendents for their Juniors, are handling the work themselves, much to their credit and the great advancement of the work among our young members.

The pastors report at present 65 Sunday schools with a total of 24,312 scholars. That is an increase of 11 schools and over 2500 scholars. As a rule the schools are well organized. They report 40 home departments, with 2270 members; 46 cradle rolls, with an enrollment of 1965. There is, we believe, an increasing emphasis being placed upon the main aim of all Sunday schools, viz., the winning of all our scholars for Christ, while in no way neglecting intelligent and careful instruction in God's Word.

Brotherhoods

A very marked "MEN'S FORWARD MOVEMENT" is under way on this district. The Indianapolis convention idea has taken deep root in Los Angeles. We had 17 Brotherhoods last December, we now have 34, with a membership of over 1500 men; and two teams from the Federation of Los Angeles Brotherhoods are kept busy organizing new chapters. They expect to have a Brotherhood in every church on this district by January 1, 1915. At the call of the Superintendent and Federation, last Friday night a meeting was held in First Church, Los Angeles, and it was unanimously agreed that with the consent and co-operation of the official boards of the churches, "An every member canvass for current expenses and benevolences" would be taken by all the churches of this district, as far as practical, on the same day.

The pastors and Brotherhoods expect in this way to place the finances and benevolences of all the churches on a satisfactory business basis very early in the year.

The "Spiritual department" of the Federation has already arranged for a revival campaign covering the whole district and the entire year. A movable tabernacle is being secured, funds are being raised, evangelists have been engaged, and the time for the first series of services to begin set for Sunday, October 11th. It is the purpose of the Federation to organize "Revival Teams" of men in all the churches, who will not only help carry forward vigorously the tabernacle work, but will also themselves combine and carry the meetings to churches which may not be able to come within the immediate touch of the larger meetings.

Plans are far advanced by which the Federation expects to have next fall in Los Angeles a great convention of Methodist men of the Pacific slope. This convention, together with the anticipated presence of our Board of Bishops, and the two great Missionary Boards of our Church, at practically the same time, will prove a great inspiration and uplift to the Methodism of our Conference and the whole State of California.

During the year the Los Angeles City Missionary Society has secured the consent of the Los Angeles churches to change its name to "The Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society," and to extend its boundaries to cover the territory of the Los Angeles District as well as that of the city. This society, under the presidency of Mr. J. E. Carr has done excellent work during the year. With the co-operation of the churches in Los Angeles and the surrounding territory it has kept the Fifth Street Mission in good working condition. Many souls have been saved at its altar, and much help given to the needy. It has also helped to establish four new churches, beside carrying most of the property burdens of a number of others.

The official consent of a number of Methodist organizations and churches working in Los Angeles, south of Main street and in the neighborhood of 7th St., has been secured by the society to a plan by which $7000 would be annually saved in running expenses and the payment of interest on church debts, and at the same time a large Institutional Church or Mission, worth $100,000, established. It is expected to make it a centre for Methodist work of all kinds in that part of the city. The hearty co-operation of several of our leading churches and organizations has been pledged to this work.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society has 35 auxiliaries with 2038 members, on the Los Angeles District; 12 young people's organizations, with 408 members; and 25 children's bands, with an enrollment of 600. Its secretary reports a large increase in the number of its societies and in membership. 26 churches gave the society a thank offering of $3700 this year. As soon as possible every church in the district ought to have a Women's Foreign Missionary Society. (They are invariably an inspiration to work and a real social and spiritual blessing to the individual church.)

The Women's Home Missionary Society

The Women's Home Missionary Society reports a successful year. It has 41 auxiliaries, which is an increase of 2. There are 1792 paid members. The "Mother's Jewels," number 1177; there are 168 Home Guards and 479 "Queen Esthers." The Society has raised $22,290 this year on the Los Angeles District and is a real uplift to the charges where they are organized.

The Methodist Hospital of Southern California, established in 1909, now has a fine site on Hope Street, Los Angeles, with a frontage of 250 and a depth of 200 feet. The site is worth $50,000. This year a contract was let for the first part of a fireproof, steel and cement building, six stories high, with a frontage of 145 feet. This first contract will bring the building to a height of 8 feet above the ground at a cost of $20,000. It is expected that this part will be completed by Nov. 1st. The second contract calls for an expenditure of $105,000, which will complete this splendid structure, which will be at once a great blessing, to not only many of our pastors and their families through its generous provisions for them, but will also be a Christian hospital, where persons of moderate means can secure thoroughly competent medical attention and nursing. It will be a lasting monument to the loving, patient efforts of the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Southern California Conference. It, and they, are deserving of our most cordial support and co-operation.

The pastors in their reports to me indicate a gain of over $4000 in salaries, and several thousands in the regular benevolences. To this is to be added a $10,000 special gift for home missions reported by Rev. J. A. Geissinger of University Church, Los Angeles; another special gift of $5000, given the Women's Home Missionary Society of Westlake Church; and still a third gift of $6000 from First Church, Los Angeles, to the Women's Home Missionary Society, bringing the total of that Church benevolences this year to $29,506.

University of Southern California and Maclay College of Theology

The greatest asset and opportunity of Southern California Methodism is the University of Southern California and the Maclay College of Theology. Their halls are crowded with students as never before. There is the greatest need of generous support. Unless something is done speedily worthy of the wealth and commanding position of our denomination, and of the great, growing city in which our educational institutions are located, the Methodism of Southern California will wake up some morning and remember that opportunity has a forelock, but no hindlock.

New work has been begun in twelve places; five churches have been built and dedicated and nine others are under way.

Our church extension work and the erection of new churches has steadily progressed throughout the year (although it has been seriously hampered by the general financial stringency).

The failure of our people to properly support the Missionary and Church Extension Society has in some measure been overcome by securing the assistance of some churches in establishing branches of their work, which will speedily grow into independent, self-supporting churches.

Following this plan, Edendale Church organized a branch at Elysian Park. A lot was secured and a good Sunday School is being conducted, for the present in a private residence.

Belvedere has planted two organizations on the outskirts of its tributary territory. One was started last week out on East First street; the other is on Stephenson avenue, where they have a Sunday School of over fifty and regular preaching services conducted by local preachers of the Belvedere Church.

First Church, Hollywood, has established a branch of its work at Crescent Heights, two miles away, where they have a flourishing Sunday School going. Lots have been secured and a bungalow church will soon be completed.

East Hollywood Church has secured new lots near the present site of their church, and propose building as soon as the times warrant the selling of their present property and the erection of a much better church.

The Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society bought lots last year in Chesterfield Square and during this year a neat bungalow church, which can later be turned into a parsonage, was built and dedicated. We have now a membership of forty-three, an Epworth League, Ladies' Aid and a Sunday School of 130 at that point.

A memorial gift of $250 from Mr. Noel enabled the brethren, with other gifts of money and labor, and the assistance of the Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society, to complete a comfortable, though modest, church at the corner of West Jefferson and Arlington Streets, Los Angeles. The church is called the Noel Methodist Episcopal Church, and although less than five months old, it now has a membership of over fifty, a fine Sunday School, Epworth League, Ladies' Aid, Brotherhood, and a regular attendance of about fifty at its prayer meetings, and in the neighborhood of 100 at its Sunday evening services, where sinners are converted quite regularly and added to the church. A student of Maclay College of Theology, Gilbert B. Traveller, is the pastor.

Euclid Heights has sold its church and is building an unusually well-arranged and commodious structure, which, when completed, will be worth $24,000.

Westlake has completed a Sunday School room worth $10,000. The church has had the best year of the long term of its present pastor; and, with its well equipped Sunday School room, anticipates a still better year of work.

Inglewood has moved its present church to the rear of the lots, and is remodeling it and adding a $6,000 auditorium. They were compelled to do so by the fact that much of the Sunday School has had to be accommodated in outside buildings and tents.

A $1,500 lot has been bought at Culver City; the company giving a generous donation toward the price. A church was organized last Sunday, September 27th.

Mrs. Wannop of First Church, Los Angeles, has given a memorial gift of $1,000 in memory of her mother, Mrs. Maynard, toward the building of a church at Culver City in the very near future. The pastor, Arthur H. Bolton, is also a student of Maclay College of Theology.

Gardena Church has organized a branch of its work at Gardena Heights and is planning in the near future to establish still another.

A society of eighteen members, a Sunday School and Ladies' Aid Society have been organized at Wilmington, the inner harbor of Los Angeles. Two centrally located lots, 100 by 150 feet, have been bought for $2,500, and a church will be built as soon as our local Methodists enable the Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society to help, by giving us more funds.

Redondo Beach Church, under the leadership of John Hedley, who has supplied that point for the past six months, has established two new organizations. El Segundo has an unusually fine record. On August 30th, the Superintendent of this District dedicated a $3,500 church free of debt. There is a society at El Segundo of about forty, a good Epworth League, a large and enthusiastic Ladies' Aid, a vigorous Brotherhood chapter has just been installed, and a Sunday School of over 125, well equipped and doing admirable work. A student, Lawrence V. Lucas, is the pastor.

The other branch of the Redondo Church was established at Hermosa Beach. Services are held for the present in the city hall, with a flourishing Sunday School. Another student of the University of Southern California, Ernest A. Miners, is the pastor and giving very satisfactory service.

Schools that can produce such workers as those just mentioned and others on this district doing equally good work, are decidedly worthy of better support than they are receiving at our hands.

Wisely guided by its vigorous pastor, the outer harbor city of San Pedro has had a very prosperous year. A donation of property worth $18,000 was made by Mr. Chilson to our church. Three large lots centrally located have been bought, and plans are well under way for a church costing $40,000 or more to be erected very soon.

Two lots have been bought at Venice during the year, and the corner stone of a $3,500 church was laid last Tuesday, September 22, 1914. We have a class of twenty-eight members, a Ladies' Aid of twenty-five and a Sunday School of seventy-seven in Venice. The Methodist camel has his head well within the Venetian tent, and the bacchanalian inhabitants thereof will soon have to move out and on.

Good work has been done all along the line but the palm for vigorous, carefully planned work must go to Long Beach this year. Our three churches and their pastors, with large vision and generous instincts, wisely planned to systematically and firmly establish methodism in their city. Early in the year, under the superintendency of my predecessor, Dr. Larkin, the well built Grace Church, worth $30,000, was completed and dedicated. Just before the last annual conference, without any organized membership, J. E. Herrington, a supply from the Puget Sound Conference, bought, and afterwards moved and re-erected Trinity Church worth $20,000. He also secured three lots 85 by 125 feet at Zaferia, Long Beach, and last week organized still a third church at Belmont Heights with a membership of nineteen. He reports a gain of 260 members, a net increase of three Sunday Schools with thirty officers and 350 scholars; two Epworth Leagues with thirty-six members; and last, but not least, two Ladies' Aid Societies. A record of doubling the number of its Methodist Church organizations, building two new churches worth $50,000, increasing their Epworth League membership by 100; their Sunday Schools by 551, and adding 516 to their church membership speaks volumes for the blighting effect on progress, decency and religion of that thoroughly "Dry", hermetically sealed, widely advertised and most rapidly growing city of California, Long Beach.

In the death grapple with the liquor traffic and its inevitably allied vices the Methodists of the Southern California Conference, alone, have put over fifty regiments of actual members, each over 1,000 strong, into the hottest part of the fight. The Los Angeles District furnishes twenty regiments. It has been the high privilege of the Superintendent of this District to help organize the State campaign, to assist in aligning, combining and directing all the temperance and most of the evangelical church forces and others united in a solid phalanx. We are unflinching and unalterably determined to systematically work and never stop until we have destroyed root and branch from among us this world-wide curse and blight upon the human race, which has for over fifty years been filling California's poorhouses, lunatic asylums, jails and penitentiaries with the great majority of their unfortunate inmates.

Led by our wise and vigorous resident Bishop, Edwin H. Hughes, our pastors are responding splendidly to the call for leaders; our people are working hard and giving liberally. Nearly every Methodist pulpit has already become, and will now in every case become and continue to be, an organization center of forces which are going to conquer, on November 3, 1914, the liquor traffic, the white slave traffic, the prize fight, and give a day of rest to our less fortunate fellow workers.

No such opportunity has ever been afforded the people of California to wipe out these foul pests which, vampire like, have fastened themselves upon our citizens and the body politic. For over half a century this liquor traffic has practically robbed tens of thousands of our citizens of their hard earned money and destroyed them body and soul. Now the day of reckoning has come. Much has been done to win this battle, much remains to be done, but victory is in sight.

SPANISH AND PORTUGUESE DISTRICT

There is a parsonage in this Conference where we were recently entertained by men and angels. On tinted walls I noted, first, an appropriately framed face of Christ. Nearby was Saint Cecelie, Pharoah's horses and a hand-painted church in the valley. Its six charming rooms all show original taste and daily care.

While walking to the train I thanked God that Dr. Inwood's people in Santa Ana have done the thing right. For that parsonage is a Mexican parsonage. This $1,200 parsonage, recently built and so beautifully furnished by the people of Santa Ana, has given welcome to some 200 or more Mexicans who beheld for once, and many of them for the first time, a true Mexican home. Santa Ana Methodists have done the respectable and far-sighted thing for their Mexicans and their bed of violets will spread all over this Spanish southwest for the uplift of these benighted brothers.

The Mexicans of Santa Ana contributed $50 on the parsonage and then proceeded to secure funds for building a social hall annex to their one-room church building. This was quickly done and a $410 social hall was built, which serves as a Sunday School classroom and a room for the choir and for the live Epworth League. Much credit is due also to Professor D. K. Hammond, an American teacher of Spanish who has united with the Mexican church, thus proving, after his recent visit to Spain his appreciation of our work. The money given and raised by the Santa Ana Mexican church is $581, or ten times that of last year. It cost them $40 to entertain the Mexican Sunday School Convention, of which Brother Gonzales was President, and which was a splendid success. Several members joined at Anaheim, when it was organized two months ago as a church; and two families have united with other denominations in towns where we have no Methodist work. Still the Santa Ana membership totals eighty-five, not counting non-resident members. Total for benevolences a year ago was $9; this year these brethren bring six times as much and nearly all causes are remembered.

This now important Mexican church has had a banner year in every way and it has one of the best plants for Mexican Gospel work in the state. Two outpoints promise well for a good work: Delhi and El Modeno. We hope to get halls or property in both Mexican communities soon. The Friends Church at El Modeno has offered generous support along with help from Orange, when we secure a regular meeting place.

Brother Gonzales advertises his work well and he has impressed the whole community. He came to a bitter situation with no membership. He has gradually healed the bitterness, winning over the leaders of the opposing Mexican contingent. This Mexican church proposes this year to help at least $5 per months on the support of their pastor, beside their regular payments on piano, benevolences and current expenses.

Anaheim and Fullerton—Our pastor, Samuel B. Goitia, a product of the Santa Ana work, died early in the year and the University Church Mexican Missionary, Antonio Jimenez, was promoted to the important Anaheim and Fullerton Circuit. Last Thanksgiving night at a Union Prayer Meeting in Anaheim, Rev. Sutherland led in securing subscriptions of over $2,000 toward building a Mexican church. Orange, Fullerton and Garden Grove friends gave help. The Board of Home Missions secured for us a memorial gift of $250 and also $100 for a parsonage. This coming Thanksgiving Day there will be a bee to build a church and parsonage on the fine $1,200 lot purchased in the center of the town. Whether this is worth while was proven at a service two months ago when we baptised five and received seven adults on probation and four full members, all of whom are fighting a good fight.

Fullerton is being opened up in the usual way, which is the taking over of a group of converts from Anaheim and holding services in Mexican homes till they are spiritually warmed up and given courage to take a public stand

Friends in Anaheim and Fullerton are giving loyal support to the local Mexican work. The Queen Esther's of Anaheim provided the moving expenses and some furnishings for Senor Jimenez and a great union reception and donation was given them.

Long Beach, Watts and Santa Monica—Brother Narro and volunteer workers have done foundation work here in months past. God has now raised up a man of God who formerly completed a course as a Catholic priest, Elias Montoya, who is faithfully developing his long circuit, Long Beach, Watts and Santa Monica. He is supported by the Hollywood, Long Beach and East Santa Monica churches. He is truly unique though a novice. Santa Monica proves a hard proposition, but some seven families receive him kindly.

Long Beach with its many Mexicans is an encouraging point. Socialists and members of the Independent Mexican church have stirred up trouble concerning pastors being given salaries. Nevertheless, the people from the Pacific Electric section and others round about are coming out now and that means an interest in the Gospel. But Senor Montoya says Watts is the joy of his labors. We saw why last week, when we met with a company of section men and better class Mexicans who crowded the nice home of Senor Murillo. That night we baptised four adults and three children and received three stalwart laborers into probation.

Santa Paula—The shooting of a Christian marshal during last Thanksgiving week was given proper point by Brother Cliff in his sermon at the union service. He simply said: "We are to blame. We have not given the Mexicans the Gospel." Prompt and united effort has given Santa Paula the consecrated labors of our former Los Angeles pastor, Enrique Narro, our John the Baptist. The Santa Paula people have provided $75 monthly for support. Funds to build a new church were raised in twenty minutes in a second union meeting.

Ventura Chatauqua responded quickly to Brother Cliff's appeal and gave $100 to put Christopher Rangel, an orphan of Santa Paula, in the Spanish-American Institute. Fillmore has provided $65 monthly for a pastor. We have a splendidly educated man who expects to come soon. He, like Brother Sein, had to fly from the disorders of Mexico. Just here note that Mexico has sent more Christians into the United States than we have ever sent to her. Last Sunday morning at Santa Paula the Mexicans gathered for their first service in their new church, which to them is a miracle of philanthropy. They had no chairs, but decided to proceed with everybody standing, while in public prayer they asked God for chairs. While they were praying an auto truck came with fifty chairs for them.

Pasadena—Just to think that the struggling, prosaic charge in the Crown City should end the year with a whole riot of adventure, romance and splendid progress! The little windowless pavilion has had the largest attendance in its history. Pastor Olazabal spent three months in Mexico, taking the last train down and the first train back. Saturday night's wedding will prove to you that the bride he brought back is worth all she cost. At the Fourth Quarterly Conference this flower of Mexico, who has studied trigonometry, and is a capable stenographer, showed her talents at the organ, and in song and in winning hearts. She is deeply spiritual and two of her uncles are prominent preachers in Mexico.

Pasadena First Church has provided $6,000 with which we will build very soon a useful and beautiful church, and possibly a parsonage. We only wait to secure a suitable lot by exchange of the present one, which has gotten into bad surroundings. The Pasadena Church shows a 50 per cent increase in Sunday School attendance; the enrolment of sixty-seven compels part of them to gather on a nearby lot.

Brother Olazabal last Sunday night received ten into full membership and baptised six adults. The membership has more than doubled this year. Ten have been converted in the Sunday School. The local giving for the year totals $90. The brethren have a poor fund of $13 at present which they loan and receive back. The newly organized Epworth League is providing half the scholarship of $8 monthly for a Pasadena Mexican boy at the Spanish-American Institute and have paid part of the scholarship of a Chinese girl in Borneo.

The four American churches of Pasadena are giving magnificent aid. They volunteered an increase this year. Incidentally you will be glad to know that this First Church of Pasadena during the past year have given about $3,700 to the Spanish-American Institute and the Pasadena Mexican work, not mentioning the $6,000 recently subscribed for the new church. No wonder that Francisco Olazabal and Macrina Orozco requested the honor of having their lives bound in one by a pastor who has led his church in raising nearly $10,000 in one year for the uplift of their people.

Los Angeles—Here, where revolutions are fathered and financed; here, where Spain most deeply intrenched her life in our soil; here, where social sores will increasingly fester with the coming of diverse multitudes and great wealth and industries calling for unskilled labor such as Mexicans, and here, in the heart of this city, Los Angeles, we have this year gotten a secure foothold. The Board of Home Missions provided $400 for the moving of Eucario M. Sein and his family last February from Laredo, Texas. For six months Brother Sein struggled on like a lion in a bird cage at our pitiful little 225 Bloom-street chapel, a mile away from the Plaza and down a dark pocket of an Italian street. A month ago he secured a hall at 110 Commercial street, right in front of the postoffice. The $40 monthly rent is half provided by the congregation itself. The Plaza meetings each Tuesday night, under the auspices of the Mexican Epworth League, are already the largest ever held by Gospel workers there. One night a Roman priest asked for an interview early next morning, which they had. This hungering seeker for light is under appointment by the Catholic Church to go as a missionary far out into that restless Spanish world. We cannot tell you more in the public way. The opening night in the new hall a nice company of cultured Mexicans were present and assisted with solos and instrumental music. Many new faces are seen in the meetings and an enthusiasm that bodes well for the future is seen, as evidenced by their giving about $20 monthly in self-support and their raising $50 for benevolences. Brother Sein reports $128 raised by his people during the eight months of his ministry. His membership, due to change of place and pastors, does not show a large gain, but to see those three Mexicans reading God's Word at that window of his hall, and those score of Mexicans—mostly men—at prayer meeting on that artery of Mexican life in the United States is what we would see in a successful mission on the foreign field.

But the folly of our long continuing to pay $500 a year in rent for a single room two blocks from the Plaza is apparent to all. Will you mightily pray and earnestly aid in securing a lot for a Plaza church? We may not make public an opportunity now open to us, but will you help us to secure $10,000 just as soon as possible for the purpose? When we have a lot we can then begin to do a really constructive work for the Mexicans who throng that Plaza and who scatter out from there.

If we really mean to take up this Mexican work, let's do it right. There are more Mexicans than Methodists in Los Angeles and we owe them at least one good church while we have some forty or more Methodist Churches in English, not counting the Y. M. C. A. and missions. Things of this character must be viewed in the light of the Judgment Day and of the Golden Rule.

The First Church of Los Angeles, aided by South Pasadena, Vermont Square and Boyle Heights, have been supporting Brother Sein and his rents. Our prayer of last year is realized. First Church is rising to its great task. They have nearly three-quarters of Brother Sein's salary provided for and are pushing it on to the full support of their Mexican assistant pastor, as they love to call him. Dr. and Mrs. Locke have taken a deep interest and their prayers will ultimately secure them the full support of this great worker and his remarkable family of seven boys and a girl. First Church, Los Angeles, have given about $1,500 during the past year to the Institute and to the Los Angeles work. Dr. Locke also visited the Institute and won the hearts of the boys. One of his "We Boys" has sent down 20,000 feet of second-hand lumber toward the building of an Industrial Hall, so urgently needed.

"El Mexicano"—The 12-page bi-monthly paper "El Mexicano," largely financed by the wide-awake Highland Park Epworth League and edited by Attorney F. Ray Risdon, is being sent to over 2,000 subscribers and givers. One copy brought a gift of $50 from an unknown friends in Chicago. Four pages are devoted to the Spanish-American Institute, four to the district and the rest to the De Pauw School and general items on Mexican hopes and heartaches.

Receipts and Expenditures—(In nearest round numbers)—Received during the year from the Board of Home Missions, $2,360 regular appropriation, $400 special appropriation for Brother Sein's moving, and $200 for the Santa Ana and Anaheim parsonages, a total of nearly $3,000; received from other givers $7,800, making a total of about $10,000. Expended for new buildings and repairs, $2,000; salaries of workers, including their rents, moving and other expenses, $6,800; chapel rents, supplies and traveling, $520; "El Mexicano," $320; printing, stereopticon and kodaks, $170; and office and general expenses, $350.

Summary of Work and Workers—The total full membership is 141, a gain of 40 per cent. Probationers, 90, making a total of 241, a net gain of 15 per cent over last year notwithstanding the financial tension which affects the Mexicans worse than any other people, compelling them to seek work in other parts. Some loss in members has been due to the death of Pastor Goitias, the change of pastors in Los Angeles and the fact that Sr. Jimenez had to desert his beginnings in Lankershim, Downey and Rivera to take up the Anaheim work. These he is gathering up, but their membership is not reported until they are bona fide.

We have six regular pastors and three other workers, beside the help of valuable volunteer workers, such as Jose Valencia, who supplied for Sr. Olazabal during his absence in Mexico. There are eight regular preaching points beside eleven out-stations and the Spanish-American Institute. There have been 17 adults baptised during the year and 16 children. We have four Mexican Epworth Leagues, which is double the number of last year. There are 107 Epworth Leaguers and we have 333 enrolled in our eight Sunday Schools, a gain over last year of 28 per cent. There have been 76 conversions reported from the Sunday Schools. These are not permitted to join the Church as quickly as we do in the English work.

During the year 2,448 services have been held or aided in the interest of the Mexicans and 7,816 visits made to homes and with individuals. The workers have written 5,540 letters and traveled 41,568 miles; 336 copies of God's Word and 3,500 tracts, all in Spanish or Portuguese, have been sold and given out. Careful monthly reports are received from each worker, giving the daily detail in meetings, visits, miles and letters and other interesting items of the work.

In general we have prayerfully sought to do affective and strategic work even at the expense of numerical gains. There is now a fine spirit of comity among the Superintendents of Spanish work, so that the work does not overlap and there is less of rivalry and strife among the members. For example, the pastors of all the Santa Paula American churches united in asking all the Superintendents to agree upon a worker for them. Now that we are planted in Santa Paula we feel that it is strategic that we also occupy the surrounding Mexican centers, Ventura, Bardsdale and Fillmore. During the coming year we hope to open a San Joaquin Valley Portuguese circuit. A splendid Portuguese worker awaits the word to come; some of the support is already raised. Before his conversion he was called "Rich Portuguese Joe."

Two of our pastors, Jimenez and Narro have completed their studies of the first two years and will be ordained as deacons at this Conference, and Elias Montoya will be received on trial. These studies and examinations require much time and will be shared this year by our ordained elders, Sein and Gonzales. You know of the efforts in the summer Institutes and Camp Meetings along the line of Mission Study classes and lectures, looking toward the laying of foundations for the far, big future of this work.

I feel profoundly grateful to God, and to all who have given money and offered prayer so that now the Spanish-American Institute is open and filled with Mexican boys. And that we have such men at this critical hour in California's history as Gonzales and Jimenez to send us in lists of Mexicans who will vote California "DRY". True, the first list of one contained only thirteen names and of the other twenty-eight, but those forty-one names may look pretty big on the end of the nose of the coming election. Besides, they will win others. Brother Gonzales has been appointed truant officers for the Mexican children of Santa Ana. The last letter from Brother Jimenez told of how he was surrounded by eight families of sick folks who demanded medicines and other constant attention. Of course, most of them are sick because they are under-fed and ignorant. Who would minister for the Saviour of the world to those sick families and those flocking children had not the University Church raised up and sent out this Mexican home missionary to Anaheim? God bless us in performing this task, which truly belongs to all of us in His unmistakeable and gracious providence.

Dr. Larkin, at the close of his report last year quoted from Edwin Markham lines which might be given a new setting:

"There is a destiny that makes us brothers;
None goes his way alone;
All that we send into the lives of others

EDUCATION

On Founders' Day, which is usually celebrated by many of our institutions of higher education, it is quite the fashion to dwell upon the early days as those of peculiar hardship and difficulty. There is ample material for that kind of retrospection in connection with our colleges and universities. The most of them were started on what our business men today would call a "shoe-string." They had small beginnings of every kind. Frequently the name was ambitious enough to comprehend the highest educational ideals while the habitation was only a temporary makeshift of the humblest kind.

But the student of present day movements and tendencies in the educational world will be forced to the unwelcome conclusion that the time of trial in the American history of Christian education lies in the future. This conviction is the fruit of various considerations.

In the beginning, the various Christian denominations had the field of higher education all to themselves. They had to meet no competitors in that field during the first era of college founding in America. Along the Atlantic coast will be found the great educational foundations of the early period. Without exception they were Christian colleges. These schools of higher learning pre-empted the field in the days when they had no competition and the result is one of the differentiating characteristics of the East in contrast with the newer West.

Out here on the Pacific Coast we are attempting to do the work in a comparatively few years which the fathers began in the East nearly three hundred years ago, and at which they have been busy for eight generations. We not only have to face many of the difficulties which characterized their endeavor, but in addition we are face to face with later developments and antagonistic tendencies from which they were happily exempt.

The first development which added to the difficulties of Christian education was the entrance of the State into the field of higher education and the rise and growth of the State universities. By the year 1800 there were twenty-five colleges in all the United States. Then followed the era of state education. The social order had been leavened by the Church and education became a national enthusiasm. State universities were established in nearly all of the newer states. These were endowed by land grants and annually enriched by great appropriations by the state legislatures. Here is the competition which was lacking in the early history of the Christian college, but which is now an increasing quantity in all of our new states. The new condition of state competition has marvelously enlarged and increased our educational problems.

In addition to the States' entrance into the field of higher education there is a still newer development which adds to our difficulties. We are now confronted by foundations, educational boards, university associations and secular departments, none of which can be described as enthusiastic over denominational enterprises. One of the general principles of the Rockefeller Foundation is thus stated: "To co-operate sympathetically and helpfully with the religious denominations." That has been done in many instances, but it is obvious that such an organization wields tremendous power and by its conditions of assistance, determined largely by achieved results in the East, the institutions still in their beginnings are placed at a disadvantage.

Another influential factor entered the field less than ten years ago. In April, 1905, Mr. Andrew Carnegie transferred to trustees $10,000,000 of 5 per cent first mortgage bonds of the United States Steel Corporation, the revenue from which is to provide retiring pensions for the teachers in universities, technical schools and colleges in the United States, Canada and New Foundland. The significant thing for us in connection with the fund is that it excludes so-called sectarian institutions from its benefits. The result has been that, in hope of participating in the pension fund, many institutions founded and supported by the various denominations and always up to that time claiming a mother's care from the Church, have run away from home.

Now all of this marks a tendency. It is a natural thing for the administrators of our Christian colleges to attempt competition with other institutions on their own ground, forgetful that in these days of state and secular education the Christian college can have only one reason for being, and that is the fact that it possesses a Christian character with a Christian influence and serves a Christian purpose.

As an annual conference with an institution of higher education belonging to us, we are engaged in the work of collegiate education, and it is imperative that we should realize, not only the necessity of such a work to the welfare of the Church in Southern California, but that all should also be intelligent as to the tendencies and movements of our times which are so powerfully influential in the educational world. Happily for us in the Southern California Conference the loyalty of the Church to the university is being watched by the endeavor of the university to serve the ends of the Church. We are not troubled by the educational problems which have grown to serious proportions in some parts of the Church.

The Board of Education—There is nothing new to report to the Conference in connection with the general Board of Education. The educational interests of our Church, with which we have to do as district superintendents and pastors, has one mark of growth and development according to modern science, and that is complexity of organization.

It needs only to be said that our Board of Education interests are represented by two items in our raising of funds and our statistical reports. The first of these is the familiar Children's Day Sunday School collection. This has been untouched by any recent legislation. The other interest in the hands of the Board of Education is what is known as the Aid of Institutions Fund. This is designated in our statistical columns as "Board of Education." This fund is for maintenance only, and is not designed to be used for endowments, buildings, grounds or other purposes. The Commission on Finance has apportioned to this cause just about four cents per member. Your committee recommends that we assume this apportionment of four cents per member, and that for the present year, as in past years, this fund be kept separate from our local educational interests. This collection is especially helpful in sections of the country where it is impossible to provide adequate facilities for Christian education solely by local effort. Last year twenty-nine of our Methodist schools were aided by this fund.

The University of Southern California—At the session of our Conference last year we saw the inauguration of an endowment campaign for the University of Southern California which gave promise of success. There was manifest enthusiasm in the projected enterprise on the part of all those interested, both in the University and in the Conference. The Board of Trustees had adopted a plan of campaign and has also elected the Rev. Robert J. Coyne to be Field Agent, and he was appointed to that work. Then came the condition of financial stringency due to a combination of causes at home and abroad. The carefully prepared plans were frustrated and the proposed campaign was postponed by necessity. The Field Agent gave his year's work and made an excellent showing in results under all the conditions. For the present the campaign from which we hoped so much is laid on the shelf.

In spite of untoward financial conditions the University reached its highest point in attendance last year, maintaining in this respect a steady growth. The number of students in the College of Liberal Arts passed the one thousand mark, and the total enrollment for the year in all departments was 2,659. Additions have been made to the faculty of two professors and additions to the teaching force have been made in three assistants. The classes are crowded; the faculty is overworked; and the success of the University is burdensome.

It is also a matter of comment among those most familiar with the institution that the last year was one which marked a rising tide in the religious life of the student body. The Christian associations were alive and active. Forty young men professed conversion in the student meetings, while sixty members of the Young Men's Christian Association were engaged in deputation work among the churches.

The Maclay School of Theology continues to justify its existence in the personnel of the classes of young men who knock for admission at the door of our Conference. Methodism has no more useful factor in her work in Southern California than this institution which she is treating like a poor relative.

Liberal Arts Students, First Semester, 1913-14—Church, Methodist, women 173, men 168, total 341; church, Presbyterian, women 57, men 37, total 94; church, Congregational, women 33, men 12, total 45; church, Episcopalian, women 24, men 14, total 38; church, Catholic, women 24, men 8, total 32; church, Christian, women 15, men 13, total 28; church, Unitarian, women 5, men 4, total 9; church, Baptist, women 17, men 10, total 27; church, Christian Science, women 7, men 1, total 8; church, Friends church (Brethren), women 0, men 7, total 7; church, Jewish, women 4, men 2, total 6; church, Seven-day Adventist, women 1, men 4, total 5; church, Swedish Lutheran, women 2, men 1, total 3; church, German Lutheran, women 0, men 2, total 2; church Protestant, women 1, men 1, total 2; church, Latter Day Saints, women 1, men 1, total 2; church, Danish Lutheran, women 1, men 0, total 1; church, Swedish Mission, women 0, men 1, total 1; church, Universalist, women 1, men 0, total 1; church, No-church Preference, women 142, men 152, total 294; total 948.

Faculty Liberal Arts—Church, Methodist 19, Protestant Episcopal 4, Baptist 4, Presbyterian 4, Congregational 3.

Your committee recommends the continuance of the present apportionment of 35 cents per member for the University of California, with the provision that two-sevenths of the amount collected shall go to the Maclay School of Theology. Your committee also asks the Conference to repeat the request made of the Board of Trustees last year, to the effect that the proceeds of the collection for the School of Theology shall be used in directly strengthening the work now being done by that school. We have been gradually increasing our University collections during the past few years, but the needs multiply with continued success in the way of attendance. President Bovard and those associated with him are doing the work of the Church and are entitled to the loyalty and co-operation of all our Methodist people.

PUBLIC MORALS

The present day resounds with the clash and noise of conflict. Humanity faces radical changes in political and moral life. One stands in awe of these stupendous movements, asking what the results are to be. Of one thing we may be assured: These movements mean change. Will the change be for the better? Will humanity tomorrow have come into a higher morality? That will depend largely upon the fidelity of the Christian Church to her mission. It behooves us, as a very vigorous part of the Church, to inquire again into the moral movements going on about us and to discover our duty regarding them. We therefore beg to submit the following report and recommendations:

There continues to be a lack of moral instruction in our public schools that bodes no good for the future. This is a very grave question and in solving it the Church must insist on having the controlling influence. The Public School gives due attention to mechanics and physics; to household art and domestic science; to literature and mathematics; but the highest in the child that leads the child upward and comes in touch with God is neglected unreasonably and disastrously. The ground of moral obligation is not revealed to the young mind, which is allowed, so far as the Public School is concerned, to grope its way into character, that has no sure foundation, to construct a kind of moral code on the sand. There should be a proper recognition of the Bible in our Public Schools and a course in morals should be provided to be taught by men and women who are as well prepared for their work as are the teachers of mathematics or the classics. We are pleased to report that the National Reform Association, through Dr. McGaw, is doing efficient and extensive work toward creating in our State a public sentiment in favor of the Bible being placed properly in our schools.

The fourth proposition on the ballot for November 3rd is entitled "Abatement of Nuisances". It is the Red-Light Abatement Act that was passed by the last Legislature and signed by the Governor. This measure is sent by referendum to the people. It is a law that has already been tested in Iowa and other states and found to be wholesome and efficient. The money lust that causes otherwise respectable people to wink at this use of property owned by them should be rebuked. The cry is made that this law will permit of blackmail. In its actual working that danger does not appear and it is urged only through an effort to defeat so admirable a measure. Your Committee would urge upon every member of this Conference the duty of lending diligent help to the carrying of measure No. 4. Teach others to vote YES on the Abatement of Nuisances proposition. Let us hasten to declare that the persecution of our fallen sisters is not just and that they who profit by the shame of women must bear the burden of punishment and disgrace.

The Barbers' Unions of the State have placed a Sunday Closing Initiative measure on the ballot. With this movement we would ask the Conference to express hearty sympathy. The law as framed would not satisfy our desire from the standpoint of the Church, but it is nevertheless a humanitarian law and deserves the help of this Conference in its passage. Its provisions would prove a boon to thousands of our fellow citizens.

The overshadowing opportunity and duty that confronts us grow out of the Prohibition Amendment, on which the electors of the State are to vote November 3rd. Considered from whatever standpoint you will, the traffic in liquor should be eliminated from our state and nation. As an economic question we owe it to the people to relieve them from the financial burden this traffic imposes on the state. Viewed from the social standpoint the liquor traffic tends to create the alcohol habit which makes for insanity and inefficiency and physical weakness. As a racial question this is most serious. It is pointed out that American and European peoples are far more susceptible to the alcohol habit than are the races of the Far East. The welfare of the human race seems to be wrapped up in the peoples of this country and Europe. We owe it to the oncoming generations to conserve the strength of the peoples through whom Jehovah seems to purpose blessing all men. As a moral question there is none more commanding than this. The liquor traffic is itself immoral. It is not an honest barter and sale of goods that are a necessity or a help. It is essentially based on immorality. It is destructive to the moral character of its victims. The basest immoral institutions are in league with this traffic. Commercialized vice centers in the saloon and the wine trust and brewery. At this time, from now till November 3rd, every preacher and member of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Southern California Conference should be active in this campaign to the full limit of his power. This is no time for compromise or for dallying. Any man or woman in the Methodist Church who would fail, through indifference or neglect, to vote for this amendment would prove himself untrue to the high spirit of Methodism. Our need is a holy zeal for this great cause. Our preachers are leaders whom the enemy fear. Your committee would recommend that every preacher among us be urged to assert his leadership in his community vigorously, with enthusiasm; and we would respectfully suggest the wisdom of some plan whereby no preacher need move his home from his present charge until after November 3rd, even in the event of his being appointed elsewhere. God and humanity are calling us to a mighty conflict. Let our own great Methodist Church be in the thick of it, fearless, consecrated and powerful. We must not fail, while urging the carrying of the Prohibition Amendments Nos. 2 and 39 on the ballot, to warn our people to vote against that shrewd and dangerous proposition of the liquor interests No. 47, and which would, if carried, make it unlawful to hold another election on the liquor question in the state for eight years. On 2, 4, 20 and 39, the vote should be YES. On 47 it should be NO.

The Anti-prize-fight measure must not be forgotten in the multitude of matters that are pressing upon us. It should be called diligently to the attention of the voters of the state and particularly to the people whom we may reach by our message. This measure comes also as an initiative movement and seeks to make unlawful the brutalizing sport of prize-fighting. There should be no place found in modern organized society for this degraded thing.

We believe the time to have come for America to render her greatest service to mankind in the interest of universal peace. Within her borders have been taught the lessons of human liberty and equality of man. It was here the real death blow was given to the institution of human slavery. In her dealings with Cuba and China and Spain and Mexico she has set an example of national unselfishness.

It may be that the time is not ripe for our disarmament. "That for which humanity waits is the arrest of armaments. Why should not the United States take that step?" As the followers of the Christ, the Prince of Peace, we would declare our profound desire for the nations of the earth to find some basis on which war may be eliminated. We believe that that must be through disarmament. The first step towards disarmament is the arrest of armament. We would pray that our own government might even now be preparing, when the crash of arms in Europe may have subsided sufficiently for the world to hear, to call the nations to follow her example in the arrest of armaments. "Is it a risk? Why not take it? All history testifies that a republic has no peril so insidious as the growth of military power within its own borders. The military ideal and the ideal of Democracy cannot survive together." Our own greatest good and our greatest service to the human race are involved in our attitude as a nation to this question. We would as a Conference of the Ambassadors of Christ, pray that our nation may go no further in this business of armaments; "that hereafter there shall be no increased expenditures for shells or guns, but ever increasing appropriations for the warfare against poverty, disease and ignorance and for the strengthening of those social and humanitarian agencies which will make us more and more a prosperous, happy and mighty people," and will fit us more and more for leadership in the bringing in of the Kingdom of "Peace on Earth and Good Will towards Men."

SOCIAL SERVICE

The Methodist Federation Social Service has organized Social Service Commissions in about fifty Annual Conferences. These Commissions are not organized to draw up resolutions at each session of the Conference, but to help put the Social Creed into practice. This has been the endeavor of your Commission on Social Service. The members of the Commission, personally and the Commission itself through its secretary, have been active in all efforts to put the social creed into practice in California through legislation and through arousing the social conscience.

One of the members of the Commission, Lieut. Gov. Wallace, has been a leader in this State in the battle for social justice. The chairman of this Commission is also president of the State Church Federation. The Secretary of the Commission, with headquarters at Sacramento, has engaged in campaigns for social legislation in almost every town in the State. He has represented the Federation for Social Service at numerous conventions and conferences and in dealing with the unemployed armies in California. We have distributed thousands of copies of social service leaflets, and contributed numerous articles to the press.

We are face to face today with a most serious social crisis.

Groups of men are becoming socially conscious and are demanding social justice. These demands are becoming insistent and must be heard. We cannot solve the problem of unemployment with bullets or clubs, nor with free soup and lodging. Men are demanding justice not charity.

We have solved our problem of social production but have just begun to try to solve the equally important problem of distribution. So long as less than two per cent. of the people of this country own seventy per cent. of the wealth, while seventy per cent. of the people own only a little over four per cent. of the wealth, there will continue to be social discontent. The principle of democracy must prevail in industry as in religion and in government.

We declare our belief that "A man is of more value than a sheep." Where property and personal liberty get in the way of the onward march of human progress, they must fall. The personal liberty—property rights argument is the only argument of vested interests and of all the opponents of the struggle for social justice.

The State of California is to be congratulated on the social Legislation of the past few years. California to-day ranks foremost among the states with advanced social legislation. We specifically commend the work of the State Industrial Welfare Commission, the Industrial Accident Commission, having in charge the Workmen's Compensation Act, and the Commission on Immigration and Housing. This last named Commission, with Prof. Carleton H. Parker as its Executive Secretary, is doing more than all other agencies for the aid of aliens in the state.

The citizens of California are now to vote for Governor and Legislature. The direct primary, initiative, referendum and recall, have put a tremendous responsibility on the Christian citizenship of the state. We now have it in our power to write the principles of the Gospel, as expressed in the social creed of the Church, into the laws of the state— and to see to it that men are elected to office who will be indeed "Ministers of God."

There are 48 propositions on the ballot for our decision this fall. We have never had such an opportunity to enact so much social legislation at one time in the history of the state, and will probably never have such an opportunity again. With one blow we can slay the two most powerful social evils of all time—the liquor traffic and commercialized vice. We must deal these evils their death blow by sustaining propositions number 2 and number 4. We have long worked for a one day rest in seven law. We have the opportunity of securing such a law by voting for proposition No. 45 on the ballot. Prize-fighting is more than a moral evil, it is a social sin. Professional prize-fighting can be abolished in California by voting for Proposition No. 20.

Your Commission urges each minister and church to bend every energy until election day to the sustaining of this legislation. There is nothing more important in the battle for the Kingdom of God.

We recommend that every minister and church make a community survey in order to the most effective community ministry. Dean Birney has aptly said, "The Church exists for the sake of the community." The test of the church's efficiency and of its service is its effect upon the life of the community. The function of the church as an organization is the establishing of the Kingdom of Heaven on earth. We must preach a Gospel that is comprehensive enough to mean the salvation of the last human soul on earth, and the salvation of the body in which that soul dwells, and the salvation of all human institutions, until all men are conscious of the divine Fatherhood and of human Brotherhood. Then will the Kingdom of God have come and the Will of God be done, "on earth as it is in heaven."

SUNDAY SCHOOLS

The greatest need society has today is that the forces which make for character shall dominate the forces that make for intelligence. The Church's greatest character making force is the Sunday School. It effectively links the home with the Church. It provides a field for every worker with special opportunities for social service, evangelistic appeal and missionary endeavor.

We report this year 306 schools, an increase of 14. We have a total enrollment, including the Cradle Roll and Home Department, of 69,420, an increase of 7,787 over last year. The average attendance is not wholly satisfactory. The figures for this year are 36,452, an increase of 3,280, which is not in proportion to the gain in enrollment.

Last year we urged educational efficiency in our schools; first, by the recognition of the value of the Graded Lessons, and second, by the organization of Teacher Training classes. In all of our Districts the Graded Lessons are increasing in favor and in some centers 95 per cent of our schools use them in whole or in part. In the matter of Teacher Training the ideal is still far ahead of what we have accomplished. We commend the Teacher Training courses with their special publications now under the supervision of Dr. W. C. Barclay, and bespeak for him the co-operation of the Sunday School workers throughout the Conference. We also call attention to Teacher Training work carried on at University of Southern California, under the direction of J. G. Hill.

Let us not lose sight of the evangelistic aim in our Sunday School work. The results we have achieved are encouraging, but we urge every pastor to secure the adoption of a well planned policy of evangelistic endeavor. First, by the selection of teachers in full accord with a steady purpose policy to make the lessons a means of continuous evangelism, and second, by observing special times, as Decision Days, when direct appeals can be made to the youth to answer the call of Christ. We can report this year 3,337 conversions. The net increase in our church membership for this year is 3,421, of which number many may be credited to our Sunday Schools. It ought to cause us not a little concern that 65 churches this year reported no conversions from the Sunday School.

In keeping with the Commission on Finance, we urge all schools to carry forward a systematic missionary educational campaign. Let us regard the law of the church and set aside the 10 per cent of the missionary offering of the school for the Board of Sunday Schools.

We also urge upon our Sunday School leaders the use of the enthusiasm of the young in creating temperance sentiment, and that in all ways possible to co-operate with the temperance leaders in our "sure-to-win" fight to free our Golden State from the curse of the saloon. We commend the publications of the Church Temperance Society and ask all pastors to circulate them among the homes of our schools.

We make the request that some Sunday in October or November be observed as Sunday School Day, when the pastor will preach on some phase of the Sunday School work, and ask for the required offering for the Board of Sunday Schools.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

Our Epworthians have given a good account of themselves this year in their "League Offensive and Defensive with every soldier of Jesus Christ."

They have added 758 members and have undertaken even larger tasks in the local and missionary fields of the Kingdom.

Their new Department of Social Service has led them beyond the relief of suffering to splendid endeavor for relieving the causes of distress, as well as the effects.

They have taken a part in promoting the Christian legislation now before the people of our State. Their efforts to meet the need of the new phases of the amusement problem with a program of positive Christian recreation have been richly blessed. We urge our pastors to enthusiastic leadership in these two new departments of their work.

Among the notable Epworthian accomplishments of the year are the contributions of $3,250 to the Mexican work among us. Our young people deserve the credit for administering "First Aid" in the spiritual tragedy of our Mexican brothers. But as we urged you last year, we urge again that these tasks must be laid upon the heart and shoulders of the whole Church in larger measure.

Nearly all the individual Chapters are still carrying on enterprises in the foreign and missionary field of the Pasadena and San Diego Districts. They are standing by the Borneo School until it shall become self-supporting.

The District Conventions of the year were the greatest to date in numbers, enthusiasm and work, and by common agreement the three Southern Districts have combined for a great Union Convention in the early part of May next year.

The Institute held at Huntington Beach during the camp-meeting this year was the first one devoted wholly to Epworthianism. At its climax meeting 125 young people made definite covenant for specific forms of Christian service, in missions, ministry, social service, personal evangelism, Sunday School and Epworth League activities.

At Springville, Arroyo Grande and Ventura Chatauqua training classes were conducted which largely supplemented the conference institute.

It is the plan of General Secretary Sheridan to promulgate a special week of personal evangelism in the Leagues again this fall. If your Chapter begins this work in the general movement in November the habit of personal soul-winning will be encouraged throughout the whole year, and in the winning of others to Christ the largest purpose of our young people's work is accomplished.

DEACONESS BOARD OF NINE

I believe it needs to be said that the Deaconess movement in Methodism is a good deal more important than some of us have as yet come to see.

Methodism has been remarkably free from over-conservative ideas ever since John Wesley went out into the open air to preach, when he found out that the Anglican churches were not properly ventilated. Because of this freedom we kept our flying squadrons along the line of our rapidly westward moving frontier, until today our Methodist army is deployed over the battlefield of the world. Then came the city; and Methodism began to plan for sieges in strategic centers. It has been the genius of American Methodism not to tie up to any kind of a hitching post, but to follow the leadings of Divine Providence, to enter the doors opened to it. That is illustrated in the Deaconess movement.

An acute observer of American conditions says two new factors have entered into American life in very recent years, and these two factors must be reckoned with by statesmanship: First, the new social conscience of the Church. Second, the politically enfranchised woman. Methodism is doing much to meet the social crisis which is upon us and has set a fine standard in the giving of a social creed to Protestantism, and, in fact, to Christendom, and is now aligning her forces for the conquest of the world through the federation of social service, and already the earth has begun to tremble under the marching of her fearless hosts. Likewise, Methodism has been quick to see the opportunity offered the kingdom by the services of woman. The Deaconess movement belongs in the Divine Economy both with the newer passion for social ministry and with the enlarged activity of woman in the organized life of the race. We must approach it with both of these facts in mind—the social service movement, and the movement of womankind, out into the larger responsibilities of society.

It ought to be further said that it is a grievous mistake to think of this order of women as akin to Sisters of Charity, or as in any way an expression of asceticism. The distinctive garb is a protection and in the interest both of economy and the simplicity of the Gospel. But there is nothing somber about the life of a deaconess, or at least there should not be, for she operates under the Golden Rule in line with the humanitarianism which is so marked a feature of this age, and she stands in the succession of her, who in splendid devotion and with abounding affection broke her alabaster box over the head and feet of her Lord and Master. The order of Methodist Sisters should not remind us of cloisters nor monasteries, but of the new passion for social service, of the broadening spheres of usefulness opening before the womanhood of the world and of that Good Samaritanism of our time which knows no race and no sex.

I mention these interpretative facts as the church by its reconstitution of the General Deaconess Board and its requirement that this cause shall be publicly presented during the session of the annual Conference, certainly realizes that the Deaconess movement, still in its beginnings, is destined to be of the utmost importance in bringing in the Kingdom of Christ. In view of the broadening field opening before these Godly women your Conference Board has made plans that hereafter each year before the convening of this Conference there shall be a public meeting at some important center in the Conference territory at which a survey of the whole Deaconess activity of the nation shall be made. The people of Methodism ought to know, and the general public also, the extent and importance of Methodism's ministry along these lines.

A single item from the annual report of the Corresponding Secretary's report will show how this work has developed already. He says: "My record shows that we have 49 Deaconess Homes, 25 hospitals, 10 Missions, 11 Training Schools, 10 Rest Homes, 4 Homes for the Aged, 6 Children's Homes, 7 Girls' Homes, 1 Boys' School, 2 Girls' Schools, 1 Boys' and Girls' School." New hospitals and schools in course of construction represent an outlay of $600,000, and this does not include equipment. Besides these improvements, buildings are in contemplation of construction that will cost as much more, and the whole enterprise is in excellent financial condition.

Your Conference Board begs leave to report that all the work within the bounds of this Conference has been passed under review and that it is in excellent condition.

SPANISH AMERICAN INSTITUTE

The Spanish American Institute is a corporation, organized at the instigation of the Southern California Conference, of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Plans were laid, a Board of Directors appointed, and a beginning made, under the superintendency of Rev. O. C. Laizure. It was, however, less than two years ago, under the direction of Rev. V. M. McCombs, that a site was purchased at Gardena, on Figueroa Street, opposite the "shoe string strip" of the city of Los Angeles, and one-half mile from the car line.

A dormitory building had been built capable of accommodating about 30 boys, and known as the Anna M. Service-Callon Hall, erected largely through the generosity of the people of South Pasadena, in memory of an elect lady of the congregation of the church in that place.

Work was begun in September of last year, so that one year of work has now been completed.

Directors—The names of the Directors are: Frank S. Wallace, Z. L. Parmelee, C. B. Casler, M. A. Schofield, C. F. Van de Water, H. W. Peck, F. D. Mather, E. H. Stagg, and C. D. Lewis. The members are all elected by this Conference.

The Faculty—Mr. John P. Howe, a son of an honored member of this body, is the efficient and capable Superintendent. Miss Etta Snedecor is the motherly, missionary-spirited matron. Miss Serena Handley, who has been a teacher in one of the mission schools of our Church in Mexico City, has been secured as teacher for the present year, her salary being paid by the teachers in the public schools of Southern California. Mr. Fred Cronkite has charge of the farm.

What Sort of a School?—This school is intended as a training school for Christian manhood, not an institution for correction. It is a missionary enterprise and not a charitable one. We will take boys committed to us by the Juvenile court, provided they are the boys we want. We will take the children of pitiable misfortune, provided they are boys of promise, and provided we feel that they will make the heaven that we should develop, for the cause we love, but this school is not intended to be a refuge for unfortunate boys only.

Resources—Our resources are first, memberships in the association. Ten dollars constitutes the donor an annual member, $100 a Scholarship member, $25 a Sustaining member, and $200 a Life member; $500 a Life patron. Second, tuitions paid by the boys; and third, the unclassified generosity of the friends whose hearts God has touched.

Treasurer's Report—Received subscriptions on grounds and buildings, $25,000. Of this amount $22,500 has been paid, leaving a balance of $2,500.

Running Expenses—Pledges for the year, $5,000; cash received, $4,600. The cost of the school is about $400 per month, and will constantly increase, with the enlargement of the work.

The report of the Treasurer on September 29 was as follows:

Balance on hand October 8, 1913.....	$ 258.38
Received during the year	10,836.25
Total	$11,094.63
Expenditures—
Paid out to September 29 :.....	$ 9,884.23
Balance on hand	1,210.40
Total	$11,094.63

On account of the cumbersomeness of the name under which we were working, the Directors made application to the court for a change of name, and the Spanish-American Industrial Training School for Boys will now be known as the "Spanish-American Institute."

Recommendations—On account of the expiration of the term of office of the Directors, viz: F. D. Mather and Charles D. Lewis, the Board would recommend their re-election for the term ending 1918.

On account of the resignation of Director E. H. Stagg, the Board would recommend the election of Lloyd Noble to the unexpired term ending in 1915.

The Board of Directors recommend that an apportionment of five cents per member be made upon the membership of our Churches for the support of this school.

Respectfully submitted for the Board of Directors.

CHAS. D. LEWIS, Secretary.

THE METHODIST HOSPITAL

The Methodist Hospital has had the most rapid growth and development of any institution of Southern California Methodism.

This site at 2836 South Hope street, Los Angeles, is a beautiful park, 250 feet in frontage and more than 300 feet in depth. It is conservatively worth $50,000 and is free of debt. Plans and specifications have been drawn for a completed building that will cost over $300,000, and will accommodate over 300 patients. The first unit of these three buildings which is the Administration Building, is now under construction. This building will be a complete hospital in itself and will form an integral part of the completed building. The Administration Building will be 145 feet in frontage and six stories in height. It will accommodate 100 patients and will cost completed and equipped about $150,000. This building will be constructed of concrete and steel and will be absolutely fire proof, strictly modern, and one of the finest hospitals of all the West. About $65,000 in cash and pledges has already been raised for this building, about half of this amount has already been paid in.

The first contract for the Administration Building is now completed. This is for the basement and sub-basement, carrying the building about 8 feet above ground. The cost of this construction is about $20,000, this is all paid for except the last payment of about $4300 which is not yet due. The collections will meet this amount by November 1st, when due. The second contract for the completion of the building is about $105,000.

The Board of Directors hold an option on this contract, so that they may proceed at once with the construction of the building, or they may delay the contract should the financial conditions seem to demand it. There is about $30,000 in valid subscriptions pledged and payable by May first for payment on the second contract.

The $50,000 in the hospital site, the $20,000 of construction work on the Administration Building, all paid for, save as above stated, and the $30,000 in valid pledges, gives the Methodist Hospital assets of more than $100,000 accumulated in the past five years. In addition to this we have one endowment of over $2700, the income of which aids in the care of poor girls. J. C. Elliott, the Field Superintendent, has secured a bequest of $10,000 for the perpetual endowment of a free bed in a room, this will come to us some time in the future. He has also secured another subscription of $10,000, for the perpetual endowment of a free room to be known as "Bethesda." When payment has been made on this subscription this room will be free perpetually to the ministers of the Southern California Conference, their wives and their dependent children. Also to the resident bishop, his wife, and dependent children. We feel safe in estimating our bequests at the present, including the above, at $40,000.

Your Committee on Hospitals presents the following recommendations:

"We recommend that a Hospital Sunday be observed in every charge.

"That the members of the Conference aid in every way the erection of the proposed $150,000 building, which is badly needed to meet the growing demands.

"That according to the recommendations of the discipline regarding hospitals, this Conference, by formal vote, become the patron of this worthy institution.

"We recommend the appointment of a field superintendent for this worthy institution for the coming year, by our presiding bishop."

BIBLE CAUSE

The American Bible Society has had another year of remarkable progress. The total issues of the year are: Blind Scriptures, 2,083; Bibles, 410,146; Testaments, 763,158; Portions, 4,075,789; a total of 5,251,176; an advance over 1913 of 1,201,166, and 3 1-3 times the increase of 1912. The Society has maintained twelve agencies abroad besides making numerous grants to missionary societies and to other workers in fields where its regular agencies have been established. The most remarkable circulation of the year was in China, where 1,633,965 volumes were sent forth among the people, an increase over last year of 286,561 volumes. There was also an increase in the number of Bibles placed in circulation in the Levant Agency, in Korea, Japan, and Siam. Also a slight increase was made in South America and despite the revolution in Mexico there was an increase over last year.

There was real progress in the revision of the Spanish Scriptures. The revision of the Zulu version is now complete and on the press. In China, the Union Wenli translation of the Old Testament is being pushed with vigor. The Mandarin version is being continued. The New Arabic Reference Bible is nearing completion. In Korea, the Old Testament is being put into the mixed script, Chinese characters and native Korean. In Japan the joint committee on revising the Japanese Scriptures has made real progress. In the Phillipine Islands translation work has been made in several languages and beginnings made in several dialects.

At the Pacific Agency twenty-three persons were employed in the distribution of the Scriptures, travelling 29,355 miles and visiting 335 towns and villages. Nineteen hundred and seventy-four families were supplied with Bibles besides 2403 individuals; 22,416 families were visited. Scriptures were sold and distributed in fifty-seven languages and dialects. Total volumes sold and distributed, 128,952. Total value, $15,587.

The Society closed its year with a deficit of $180,000, and therefore has had to reduce its appropriations for this year more than $85,000. This is a heavy shadow in face of the great opportunities for circulation. Our own Conference raised a little more than one and one-half cents per member this last year, which was a slight increase over the preceeding year. In view of the unparalleled opportunities and the great demand for the Word of God, your committee earnestly recomemnd thta we meet our full aportionment this coming year.

MISSIONS

The command to evangelizé the world to be worthy of the wisdom of its author must be also a command to provide the messengers, the conveyances, the sustenance and the institutions necessary to secure obedience to that command.

But all this requires money equally, for no messenger may go without the necessary funds. The only sufficient loadstone to draw out the coin is clear, complete and adequate information and spirit-filled appeal by consecrated men and women.

We urge our District Superintendents to impress upon each pastor the importance of securing the annual report for himself and carefully selected literature from the secretaries of the Boards of Missions.

We urge the pastors to establish by classes or otherwise the systematic study of missions in the churches.

The semi-centennial of the work of Church Extension should be observed in every church of this Conference. The Board has published for free distribution an illuminating and appealing program which should be used.

The appeal of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension is the need of our homeland. It is the outcry of our neglected brothers of the mountains and the frontiers, the strangers within our gates and the toilers of our rural and industrial districts. The month of November, with Thanksgiving Day as a climax is a strategic time for the development of the patriotic appeal of Home Missions.

We rejoice in the increasing success of the work among our Spanish-speaking people and especially of the Spanish-American Institute. In view of the great need of this field and the importance of this missionary work at our doors, we pledge ourselves to co-operate in every way with our District Superintendent, and to raise the five cent apportionment for the school and the ten cent apportionment for the District work.

We recognize the Missionary and Evangelistic Society of our Conference as one of our most helpful and indispensable organizations. We most heartily endorse it and recommend that special emphasis be laid upon the vital importance of having it most liberally supported, and we pledge ourselves to do our utmost to raise the apportionment in full.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' ACCOUNTS

We, your Committee on the Auditing of District Superintendents' Accounts, beg leave to report that we have found said accounts correct in every particular.

COMMISSION ON FEDERATION

Recognizing the mighty world-wide movement towards Church Unity (not necessarily church union), and believing with our beloved Dr. Matt S. Hughes, late fraternal delegate to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, that American Methodism to a very large degree holds the key to the solution of this pressing problem and that the world may reasonably await Methodism's move in this matter, we affirm our grateful satisfaction:

First—For the magnanimous spirit manifested by the recent General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in taking the initiative on the plan proposed by the Federal Council of American Methodism.

Second—For the tremendous impulse towards a federated Methodism resulting from the splendid spirit and remarkable wisdom shown by our Fraternal Delegate in his matchless fraternal address.

Further, we heartily endorse the plan of unification suggested by the Federal Council and later adopted by the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, subject to such modification as further earnest and prayerful consideration may indicate as wise and expedient.

Meantime, while we exceedingly deplore all narrow, bigoted and unchristian sectarianism, we affirm our profound conviction that absolute loyalty to denominational interests is in no wise inconsistent with genuine interest in Church unity. Yes, rather, we affirm that such loyalty is of far greater value, even to the cause of unity, than is that sentimental, subtle, so-called "interdenominational" clamor that in various ways embarrasses and often threatens the vital interests of all denominations, and sometimes is itself little else than the narrowest sort of sectarianism.

RESOLUTIONS

Your Committee on Resolutions would report as follows:

First—That we extend to the Pastors and Churches of Pasadena our hearty thanks for the splendid welcome and entertainment they have extended to this Conference during its present session, and that we make special mention of Mrs. Edwin Hall and the Ladies' Aid Societies of the various Methodist Churches who have wrought so notably at the tables where we have been fed.

Second—That we acknowledge gratefully the kindly attitude of the city papers in their reports of our proceedings and in their generous treatment of the Conference; also to the Citizens' Savings Bank for special favors shown to the treasurers of our various Boards and Societies.

Third—That we cannot appreciate too highly the scholarly evangelical and most spiritual addresses of Rev. J. L. Birney, D.D., Dean of the School of Theology of Boston University, delivered at the morning hour of our daily session.

Fourth—That we have greatly enjoyed the visit of Bishop Francis J. McConnell to our Conference and the eminently wise and impartial spirit with which he has presided over our deliberations. His addresses, so varied in character, and his masterful sermon on Sunday morning have left with us all memories and impressions which we believe will be imperishable. We will give him a royal welcome to the Presidency of our Conference at any future time when in the order of Providence he may come to us again.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF STEWARDS

The Conference Board of Stewards offer the following recommendations and resolutions:

1. We recommend that the Conference conform to the plans set forth by the Board of Conference Claimants, viz: To raise the full amount apportioned by the Board.

2. That the Southern California Conference endorse the plan for a general intensive campaign throughout the Church to raise sufficient money for investment to create a dependable pension for all retired preachers, and that we engage in an earnest campaign in the bounds of the Conference to raise $200,000 during 1915 to be invested by the Trustees of the Conference in behalf of the Conference Claimants.

By action of the Board of Stewards, we were compelled to set aside 25 per cent of the Conference collections for necessitous cases.

The Board also has taken out 15 per cent of the total pastoral income to allow for house rent.

HUNTINGTON BEACH ASSEMBLY

We are happy to report to you that your gathering at Huntington Beach has this year come fully into its own as the summer center of Southern California Methodism.

During the past year a beautiful and commodious church has been built by our Huntington Beach brethren on six lots which your Trustees deeded to them for that purpose. We ask you now to sanction our gift of these lots by the acceptance of this report.

The enlarged facilities permitted the holding of the Epworth League Institute in the Church, leaving the Tabernacle available for preaching services in the morning.

Brethren of the Conference preached each morning to the edification of multitudes. The Evangelistic services of the afternoon and evening were conducted for the fourth successive year by the Evangelists Brown and Curry. We rejoice that more than 300 knelt at our altars this year seeking a new life, and more than 100 professed conversion. Thirty-five members were received into the local church following the campmeeting and many others joined the churches in their home communities.

Our only embarrassment at the present time is inadequate room to provide for the multitudes which desire to attend. We earnestly call the attention of the Conference and Commission on Finance to our needs, and hope that it may be found possible to enlarge our buildings in the near future.

The following are nominated as Trustees for the coming year: S. A. Thomson, F. D. Mather, G. E. Foster, A. Inwood, Harcourt W. Peck, A. Ray Moore, Chas. H. Scott.

AGGRESSIVE EVANGELISM

Methodism's leadership in the Protestant world is due in large measure to the fact that it has been aggressively evangelistic.

At its blazing revival altars not only our Church has found its own supply of laymen and ministers, but many of our sister churches have secured much regenerated material with which to build their parts of the walls of Zion.

We are not as much concerned about methods and terms as we are about real revival results. However, we will do well to study carefully the evangelistic methods of the fathers of our church and use such of them as may be adapted to modern conditions.

Whatever may be the particular methods used in a given campaign, God-counted results will depend upon the free use of the Word, the presence of the Christ and the power of the Holy Spirit to "Convince the world to sin and of righteousness and of judgment."

We believe that normal revival conditions in the church are set forth in the early chapters of the Acts of the Apostles:

First—The members and ministers of the Church, both men and women, tarried in “prayer and supplication,” until “They were all filled with the Holy Spirit.”

Second—Peter, the Spirit-baptized preacher at the Pentecostal revival, presented boldly and without apology, a gospel that honored God, the Father, exalted Christ the Son and gave full place to the Holy Spirit.

Third—The unconverted who heard this sermon, together with the testimony of the Spirit-filled laymen, “Were pricked in their hearts and said, Men and brethren, what shall we do?”

A mighty sweeping revival followed.

Such general preparation and effort on the part of all our people and such spirit-inspired preaching on the part of all our ministers, with such adaptation as may be needed in our time will surely bring desirable results today as formerly.

We, therefore, call upon all of our ministers and laymen to “Tarry until we be endued with power from on high,” to prepare us for the mighty task of saving men from sin.

As soon as possible we urge every Church to set apart some time during the year to be devoted to special revival work. With the Pentecostal passion for souls, every pastor should be an evangelist and lead his people in the glorious art of winning souls.

Our Church has recognized the office of Evangelist in providing a method by which the Bishop and Conference may set apart men who are specially qualified for this special work. We suggest to our leaders that where our ministers have special gifts for evangelism and feel the call of God to such work they recommend them to the Conference to be made accredited Evangelists so that our churches who need such help may secure sane evangelists who come with the authority of the Church upon them.

We would sound the bugle call to all our churches for a steady and united advance in the field of evangelism. Let the revival spirit be encouraged in all departments of the Church, including the Sunday School, the Epworth League and all our regular and special services.

RESOLUTIONS

RESOLVED, That we heartily endorse the work of the Commission on Finance and the new financial plan outlined by the last General Conference. We recommend its adoption by the Southern California Conference and its application to every district, charge and member. We earnestly recommend the "Every Member Canvass" plan under such methods as the several districts and charges may prescribe.

RESOLVED, That we cordially commend the plan of holding a great convention of Methodist men in Los Angeles in 1915 and urge upon the laymen of the churches of this Conference the importance of co-operating heartily with the work of the committee which has been named to arrange for such a meeting.

The voters of California at the coming election will pass on four great moral issues and we pledge the members of this Association and of the Churches of the Conference generally to give their earnest support to the Red Light Abatement Bill, the Anti-

Prize Fight Bill, the Sunday Rest Law and the State Wide Prohibition Amendment.

RESOLVED, That we emphasize the importance of the defeating of the Royal Arch amendment, which would postpone the opportunity to vote again on the prohibition issue for eight years.

RESOLVED, That we urge the support of the amendment submitted to the voters of the State providing for the exemption of educational institutions from taxation as an act of justice to the University of Southern California and other Christian colleges of the State.

RESOLVED, That it is the sense of this Lay Association that at our session in 1915 we memorialize the General Conference of our Church to so legislate that there may be some form of lay representation in the annual conference and that a committee be appointed to draft such a memorial for presentation to the Lay Electoral Conference of 1915.

RESOLVED, That we tender our thanks to the Pastor and Official Board of the First Congregational Church of Pasadena for their courtesy in tendering the use of the church for this meeting.

E. P. CLARKE,
M. M. PARKER,
W. F. CRONEMILLER,
MRS. G. F. WHITTY,
Committee on Resolutions.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMITTEE

Your Joint Committee recommends the following plan for the increase of the Retired Ministers' Endowment Fund of the Southern California Conference during the year 1915:

First—The Joint Committee recommends a campaign for the raising of $200,000 for the Retired Ministers' Endowment Fund;

Second—The Joint Committee recommends the placing of a strong man in the field as a leader in the canvass under the directions of the committee hereinafter suggested;

Third—The Joint Committee recommends that the District Superintendents, together with the Field Secretary of Conference Funds constitute the ministerial part of the committee and that the lay association be asked to appoint five laymen to complete the personnel of the same;

Fourth—The Joint Committee recommends that each pastor and the members of the Quarterly Conference pledge themselves to a canvass of every charge in the Conference during the year, for the raising of the additional Endowment Fund.

Fifth—The Joint Committee recommends that the Conference Trustees receive all reports of subscriptions and collections and assist the Field Agent, as far as possible, by counsel, personal service and office facilities.

Sixth—The Joint Committee also recommends that this campaign in behalf of the Endowment Fund for our retired ministers shall have the right of way in the Southern California Conference during the current year.

(Signed): J. B. Green, Matt S. Hughes, T. W. La Fetra, Secretary; R. H. Young, D. W. Huffman, Committee.

WHEREAS, A Joint committee of laymen and ministers have recommended to the Annual Laymen's Association, now in session, that an effort shall be made during the Conference year 1914 and 1915 to increase the present Superannuates' Endowment Fund of the Conference an additional $200,000.

THEREFORE, RESOLVED, That we memorialize the annual Conference now in session to appoint a committee of five clergymen to meet with a like number of laymen appointed by the Chairman of this Association to organize a California corporation to handle such endowment fund as shall be raised hereafter by public or private subscription, and of any other property which may come into its possession excepting such endowment funds and methods of increasing the same as are now existing with the Southern California Conference.

HIGH-GRADE SERVICE

FOR thirty years the Commercial Printing House has been printing much of the church and temperance work of Southern California. It has been our aim to build up our business by employing intelligent, well-paid workmen, and by housing them in a sanitary, well-ventilated building. We have aimed to excel in a high-grade product and good service rather than to compete for the "cheap" printing that can only be produced by cheap labor and materials. We are fitted for all classes of printing and book-binding and will be pleased to have you call or write. We refer to Rev. E. J. Inwood, publisher of the Minutes and Los Angeles is her most prosperous city. As a rule statistics are rather dry, but those showing the remarkable progress of this city are very interesting to every citizen. They are particularly interesting to mortgage investors, because they prove the certainty of the continuance of the city's growth, that the security back of such investments, conservatively placed as are those of the John M. C. Marble Company, will steadily increase. "The First Mortgage Magazine" sent free for six months, on request, contains facts and figures of interest to every Los Angeles investor.

California Enjoys Exceptional Prosperity

In Memoriam

JOHN M. CAMPBELL

John M. Campbell was born of Scotch parents in Belfast, Ireland, January 3, 1829. He came to America when 18 years of age and settled in Boston, Mass. In 1849 he was married to Miss Matilda Campbell, who was his faithful companion for 62 years. In 1853 he came to San Francisco by the way of the Isthmus of Panama, taking 72 days to make the trip, where he engaged in business. A few years later he was converted, and immediately felt the call to preach. In 1864 he entered the California Conference and was appointed to Arcata, Humboldt County. He served the conference as statistical secretary for a number of years. His appointments were Arcata, Yreka, Weaverville, Eureka, Sutters Creek, and Columbia. In 1873 he was appointed to Fort Street, Los Angeles, now our First Church. While serving this church he preached the first Methodist sermon in Pasadena, which was then known as "Indiana Colony." His next appointment was Orange. The Southern California Conference was organized in 1876, and he with Brothers J. B. Green and C. W. Tarr and W. A. Knighten were among the charter members. He served as pastor at Ventura, Visalia, San Bernardino and Florence.

His health caused him to resign from the ministry and his closing years were spent in business life at the First National Bank of Los Angeles. The evening before his death he repeated the hymn, "Love divine, all Love excelling." He fell asleep in Jesus, December 15, 1914. His special request was that there should be no eulogy pronounced over him. He said it was enough to say that he tried to do his duty as he saw it. The one word, more than any other, that will characterize this good man is "Faithful."

C. W. TARR.

GEORGE EMORY FOSTER

George Emory Foster was born in Tonica, La Salle Co., Illinois, August 28, 1861, and he ended his earthly pilgrimage in Los Angeles, January 21, 1915. His parents were godly people and early directed his feet in the paths of righteousness. Because of the failing health of the father it became necessary for the family to remove to California. George was only seven years old when the long journey was undertaken. Beautiful Santa Barbara became their western home. When George was fourteen years old he became the sole support of the family, and learned the trade of a printer. In his fifteenth year he felt a definite call to the Christian ministry, yet, because of the responsibilities which his father's invalidism laid upon him, he engaged in various enterprises, always with satisfactory success. During all his business and political life he endeavored to maintain his high Christian ideals.

As he entered the thirties his desire greatly intensified to enter the ministry, but he hesitated because of his lack of educational qualifications. At length, however, in 1897 he abandoned a large salary and offered himself for any humble place in the Master's vineyard; and seventeen years ago he was admitted into the Southern California Conference, and was appointed to Sanger, near Fresno. At this time he also started a Church at Easton and succeeded in erecting a Church edifice. In 1899 he was at Visalia; in 1901 at Bakersfield, during which pastorate the beautiful church at Bakersfield was built. Here he entered heartily into reform work, and many times was his life threatened by those with whose business in vice he was seriously interfering.

In 1904, he was sent to Newman Church, Los Angeles, and four years later he was made Superintendent of the new Methodist Mission. He had at length come to his own. His labors were marvelously successful. He had unique and remarkable adaptation for this work and ably assisted by his wife and son and daughter, our Mission became at once notable as a great life-saving station in the midst of the flotsam and jetsam of a growing metropolis. Hundreds of souls were converted, and started on the right way; and a great enterprise was initiated which, when it shall have reached the providential proportions to which it is inevitably developing, will be a monument to the consecration and enthusiasm and boundless faith and exhaustless labors of this good man.

In 1910 he was at Epworth Church, Los Angeles; and in 1913 the old friends at Newman Church, who had remembered his happy and fruitful former pastorate, urged his re-appointment; and for a year and a half this radiant soul made full proof of his ministry in the midst of sufferings and affliction such as have rarely come to any servant of God.

The theme of Brother Foster's happy and fruitful ministry was the compulsory influence of love. The love of Christ constrained him. He had a great heart. God gave him a giant frame to make room for his big heart. When he preached, the love message made his great bosom heave with emotion. When he sang, the love touches of his soul put a tender pathos into his sweet melodies. The love of his heart went out through his finger tips when he touched a musical instrument; and the chalice of his soul was brimming full even to the overflowing when he knelt beside a penitent, or sought out the fallen in places of vice or filth.

He went all over Los Angeles in his ministries of love and life. When all sorts of cures and theories failed he was sent for, and with his doctrines of salvation could bring emancipation to slaves of sin. He was a very apostle of pardon and peace, of hope and life. We had no other man just like him. As he gave me his final message to the ministers, he said, "O, tell the brethren to win souls. It is their supreme work!"

He was a personal, persevering evangelist. He always carried his Bible with him. It was his weapon of warfare. He could draw it on a man anywhere and with quick adaptation could refer to any appropriate scripture. He tenderly loved his Bible. At Christmas time, when he was asked what he would like to have as a present, his only request was for another Bible. In a gathering of ministers some years ago, when a Bible was needed someone said, "Ask George Foster; he always has one with him!"

Some years ago, the First Church of Los Angeles was crowded with people waiting for a distinguished evangelist who was conducting meetings there, but who had been unexpectedly detained. There were many ministers present. Someone must step into the breach, but no one was prepared on such short notice. Mr. Robert McIntyre at last, turning to Brother Foster, said, "George, you preach!" He took out his familiar Bible and preached a notable sermon which thrilled all hearts and brought many humble penitents to the altar for pardon. Next to the name of Jesus, salvation was the sweetest word in the language to Brother Foster. He always fought on the victory side, and was never defeated. The two palm leaves which were laid upon his casket were there at his own request. They were tokens of triumph. "Thanks be to God which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

He was the author of several widely circulated tracts, and he originated a system of Bible marking which will, no doubt, make his name familiar and his work memorable for many generations.

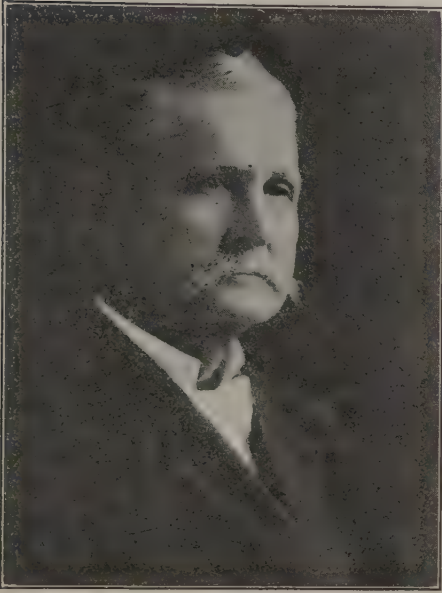

George Foster's was indeed a ministry of love. Having worked at many trades, he had something in common with almost every man. He loved men and men loved him. His ministry was especially successful among men.

Brother Foster was faithful until the end. The last prayer-meeting he held in Newman Church, although he was suffering greatly, yet he gave an earnest invitation for anyone to seek Christ and two persons came forward and were clearly converted.

As the golden glories of a new day were gladdening the holy skies of a beautiful Sabbath morning, the startling announcement came over the telephone that Brother Foster—the big, brotherly, generous, happy, hopeful, affectionate George Foster—was nearing the border-land of the eternal. Radiant as were the skies of that lovely Sabbath morning, they were rivaled in their glory by the brightness of the bed-chamber of this departing hero. A gentle Hand had stayed the torrents of pain, and a wonted music had crept back into his familiar voice, and a wondrous calm had displaced the contrary winds—for Jesus was there; and with blissful confidence he talked of his speedy going and of his rapturous expectancy. His face was beaming with a celestial light, and as we worshipped at his side, tears of joy and sorrow fell like rain, and that sacred spot was a holy sanctuary—a real gate of heaven. He could see clear through the portal and his face caught the sheen of the City Four Square.

He lingered until Thursday morning, January 21, at four o'clock, when a chariot of fire stopped at his home and another Elijah of stalwart courage and tireless labors, went up to God. As he left he said exultingly, "I am going to heaven; am so glad to go. It's all right! I'll be there!" and a cloud received him out of their sight! A tender and loving wife is broken hearted, and a dutiful son and daughter are sadly bereaved.

CHAS. EDWARD LOCKE.

WILLIAM AMMON KNIGHTEN, D. D.

Will A. Knighten, as he preferred to be called, was born in Bloomington, Ind., February 28th, 1844, of American, pioneer, Methodist ancestry. His father died in 1848. With his mother and other relatives, he traveled the long overland trail to California in 1849, with a company of Methodist pioneers led by that Missionary hero, Isaac Owens, and including James Corwin, I. M. Leihy, Judge M. C. Hester, Mr. McElroy, J. W. H. Campbell and other noted Methodists, and settled in the Northern part of this state. September 25, 1850, his mother died at Nevada City, leaving Will and his crippled brother to the care of her sister, Matilda Cord. Miss Cord's marriage to Chas. F. Stamps resulted in founding a home where the boys were cared for until the death of John, the younger, in 1863, and the maturity of William.

By working in the spring and summer, and attending the public schools in the winter, he laid the foundation of an education. In June, 1863, he enlisted in the United States army, serving for two years. In the fall of 1865, at a Camp Meeting held near Ukiah, he was converted, and the same fall entered the Ukiah Institute which he attended for three years; was licensed to teach school, and later taught in Round Valley, Redwood Valley, and in the suburbs of Ukiah City. During much of this time he was reading law.

On the 14th of September, 1869, he was married to Miss Nannie Glover, and soon removed to San Bernardino, California, where he was admitted to the bar and shortly after was appointed court commissioner, and became a popular and successful practitioner in the courts.

He was soon induced to do some supply work by Jas. Corwin, Presiding Elder, and entered the California Conference as a probationer in 1873, and was admitted into full connection in 1875, and was appointed to Ventura, in the there constituted Southern California Annual Conference, thus being a charter member of the same. From that date his record stands in our minutes as a faithful, successful, Methodist itinerant.

As pastor, Presiding Elder, Trustee of the University and of the Conference Corporation, General Conference delegate, member of the Deaconess' Board and as Chaplain of the Soldiers' Home, he gave the church constant service of a high grade. As a patriotic citizen and soldier, a worker for civic betterment, an ardent social spirit, exemplified in some of the best fraternal orders, and as a genial, loving man, he made wholesome impress on a very wide community.

As husband and father he builded a home and reared a loving, Christian family, who, with stricken hearts, will always be joyful and rich in the heritage of character and reputation which he gave them.

He was a striking personality. His six feet of straight and muscular physique attracted attention of observers everywhere, and always proclaimed the man who appreciated his position as a preacher, and was honoring his calling without a taint of Phariseism or any consciousness of apologetic weakness.

He had but few of our modern educational advantages. By persistent and intense application he procured considerable equipment for the legal profession, in which he attained no mean prominence as a young man, and later for his ministerial work. Hence, he was often on his feet to make a motion or offer a resolution which would determine the whole matter, before the speaker who brought forward the item for discussion could fully deliver it. Yet never was he harsh or unbrotherly in his action. Even if his lively sense of humor—his gentle facetiousness and ready wit—had not saved him from both dogmaticism and bitterness, his genuine, loving Christian spirit always assured his kindliness of statement and brotherliness of utterance.

His heart was right and true, purified and vitalized by the spirit of Christ. If he could find the tender and merciful side of any question or the hurt and sad and pitiful side of any plea or personal approach, there is where he took hold. The old people, poor people, suffering people, helpless children, sinful and lost folks, had in him a quick and almost reckless champion. In him was manifested the finest Christian chivalry, and most humane, because most Christian, sympathy and love.

He is said to have married more people than any of us, but one would be misled if this were taken as a sole indication of the social contact of the man. It is just as true, and more significant, that he buried more people than any of us. In joy or sorrow, people sought his services. It is probable that he lived in touch with a wider range of life than most preachers. He ministered not only to the church and for the church, but in the presence of the great multitude who were near the church but not of it, and of those who were far away and antagonistic. His acquaintance with people was extensive. Through his membership in fraternal bodies, his patriotic associations, his civic and political affiliations, and by his ready and genuine friendship for people of all classes, he touched a wider circle than most of us and carried the gospel to many who are not generally reached by the Christian preacher. This was notably illustrated at his funeral. The crowd at the church was immense, and the streets over which the procession passed, were lined with deeply affected multitudes. Nothing less than a genuine Christian life, lived in the presence of all the people, could have called forth such a tribute to a plain Methodist preacher.

As a preacher, our friend was always clear—scriptural—earnest and effective. Those who kept in touch with him during the last few years marked his growing fervor and joy. He said to a friend ten days before his death, that as Chaplain of the Soldiers' Home, he was preaching the simple gospel of Christ with greater freedom and he thought greater effectiveness than ever before, and many who attended his services marked the rising tide of his spiritual life and the increasing warmth of his gospel utterance. The last, and in some respects the happiest and best, because the most serviceable appointment he held, at the Soldiers' Home, was not destined to hold him long. His vitality was rapidly exhausted, long-threatened maladies developed. Too soon he laid down the implements of his service, turned his face toward home and went to God, on August 17, 1915.

Long will his memory be fragrant among us. We expect a joyous welcome from him, when God gives us a like abundant entrance to the everlasting Kingdom.

J. B. GREEN.

MRS. O. B. WAITE

Henrietta B. Chenoweth was born in Oquawaka, Ill., November 9, 1865. Early in her life the family moved to Davenport, Iowa, which was her home until her marriage to O. B. Waite in 1893.

Failing health compelled removal from the severe winters of the Northwest and the family went to Denver, Colo., and thence to California, in which state she has been for the past four and one-half years.

Early in her life, and under the influence of her own mother, Mrs. Waite accepted Jesus Christ. She disliked publicity, her joy was in her home. To her family she was most unselfishly devoted. During her last days the only regret that came to her lips, was in the thought of separation from her dear ones. She faced her suffering with a patience and courage which has been the constant comment of those who visited her. Her faith never wavered, and she has now passed to be with the Christ, whom she faithfully loved and served. A husband, two daughters and two sisters are left to mourn her loss.

MRS. W. M. STERLING

Eva Elizabeth Drew was born in Barton, Vt., April 16, 1855, and died in her home in Los Angeles, California, November 11, 1914. She was joined in marriage to W. M. Sterling, then a member of the Vermont Conference, April 16, 1874. Mrs. Sterling was converted in her girlhood and joined the Methodist Church and for 40 years she toiled gladly with her husband in the ministry, 27 of them being in this conference. She had a very deep Christian experience. Her whole life was industriously practical and she was a most faithful, persistent and successful worker in the church. She was interested in everything that pertained to Christ's kingdom, but especially in the work of Foreign Missions. Her last work, shortly before her death, was the completing in part of the outfit of one of the young women sent out by the Pacific Branch to India. The last three years Sister Sterling was greatly delighted in the J. O. C. Class of young women which she organized in the Sunday School.

She was a faithful, loving wife and mother, and left to mourn her loss is her husband and one daughter, Mrs. Dr. Thorne of Pasadena, and a great host of friends and co-laborers in the Lord's work.

MRS. D. F. HOWE

Mrs. Howe was born in Casey, Illinois, January 31st, 1858. She was married to David F. Howe in 1880. She was transferred by the Great Bishop to the Church Triumphant, February 26th, 1915. Mrs. Howe walked with her Lord from childhood. For years before her marriage she taught in the Sabbath School, and led the people in the ministry of song. For thirty-four years she was the chief factor of strength in her husband's ministry. Not by public work, but the yet more powerful influence of a holy life: A holy life that testified for itself and shone its brightest in the home; a holy life that triumphed over twenty-five years of suffering, during which her family never heard her speak an impatient or unkind word. To her husband she was the best proof of the highest truths he could preach. And today she is a more powerful factor in his life and service than ever.

"And still her silent ministry
Within my heart hath place,
As when, on earth she walked with me,
And met me face to face.
Her life is made forever mine;
What she to me has been
Hath left henceforth its seal and sign
Engraven deep within.

Mine is she by an ownership
Not time nor death can free;
For God hath given to love, to keep Its own eternally."

MRS. GEORGE C. SKAFTE

Isabelle Nuttal was born near Manchester, England, Feb. 24, 1864, where her early life was spent. In her twentieth year in the city of Liverpool she was married to the Rev. Geo. C. Skafte, and for 34 years they were permitted to enjoy unbroken companionship. In 1887 Brother and Sister Skafte went to Florida, and after eight years of work in the ministry there they came to California. Mrs. Skafte was a benediction to any charge, and made the parsonage a home in which it was a joy to be a guest. The last six months of the six years of the ministry at Ocean Park brought great suffering, but her faith did not falter, while with patient, and sometime eager cheerfulness, she waited for her crown. When the end was near God gave her an experience too beautiful to be passed unnoticed. In a vision she was in a city of white homes and trees and flowers of wonderful beauty, and her guide was her Saviour. Very fitting are part of Whittier's exquisite lines:

"Some humble door amid the many mansions,
Some sheltering shade where all our strivings cease."

"For now," said she, "I expected to be shown my place in some secluded nook, but my guide pointed to my name in gold over the door of one of the loveliest of mansions, and said, 'This is your home now, and you will be one of my messengers to the world.'"

Why can we not think the commission a real one, and assure our brother of the possible nearness of his beloved as one of the blessed "sent to minister to those who shall be heirs of salvation."

RULES OF BOARD OF EXAMINERS

1. Committees of Examinations shall meet the classes on the day preceding the day appointed for the opening of the session of the Conference.

2. Candidates for the Conference classes shall be marked on a scale of 100, which shall be the maximum, and 70 shall be the minimum, and no person shall be advanced if conditioned in more than one study. A certificate of graduation from one of our theological seminaries will be accepted in place of examination in all the biblical and the theological studies in this Conference course.

3. Examinations will be held on the Tuesday preceding the opening of Conference at 9 A. M., at the seat of the Conference.

4. All applications for admission on trial must present certificates of graduation from a High School, or from an institution of, at least, equal standing.

5. All candidates holding bachelor degrees from accredited colleges shall be exempt from further examination in all the studies that are not included in the term biblical and theological, and all graduates of accredited theological colleges shall be exempt from examinations in theological and biblical studies. Certificates for this work should be sent to the Registrar not later than September 1st.

6. Sermons and essays shall be typewritten or in ink, and sent to Matt S. Hughes, Pasadena, not later than September 1st.

7. The Registrar and Examiners will be glad to communicate with undergraduates regarding studies. Enclose stamps for reply.

8. Deduction will be made on each paper in which the spelling, grammar, writing, or general execution is slovenly.

9. A notebook containing an outline of each book studied is to be presented to the Examiner at the examination, the notes will be used in marking.

10. Sermons should contain 2000 to 3000 words, and essays 2000 to 4000. The paper used shall be letter size and folded when sent.

11. Each undergraduate shall state to the Registrar that he has read the books required "to be read."

12. All applicants from other conferences or from another denomination, also theological students who have been excused from the course of study by virtue of their work in college, shall be examined concerning their personal attitude toward our doctrine and discipline, by a committee of three, said committee to report to the Board of Examiners.

13. As early in the Conference year as possible all applicants for admission on Trial shall send to the Chairman of the Board for application blanks, which are to be filled out with all care and returned to the Chairman.

14. On the completion of the entire course of study by an undergraduate, or in case of his retirement or transfer from the conference before its completion, he shall be entitled to a certificate, covering all his work, signed by the Chairman and Registrar of the Board.

15. The annual meeting of the Board of Examiners shall convene at the seat of and on the day before the session of the Annual Conference, at the hour of 9 o'clock a. m.

16. College or Seminary graduates, thereby excused from the course of study, shall be required to read the books assigned "to be read," and report the same in writing; they shall write the sermon or essay required; and shall also present a certificate with the grade of each study, for the work done in College and Seminary.

17. Inasmuch as thirty five years is the standard set by our Church as the measure of a full life of ministerial service, we should not receive into our membership those who do not seem to have the prospect of serving for at least the major part of that time; the age limit of 42 years being a general guide to be set aside only on the vote of the conference. It is the sense of this Conference that the educational standard of those to be admitted in full to this Conference shall be a college education; and a seminary course in Theology; except in cases of unusual ability on the part of the applicant, or exceptional need of the work.

Stranberg, were seated inside the altar, and the Bishop addressed them, taking as the theme of his address, "I Cor. 13 as a Pastoral Document":

"This chapter, written by Paul, came from the heart of the greatest minister Jesus Christ ever had. If we are going to judge men by their accomplishments and by the bent they have given to human history, there will be no debate as to Paul's place in the hall of Christian fame. The words that came from the heart of the greatest minister Jesus Christ ever had are peculiarly appropriate to men just entering the ministry. These words were written to the Church. You are soon to be called to minister to Churches. Paul here speaks of the primary, fundamental characteristic of the Christian minister. He speaks again and again of the various things which ministers are in the habit of coveting. Eloquence that would make your name famous everywhere, deep insight into spiritual truth, scholarship which would gratify, unsparing devotion in your ministry, all are nothing if you have not love.

"Paul was writing to a Church that had many characteristics that our modern Churches have. He was writing to a divided Church, 'Some of Paul, some of Apollos, some of Peter.' He was dealing with a Church not only divided, but one that was not ethical. Paul speaks of their drunkenness at the Communion table. Remember this when you want to pay a tribute to them at the expense of the modern Church. Even fornication was countenanced, and the fornicator tolerated. And Paul says to that Church that the one thing needed was a passion of love, and that nothing else would be equal to their task; and brothers, that is the great, vital need of the Christian ministry today. The great need of the Methodist ministry today is the unlabelled heart of that doctrine of perfect love, and we ought to be on our faces in earnest prayer before God until that spirit of the Christ becomes the passion in our own life." The wonderful story of Helen Keller, deaf, dumb, and blind, standing upon the public platform and saying "Love wrought this miracle in me," was told. "We are dealing with the spiritually deaf, dumb, and blind, and the only way they can be brought to Christ is by the same process that Anne Sullivan, her teacher, brought her to light and deliverance. Edward Irving, when sent for to visit a dying boy, went into the room, put his hand on the boy's brow and said: 'My, boy God loves you,' and went away. The meaning dawned on that youth, and led him to peace and joy." Solemnly, the bishop quoted the words of John to the church at Ephesus: "I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast forgotten thy first love!" This may happen to us in our spiritual life and ministry. A heart-searching appeal was given to all the ministers present to go to God for re-issuance of their credentials to the ministry today. This was followed by a solemn consecration scene, the influence of which will abide in our hearts all the coming days.

C. conference alumni had raised $134 to bring Brother Pakchoyan and his family to America. The Conference ordered a collection to provide additional funds needed, which was done, amounting to $47.57.

VI RESOLUTIONS AND REPORTS

I District Superintendent's Reports

FRESNO DISTRICT

The preachers on the Fresno District have accomplished another year's task in the spirit and power of Christ. Their labors are fragrant with divine blessing, the sure evidence of a spiritual calling.

Building Activities—The church of Springville, a very attractive building, was brought to completion and dedicated the third Sunday in October. But the plan to move the camp-meeting from Springville, has adversely affected the community, and this with other things impaired the subscriptions made at dedication; but E. F. Gates, the former pastor, did a noble, brotherly thing two weeks ago by returning to the community and helping to collect the subscriptions. He also brought a gift of $110 from his present charge to help the situation.

Kingsburg has built one of the most commodious and elegant churches of the district. It is a gem of architectural beauty, seating with gallery 500, and with fine basement under the entire structure. The cost of the enterprise is $12,000, but it is easily worth $16,000. Bishop Edwin H. Hughes dedicated the church on Sunday, March 14th.

There was no place of worship in Culter, so the pastor, C. T. Harrison, with a promised donation of $100 from the Home Board, collected money enough to build a bungalow church, and on the opening Sabbath there was a Sunday School attendance of 133.

McFarland has incorporated and is in the midst of a building enterprise and before Christmas expects to worship God in its own building.

At Mountain View, out from Bakersfield, the society has incorporated and is building a church under the direction of R. G. Libby, a local preacher. A. W. Gray has collected the money to build a church at Fairview on the Sanger circuit.

The society at Tranquility has also been incorporated and has money subscribed to build a church, and only await the deed to the lots to consummate their spiritual desire. And the Ladies' Aid Society at Romie on the Greenfield circuit have paid $200 for a lot and the society is in the process of incorporation and will build a church right away. Parlier is also very much crowded for room and must build as soon as possible, and H. S. Ryder has $2,400 pledged toward a new building.

Buildings Enlarged—Reedley has enlarged its Sunday School by the addition of two extra rooms to provide for its Philathea, and adult men's classes at a cost of several hundred dollars. Paso Robles has built a neat bungalow Sunday School building for its beginners, primary and junior grades at a cost of $500.

Lancaster was also compelled to build an additional part for Sunday School purposes, and the society has secured at a very low and fortunate figure, a fine corner choicely located on the main street of the town.

The Kings River charge under the leadership of Howard C. Taylor, has built on a social hall for the use of the Sunday school and the young people at a cost of some $300. Estrella has purchased what was the Presbyterian manse and plan to convert it into a social hall. The ladies at Soledad on the Greenfield circuit have done a gracious thing for their pastor in building a fine parlor on to the church where Brother Haigh can be "at home" while he works that part of the circuit.

Fresno First Church has built a very neat and finely finished bungalow Sunday School room to accommodate the large men's class taught by J. Q. Anderson, at a cost of $750.

Thomas Burden has led in the building of an addition to Grace Church which cost $500, the expense being borne largely by a friend outside of the church.

Parsonage Improvements—An elegant up-to-date, modern, six-roomed parsonage has been built at Porterville, at a cost of $2,400. The Ladies' Aid Society subscribed $1000 to the enterprise, and the pastor, Mott Mitchell, with fine business sagacity persuaded the people to buy bonds to cover the entire expense.

Debts Paid—Selma has paid on debt and interest, $800; Irwin, $200; Clovis and Visalia, $180, each; Exeter, $250; Lindsay, $700; Reedley, $100; and Grace and Van Ness, Fresno, have paid $120 and $500 respectively on church lots; Lompoc, $400; Tulare, $1880; and Merced has straightened out the complexity of its obligations and paid $575 on the same.

Evangelism and Gospel Teams—The key word on the District in personal, social and civic salvation, is "Evangelism."

Tulare employed Evangelist Tilman Hobson in a union gospel campaign. The meeting was a success and brought over one hundred into the church. Hanford also held a meeting under the same leadership, with blessed results to the community and churches engaged. Brother Loomis received sixty as a result.

Gospel Team work has developed on the District and some blessed results have been attained.

In over thirty village communities in the San Joaquin Valley and in ten on the coast we have the only church; hence our responsibility is large and we must have full-orbed, spiritually minded community preachers to serve the people.

Sultana, under the spiritual ministry of C. T. Harrison, had a gracious revival which doubled the membership of the Church, and enlarged the Sunday School and Epworth League so that it is imperative that we plan for a new church.

Armona is growing to the dimension of a community church under the leadership of Claude A. Smith, who has had an excellent year.

Grangeville has had a fruitful year under the ministry of Harvey Bailey, a most efficient local preacher. Forty-seven souls had been converted at the last report without any special meetings other than the regular services, eighteen of them heads of families. In five weeks the two Gospel Teams prayed twenty-three from their prayer lists into the kingdom of Christ.

McFarland under the impulse of a revival effort led by J. W. Robinson, trebled its membership.

San Miguel, which "lived at a poor dying rate" for several years, has been gloriously revived through the spiritual baptism of pastor and people, and a three-months revival campaign has remade the church and awakened the community to the thought of its spiritual inheritance. E. B. Yost, who supplies the charge, has done a most blessed work.

C. R. Montague has led the people of Laton into the green pastures of divine blessing. The membership of the church has been increased seventy-three per cent, the membership of the League doubled, and the community has crowded the church and stood on the outside to hear the living message.

In the summer of 1913 I received a petition, signed by seventy-two persons, insisting that a Methodist Episcopal Church be organized in Poplar, so on Jan. 21, after a community dinner, it was my privilege to speak to the people at Poplar and with Mott Mitchell, I organized a society of some 41 members.

Plans were made to incorporate and property was purchased, and J. Crawford Trotter was appointed as permanent pastor. The work has grown under the ministry of Brother Trotter. The membership is now 50, with an Epworth League of 135.

Fresno—St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Fresno, united with our three churches in an evangelistic campaign in February; the pastors with the District Superintendent and Presiding Elder did the preaching.

Grace Church has improved spiritually and numerically during the pastorate of Thomas Burden; and Frank B. Cowgill has a good report from First Church, where 104 have been added to the membership, which now numbers 740.

The Ladies' Aid Societies have a membership of 1637 and have raised $8,369, which is over $5.00 per member. And these women so "full of good works" have made nearly two thousand visits to the sick and sorrowing.

A brief review shows six churches built or in process of construction, three others planned for, and one building and organization from our sister denomination. Eight splendid improvements in additions built for Sunday School and social purposes; over $1,100 paid on debts and improvements other than church buildings; and missionary offerings increased over last year. The district reported over fifteen per cent increase in the membership last year; and this year there have been hundreds of souls converted to Christ by the united evangelistic efforts of pastors and laymen, and a number of communities have been changed and made morally decent, and we have 3,000 more Sunday School students than church members.

Appreciated Personalities—Alexander Hardie will ask for the Retired Relation at this Conference. This splendid preacher, and scholarly, Christian gentleman has given fifty-three years of spiritual service to Methodism, twenty-five years in the Southern California Conference. As teacher, preacher, and pastor, he has fought with a faith undaunted and is worthy to be classed with the most loyal fathers of the church.

It is rumored that our residential Bishop is likely to be moved to another field of labor, and so I take this opportunity on behalf of the men on the Fresno District to say that no other General Superintendent has made a more profound or lasting impression on the district than he, no other Conference President has done as much to recognize and make the district an integral part of the Conference in the practical administration of the cabinet, and no general administrator could have entered more particularly into the work of the churches, and no more spiritually minded preacher can find a larger place in our affections.

Bishop Hughes, we love you, and would like to have you stay to inspire us with your counsel and to invest your great abilities and influence where we believe the great future of Methodism lies on this continent.

JOHN OLIVER.

PASADENA DISTRICT

Pasadena District has had a hard year financially and a good one spiritually.

A few of the charges have been unable to meet their estimates for ministerial support.

The benevolences will be about the same as last year, some of the charges having made great gains.

Many of the laity have shown a commendable spirit of self-sacrificing devotion, and the pastors have been uncomplaining and efficient even under distressing conditions.

At the close of the Conference last fall, W. J. Grant, who had supplied the church at Piru two years, returned to the charge in his usual health to begin the work of another year. He preached on Sunday, became ill during the week, was never able to preach again, and died on the seventh day of May. Funeral services were held at Piru on Sunday, May 9th. Brother Grant was a Christian gentleman and a preacher of ability.

About two months after the last Conference session, Dr. W. W. R. Duncan, pastor of Scott Chapel, Pasadena, was suddenly stricken, "And he was not, for God took him." Dr. Duncan had been for many years a foremost member of the Little Rock Conference. He had been district superintendent and a member of the General Conference. He was a preacher of persuasiveness and power. He was a loveable man. His death was the occasion of great sorrow.

Four days ago Sister Henry, wife of the Rev. J. H. Henry of Tropico, died suddenly in San Francisco, whither she had gone with her daughter to visit the Exposition.

Because of physical feebleness Dr. A. B. Morrison is not with us today, but in his home in Glendale he is no doubt thinking of us. With unfaltering faith, and with sweetness of spirit, this valiant commander of a regiment of "Boys in Blue" on bloody fields of strife a half a century ago, this intrepid leader in the army of the Prince of Peace for more than half a century, is awaiting the call of the Divine Commander to "Come up higher."

The various church organizations have been progressive and prosperous. The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Auxiliaries and the Ladies' Aid Societies have maintained their high standards of efficiency. Most of the Sunday Schools, many of the Epworth Leagues, and some of the Brotherhoods have increased in membership and have improved in spiritual life and power.

On a number of charges special evangelistic meetings have been held with good results.

Gospel teams of men, of young men, of women, and of young women have been organized and set to work, and through their influence numbers of persons have been converted.

More than 1,000 persons have been received on probation; 772 probationers have been received into full membership.

Thirty-three churches report a net increase of 721 members, and 23 churches report a decrease of 525 members, leaving a total net increase in membership of 196, thereby increasing the total membership of the district, exclusive of non-resident members, from 12,847 to 13,043.

Nine churches increased pastor's salaries $1,187, the largest increase being $250 and the smallest $25.

Church buildings have been erected or enlarged during the year as follows:

At Altadena, D. H. Gillan pastor, a fine room for Sunday School use has been added to the church at a cost of $600, all of the labor thereon having been donated.

At Baldwin Park, W. E. Malan pastor, a beautiful bungalow church was built at a cost of $2,931. It was dedicated on the 13th of December, Dr. Matt. S. Hughes preaching the dedicatory sermon.

At Bardsdale, F. J. Seaman pastor, the church has been greatly enlarged at a cost of $3,550, making it the most complete in its equipment for Sunday School work of any rural church I have ever known. Other improvements and the renovation of the parsonage, were made at a cost of $450, making a total cost of $4,000.

At Burbank, Frederick Miller pastor, improvements have been made at a cost of $650.

At Covina, S. J. McConnell pastor, a room was added to the church building costing $450.

At Eagle Rock, Wesley V. Smith pastor, the remodeling and enlargement of the church, begun under the pastorate of Dr. Julius Soper, was completed at a cost of $750, and on the 18th of October it was dedicated, the sermon being preached by Dr. Matt. S. Hughes.

At West Glendale, H. J. Hartsell pastor, two Sunday School rooms were added to the building, and a play ground was prepared, all at a cost of $150 cash, most of the labor and some of the material having been donated.

At Lankershim, H. R. Salisbury pastor, quite a large addition was made to the church building, and improvements were made on the parsonage, which, by reason of donated labor and material, cost only $152 cash.

At Oxnard, Oliver Saylor pastor, a commodious, convenient and beautiful church, with facing of elegant gray brick, has been built at a cost of $15,000, and will be dedicated, probably free of debt, on the 7th of November by one of our Bishops. Great credit is due Brother Saylor for this achievement. Improvements were made on the Oxnard parsonage to the amount of $100.

At Puente, C. W. Shumway pastor, a building has been erected by the Baraca Class of the Sunday School at a cost of $300, and which is known as "Baraca Hall."

Other expenditures for the improvement of church and parsonage property have been made as follows: Alhambra First Church, $58; Ramona Church, $400; Azusa, $50; Chino, $50; Cucamonga, $100; El Monte, $100; Fillmore, $190; Asbury, Los Angeles, $300; Highland Park, $125; Montebello, $150; Moorpark, $146; Mountain View, $20; Ontario First Church, $171; Lake Avenue, Pasadena, $300; Scott Chapel, Pasadena, $59; San Dimas, $200; San Fernando, $200; Santa Paula, $100; Simi, $300; South Pasadena, $200; Tropico, $50; Tujunga, $50; Upland, $425; Ventura, $107. Nearly all of these amounts have been paid in full.

The following amounts have been paid by churches on old indebtedness: Alhambra First, $1,400, and $850 interest; Marengo Avenue, $93; Ramona, $762; Annandale, $125; Azusa, $125; Baldwin Park, $116; Covina, $300; Glendale First Church, $1,000 on new church lot; Highland Park, $300; York Boulevard, $400; Monrovia, $3,750; Montebello, $240; Mountain View, $350; Ontario First Church, $1,784; Lake Avenue, $6,500; Scott Chapel, $42; Washington Street, $225; Pomona First, $3,700; Puente, $100; South Pasadena, $270; Tropico, $800; Tujunga, $40; Upland, $500; a total of $22,917, which is not bad for a year of financial stringency such as we have experienced.

One of the notable financial achievements was at Pomona First Church, where, one Sunday about three months ago, under the inspiring leadership of the pastor, C. M. Crist, pledges amounting to more than $4,800, to be paid before Conference, were taken to pay off a long standing indebtedness on the church property, and all other debts. The amount of the subscriptions was afterward increased to more than $5,000.

A year ago it was my privilege to report concerning Pasadena First Church, that in accordance with the plan originated by its brainy and broad-visioned pastor for church extension in Pasadena, and to free the churches there from debt, Dr. Hughes asked the congregation one Sunday morning for $6,000 for the erection of a church for the Spanish Mission, $4,000 for Lake Avenue Church, and $3,000 toward the purchase price of lots for Lamanda Park Church, a total of $13,000, and they immediately subscribed $13,500. I now have the privilege of reporting that those subscriptions have been paid, the Spanish church has been built, the sum of $4,000 has been paid to Lake Avenue Church, and the amount of $3,000 has been paid on the Lamanda Park Church lots.

Notwithstanding the payment of these large amounts for the help of other churches Pasadena First Church has contributed for benevolences this year $17,262, making with the foregoing named amounts a total of $30,262.

When F. G. H. Stevens became pastor of Lake Avenue Church seven years ago he found 309 members and a debt of $25,500; now there are 797 members and a debt of $5,000, which is covered by good subscriptions which will soon be due and paid. Not only has the church paid all of that indebtedness except $4,000 paid by First Church, but changes and repairs have been made in and on the building at a cost of more than $2,000, all of which has been paid; the benevolences have been increased year by year; during a portion of the time the church has supported a missionary at an annual cost of $800 and the salary of the pastor has been doubled.

R. I. McKee at Washington Street and E. H. Fretz at Lincoln

Avenue have each wrought so effectively that gratifying results, both financial and spiritual, have crowned their labors. The churches of Pasadena are all in excellent condition.

M. W. Beckwith began the year at Lamanda Park with earnestness and zeal. Under many discouraging conditions he has sought to carry out plans previously adopted for the expansion of the work there. The church property has been exchanged for well located lots costing $10,000, on which, in due course of time, suitable buildings will be erected.

To tell what deserves to be told concerning the work of other pastors and churches would make this report much too long. Some fields have been hard. Some pastors have labored under conditions which have made large results impossible; but not a man has flunked. All have been faithful. Some deserve larger results and a more adequate support. To have been associated with them and with the royal men and women of their charges in the work of the kingdom; and to have enjoyed the hospitality and fellowship of their homes has been a delightful privilege.

The Superintendent of Pasadena District has the unusual experience of getting off at the same place where he got on. In this church, where, six years ago, Bishop Hughes appointed me to the district, I now say to the pastors and people of that district, "Good bye," with congratulations to my at present unknown successor that he is to be superintendent of the finest district in Methodism.

F. D. MATHER.

SAN DIEGO DISTRICT

It is with peculiar pleasure that I rise to read my report here in San Diego. To no other member of this Conference can this session speak as it does to myself. Twenty-nine years ago I came to the Conference in this city a young and very inexperienced minister, and at that session was welcomed into this fraternal body. And as this morning I think over the intervening years and remember all the comradeships and all the love shown, my heart bounds with joy.

Two years later I brought my young bride to Coronado, then a part of this city, and we began our life together in the itinerant ministry, and here our first-born came.

San Diego, therefore, holds a peculiarly warm place in my heart and it has been an unceasing joy much more than an official interest to do all I could to build up the church in this place and to help Methodism do her full part in winning this city for Christ.

Five years ago First Church, San Diego, was just coming into its own, this beautiful building completed, largely paid for, and the awful struggle of the previous years ended. Now it has a membership of over 1,100. Taylor Church was just finding itself; now it is a strong and growing church, destined to front rank in this city. Five years ago Fairmount was little more than a name, now it is well equipped and very promising. Five years ago Mission Hills was nothing but a name; no members nor organization, nothing but a small equity in an inadequate lot. Now it has one of the most beautiful church buildings in the city, finely located, thoroughly equipped, and as devoted a company of workers as can be found anywhere. Then Coronado was closed, had been closed for years, sold for taxes and practically abandoned. Now with every claim met, the property absolutely our own, it is steadily, under the leadership of G. L. Goodell, becoming one of the best churches in this vicinity and will this year make such a record in its benevolences as to approach the date when as a church it led the entire conference in its per capita giving.

Three years ago we tried to open work in the section immediately northeast of the City Park; but the time did not seem opportune. Last January work was begun again and has so prospered under the leadership of W. G. Smith that we now have the "Thirtieth Street" Church with a membership of fifty, a Sunday School of over one hundred, in a simple but convenient chapel on a fine corner lot in one of the best residential sections of this city.

With only one Methodist church occupying the southeastern section of this city it seemed wise to add to that, and so the M. Street Mission was started three months ago and when rightly located will form a center for a section of this city largely unoccupied by us.

This city presents peculiar problems, but problems that are a challenge to Methodism. Here is destined to be one of the big cities of the coast; but here the church is tremendously needed and sure am I there is coming to the Methodism of this city the vision of its opportunity. But we wait the visitation of our Pentecost that shall clarify that vision and send out our hosts with a sacrificial passion which shall make them not think merely of their own but give themselves to the winning of this city for Christ.

Death came to one home this year. Brother Bostwick, who came to us last Conference from Michigan, suffered the loss of his precious daughter not long after entering that field.

There were but two changes of pastors. January last, A. L. Baker left El Centro to take up the Anti-Saloon League Work, but returns to the pastorate at this session. Late in July E. P. Perry of Chula Vista exchanged with E. B. Cole of the Oklahoma Conference.

One of our pastors, Eli McClish, of "Central Church" of this city, has been appointed Chaplain of the old Soldiers' Home, at Sawtelle, from which position our honored brother W. A. Knighten, went to his coronation a few short weeks ago. We shall greatly miss Dr. McClish, but wish him "God-Speed" in his new and tender ministry.

Two churches have been during the year destroyed by fire—National City and Florida—the former seemingly incendiary, the latter accidental. There being but few members here and no insurance being taken on the building, no attempt will be made to rebuild. The membership will be transferred to the church at Hemet or at San Jacinto and preaching maintained in the school house.

At National City our loss was a gain, as it settled the question of relocating the church. The population had moved away from us and we had outgrown the capacity of the old building, but old association held some to that location. We now have almost completed a beautiful church costing $7,500 in a most central location and the outlook for our work is very promising.

The middle of June found the Imperial Valley in the grip of a severe earthquake. But only one of our churches, that at Imperial, a poorly constructed brick building and already in bad shape, was damaged to any extent. Coming as it did just ahead of the usual summer exodus, it brought a severe strain on our congregations, but they are rapidly recovering from the shock, and the aggressive character of the membership gives promise of splendid work for the future.

Huntington Beach Camp Meeting and League Institute never had a more successful session than this year, and demonstrates clearly that we have a fine center at that place for work of this kind.

During the year seven new churches and two parsonages have been built and several churches have been remodeled.

The first to be completed was at Victorville on the Mojave desert. Begun last year under the direction of Oliver Butterfield a student in U. S. C., it was completed at a cost of $1,500, so as to be dedicated in October. The pastor of this church begun preaching at Oro Grande, Apple Valley, Sunrise Valley and Lucerne Valley, sections that in a few years will be thriving communities.

Early in the Conference year First Church, Santa Ana, took up the project of building a chapel for new work in the southwest section of that growing city. Lots were secured and a very attractive building erected at a cost of about $1,700. Sunday afternoon, January 3rd, the church was dedicated. During this year this congregation has also helped finance this enterprise and though now suggesting it be made a separate charge the coming year, pledges its financial and active support. This church will be known as Richland Avenue.

The next church to be dedicated was that of "Mission Hills," San Diego. Hoping against hope, in spite of repeated discouragements the District Superintendent held on to this project until finally under the leadership of Pastors Beery and Seitter, with the assistance of a small heroic band of laymen, this enterprise went forward until the beautiful $10,000 church was completed. It was dedicated by Bishop Hughes, January 17th, when the cost was more than provided for. Much of this success is due to a devoted young layman—Ralph C. Rohrer.

It is not given to every man to build two churches in one year, but this is the achievement of T. C. Maxwell on the Newport Beach charge. Early in the Conference year, lots worth $300 were secured for a church at Harpers and an attractive building costing about $1,500 was erected. Sunday, March 21st, the church was dedicated and all costs subscribed. Ever since work was begun three years ago in Newport Beach, we have tried to secure some property, not to succeed until a few weeks ago, when a very substantially built house was purchased at a cost of $1,100, on which $500 has already been paid. Partitions were removed, a primary room added and other alterations made at a cost of about $400, giving us a very satisfactory house of worship. It was dedicated September 12th when all immediate costs were provided for. As already stated, a new chapel has been built for our 30th Street church, of this city. It is already insufficient for the needs of the work and will be changed and enlarged and completed at an early date at a cost of about $1,000.

Years ago, a church which we had at Encinitas was moved to another point to the surprise and resentment of the community. Work was however begun again during this year by J. L. Minney, pastor at Cardiff, and a few weeks ago a chance came through the building of a new school house to purchase very reasonably, the old school building. This has been done, the lots again secured, the building moved and renovated, giving us once more a place of worship in that community. When completed the property will be worth a thousand dollars.

At Banning H. C. Mullen, pastor, a store building was bought, moved alongside the main church and remodeled for use as a primary room while other additional improvements were made, all costing about $300.

At Fallbrook the pastor, George E. Twomley, took up the idea of remodelling the church. In addition to re-plastering, a gallery was built, giving Sunday School class rooms, other additions made, the whole building so worked over as to give practically a new auditorium at a cost of over $600. Sunday, March 7th, it was reopened when all costs were provided for.

At Olinda, H. T. Lewis, pastor, an extensive addition was made to the church and the whole building inside and out repainted. At Orange, J. E. Hall, pastor, larger room for Sunday School work became imperative, and has been provided at a cost of $600.

At Fairmount Church, San Diego, L. G. Spring was able in spite of serious financial stringency, to remodel and re-seat the auditorium at a cost of over $900, all of which is provided for.

First Church here has at an expense of over $1,500, finished its basement and made other improvements needed for its great and growing work.

The church of Imperial was early in the year seated with pews, and that at Nestor entirely repainted and decorated, at a cost of $125.

Other small improvements have been made on the following churches: Imperial, $50; Del Rosa, $22; Rialto, $75; El Centro, $70; Yucaipa, $125; Elsinore, $110; Colton, $800.

Two new parsonages have been built, a very useful one at Blythe, worth $1,000, and the other at Yucaipa at a cost of $1,500.

At San Marcos, largely by the labor of the pastor, W. H. Rogers, the parsonage has been, at a cost of $400, completely made over, giving us one of the most commodious of the small homes of the District.

The following churches have reduced their indebtedness: Imperial, $444; Del Rosa, $160; Rialto, $200; El Centro, $400; Fullerton, $400; Perris, $344; Yucaipa, $167; Garden Grove, $100; Heber, $86; "Grace," Redlands, $200; Colton, $1,340; First Church, Santa Ana, $1,600, making in all for this District this year $9,400.

A large number of the churches are adopting the every-member-canvas plan and wherever thoroughly tried, it has proved itself a great improvement on the old and too often haphazard method.

I am glad to report that this District has raised this year for Foreign Missions, $5,810; Home Missions, $6,730; W. F. M. S., $6,402.

In an unusual degree there have come changes in membership by removals. Yet through the diligence of the pastor and evangelistic life, church after church will report gains in membership, so that the District will report a gain of 987. Of those reporting to me, San Bernardino leads with a net gain of 95; followed by Grace, Riverside, 84; Corona, 60; Orange, 60; Anaheim, 52; Huntington Beach, 37; Fairmount, 36; and two of the hardest missionary fields, Perris and Randsburg, 34 each. These are some of the larger ones, but almost 50 report gains.

If time permitted, it would be a joy to mention each church and its pastor and easy to show how good the work is that has been done. Hardly a church but would show gain in some direction.

Over and over again have I brought before the Quarterly Conferences the supreme task of the Church, namely, the winning of men to Christ, and everywhere there has come a hearty response. One sometimes hears the statement that the evangelistic spirit and impulse are dying out in our churches. I do not find it so. Laymen are giving a ready response to wise and earnest leadership. They quickly respond to any new plan that promises success in winning souls. The Gospel Team movement is an illustration of their readiness.

Fifty churches have this year held in all 120 weeks of special evangelistic services resulting in almost 900 conversions and bringing into the church on probation more than 700, and contributing to the gains already mentioned. And looking forward to the great campaign of next year the pastors are many of them reporting the outlook as exceedingly promising. The old time Methodist evangelistic fervor is once more beginning to manifest itself in the life of the churches and daylight is breaking everywhere.

So many things present themselves for mention, but I pass them over with this simple program for the year:

A prompt and determined every member canvas that the churches may be rightly financed.

A vigorous and persistent education that the churches may get their true missionary vision.

And above all else a determination that will brook no denial that, cost what it may, we will have in all our churches a revival that shall mightily move the whole church and thereby lead multitudes to Jesus Christ.

ALFRED INWOOD.

LOS ANGELES DISTRICT

Bishop Hughes and Brothers—Five from among our best, heard the Master's call, this year, "Come home." Three of them were pastor's wives, Mrs. W. M. Sterling, Mrs. D. F. Howe, and Mrs. George C. Skafte.

Two pastors of striking personality have, this year, preceded us in the upward march. George E. Foster died, "In service" as he desired to do. Called to his bedside early one beautiful Sabbath morning, I said to him, "How are you, George?" His unhesitating reply was, "I am going home to heaven. They tell me I am dying but I am going home to heaven." Then for an hour he eagerly and thoughtfully talked about his desires for his loved ones, all unmindful of himself except to say, "I have done my best. It is all right." As we separated, I asked him, "Have you any message for the brethren?" He answered, "Yes, tell the brethren to win souls; never mind preaching about the sciences. Tell them to win souls; that is the only thing worth while." So had he lived and so he died consumed in mid-life by his Master's blood-passion for lost souls.

Then, Chaplain Will A. Knighten, our veteran soldier-pastor, slipped away from us so quickly and quietly that he was gone before any of his brother pastors could reach his side. Well and rightly was he named "Knighten" for his was a knightly soul.

God formed him in an heroic mold and gave him a proportionately great heart. He scorned to do a small or mean thing and his soul leaped passionately to the defense of the weak and oppressed. He was one of our pioneer pastors—one of our immortals of "The saddle-bag brigade," and thus made possible our splendid spiritual heritage in this highly favored land.

The following brethren have been added to the working forces of the District during the year and assigned to charges, chiefly new: B. T. Stauber, Larchmont Heights, Los Angeles; A. D. Traveller, Lynwood; Russell E. Stark, St. Mark's Church, Venice; A. D. Butters, Western Avenue, Los Angeles; J. Leslie Freels, Downey; George A. Vennink, Stephenson Avenue, Los Angeles; Stephen L. Smith, Elysian Gardens, Los Angeles; Edwin S. Burrell, North Inglewood; John H. Pape, Newman, Los Angeles. These men on small salaries under many difficulties have done fine work during the year.

New Churches Built—New Work Opened—Notwithstanding the financial depression which has very seriously hampered the brethren, new work has been opened in six places during the year, the main building of the Methodist Hospital completed, seven new churches have been erected, four more are under way, three new Sunday School buildings have been erected and one parsonage finished; a total of sixteen buildings valued at over $290,000.

New Methodist Hospital—The main building of the new Hospital worth with the grounds over $250,000, was dedicated by Bishop Edwin H. Hughes, Sunday, September 26, 1915.

It was initiated 12 years ago by two nurse-deaconesses, Miss Marguerite Decker and Miss Emma Higgins, who fitted up five beds in the old Deaconess Home on Hewitt Street. Then the Deaconess Board took the matter up; after that the Woman's Home Missionary Society assumed control and have tirelessly labored and persisted in the face of what seemed insurmountable difficulties until this magnificent building erected to the service of God and suffering humanity has resulted. Two wings are yet to be added.

About the end of last year G. S. Madden, our pastor at Watts, organized a small class at Lynwood and secured two fine lots from the Lynwood company, and subscriptions toward a church. Brother Madden not being able to give the necessary time and attention to it, on account of his own work, Rev. A. D. Traveller, the veteran superintendent and builder of 85 of our present Methodist churches of Chicago, was appointed as pastor. He immediately secured more subscriptions; gathered in what had been subscribed and built a church which with the lots is worth $2,000. It was dedicated September 19, with "all bills actually paid." We now have 19 members and a Sunday School of 30 at that point.

East Santa Monica had an increase of over 100 in its Sunday

School and was compelled to remodel and enlarge its modest building. This was done under the leadership of its pastor, W. B. Cole. They now have a neat, well arranged church worth $3,000.

J. E. Cope, after faithful service, under difficulties, gave up the work at Venice, and Russell E. Stark was appointed to that charge. A donation was secured from the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension and a $2,700 church completed and dedicated.

Crescent Heights, Los Angeles, is a child of First Church, Hollywood. A tent was erected two miles west of Hollywood and a Sunday School begun. Lots were secured and a $1,200 bungalow church erected. It is now being used for all services and when the time comes for the erection of a church, it is to be made into a parsonage.

During the year, under the pastorate of H. J. Harrington, $500 has been paid on the balance due on the lots and a $1200 bungalow church built at Wilmington. Our people built the church themselves and spent less than $100 for other labor.

Zaferia was a part of the Trinity, Long Beach charge last year. Lots had been secured and this year a church worth about $6,000 was erected. It was dedicated by Bishop Hughes. The pastor, J. E. Herrington, has a wonderful faculty for building churches where most men would think it utterly impossible.

A $12,000 church was completed at Inglewood this year under the pastorate of E. W. Pasko. In appearance, arrangement and equipment for all branches of church work it would be difficult to find an equal to this church for the amount of money invested.

During the year the last payment has been made on the church lot at Culver City, and a $2,700 church is now under way. Arthur H. Bolton is the student-pastor.

Having sold their old church, Euclid Heights was compelled to move into the basement of their new building where they are worshipping while arrangements are being made for a loan which will enable them to finish their new $24,000 church.

Sunday School and preaching services were begun at Stephenson Avenue last year by several local preachers from Belvedere. This year the Sunday School has grown to over 85 and has compelled them to build. A lot, with a small house on it which will do at present for a parsonage, has been secured and a bungalow church which is to be completed by the end of November is under way. George A. Vennink has been appointed to supply this charge.

The work at Elysian Gardens is under the care of a student pastor, Stephen L. Smith. There is a Sunday School of 75 which meets in the basement of a home on the hillside. A lot has been secured and most of the money and labor have been subscribed for the erection of a $1,000 bungalow church.

Belvedere now has a Sunday School of over 500. It too has been compelled to build a Sunday School room. This was done by the men of the Brotherhood. A neat building capable of seating about 125 was erected.

A similar situation prevailed at South Main Street where a Sunday School of over 550 necessitated either the building of the main auditorium or of a new Sunday School room. The latter was thought to be the wiser plan at present and a $600 building was erected by the men of the church.

A Sunday School room which will easily seat 400 scholars was built at Huntington Park.

Through the generous aid of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, Trinity, Long Beach, was enabled to place its finances on a much better basis and at the same time build a new parsonage worth $3,000. This church and its Sunday School have nearly doubled their membership this year. Great credit is due First Church, Long Beach, for the generous assistance.

Sunnyside has its plans well in hand to move to another and better site near the present location and then remodel and enlarge its church.

Redondo Beach started a Sunday School at Hermosa Beach last year. This year that work has rapidly progressed and a fine class of members has been organized. Plans are under way to secure a suitable lot on which to build a much needed church.

On April 18th a Sunday School was organized at Larchmont Heights. B. T. Stauber was placed in charge. He has organized a class of 32 members and has a Sunday School of 55 scholars.

A Sunday School was organized on Western Avenue, March 21st, by the pastor, A. D. Butters. We now have a Sunday School of about 75 members and a membership class of 19. This new work is situated in New Vermont Square, and is certain to become one of our leading churches.

Lennox Church, Inglewood organized a new Sunday School at Inglewood Acres during the year. It now has nearly sixty in attendance and is doing well under the direction of George A. Hunt.

Edwin S. Burrell is holding regular preaching services at North Inglewood and is organizing a Sunday School at that point.

Dakota Street is a branch of the Euclid Heights church. A canvass has been made just recently and a Sunday School organized. It is located on Dakota Street, near the present limits of the city.

Los Angeles has increased over 200,000 in population during the past five years. If we are to keep pace and systematically and wisely establish Methodism we simply must have more missionary and church extension money with which to do the work. The brethren have done marvelously during the past 18 months, organizing, as they have, over one new charge each month.

The Superintendent has sought to unite several of our churches whose buildings are located too near each other and who are under the pressure of the incoming into their neighborhoods of other races or foreign peoples. The aim is not to sell out, or to move out, but to use our churches for the benefit of those who are taking the homes of our present members. It is evidently going to take time, education and some acquired experience to convince some that Methodism ought not to desert any section of the city but to stay and give a pure Gospel to the foreign tide flowing into our midst and settling among us.

For seven years Mr. J. E. Carr, a trustee of the First Church, Los Angeles, has given very generously of his time and money to our Fifth Street Mission. His heart is in the work and he is doing what he can to save Los Angeles from having a neglected slum district. Two months ago Mr. Carr made a written proposition to deed to the Southern California Conference a lot, 60 by 110 feet, at the corner of Seventh and San Julian Streets, Los Angeles, on condition that there be erected on it a suitable building for mission purposes. This matter has been very carefully considered by a committee and will be presented to this Conference for its action. If after due consideration the proposition is accepted and the building erected it will go a very long way toward solving a great social, moral and religious problem in Los Angeles. The lot is estimated to be worth $60,000 or more.

Mr. W. T. Somes, who is a member of the commission on evangelism of the Los Angeles District, is greatly interested in that phase of the work and anxious that the new and weak charges have the benefit of the services of an evangelist. He has made a written offer to the Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society of 10 acres of land with 20 shares of water stock as a nucleus of a $50,000 fund the proceeds from which are to be used for evangelistic purposes.

In addition to the large amounts paid this year for new buildings the sum of over twenty-five thousand dollars was also paid for repairs and debts.

We have now 64 Epworth Leagues on this district with about 4,100 members, which is an increase of over 400. We have an unusually efficient District Cabinet which has laid very careful plans for the work of the year. Among these are systematic visitation of all the Leagues; co-operation with the Pasadena and San Diego Districts; organization of Gospel Teams in each League on the District, if possible; and they have undertaken and are planning for a campaign in which they will seek this year to "Win one soul for each active member" and heartily co-operate in the "Methodist Forward Movement."

We have 12 Intermediate Leagues with a membership of about 500 under the direction of a very efficient Superintendent.

There are 39 Junior Leagues with a membership of about 1,700. The Superintendent in her report to me says, "It is our aim in the Junior Leagues to win at least 200 children for Christ during the Methodist Forward Movement."

We have about two thousand officers and teachers and nearly 25,000 scholars in our Sunday Schools. The two outstanding features of the year's work have been improvements in methods of work and definite personal efforts to win every member of the class for Christ.

One of the most prominent and promising parts of the work during the year has been the work of the men of the Brotherhoods and that of the Gospel Teams. We now have about fifty Brotherhoods with over 2,000 members. Early in the year many of them took part in the Every Member canvass for current expenses and benevolences. In a number of the churches the men went two by two, taking their Bibles with them. After they had presented the needs of their church and had briefly touched upon any other points of church work of interest to that particular family, they read from the Word and knelt in prayer. The results were almost invariably very gratifying.

Three churches during the year have had very marked success in attracting and holding the boys of the church and neighborhood. The three are Belvedere, Echo Park and Normandie. At Normandie, under the leadership of the pastor, J. E. Fischer, a Boy Scout organization with Sunday School modifications was started. It now has 55 boys enrolled and in active service, and in Sunday School.

Rev. Jay W. Somerville, pastor of St. Paul's Church, Wichita, Kansas, and Henry J. Allen, editor of the Wichita Beacon, who had done such splendid work as leaders of the "Gospel Team" movement in the middle West, were brought out to Los Angeles by the Federation of the Brotherhoods and spent two weeks on this District and then took several trips to the other Districts and everywhere organized Gospel Teams. The movement greatly appealed to the men of the churches and organizations were formed all over this District.

A revival campaign was inaugurated and was vigorously pushed by the men of the Brotherhoods, led by their "Gospel Teams" and Pastors. The campaign by common consent was to culminate on Easter Sunday. Up to that date 2,627 new members were received into the churches on this District—over 46 per cent of whom were received by conversion or renewal. When the general campaign was over, several of the churches organized "Local Gospel Teams."

The work has just begun and the Brotherhoods and Gospel Teams are again lining up for a great campaign on this District under the general direction of the Methodist Forward Movement. Plans have been laid for a three days' meeting on Oct. 18, 19 and 20 of all the pastors, officials and membership of the churches for a quiet, thoughtful preparation of our hearts for the great campaign to follow. Then, Bishop Theodore S. Henderson is to spend two days with us early in November, giving us instruction and advice with reference to the best methods of work. The campaign will be in full swing from Thanksgiving Sunday evening through the winter and culminating Easter Sunday.

The pastors in their pre-conference reports to me give the following results of the work of the year:

Received "On Probation" 1041. Received "From probation and by confession" 1012. Received "By Certificate" 2272. That makes a total of 3284 received into the churches during the Conference year.

Brothers of the pastorate and laity, I thank you for the cordiality with which in so many ways you have co-operated with your superintendent during the year. Great are our privileges and opportunities and equally great our responsibility. After working with you and seeing you in action during this unusually difficult year, and knowing how many of you are prayerfully and systematically planning your work for the coming year, I have no hesitancy in saying that the results obtained are but the substance of the things hoped for and also the pledge that we shall more than do our part in winning at least a net gain of 250,000 new members in this year of the Methodist Forward Movement.

HARCOURT W. PECK.

SPANISH AND PORTUGUESE DISTRICT

It should solemnize our hearts today to realize that the world for whose redemption we work and pray is divided into battlefields, mission fields and Mexico, and that all three lie practically only 14 miles away. As we have taken an humble part in the great task now for the second year of this Spanish and Portuguese District, we feel only thankful to God for the privilege.

We have 11 regular charges this year as compared with seven of last year and there are now 14 out-stations. The Gospel has been preached publicly this year in 40 Mexican and Portuguese centers. Our workers include seven Mexican pastors, one Portuguese, five deaconesses and Miss Wright, who serves in the office.

Anaheim, Fullerton and Placentia—During the year Señor Jimenez has placed 10 Bibles and 2,300 tracts among the people, held 261 meetings, with 42 accepting Christ, made over 400 pastoral visits and married four couples, two of whom had families. Total of all classes of members, 78; more than double those of last year, and the total giving is $42 with $11 for benevolences.

The purchase of a $1,200 lot all paid for in the best location in the city, subscriptions nearly sufficient to build a bungalow church with a memorial gift of $250 from the Board of Home Missions, and $100 grant toward parsonage, will probably give these long-waiting Mexicans of Anaheim a church and pastoral home. The Fillmore and Bardsdale people united to bring out from Mexico her most talented preacher, hymn writer and theological professor, Rev. Vicente Mendoza, and his cultured wife and family.

It is pathetic to hear this great leader Mendoza tell of his efforts among the scattered, ignorant and woefully immoral folks of Fillmore, Piru and Moorpark. The circuit will include Ventura next year.

Long Beach and Santa Monica—An encouraging start on this circuit including Watts and Artesia has been delayed, by the declension of one of our new workers of last year. We have now two promising candidates for this circuit. It may include San Pedro's Italian work, for one of these candidates is an Italian of good experience and he preaches in Spanish.

Santa Ana—At Santa Ana, success has attended the work in their Social Service Church.

Hundreds of Mexicans have attended the night school in which Pastor Gonzales has been a leader. He has sent two boys and six girls to our Industrial Schools.

Santa Ana Mexicans have led our District in beginning with $5 per month on their pastor's salary. They are going to give $5 a month also on the salary of our first Spanish speaking Deaconess from the San Francisco Training School, Ruth Bishop.

The old Mormon Church of a year ago is scarcely to be recognized now with its $600 Social Hall addition and a new coat of paint. New chairs and lighting have been provided and the piano is paid for. All this for the most part has been done by the Mexican Methodists themselves. There are three out-stations, Artesia, Delhi Sugar Factory and El Modena (near Orange), where a chapel is to be built within a month on two large lots, well located and already paid for.

Santa Paula—This is the second mile of work in this town where 1000 Americans are caring for 500 Mexicans. The new church has often been filled with Mexicans and rapid growth is in evidence. Brother Narro and his family are tireless workers. They have made over 100 visits each month and distributed several thousands of tracts, and have had one notable wedding. Respectable families are coming into the church under the fire of bitter persecution. The priest, with strong anathemas, employs his sermons to condemn the Protestants. At the last Quarterly Conference the church was crowded. We baptized 20, of whom half were grown people and only one an infant, and we received 28 into the church.

Brother Narro has sent boys and girls to the Industrial Schools, is winning unbelievers and socialists to the Saviour, and has a well organized Sunday School, a Junior League of 50 and a Ladies' Aid Society doing good work. Rosa Narro goes soon to the San Francisco Training School as our first Mexican girl deaconess.

Rivera and Olinda—These points have been served by Emilio Hernandez of the Spanish-American Institute. Four years ago Emilio himself was an illiterate, gambling, drinking youth, fresh from serfdom in Old Mexico. The young people of Whittier and Olinda have co-operated in bringing brother Hernandez to this circuit, which includes also Richfield, Yorba Linda and La Habra. A flourishing little Sunday School has been organized at Rivera. Some 15 have been saved at Olinda and 10 at Rivera. One was a captain of the gamblers at Rivera. Emilio has sold 15 Spanish Bibles.

Tulare and Hanford Portuguese Circuit—A year ago we were praying for the opening of a work among the Portuguese on the Fresno district. The answer has come. A Portuguese-American, Jose L. Tavares, converted a year ago January, seemed a promising worker. Dr. Oliver encouraged his enthusiastic Epworth Leaguers and they soon had salary provided and Walter Buckner said "Tell Tavares to come to Tulare and we'll furnish him a house."

The bare statistics show 41 converts, 17 probations and a lot secured in Hanford with prospects of a new church for the Portuguese within the next quarter. The circuit includes Tulare, Hanford, Ingomar and Newman. Services have also been held at Sacramento and in Los Angeles. Traveling 6000 miles in his first eight months of work, this man of burning heart and tongue of fire has held 50 services, sold 15 Bibles, and made 400 pastoral calls and had one baptism. He has gathered $65 in offerings, beside his benevolences.

Los Angeles—Los Angeles is our forest of Argonne.

The Rev. E. M. Sein is daily straining every nerve to found a well organized Mexican Church. The Sunday School, Epworth League and Ladies' Aid Society are high in efficiency and aims. The hall at 110 Commercial street, in front of the Postoffice, is beautifully papered, and decorated with banners, ferns and rugs. Its show-windows, with a moving, colored light, arranged with a neat program of service, extend invitation to the passing multitude. A display of Gospel pictures, large-type portions of the Bible, good mottoes, tracts and a neat little book-case of Spanish Christian classics, silently preach Christ some 20 hours of every day. I have seen scores of Mexicans and other Latin folks standing fascinated before that window display. Brother Sein is a born educator.

Out on the Plaza, Brother Sein has had meetings every Tuesday night. A lady gives $8 monthly to provide a good cornetist for these open air services. Mexicans gather there in crowds of one hundred and more to hear the good news of salvation. Conferences have been held with groups of socialists and anarchists. There are good hopes that some of them who are now seen at our services, will enter the Highway of our God.

Our Los Angeles congregations are rapidly developing in strength and sane Christian convictions. Amid privations, sickness and irregular employment these Los Angeles Mexicans with an active membership of 53 have brought in all their benevolences, all running expenses, and are giving $20 monthly of the $40 rent for their hall. The Epworth League has sent $5 to Borneo; the Ladies' Aid have given many dollars and meals to the sick and unemployed and have made quilts for the Spanish-American Institute. The Sunday School report for 11 months shows 109 members, of all classes as against 65 last year. There have been 24 conversions and $311 given by the congregation itself during the year, beside $176 to the Spanish work by visitors and friends.

In the 20 months of Bro. Sein's ministry he has given the Gospel to 1,400 different Mexicans, sold 10 Bibles, given out 5,000 tracts, held 180 meetings, made 200 pastoral calls and traveled 4,200 miles, and has received 30 into full communion and 18 on probation.

Pasadena—The Crown City Methodists from the inception of the Spanish work have been its friends. Their pastors early got together in Dr. Hughes' study and laid out plans for the adequate care of the Pasadena Mexican colony. Providence has crowned such efforts with success. The steps taken have been: (1) Adequate support provided by all the churches for a good pastor; (2) A chapel located on a central and good sized lot; (3) Workers to be delegated to look after the music, the sick and the poor; (4) A city-wide methodist movement to clear away all debts and complete all properties was given some missionary dynamics by including an adequate, institutional plant for the Spanish work; a committee of three active laymen was appointed, who say that this latter task was executed. Certain co-ordinate movements in Pasadena have resulted in: First—The night school and the wholesome charity work of the Muchacho School two blocks from our Mexican Church; Second—The Bonita Co-operative Laundry, where the industrious, but needy Mexican Señoras of the church have found employment in doing the laundry of an increasing number of the leading American families.

For Latin peoples, in order to secure their second birth, there must be a cradle in the form of a suitable and commanding temple which shall minister to the whole man and to the entire community. And there it stands in Pasadena, near Marengo avenue and at the border of the Mexican town. It was dedicated on September 12th, by Dr. Hughes, who preached through an interpreter. Funds were secured at the services to practically complete free of debt this plant valued at $7,500. An additional large lot was bought for $900 to provide recreational facilities which are being directed by the Pasadena Y. M. C. A. The church cost $5,000 and the furnishings and various improvements, $1,000.

Pastor Olazabal has had a good year. He ranks first in our three brethren who have now completed their studies of the third year. He has had a good increase along all lines.

We have received this year from the Board of Home Missions $2,641, and $8,269.85 from this Conference, total $10,910.85. Contributions to the Plaza Church Fund, etc., $538.05.

The expenses have been as follows. Repairs, supplies, printing, kodaks and stereopticon, $218.30; salaries and expenses of workers, $8,619.05; rents, telephones, books and office expenses, $863.32; building and rent funds, $1,034.81; El Mexicano, $189.60; charity, $146.36, making a total of $11,071.44. Indebtedness to General Expense, borrowed from Special Fund, $160.59; accounts payable, $169.75; total indebtedness today, $330.34.

The workers all send in monthly reports of daily work. They have given the great appeal to about 4,000 different individuals in this district, have made possible 2,000 meetings held or aided, 1,700 visits, 4,000 letters, 20,000 tracts distributed, 152 Bibles sold and given, the workers traveling 30,000 miles. We give God glory for 50 per cent increase in total membership. Our full membership has increased 35 per cent and is now 181 and our probationers 123. The present number of Epworth Leaguers is 124, an increase of 50 per cent. The Junior Leaguers have trebled in number. We have 10 Sunday Schools now with an increase of 45 per cent; 427 scholars, representing an increase of 30 per cent. The average attendance has increased 90 per cent. There have been 208 converts this year, which is three times the number we had last year. We have property valuing a total of $15,000, representing an increase of 85 per cent. In the total of benevolences we have an increase of 75 per cent, the amount being $280. Our brethren have brought in practically all their benevolences. The total giving for all purposes has doubled and has lacked only $70 of $1,000.

We have organized a formal and very profitable preachers' meeting, of which the Rev. E. M. Sein is the first president.

Portentious signs stand large before us all just now. This is not a detached task. We are attached to the main trunks of the liquor traffic, of social vice and of socialism. The corpse of Mexico's misery and the anaesthesia of Rome's worst features drag heavy upon our workers and people, as they strive to lift themselves from their valley of dry bones into a new nation.

There are more Mexicans in Los Angeles than in all other cities of the Coast combined; over 35,000 or one-third of the population of San Diego. One-half the Portuguese in the United States live in California.

On one day's notice, Brother Tavares and I had a trilingual service with over 100 Portuguese and Mexicans present in our First Church in Sacramento. Our Mexican congregations are becoming sprinkled with scholarly Filipinos and amiable Italians.

At present we have only three church buildings for all these people in this whole Conference, and no church for them at all in Los Angeles.

It is splendid to see noble hearts and whole churches who are stepping out from the deadly momentum of modern systems to lift Mexicans up to a fair chance in the march of our generation. This work is fortunate in its friends, and as many have remarked: First: in our Lord who is wonderfully blessing those who have clad, fed, visited and received these people without a country. We are fortunate in our Bishop, who has been a consistent friend during these four years. Two years ago, on this platform he said: "I want to say that no one in this state of California could better invest the savings of a lifetime than to give it to this Industrial School for Mexican Boys!" Yesterday he proved that he had not forgotten, for he selected the Mexican Boys' School as the recipient of your sacrifice as you approached the Lord's Table.

May we not all be led by the vision of the smoke of 1,000 villages, section camps and Sonora towns without a Christian messenger, until we shall help the Lord of Life to lay a cross with a Christ on the bosom of this state; Whose hands will be pierced once more doubtless by Latins incited by priests in San Francisco and Sacramento; Whose brow will be pressed by the thorns of persecution in the Valley of the Seven Moons; Whose heart may be broken by the Portuguese in the San Joaquin Valley; Whose base shall rest upon Mexican evangelism down here in San Diego and the Imperial, but which shall have its great foundation in the Frances de Pauw School for Girls at Hollywood, the Spanish-American Institute at Gardena, and in a great Institutional Mexican Church on the Plaza of Los Angeles.

Reports of Standing Committees

EDUCATION

The denominational college is here to promote Christian Education for the young people of our land. This is its emphatic and only reason for existence. Evidence is easily obtainable to show the disastrous results of the neglect of religious education. As the only reason for a denominational college is its Christian emphasis, it is a foregone conclusion that the University of Southern California has the constant and loyal support of every minister in this Conference, and that a similar attitude should be maintained by the laity.

The religious training given during college days is a big factor in future life, and the institution which, through its professors and by its attitude, is propelling young men and women toward the things of the spirit is fulfilling one of the greatest needs in our American civilization.

Your University is doing this very thing. Its vigorous Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Association gather weekly for prayer and praise three hundred to four hundred students, as well as creating an atmosphere that lends a moral and religious tone to the whole institution.

Besides the organized religious societies and the chapel exercises, there is a student's weekly prayer meeting led by Dr. Hill, and attended by 150 to 200 undergraduates. And added to these is the personal influence of the professors. During the past year one professor alone has conversed with more than one hundred young people regarding their religious life.

Your University continues its remarkable successes. This year there is a larger enrollment than ever. President Bovard began his presidency in 1903 with 59 students in Liberal Arts, there are now over 1,000. There are now enrolled 100 more than at this time last year, necessitating the dividing of the freshman classes into eight sections, thereby adding to the inconvenience of the students and to the work of the faculty.

Last June 432 men and women were graduated from the university. There have been in the graduate department 200 during the past year; and from this department in the past four years many teachers have gone into the High Schools of the state carrying a helpful reflection of the University spirit. The College of Law is now fifth in size in the United States. There are already sixty more enrolled than there were last year at this time, making a present attendance of about 700.

The College of Dentistry has to refuse applicants. It has over 100 in its freshman class. Its new building and equipment has cost $60,000 and its lot is valued at $45,000.

Despite the condition placed on the College of Physicians and Surgeons, requiring two years of Liberal Arts before being admitted, it has more than doubled its freshman class, this year. There are now eight professors giving all their time and the college is endorsed by the "Association of American Medical Colleges."

The question of a well educated ministry is a vital one. Ninety-two per cent of Theological Students in our land, and 93 per cent of Home and Foreign Missionaries come from denominational colleges. Of the forty students now in the Conference course of study, (not including the Mexican brethren) twenty-five of them have had both college and theology work, and nearly all of these in your institution; and all but five of the forty have had some Liberal Arts training.

The Maclay College therefore demands your thoughtful consideration. It sadly needs buildings and endowment, and your committee believes that the time has come for some advanced movement, looking for a year set apart for the collecting of funds for this important department.

A new forward movement has been launched by the Trustees of the University, and the Rev. Robert Tyler Smith, Ph. D., has been appointed manager of this work, with the title of "Executive Secretary of the Forward Movement" and your committee requests his appointment to this position.

We announce with regret the death of two efficient and loyal members of the Board of Trustees: Rev. Will A. Knighten and Mr. I. H. Oxnam. With those exceptions we nominate for re-election those members of the Board whose term expires at this Conference. We also nominate Chas. Edward Locke and S. P. Mulford to fill the two vacancies.

Your committee also places in nomination the following to serve on the Annual Conference Board of Education.

Fresno District, A. M. Drew, C. B. Dalton; Pasadena, D. S. Huffman, E. H. Fretz; San Diego, E. P. Clarke, R. D. Hollington; Los Angeles, C. A. Parmelee, Eli McClish.

We recommend that the present apportionments of 35c per member for the University of Southern California be maintained, and that two-sevenths of the sum received shall go to the Maclay College, and 4c per member to be apportioned to the Board of Education.

Your committee further nominates the following visitors: Liberal Arts, J. M. Barnhart, P. P. Carroll, W. W. Cookman; Medicine, C. B. Dalton, W. C. Geyer, D. F. Howe; Law, Daniel Dundas, F. D. Mather, H. H. Hocker; Dentistry, M. S. Hughes, J. F. Humphrey, E. J. Inwood; Pharmacy, J. C. Livingston, John Hedley, J. W. Neely; Music, Eli McClish, V. M. McCombs, S. J. McConnell; Theology, S. J. Rogers, A. W. Cummings, A. H. Gunnett; Fine Arts, E. H. Fretz, W. M. Jeffers, C. P. Metcalf.

The Board of Education has authorized a Director of Religious Work for all our colleges. It is also to begin a scheme of survey, which shall seek to standardize the curricula and the faculties.

The Children's Day Fund has aided 22,984 students during its existence and is now helping 2,000 to go to College.

A Jubilee Campaign for Christian Education beginning 1916 and ending July 1, 1918, is being planned by the Board.

It will be 150 years since the founding of Methodist Education in America, and 50 years since the organization of the Board of Education.

The Jubilee program is, as follows—to present Christian Education to 3,000 of the strongest churches; to make a nation-wide effort to increase enrollment in our colleges; to carry out an educational survey; to insure up to date efficiency, and to secure funds for permanent endowment. This endowment is to help education in strategic and in new places; to lay the foundation for a pension for teachers, and in other ways help Methodist Education; to carry new light to the Highlanders of the South, and to promote the Spirit of Evangelism in all our Methodist Schools and Colleges.

BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS

The foreign missionary enterprise is the greatest work of the Church of Jesus Christ upon earth. Our Lord's final command to "Go into all the world" is imperative. The Methodist Episcopal Church has recognized its responsibility to her Lord, as shown in her missions through the world. Our own Conference has loyally borne its share of this work, but we call your attention to the following figures: In 1912 we had 42,327 members and we gave to Foreign Missions $20,676. In 1914 we had 48,464 members, but we gave only $20,001, a decrease of $675. In 1912 we had an enrollment in our Sunday Schools of 45,884, and our Sunday Schools contributed to Foreign Missions $3,444, in 1914 we had an enrollment of 69,420, but we gave only to Foreign Missions $6,798, a decrease of $6,646.

These church contributions show we are giving only a fraction of $.41 per member per year for the great work of bringing this world to the feet of Jesus Christ. We call upon you to emphasize the instructions of the discipline respecting the organization of each Sunday School into a missionary society, and the observance of one Sunday each month as Missionary Day when a suitable program is presented.

The Conference Board in co-operation with the district secretaries would gladly assist the local pastors in securing suitable pulpit supplies for Missionary Day, and we recommend that this Missionary Day should not be later than Easter each year, and should preferably be near Thanksgiving so that the duplex envelopes might be available for effective uses. And thus the great call and command of our Master would be suitably honored.

BIBLE CAUSE

The American Bible Society again reports an advance beyond anything in its history, having issued for the year 6,388,717 volumes, an increase over last year of 1,137,541.

The total issues of the Society in 99 years amount to 109,980,608 volumes.

This year 1,973,453 copies were distributed in China. In Japan, Corea and the Philippines there were sent out 1,109,184 volumes more than last year.

On the Pacific Coast 120,342 copies printed in 64 languages and dialects and valued at $12,615 were sold or given away by 20 agents who visited 450 towns and villages. Translation and revision are still going on in Spanish, Portuguese, Chinese, also in the dialects and languages of Siam, the Philippines, Marshall Islands and the Tulu tribes.

Next year the Society will celebrate its Centennial and asks all churches to join in calling attention to the work and worth of the Word of God in the establishment and continuance of this nation and its value in carrying light and salvation to all nations.

Your committee would call attention to the campaign now in progress for the use of the Bible in the Public Schools of California.

We believe that to this book more than to any other source we owe all that is high and noble in our American ideals, laws, institutions, government, and national life, and that the inculcation of its holy principles in the heart of the youth of the land is the only hope of the production of an intelligent moral, law-abiding, patriotic American citizenship, and that the banishment of the Book from the schoolroom thwarts the great purpose of the public school.

Believing the lack of the Bible is a real menace to the spiritual welfare of every child, the great hindrance to the work of the church, a danger to the perpetuity of the state and a serious barrier to the advancement of the Kingdom of God, we are satisfied that it is our responsibility and duty as Christian citizens to do all in our power to bring back the banished Book to the schoolroom, and to safeguard our youth by the selection of teachers who believe God's Word.

We would therefore heartily commend the efficient work being done by the National Reform Association in its campaign for the Bible in the Public Schools which is now being conducted in the State of California under the leadership of Dr. James S. McGaw.

PASTORAL ADDRESS

We, your pastors and fellow workers in annual Conference assembled, send affectionate greetings to the Church of God which is in Southern California. In coming to you, in this our annual address, "we thank our God" upon each remembrance of you, being confident of this very thing that He who hath begun a good work in you will perfect it in you through Jesus Christ. We felicitate you upon the progress made in the holy affairs of the kingdom of Christ during the year just closing, and we plead with you to make the new year, upon which we are entering, one of special zeal and consecration. As the result of your industriousness and liberality we are able to report that during the year now closing our membership has increased from 48,464 to 50,178. We have built 12 new churches and five new parsonages, and given to the great missionary and educational interests of the church the sum of $218,444. The enrollment in our Sunday Schools has increased from 69,420 to 74,474, and we have 14,848 young people in our Epworth Leagues as members. We also note a substantial increase in the number of brotherhoods organized during the year through the Conference. The year closing has been characterized by a mighty spread of revivals influenced by the awful carnage in Europe, which has seemed to make frivolous and careless people more serious and attentive to their spiritual duties and necessities. We should seize upon these extraordinary opportunities to preach a convincing and persuasive gospel that the multitude may be lead to accept Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace.

Let us take for our motto in all our churches for the coming year the impressive words "Not conformed but transformed."

Let us renew our vows to the Master and re-dedicate our talents to His service.

"Now unto Him that is able to keep you from falling and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be majesty, dominion and power now and for ever. Amen."

SPANISH AMERICAN INSTITUTE

This marks the closing of the second year of work of the Spanish American Institute. "Growth" is the key-word of the past year. Although financial conditions have been such as to hamper the work of benevolent and charitable institutions, our school for Spanish speaking boys has been able to increase in efficiency and to add to the equipment.

$1,000 has been paid on the mortgage given to secure deferred payments on the purchase of the land; which payment has reduced our only indebtedness to $6000.

A six-room concrete-plaster cottage has been built for the residence of the Superintendent. This building was made possible by Westlake church and for that reason it is named "Westlake Cottage."

The year has been closed with all bills paid and with a small balance in the current expense fund and in the building fund.

The development in the lives of the boys has been remarkable. The half-starved, pale-faced boys received a year or more ago have grown into strong, healthy and happy lads. They are discarding superstition and custom and readily accepting our instruction. They are ambitious to learn and appreciate the efforts made to assist them in gaining an education. All of the 16 boys who are over ten years of age are Christian; of these 16 boys, half have been converted since coming to the Institute. One of these boys thought that Jesus was a moving-picture actor; another had never heard of him at all. The religious life is being strengthened by Bible study, daily prayer meetings, religious talks, attendance at our Gardena church, and by personal counsels.

The enrollment at last conference time was 26, now it is 34.

Our equipment consists of 10 acres of land in gardens, and orchard; Service-Carson Hall, which contains dormitories, school room, and matron's suite; Westlake Cottage; the Farm Cottage, which is used as dining room and kitchen and as rooms for employees; pumping plant; stables, horses, cows, chickens, rabbits.

Our present needs are: Another dormitory, and industrial building; money to provide for additional growth.

We start this year with great hopes of further development in equipment and also in the lives of the boys. This school is necessary and God will prosper it. We ask the prayers and co-operation of the Conference in our task of providing Christian leaders for the Mexican people.

METHODIST HOSPITAL

The Hoosier poet has penned a short love poem entitled "When My Dreams Come True." The fervent words of this dreaming maiden very well describe the ardent hope and expectation of the elect ladies of the Woman's Home Missionary Society. These women have dreamed for years of a modern hospital, commensurate with our needs, in keeping with the standing of our church, and throbbing with the spirit of our Christ. We their pastors with the fellow workers of our churches have caught the meaning and beauty of their dream and joined hands with them to make these dreams come true. We are rejoicing in the privilege of announcing that since the last annual Conference the central unit of the proposed new Methodist Hospital of Southern California has been completed. This body will appreciate the devotion and self sacrifice of the women of the Home Missionary Society. We can never forget the foundation work done by our brothers, B. C. Cory and J. C. Elliott. Methodism will always acknowledge a debt of gratitude to the Board of Trustees of this institution, Alfred E. Gwynn, Lydia Alexander, Willitts J. Hole, Mrs. A. E. Pomeroy, Mrs. Silas Sprowls, Mrs. George W. Bayly and W. S. Allen. These have had the intimate touch and have felt most keenly the weight of responsibility. This beautiful building serving its Christlike mission will ever stand as a monument giving expression of the character of the Women's Home Missionary Society and this body of faithful ministers with the hosts of faithful workers whom they have inspired and lead.

While we have passed through a year of financial depression, yet we feel that our hospital work has been signally blessed of God. At the beginning of the year Mrs. Elizabeth Steiger of our First Church, Riverside, deeded to us a $20,000 business property in Los Angeles. From this property Mrs. Steiger is to receive the net earnings during her life time. $80,000 of mortgage notes that had been issued to carry on the work of building were sold during the year at face value and will bear 7 per cent interest. Approximately $22,000 has been subscribed to the work during the year. $2,100 has been subscribed in annuities during the year. Approximately $40,000 has been collected on old and new subscriptions and put into the work over and above the $80,000 of mortgage notes.

$6,000 in cash has been added to our $2,700, making a productive endowment, $8,700. We have a previous subscription for endowment made last year that when paid will give free hospital service to our resident Bishop and our Conference members and their families. $5,000 has been given by Mrs. Frederick Fisher of Los Angeles to endow a bed in one of the wards, which as long as time lasts will give to the needy suffering Christ's message of love through the instrumentality of this Christian woman and the church she loves. The new building at 2826 South Hope street, which was dedicated to its holy mission by Bishop Hughes, Sept. 26, has an ideal location in the heart of the city of Los Angeles.

It is a thoroughly modern, fire proof structure of five stories. It is completely equipped with the most modern appliances known to science. It has a capacity of 120 beds. Seventy-five patients were received and thirty-three operations were performed the first week after opening. We feel that Protestantism is having a new awakening to the physical necessities of humanity.

We feel that it is vitally important that our building enterprise should be followed up immediately with a debt paying campaign in which all of the people will be instructed as to the importance of the work and the opportunity it will give for serving our Lord and Christ.

Only a small gift from each member of our church in this Conference would wipe out our debt and open the arms of our church through this institution to receive many who must suffer and die that might be saved to their loved ones and made to know of the depths of love the church has for them for Christ's sake.

The following is a summary of the report required by the discipline:

Value of hospital site, building, fixtures, etc.....	$232,000
Value of other property	22,000
Special endowment	8,750
Hospital pledges	26,000
Total assets	$387,750

INDEBTEDNESS

Borrowed money	$ 80,000
Final payment to contractor	26,000
Furniture and equipment	27,000
	$133,000
Total net assets of the hospital	$254,750

ENDOWMENT

Paid up and productive endowment	$ 8,750
Subscribed endowment	9,000
Total endowment	$ 17,750

During the building period of the new hospital our work was more or less interfered with but notwithstanding this the Superintendent reported the best year of service in the history of the institution.

Four hundred patients were treated. Forty were treated for part pay and forty-eight were given free treatment amounting to $1137.00.

We recommend that every charge observe Hospital Sunday. We recommend that the members of this Conference aid in every way possible the raising of sufficient funds to clear our institution of debt.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Never in the history of our great church has there been such an awakening to the responsibilities which lie at our doors. Never have so many trained minds been focused on the conservation of the young life which gives to the organization its stability and preservation. Pastors, parents, teachers are one in acclaiming that the Sunday school is the greatest agency through which the spiritual life may be developed in the growing child, but their vision is dimmed by inadequate means to cultivate and preserve the young life within our reach. The world offers to our boys and girls many things that live and hold them captive to questionable ideals; and here is the opportunity for the church to emphasize her high offices.

Thorough religious education is the increasing need of our school. This is accomplished first, by the hearty use of Graded Lessons in Graded Schools; Second, by teacher Training Classes under trained leaders. We urge our pastors and superintendents to use our own Methodist Publications. There is none better. The present Teacher Training Course published under the directions of Dr. W. C. Barclay, is to be warmly commended to all Sunday Schools in our Conference.

Our young people who are going to college should have their attention called to the new major course in Religious Education offered at the University of Southern California. This course leads to the degree A. B. and is specially desired to prepare teachers for our schools in the latest and best principles and methods of work.

The number of schools in our Conference this year is 316, an increase of ten. The total enrollment of 73,315, shows an increase of 3,895, and the average attendance of 38,154 shows an increase of 1,702. The number of scholars reported as church members or probationers, 23,625, gives us a favorable increase for this year of 1,870.

DEACONESS BOARD

In this age when the Church is seeking to christianize the world and not simply witness against the world, the work of the deaconesses throughout the church becomes increasingly important. Especially is this true of our own conference territory. Fourteen of our charges the past year have had the services of regularly assigned deaconesses. In addition to the parish work thus indicated a deaconess has been constantly in the field of the Fifth Street Mission and its rescue work, while other deaconesses in Traveler's Aid work have helped 7927 persons coming into the city of Los Angeles. In like manner the various boats landing at San Diego and Los Angeles have been met. In addition to this work, some time has been given to work among the sick, poor, $1,118 having been expended in relief work. 553 families have been helped; employment has been secured for 175. Total number of calls 16,589, calls on sick 2645. 5357 garments have been given to the needy, 295 baskets of food, 575 cans of fruit, 290 glasses of jelly, 1151 bouquets of flowers.

Ethel Kirkwood and May Reed have both been compelled to give up the work on account of failing health. Enola Sherwood has taken unto herself a husband and therefore is no longer in the work. Death has claimed one of the sisterhood, Miss Ada J. Breckenridge, the beloved and efficient deaconess of First Church of Pasadena.

In this connection, we note the passing of our brother Will. A. Knighten, D.D., for ten years actively connected with this work in Southern California.

Your Conference Board begs leave to report that all the work done within the bounds of this Conference has been carefully passed under review by it and that the work is in excellent condition, due to the faithful labors of the women of the Woman's Home Missionary Society entrusted with this work, and to the efficient superintendent of our Los Angeles Home, Miss Isabel Leitch.

The following deaconesses have had their licenses renewed: Isabel Leitch, Mettie Chaffee, Margaret Pries, Demis E. Smith, Ellen Anderson, Anna Van Dam, Henrietta Van Dam, Cedora Cheney, Geneva McCrory, Grace Adams, Eunice Sayre, Adalada Applegate, Ressie Way, Nellie Sanborn, Minnie Steel, Jessie Pratt and Hazel Morehouse.

Florence Smith and Pauline Guthrie, having met the requirements of the Discipline, have been licensed, and are respectfully recommended for consecration. The terms of E. A. Healy, Mrs. W. F. Chambers and Mrs. J. W. Gillette having expired, we recommend that they be re-elected for a period of three years.

BENEVOLENCES

The committee rejoices with you in the splendid record made during the last year which has been a year of financial reverses with many of our laymen. We regret that there has been a falling below the standard on some of our charges and we feel that some of this decrease has been due to a lack of the real vision of Christ's kingdom and its needs brought about by the present world wide disturbances. Notwithstanding the difficult conditions under which our pastors labored, the reports show an increase of all benevolences over last year of $2,000. In this we greatly rejoice. We urge our pastors to participate actively in the coming conventions to be held by the Laymen's Missionary Movement. We recognize the efficient work of A. N. Fisher, who has rendered his services freely and effectively as Field Secretary in Systematic Giving, and urge our brethren to secure his services as the opportunity may afford.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

The fourteen thousand Epworthians in the Junior and Senior Leagues of our Conference continue to be a growing and spiritualizing force. Their four-fold program of personal spiritual life, world missionary activity, social salvation and a Christian pleasure-life has been pursued successfully in most of our charges.

Evangelism—The "Win My Chum Week" last November brought scores to confess Christ. It deserves the co-operation of pastors, and we urge that it be made the first young people's work of the year in every charge.

Missions—It is to our young men and women that the vision has come of a saved Spanish speaking population. They are still leading the Church in this our greatest and most immediate missionary responsibility. From their efforts have come more than $3500 of the sum invested in that cause this year. We can never expect a blessing upon our efforts for the foreigner out of sight, while we neglect the foreigner in our door-yard.

Conventions—Fresno District has adopted the plan of this Board for elections and Conventions in the spring. The three Southern Districts combined their conventions in the Boyle Heights Church, Los Angeles, and thereby intensified a godly rivalry among the Districts in works of righteousness. The Huntington Beach Institute brought three Central Office leaders to us this year, and at its close seventy-five of our young people made definite signed covenants for Christian service.

Future Work—We make the following suggestions for a definite task in each department of League work for the ensuing year: In each local chapter: Spiritual Department—The Win My Chum Movement; World Evangelism—At least one Mission Study Class in each Chapter, accepting the challenge of the Pittsburg Conference to have the greatest number of classes of any Conference in the connection; Social Service—Co-operation in the work assigned to young people's societies by the California Campaign Federation, in the effort to make California Dry; Recreation and Culture—A regular program of Christian life to counteract the pernicious influence of the commercialized pleasures.

AGGRESSIVE EVANGELISM

The healthy red blood of Methodism has ever been its aggressive evangelism. We should have just cause for alarm if we found an absence from us of an ardent devoted life and a mighty passion to bring our fellow men to the personal relation to Jesus Christ. The distinctive features which have ever marked our Church abide with us still. For the carrying forward of our definite commission of evangelism we earnestly urge, first: Continuous personal evangelistic efforts; second: That we make more endeavor to preserve the children to the church, and to bring them to a personal decision for Christ in early life; third: That we utilize more fully that most ancient of organizations, the home, and that we promote in these centers a family evangelism by constant Christlike living, and a well kept family altar.

We hail with joy the forward movement in our Church which has as its object the adding of 250,000 new members during the coming year. We believe that God has appointed some evangelists, and suggest that we give proper acknowledgement and dignity by encouraging the calling forth of those men whose character, gifts and graces fit them for such work.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANT ENDOWMENT FUND

In order to obtain an impartial view of the work of the Field Secretary, and the results achieved, it is necessary to record some of the limitations which confronted him.

First—as to time. By Conference instructions, the pastors who were to move, were directed to defer this until after the State Election. In the case of the Field Secretary, he had no place to move to. Securing a home and getting settled therein involved no little time and labor. Because of these unavoidable limitations, it was Sunday, November 8th, when the first public presentation of this work occurred.

In securing Sunday appointments there were some unavoidable difficulties in the way of Special Days and occasions like Easter, Children's Day, Christmas, revival work, etc. Then there were other enterprises great and urgent, pressing for response from our Methodist constituency—our University, the immediate pressing demands of our Methodist Hospital, the new City Mission enterprise, the Anti-Saloon League work, etc. The pastors and their people were under tremendous pressure, because of the financial stringency, to care for their current church expenses and their benevolence offerings.

Confronting these conditions I have visited 67 charges, lectured 21 times, mailed six different appeals to pastors (1,400 letters), mailed to the members 2,400 pages of leaflets, 600 subscription statements and 250 receipts.

The amount subscribed by charges is $5,058, by pastors $516, total $5,574. The amount paid by charges is $4,234, by pastors $181, making total amount paid $4,415.

The conditions for payments of subscriptions gave to the close of 1915. By the expiration of that time most of the unpaid pledges will doubtless be paid.

Aside from the public presentation of this cause, the Field Secretary has been on the lookout for large offerings and bequests, and there are some hopeful prospects in that direction.

On March 15th the Field Secretary brought his "Smiles" Lecture out of "cold storage" and set it to service for this cause. The receipts have been from voluntary offerings—$103.00—which have fully met his personal expense account since the venture began.

At the call of Dr. Hingeley, the General Secretary, I attended a "Pension Congress" in July and obtained, among other things, some valuable suggestions in reference to working the Endowment Campaign.

I wish to bear testimony to the valuable help I have received from our Conference Treasurer, Dr. Green, who has for many years labored untiringly and most efficiently in the interest of our retired Ministers.

Kindly suffer this final word: If we are to carry forward this great Endowment undertaking to complete consummation, there must be wise planning, heroic endeavor, and hearty co-operation. Our pastors, who are to be the ultimate beneficiaries, should lead the way with such devotion and such self-sacrificing gifts as to give the people unmistakable assurance of their generosity and brotherliness. Then our laymen—rich and poor—with such example, will gladly bring their consecrated gifts for the better care of our veteran ministry.

WESLEY K. BEANS.

HUNTINGTON BEACH METHODIST ASSEMBLY

The Huntington Beach Methodist Assembly was successful this year beyond all previous records. When most summer gatherings were depleted or suspended because of the Expositions and the financial stringency, crowds were in attendance which taxed the auditorium, including the one thousand feet of seating space which were added this year, and filled the new church with the overflow.

The seven o'clock prayer meetings, conducted by Dr. Howe, often filled the ground floor and will remain a bright memory in the spiritual life of all who attended.

The customary morning preaching hour was devoted to a series of inspirational lectures largely attended and of permanent value.

For the fifth session Evangelists Brown and Curry conducted afternoon and evening meetings, preaching a sane and plain gospel through which multitudes were renewed in the faith and many were converted.

Our property is out of debt save for an assessment for paving the street on one of its sides, for which we will ask you to authorize us to take out a loan. It is now conservatively estimated to be worth $40,000, and is rapidly increasing in value.

By a generous gift, the Woman's Home Missionary Society has been given a large Deaconess Rest Home in Huntington Beach on condition that the present home be given to the Huntington Beach Methodist Episcopal Church as a parsonage. This arrangement is conditional upon the proper deeding of the present Rest Home. We therefore request that you empower this Board of Trustees to make such transfer of property as it shall find legal and equitable in the case.

The following are hereby nominated as Trustees for the ensuing year: S. A. Thomson, A. Inwood, F. D. Mather, H. W. Peck, A. R. Moore, S. S. Sampson, C. H. Scott.

SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION

The Social Service Commission of the Southern California Conference, through its secretary, Rev. E. Guy Talbott, who is also Executive Secretary of the California State Church Federation, has carried on an extensive campaign this past year throughout the State for legislation embodying the principles of the Gospel.

We are especially interested in the enactment of the following measures by the last session of the California Legislature: Anti-tuberculosis bill, pure milk bill, child labor bill, public defender bill, and the Church Tax Exemption Amendment.

We urge greater attention on the part of the church to the pressing social problems of the day, especially the following:

1: Unemployment and social justice. The churches should know the causes of unemployment and social unrest and seek to remove those causes. We recommend that each pastor secure a copy of the report of the Federal Commission on Industrial Relations and of the Commission on Immigration and Housing of the State of California.

2: Poverty. The question of poverty is ever more and more pressing. It cannot be solved without the removal of its causes. The reports suggested above indicate those causes and the part of the church in the effort for their removal. The preacher's library should contain the United States Government report on "Wealth, Debt and Taxation."

3: Disease. Much of Christ's time was spent in ministering to human suffering and disease. The church must support all measures for public health and sanitation. Each minister ought to have a copy of the latest report of the State Board of Health, and each local church ought to co-operate in all public health campaigns.

4: Vice. The passing of the Red Light Abatement law and the establishing of rescue homes have not solved the question of vice suppression. They deal with effects, not causes. The church must discover and remove the causes of commercialized vice and of sexual immorality. Questions of sex hygiene and of eugenics should find a place in the church.

5: Crime. Christ was anointed to "preach release to the captives and the opening of the prisons to them that were bound." Total depravity does not explain all criminals. The social environment is as important in the making of a criminal as personal heredity or total depravity. The solution of the question of crime and the criminal rests on an intelligent understanding of the causes of crime and a systematic campaign for their removal.

The divine task of the church is the establishing of the Kingdom of God on earth in individual human hearts and in society. The church must seek to provide a saved social environment in which saved souls and saved bodies are to live and achieve their destiny.

AUDITING

We have examined the accounts of the District Superintendents and find them correct.

AUDITING COMMITTEE,

W. W. Kaler, Chairman.

PUBLIC MORALS

Your Committee submit the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The Mormon institution is a polygamous Kingdom set up in this Republic, under the rule of a false prophet who holds that his authority is superior to the civil powers, and

WHEREAS, The National Reform Association of Pittsburgh has inaugurated a nation-wide movement against the evils of the Mormon system; and has offered to the country the following platform and program:

We insist that all churches have equal rights in this country.

We insist that the Mormon church shall have no more privileges than any other church in this country.

We insist that the temporal Mormon Kingdom shall cease to exist in this country.

I. A constitutional amendment to forbid polygamy and polygamous living.

II. A proceeding by the department of justice to force an accounting of the property which was restored to the Mormon Kingdom in trust; and a proceeding to dissolve the Mormon Kingdom property trusteeship as a combination in restraint of trade.

III. An order by the postoffice department withholding the privileges of the mail from the Mormon Kingdom and its responsible officials, so long as they teach the crime of polygamy.

IV. A refusal by each house of congress to seat any man who pays political allegiance to the Mormon Kingdom or is elected by its power.

V. A refusal by the President to appoint any man to any federal office who pays political allegiance to the Mormon Kingdom.

VI. Political opposition by all Christian patriots to any candidate who is known to be an ally of the Mormon Kingdom in politics.

AND WHEREAS, In the proposed platform and program there is no war upon religion nor is there any denominational conflict; nor is there any invasion of civil right, nor is there any attack upon innocence, now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Conference does hereby endorse the platform and program above recited and does urge the people and the government of this Christian nation to adopt such lawful and Christian measures as shall bring to a speedy and merciful end the offenses of the Mormon system.

WHEREAS, It is the consensus of opinion that in the interests of economy and effectiveness the administration of Christian civil reform work within the State of California, should as far as possible be under one management; and,

WHEREAS, The National Reform Association has had over fifty years of active service in the field, has always stood in the forefront of nation-wide campaigns for national righteousness, has through its history given battle to every form of organized secularism in its assaults upon our Christian Civil Institutions, has had notable victories in a number of States in campaigns for the enactment of righteous laws and the repeal of unrighteous laws, has successfully managed two World Christian Citizenship Conferences; and by reason of its Christian personnel, its fidelity to the principles of the Kingdom of God, its broad Christian program, its sane and safe methods, its excellent equipment and far-reaching achievements, is, we believe, worthy of our confidence. Therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That we endorse the National Reform Association in the campaign for the Bible in the Public Schools which it is now conducting in California and request the Association to undertake the management of the other Christian Civil Reform movements within the state, except the temperance campaign; that the Association be made the recognized agent of our churches for reform work; that we pledge our hearty co-operation, open our pulpits to their representative and recommend the Association to the liberality of our people.

RESOLVED, That we endorse the efforts of the Administration at Washington, D. C., on behalf of international peace, and pray that our President and his advisors may be divinely guided in the conduct of our relations with other powers; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we are opposed to efforts likely to develop as a result of the present war to militarize this country, believing that such a course will be detrimental to the interests of the great majority of our people, will be contrary to the traditions of America, and will through the fostering of international jealousy and fears tend to damage the spiritual life of our nation, and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the President of the United States, and our U. S. Senators.

RESOLVED, That we endorse the work of the Interdenominational Peace Committee of Pacific Coast Churches, and request the appointment of three members.

Minutes of Laymen's Association

LAYMEN'S ASSOCIATION

The Laymen's Association of Southern California Conference met for their annual meeting on Thursday, September 30th, in the White Temple Baptist Church, San Diego, which was kindly offered by the pastor and officary, freely to use as desired by the above association and the Lay Electoral Conference the following day.

The president, A. M. Drew, took the chair promptly at 8:45, there being also present the following vice-presidents: E. J. Swayne, San Diego; Clark Standiford, Pasadena, and S. P. Mulford, Los Angeles; Dr. Stoddard of Santa Barbara being absent, his official duties as a state medical officer preventing his attendance.

There were about 250 delegates present, who joined heartily in singing, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," to the tune "Coronation." Prayer was offered by Dr. Brodbeck of Los Angeles First Church.

Mr. E. J. Swayne gave the address of welcome to the Conference delegates. This was in the name of the churches and the city as a whole. The president followed with a brief address on our "Present Opportunities and Future Responsibility."

Mr. David B. Ward was allowed three minutes to announce the forthcoming Long Beach assembly.

Then followed the appointment of Credentials Committee, Prof. W. A. Fiske of Ontario being appointed chairman. They were: C. W. Brockman, C. A. DeCoo, Mrs. H. W. Brodbeck, and Mrs. Belle Anderson.

Our financial obligations were next discussed.

W. F. Cronemiller presented the interesting subject "Superannuates" in a very masterly manner. His first suggestion was "Tithe" as the only safe means of raising money to meet all needs and then qualify men for the proper disbursement of the funds and see that every pastor had a living stipend just the same as any other organization pays its manager or president.

The Methodist Hospital—Mrs. Byron H. Wilson (wife of the superintendent of our Los Angeles Hospital) outlined the beginning of this magnificent institution, which culminated in its dedication by Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes the previous Sunday, at which outdoor service several thousand were present. This hospital is equal to any on the Pacific Coast, and only needs funds to carry on its beneficent work.

The University of Southern California—This center of educational activities was presented by Prof. R. D. Hunt, specially emphasizing the civic, moral and religious influence that radiates from it. Its phenomenal growth was one of the proofs of its success as a national asset in character building.

Interesting discussion followed these topics.

The committee on resolutions was then appointed: Chairman, D. W. Huffman, Ed. H. Wallace, A. J. Hacerland, John Howe and Mrs. Sprowls.

Committee on nominations: Frank S. Wallace, chairman; J. H. Jonte, Ralph Rohrer, Mrs. W. F. Marshall and Mrs. G. E. Foster.

Messrs. A. J. Wallace and H. W. Wright were appointed a committee to wait upon Bishop Hughes, then presiding in the Ministerial Conference, and ask him to come and address our Conference at his pleasure today.

The morning session then adjourned.

The afternoon session reassembled at 2 p. m. Song service by all and prayer by several delegates preceded the business.

California Dry Rally was taken up by Mrs. Stella B. Irvine, State President of the W. C. T. U., outlining the plans already formulated for the "1916 campaign." She was optimistic of success if all who profess to follow Christ worked and prayed as though the final triumph depended on each doing his or her duty. The Hon. A. J. Wallace followed with a powerful and inspiring speech on the future fight for this cause. Indicating the scope and far-reaching effect upon California in particular and other states in general, when we win. But he reminded his hearers that in our fight for prohibition we have to face the fact that California has more saloons than ten of the states which have recently gone dry had altogether! Therefore everybody must urge every dry voter to first see that they are registered and then be sure and vote on election day. He cited figures proving that practically every wet vote was polled last time, and that if we can only be sure that every dry vote is cast that was omitted last time, victory is sure.

His speech ended with a fine oration of confidence and hope in the God of the armies of Israel.

Duet, "As Pants the Hart for Cooling Streams," by two of the members of the First M. E. quartet was beautifully rendered and encored.

Bishop Hughes having arrived, he was immediately given the platform and gave one of his brilliant and inimitable addresses, first touching on the institutional work our church is engaged in, in contradistinction to the lack of such work by some modern cults. He then startled some of us by citing facts contained in ancient and modern history, biblical and otherwise, of the tremendous influence laymen have always exercised in Christianity and the Church of God, naming such characters as Abraham for doctrine, Moses for law, David for ritual, and all but one of the prophets were laymen and every apostle, likewise Stephen, a layman, the first Christian martyr, and Luther (whose 400th anniversary in two years will be celebrated) was a layman. Therefore, every layman belongs to a royal line of God's servants, and places responsibilities upon them for which they must give account to "Him who gave Himself for us."

Congressman Randall was then introduced. He referred to the many legislative measures now before Congress, all of which, when passed, will make many things illegal about the drink traffic, which are now legal.

The Spanish and Portuguese work was presented by Mr. Frank S. Wallace of Pasadena, Rev. Vernon M. McCombs, the general superintendent of this California work, and John P. Howe, superintendent of the Boys' Home at Gardena. It was felt by the Conference that such work demanded the loyal support of every layman, and a resolution was eventually passed "that this association support the appeal of the General Superintendent for an additional 10 cents per member be asked from every church in Southern California Conference; and that a copy of this resolution be immediately forwarded to our presiding bishop. The afternoon session then adjourned.

The evening session convened at 7:30, which was opened by songs and prayer; chairman, Mr. S. P. Mulford.

Mr. E. P. Dennett was introduced from the University of California. His particular appeal was for financial help from the southern part of the state, giving as his reason the fact that there are over 200 more students from Los Angeles district than there are from San Francisco.

"Lay Representation in the Annual Conference" was very ably presented by the Hon. A. M. Drew of Fresno. He said he was only a recent convert to this proposition, and even now only favored limited representation there. He contended there were so many financial questions involved at the General Conference, ministerial and lay discussion was safer than only ministerial. He cited many bishops and superintendents as distinctly favoring this proposed change.

"The Ministerial View" of this question was eloquently presented by the Rev. F. G. H. Stevens of Lake Avenue Church, Pasadena. The program committee having tried about six ministers and one district superintendent to speak against this subject, and met with a refusal, it was eventually, even after the programs were printed, decided to get a minister to speak for it, apparently, an easier thing to do.

Mr. Stevens said he was absolutely in favor of unlimited representation from nearly every standpoint it might be viewed.

Numerically there were only about twenty thousand ministers against three and a quarter million members. Financially, it was wrong that the laymen should raise the money and have no voice in its distribution. He contended that "team work" is better than "single harness." "Unity is strength."

A very animated and interesting discussion followed these speakers.

"The Men's Gospel Team Movement" was presented by Mr. D. E. Luther, secretary of Y. M. C. A., Los Angeles. He said this was a very modern term, but a "very ancient subject." For Christ Himself appointed some gospel teams. The modern term was given to this work at Wichita, after Billy Sunday's campaign. If the world is to be won for Christ, it is undoubtedly a layman's job. Get in it now.

The Sunset Male Quartet gave two very choice selections, both of which were applauded.

The nomination committee then reported the following elections: President, Mr. Egerton Shore, Los Angeles; Vice-Presidents—Fresno District, J. H. Jonte, Bakersfield; San Diego District, E. J. Swayne, San Diego; Los Angeles District, W. F. Crone-miller, Los Angeles; Pasadena District, Z. L. Parmelee, South Pasadena; Treasurer, Miss F. M. C. Cronemiller, Los Angeles; Secretary, Wm. Cooper, (re-elected) Pasadena.

MINUTES OF THE LAY ELECTORAL ASSOCIATION

The regular meeting of the Lay Electoral Association of the Southern California Conference was held in the White Temple Baptist Church on Friday, October 1st, 1915, at 8:30 a.m., Mr. W. S. Allen presiding.

Nominations for temporary officers were called, resulting in the selection of Mr. W. S. Allen for president, and Mr. H. M. Chapman as secretary.

After singing of Song No. 39, Dr. H. W. Brodbeck delivered a most touching and soulful prayer.

A statement was made at this time by former secretary H. W. Wright relative to the organization of the conference, but no change was deemed necessary.

The secretary read a list of the delegates and alternates present.

Delegate Hume moved the president appoint the necessary committees to do business, seconded and carried.

Delegate Clark suggested the committee on Resolutions be a committee on Memorials as well, which was approved.

Recess of five minutes was ordered so delegates could present their credentials.

Moved, seconded and carried that the committee on Nominations be dispensed with, and that the nominations for delegates to the General Conference be made from the floor.

The president announced the appointment of the following committees: On Business and Rules—A. M. Drew, Egerton Shore and E. H. Wallace. On Resolutions and Memorials—E. P. Clarke, R. D. Hunt and J. D. Smith. On Credentials—Charles E. Carver, J. H. Stevens and W. H. Herman.

Recess of fifteen minutes was ordered so the committees could meet and prepare their reports.

Committee on Order of Business and Rules made a report setting forth a plan for conducting the business of the conference, which was unanimously approved.

Committee on Credentials reported 161 delegates had presented credentials. A request was received asking that in lieu of the delegate and alternate from El Monte not being present, that the person selected by the Fourth Quarterly Conference of that church be allowed to be seated. Motion made delegate be seated; seconded, but ruled out of order as being against the church rules. The committee's report was then approved, showing 46 delegates for San Diego District, 49 for Los Angeles, 44 for Pasadena, and 22 for Fresno. One more Spanish delegate came in after the report had been read, and he was accepted.

Motion made, seconded and carried that the temporary organization be made permanent.

Delegate Packard moved that when delegates rise to speak they give name, and district they represent, which was seconded, and carried.

Motion made, seconded and carried, to proceed to the nomination of delegates to the General Conference.

As delegates were nominated their names were placed on the blackboard for the convenience of the Conference.

Motion made, seconded and carried that one layman from each District be appointed as Tellers.

The following were nominated: W. S. Allen, H. W. Brodbeck, A. J. Wallace, Mrs. Silas Sprowls, E. J. Swayne, W. L. Cleveland, John P. Holland, Mrs. Belle T. Anderson, E. P. Clarke, Wilbur A. Fiske, Ralph Rohrer, W. H. Wright and D. W. Huffman.

Delegate Herman moved that all the nominees be allowed a few minutes each to present themselves before the Conference, seconded and carried, and each nominee made very convincing and helpful talks.

C. W. Cook, Alfred Hughes, Geo. E. Hume, L. A. Cronk were appointed tellers.

Balloting was then proceeded with, and the following were elected as delegates, with the votes they received: A. J. Wallace, 119; H. W. Brodbeck, 106; Mrs. Belle T. Anderson, 98; A. M. Drew, 94; Mrs. Silas Sprowls, 93; W. S. Allen, 91, and E. J. Swayne, 83.

Duet was beautifully rendered at this time by Messrs. Ruenitz and Todd, and so appreciated by the delegates a second rendition was given.

Letter was read from the Secretary of the General Conference relative to the election of Bishops for particular races and languages, and Delegate Drew moved it be adopted, which was seconded, discussed, and voted on and lost by: Noes, 131, and Ayes, None.

President Allen introduced Dr. Hughes and Dr. Bovard as the delegates from the Ministerial Conference to present greetings, and both were given a hearty reception, and in return made very appreciative addresses.

Nomination were made for alternates to the General Conference, as follows: Thos. Bradley, Ralph Rohrer, J. B. Smith, Hugh McBeth, C. E. Carver, H. M. Chapman, E. P. Clarke and W. H. Wallace.

Balloting on alternates results as follows: Ralph Rohrer, 98; Hugh McBeth, 90; E. P. Clarke, 87.

Delegate Drew moved a committee of three be appointed to carry greetings to the Ministerial Conference, which was seconded and carried. Committee: A. M. Drew, A. J. Wallace and Mrs. Silas Sprowls.

The following resolutions and memorials presented by the Committee were adopted:

Requesting the General Conference to take no backward step relative to the Amusement Question.

Memorializing the General Conference to provide for limited Lay representation in the Annual Conference.

Memorializing the General Conference to take steps to establish a depository of the Methodist Book Concern in Los Angeles at the earliest possible date.

Address was made at this time by the pastor of the White Temple Baptist Church, Rev. Dr. Weisgeist, which received universal approval and commendation.

Dr. M. S. Marble, of the Board of Conference Claimants of Chicago, Illinois, was presented by the President at this time, and made an able and instructive address.

Remarks were made by Mr. Fish of Escondido on the uplift of the work of the Lay Association.

Thanks were given as follows: To Methodist Book Concern for donations of tablets for balloting. To Officers and Trustees of the White Temple Baptist Church for the use of said church. To the Janitor for his services, and to the President and Secretary for their untiring efforts in behalf of the delegates.

A collection amounting to $9.57 was taken for the janitor for services performed.

Conference adjourned 3 p.m.

H. M. CHAPMAN,
Secretary.

— HOW ABOUT — YOUR PRINTING?

For over thirty years the Commercial Printing House has been printing much of the church and temperance work of Southern California. It has been our aim to build up our business by employing intelligent, well-paid workmen, and by housing them in a sanitary, well-ventilated building. We have aimed to excel in a high-grade product rather than compete for "cheap" printing that can only be produced under sweat-shop conditions. We refer to Rev. E. J. Inwood, the publisher of the Minutes.

The 1916 Annual Southern California Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church convened in the county seat and commercial centre of Orange County, situated between the mountains and the sea in the famous Santa Ana Valley.

SANTA ANA

Among the many attractions of Santa Ana the following are most notable:

Commodious and handsome churches.

Splendid schools, including Polytechnic, High and Junior College.

The centre of over 200 miles of paved highways connecting with 25 miles of paved city streets in the City of Santa Ana.

A semi-tropic climate de luxe, that is to Southern California what Southern California is to the rest of the world.

If I find myself so devoted to a human saviour what should be my attitude toward Him who when I was lost left His throne of Glory and dwelt here until shadows deepened into Calvary that He might be my Saviour? As you come into this Conference the first thing you should determine is your loyalty to your Saviour. If you prove worthy in this ministry it will be on the basis of your loyalty to Him. Loyalty to the doctrines of the Church, the people whom you serve, to your pastoral duties, to your own personal knowledge of God and His Word will bring joy to your own heart and make you a blessing in every community where you minister."

Whereas, The California Christian Advocate was established in 1851 and during all the years has been an efficient force in promoting the connectionalism of our church and every department of church work, and has become a necessity to Methodism on the Pacific Coast, and is not a luxury or a mere convenience, and

Whereas, The cost of the Methodist Book Concern products for the coming year will be increased on account of the recent rise in paper and printing material, about $300,000, which has made an increase in the selling price of the paper an absolute necessity, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we as ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church hereby pledge ourselves to observe one Sunday within the next two months as Advocate Sunday, and that we will put forth every effort by personal solicitation to impress upon our people the importance of becoming a subscriber to this paper as one of the essential means of promoting the work of the church not surpassed by any benevolence required to be presented to our congregations by the laws of our church.

The time was extended.

Reports

(a) District Superintendents

SAN DIEGO DISTRICT

I rise to read my sixth and last report. So quickly have the years passed it seems incredible that six have gone.

When called to this place I set before myself a three-fold ideal—The enthronement of the Quarterly Conference in the life of the church; the enthronement of Missions in the heart of the church; the enthronement of revivals in the passion of the church. Like all ideals, this has not been fully reached, but it has in some real measure.

Yet there have been some outward things done. In all, more than thirty-one new preaching places have been opened, twenty-nine new churches built, eighteen new parsonages, and extensive enlargements on nineteen churches. The membership has grown from 8,983 to 13,112 as indicated in advance report from the pastors. The Sunday School from 57 to 85, the Epworth Leagues from 51 to 63.

The year now closing has been one of genuine progress, as will be shown by reports. The district entered very heartily into the general evangelistic campaign, and on Easter Day there were, according to the reports sent me by the pastors at that time, over a thousand who united with the church on that day. And at the close of the year 57 churches report a gain in membership of 1017 over last year and only 10 a decrease. Twenty-nine of our pastors held 91 weeks of revival meetings, resulting in 420 confessed conversions, and during the year 521 have been received on probation. This is only a tithe of what we had hoped for, but we are thankful for so many.

Thirty-six churches made extensive improvements on their property, at a cost of $8176, and 26 lifted $14,900 of their indebtedness.

Marked gains will show themselves in the reports of the Sunday Schools, and the Epworth Leagues, and this is not only in numbers, but also in spirit and in the work being done.

It has been one of my constant aims to see a Woman's Missionary organization in every church. There were many without one at the beginning. There are only a few of the weakest without one now, and of these I have been able to induce some of the Ladies Aids to add Missionary study and prayer to their monthly program.

Early in the Spring, T. C. Maxwell of Newport Beach, returned to the mission field. John Wood was changed from Victorville to Newport Beach, and John Engle, a probationer of the Minnesota Conference, secured to fill his place.

In February, P. G. Ruef of Seeley, admitted on trial last Conference, asked to be relieved. The request was granted, and he has withdrawn from our membership and ministry.

After consulting with Bishop Hughes and on his recommendation, the Korean work started at Redlands and Santa Ana was turned over to the Presbyterians, who are caring for that work on the Pacific Coast.

Owing to the serious illness of his son, G. M. Webber was compelled to leave the Verde charge and I was unable to find a suitable supply for this needy but promising field. F. M. Clark of Holtville has kindly given what personal care he could to it.

San Diego District divides itself into six groups and the farthest group, Imperial Valley, has had a year of much blessing. Brothers Royer, Wright and Schultz have each completed a three years pastorate with great gains to the churches served, while a gracious year's ministry has been given by F. M. Clark of Holtville, H. B. Clark of El Centro, Wm. Parsons at Heber and W. L. Miller at Brawley. The problems faced by these pastors are very trying. A masterful materialism grips all the life around them. Men are not there so much to make homes as money, and the passion for wealth is intense. The churches of Imperial Valley have nearly all passed out of the pioneer stage and are now in the constructive period. Strong, virile men are laying the foundations of a strong state, and the church is doing her full share towards this end. Debts have been paid or lessened in Alamorio, Imperial, El Centro, Calexico and Holtville, and improvements made on the parsonage or church at Calexico and Holtville, Imperial and Alamorio.

At Bard, Jas. A. Crouch has faithfully worked for another year, further strengthening the church. At Blythe that missionary spirit, H. G. Burgess, has done another year's heroic work. So greatly is this pastor esteemed he has been elected on the school board and extends in this fashion the influence of the church. At Hinkley, 40 miles East on the Mojave desert, the membership are now able to undertake the building of a $1500 church, for which plans have been adopted and the society hopes to complete the enterprise early in the fall.

At Victorville, the two Johns (Wood and Engle) have wrought finely. From this center, the gospel is going forth to Oro Grande, Sunrise Valley and Apple Valley while the mother church herself, only a little more than two years old, is so rapidly coming to self support as soon to cease to be a mission church.

The San Bernardino Valley group has also had a good year. Under the leadership of the pastor, Irvin Engle, Rialto has wiped out a good part of its debt, made substantial improvements on the parsonage, and found itself in enthusiastic service for the kingdom. W. C. Geyer has led San Bernardino church to wipe out all its indebtedness, and to catch his vision of its need, that will result ere long in its very much needed enlarged equipment for its growing Sunday School work.

Christmas Eve our parsonage at Del Rosa was destroyed by fire, but C. W. Babcock began immediately to rebuild and we have now largely paid for a commodious modern parsonage. In addition a portion of the debt on the church has also been paid, and the outlook for this society is excellent. Its pastor has also opened a Sunday School in the North East section of San Bernardino, which will some day grow into an organized church.

Beginning his work at Highland, under the shadow of his great loss in the death of his wife (which occurred during our last session), C. F. Beller has greatly endeared himself to his congregation, and has genuinely strengthened its life.

Nowhere has a pastor a deeper love for his congregation than has F. D. Ashleigh at Redlands (Grace Church.)

First Church, Redlands, H. E. Murkett, pastor, chronicles the victory of lifting its debt. This strong church was never more successful than now, every department being in excellent shape.

"Harroll," our colored church at Redlands, has, by removal and death, become so depleted as to make wise the abandonment of this work. The property has therefore been put under the care of the Trustees of the First Church, who will try to sell it and save what we can for the work at large.

Nine miles East is the growing community of Yucaipa, where Geo. E. Twomley has had a year of real success, and has won the warm love of his congregation.

Colton, under the leadership of M. G. Wenz, has had in every way its best year. Large increases in the offerings to the benevolences, steady reduction in the debt and marked growth of the membership characterize the work of the year.

At Banning, H. C. Mullen has succeeded in getting the church painted and decorated, and made other improvements on the church and parsonage, but, best of all, has had a year of marked spiritual growth in the life of his congregation and has greatly endeared himself to his people.

Sixty miles East, at Indio, a railway division point, John Bettes has supplied the work with efficiency, and has also opened a work at Thermal, a neighboring community.

Indio lies at the N. E. base of the San Jacinto Mountains, San Jacinto City lies at the South. Here S. A. Smith has steadfastly worked to bring about the building of the long planned and much needed auditorium, and has at last succeeded, and a contract will soon be let. It will cost about $2500. Our work has seriously suffered through the lack of equipment, but will now go forward.

At Hemet (F. A. Leak, pastor) the auditorium was enlarged, and an additional Sunday School room built at a cost of about $900.

Outside these two towns, the work in the Perris Valley is difficult. At Winchester A. L. Bear has for another year given very faithful service. This charge illustrates our rural problem. So changed, through the automobile, have become the conditions of travel, the maintenance of the small rural church, not far from some civic center, becomes increasingly difficult, and such a church can be maintained only by a complete change in the type of work being done by the rural church. Such a church must learn to relate itself to the whole life surrounding it, and such calls for the consecration of men to the redemption of the country, a call that does not seem to sound very loudly in many ears.

Perris is another difficult field, but the church has had a good year under the pastorate of L. O. Bostwick.

Elsinore suffered very seriously from the floods of the winter. No man could have done more there this year than has Sheridan Phillips and the church cordially appreciates his fine service.

No particular changes have taken place in our work in the Murrietta charge but some souls have been saved, and a new appointment at Temecula opened up. E. A. Keifer is the hard working pastor.

Geo. Cocking has cemented the congregation at Fallbrook into a real united force. The days of Fallbrook's isolation are ended. The Santa Fe extension will bring the railway into the town, and that one-time prosperous community, so beautifully located, will come again to its own.

Oceanside, San Marcos and Escondido are three churches that await the touch of the new life that some day will come to their communities. Albert Ore has had a good year at the first place and has made some valuable improvements on the parsonage. At San Marcos W. H. Rogers has built a social hall for the use of his congregation and community, costing $1000, nearly all of which is paid for. Escondido has hoped to build its much-needed auditorium but the big floods frustrated the plans of their very capable pastor, A. J. McKenzie, whose general work this year has won the praise of all his people.

Cardiff and Encinitas form a small charge on the coast. No changes have occurred at the former point, at the latter the old school house has been purchased, moved to the lot where we once had a church, renovated and made fitting for worship, where J. L. Minney preaches every Sunday afternoon.

San Diego presents a most important group, and all the churches here, save one, having during the year made substantial gains. That one is Pacific Beach. So greatly has the population been depleted that in spite of the superior ministry given by Floyd Hardin, the society feels that it can no longer stand alone and asks to be united with some other charge the coming year.

Coronado, under the leadership of G. L. Goodell, has made an important move in the change of its former site for one larger and better in every way, and plans are now under consideration for the moving and alteration of the building.

At Imperial Beach a new society was organized during the year, a lot has been secured and a neat chapel erected and mostly paid for, under the skilled leadership of F. W. Straw. He has also brought together again the divided church at Nestor. He also led this church to do fine service for the flood sufferers, which brought to itself the confidence and respect of the whole community. At Otay, we have really but a church building remaining.

Chula Vista still faces the struggle under its big debt. E. B. Cole has ministered courageously and successfully to this devoted band, and has been greatly blessed in his ministry.

D. W. Wilt found at National City a beautiful church almost ready to be dedicated which was done by Bishop Hughes the last Sunday in October. The congregations have grown, the Sunday School largely increased, $1000 paid on the beautiful building, a gracious and unifying deepening of the spiritual life has been the note of the year's work.

The year has brought no property changes on our La Mesa and Santee charges, but under the ministry respectively of E. E. Marshall and F. C. Neptune, the general life of the churches has been greatly strengthened.

San Diego City Methodism has made real advance, and in spite of severe financial situations, will round out the year well. During the last few weeks a mission for our colored people here has been established. Here is a large growing colored population, and the call was urgent that we enter the field.

"M Street", the youngest organization, has leased a lot and erected a new chapel, all of which is already paid for. The congregation does the writer honor by insisting that it be called the Inwood Church. "Trinity", W. G. Smith, pastor, has come into possession of its lot, enlarged its building, and raised during the year $1000 for its property interests, and already the building is too small for its growing need.

"Normal Heights" is a noted spiritual church. Its membership of about 100 has this year, under the pastorate of Carl M. Ross, steadily grown in its spiritual passion. No property has yet been acquired, but will be in the near future.

"Mission Hills" has surpassed itself in the steady reduction of its debt, and in the large accessions to its membership brought in by its pastor, John Beery.

L. G. Spring at Fairmount has had another year of advance. Souls have been saved, debts paid and the church has been largely the leader in a notable anti-saloon victory.

"Taylor" church was never more prosperous than now. Its gifted pastor, C. A. Kent, early won the love and confidence of his people.

O. W. Reinius has inspired Central church to renovate the interior of its building at a cost of more than $500 and to make other needed improvements.

First Church has had one of the best years of its history. R. D. Hollington has been greeted by great audiences, has put the church into a very prominent place in the life of the city, has largely increased the membership, and has developed the most notable social service work to be found in any of our churches on the coast, while every department of the church has been very successful to a marked degree.

Riverside Methodism has three successful churches, while High Grove is essentially a part of this section. Arlington has moved forward to greater life. A basement put under the church during this year, at a cost of several hundred dollars, will give added facility for social work for her young people and the church in all her departments has made fine advance under the pastorate of C. A. Norcross. No church on the district has had an all-around better year than has First Church under the ministry of L. D. Van Arnam. Thoroughly equipped, its work has not been in material but in spiritual things, and success has been in every department. Grace Church, one of the most beautiful in the city, has found in R. I. McKee a most wise and brotherly leader, and closes the year harmonious and aggressive, and is just completing a commodious and modern parsonage.

High Grove has had another year of struggle. The continued demoralization of the citrus industry has made the maintenance of the work difficult, and nothing but praise is spoken by the congregation of the fidelity and ability of its pastor, T. H. Wilkinson.

Corona was fortunate last year in securing S. S. Sampson. $1000 on the church debt has been paid, $2000 more provided for, and this versatile, energetic pastor already has dreams of the new church building that is to be.

Olinda closes the year with everything in excellent shape. H. T. Lewis has endeared himself to his congregation, made some improvements on the property and greatly strengthened the congregational life.

La Habra, E. M. Sutton, pastor, has been able to wipe out $500 of its indebtedness, and is taking steps to build a parsonage. Santa Fe Springs has been very faithfully served by A. H. Bolton.

Artesia and Bellflower have been very faithfully ministered to respectively by J. J. Post and C. M. Butterfield. The condition of much of our property as to titles is illustrated by the former. On coming to the district, I found a very large proportion of our churches with some serious defect of title or incorporation, and have given unceasing attention to this matter. So far as I know, every church has now a clear and legal title to its property. It took a long time, but by diligent search and legal attention, Artesia has at last a valid title. Bellflower has made substantial headway.

I come now to Orange County Methodism and bring a good report. A difficult field with three small congregations, Cypress-Stanton has been well looked after by O. N. Olsen. He has reopened our work at Buena Park and made very substantial improvements both on church and parsonage, and the work at this point seems more promising than it has ever been. Westminster was unexpectedly vacated by W. J. Waltz, but through the kindness of Edward Lee of this city and H. G. Burgess, I have been able to supply this charge till now. I am sure that some readjustment of the work in this whole section is imperative.

Wintersburg has had a year of most excellent ministry given by Wilfred Kent.

Huntington Beach makes a fine report as a result of R. J. Coyne's work during the year. Difficulties in the financial condition have been cleared up, $1,500 paid on the church debt. Through the generosity of a noble woman of the church, Mrs. Umlauf, and of the Huntington Beach Assembly, as well as the Woman's Home Missionary Society, the former Deaconess Rest Home has been donated to the church, and having been repaired at a cost of several hundred dollars gives a very comfortable parsonage. We have now a valuable property here and the work is in most promising condition.

Newport Beach and Harper, as already reported, suffered the loss of its pastor, T. C. Maxwell, but the work has been very successfully carried on by John Wood. Improvements have been made on the church at Harper, and the entire debt cleared from this property.

Under the leadership of W. W. Hull, Garden Grove has come splendidly back from its unfortunate division of three years ago. Every department is in good shape, the entire debt provided for, and much of it paid.

Fullerton, Anaheim, Orange and Santa Ana, form a group of strong churches, and all have had a prosperous year. At Fullerton, H. H. Hocker early undertook the wiping out of the long standing debt, and this was all subscribed. In addition, there has been built and paid for at a cost of over $400, a small building for the accommodation of one of the Sunday School departments.

At Anaheim, C. H. M. Sutherland has continued to lead this congregation to success. The church is in most excellent condition. A new Sunday School addition has been built at a cost of $450, improvements made on the parsonage, and $750 paid by this congregation toward the Mexican building in that city.

Orange has had a very successful year under the leadership of John Hall. The group idea so manifest in our present High School development is followed, and accordingly, several moderate sized frame buildings were erected at a cost of $1,500, to accommodate the junior grades of the Sunday School. The congregation has also this year built, at a cost of about $800, a church for our Mexican population at El Modena.

Richland Avenue, Santa Ana, was fortunate this year in two things: in having F. G. Watson, formerly of the Baltimore Conference, come as a pastor, and in the cordial moral and financial support given by this First Church. This new society has made steady growth and gives promise in the near future of being a self-supporting and prosperous congregation.

First Church has had another prosperous year under the pastorate of E. J. Inwood. A deepening spiritual life, a steady growth in membership, and increase in liberality, a continued deep interest in the Mexican work (the church paying $600 towards this year), the fostering care of the new church already spoken of, improving the heating and ventilating system of the church, costing about $1000, $1000 paid on the debt, are some of the outstanding features of the work this year of this church.

ALFRED INWOOD.

LOS ANGELES DISTRICT

Three of our pastors have died during the year. They were staunch, devoted men, worthy of the Master who called them to His ministry. Rev. Silas Sprowls, a retired pastor, died at his home on Westlake Avenue, Los Angeles; John H. Pape died in the prime of life consumed by his passion for souls; Rev. George W. Coultas met a tragic death in the suburbs of the city in which we are now in session, having been run down by an electric car.

The following brethren have been added to our forces during the year: W. H. Hohanshelt, who has been supplying at Culver City since July, took the place of P. D. Halfman, who left to begin his studies at Boston University School of Theology; Benj. J. Kimber has supplied Noel Church, Los Angeles, for four months, taking the place of Fred B. Trotter, who also went to Boston University. Upon the retirement of John H. Pape, on account of illness, C. B. Davidson was moved from Edendale and placed in charge of Newman, and W. C. McIntire was appointed to Edendale. Lawrence V. Lucas was compelled by the illness of his wife to leave El Segundo and Edwin S. Burrill was appointed to fill the vacancy.

W. J. Waltz opened our new work at Seal Beach and was placed in charge.

Rev. W. A. Reynolds, Sr., was appointed to organize and establish our work in the new church bought from the Greek Catholics. All these men have done their work admirably and are deserving of high commendation.

Revivals

Nearly all the churches joined heartily in the revival campaign which lasted all the early part of the Conference year and culminated at Easter Sunday.

Members and Probationers

The pastors in their pre-Conference reports to me give the number of members received by certificate as 1597, from probation and on confession of faith 898; a total of 2495 full members received; and a preparatory membership of 979. Their reports show a net increase in members during the year of 808.

New Work Opened

At our last Conference Seal Beach was changed from the San Diego District to the Los Angeles District, it being contiguous to Long Beach. It had become a menace to the moral and religious life of Long Beach, Santa Ana, and all this section of California, owing to the transfer to it of many of the morally objectionable concessions of the Pan-Pacific Exposition. Chiefly through the fine leadership and energy of Rev. W. J. Waltz a lot was secured for a church site. Efforts were immediately made to drive us out of the city by the use of restrictions and efforts to bribe property owners, thus preventing them from selling to us. However, a lot was secured, an $800 payment made, and an unusually well constructed building erected at a cost of nearly $2,000. It is planned to be used not only as a church but as a social center for Seal Beach and it is expected that in time it will be turned into a parsonage.

There has been for several years a Greek Catholic Church on Hoover Street, nearly two miles distant from our nearest Methodist Churches, namely, South Main and Vermont Square. The Greek Catholics had expended $2400 on church and lot. This property was secured, largely through Rev. W. A. Reynolds, for less than $1000. Mr. Reynolds has been appointed to supply the work and has started a Sunday School and organized a small class.

New Churches Built and Dedicated or Now Nearly Completed

Thirteen churches have been either completed and dedicated during the year, or are now being built, as follows:

Culver City

Early in this Conference year a $3000 church was completed and dedicated at that point by the District Superintendent and Dr. D. F. Howe.

Stephenson Avenue

A $1500 bungalow church was completed on Stephenson Avenue and dedicated by the District Superintendent soon after Conference.

Myrtle Avenue—Long Beach

Through the assistance of First Church, Long Beach, the tax debt of $152 on Myrtle Avenue Church, Long Beach, was paid off. All of the churches at Long Beach assisted in raising about $300 with which to repair the building, and it was then dedicated. Three months after its dedication most of our Colored brethren and their families at that point moved to other places. It was thought wise to close the work, as there were two other churches for the Colored population of Long Beach. A loan on the property has been used to assist in establishing the new work at Seal Beach.

Moneta

Under the pastoral care of Gilbert B. Traveller, a student pastor, the work at Moneta had so far progressed that they were compelled to build a Sunday School and Social Hall 40x60 costing with the re-seating of the church and other improvements, $1700 all paid.

Larchmont Heights

This church, a little over a year old, under the pastoral care of Earl H. Haydock, another of our student pastors, secured a corner lot and built a bungalow church, the whole property being worth about $2700. Largely due to the wise leadership of the pastor, the whole amount due on the church was paid, and $500 are now in the bank toward making final payment on the lot. This church also raised for benevolences an average of $10 per member this year.

San Pedro

On Sunday, August 27th, Rev. F. M. Larkin, former Superintendent, with the present Superintendent, dedicated a $15,000 church at San Pedro. It is well arranged, commodious, centrally located, and reflects great credit upon the tireless pastor, Rev. Samuel Hughes and his devoted band of laymen. It is really the Sunday School Auditorium of what will, in a few years, be a $40,000 plant. The additional cost has already been provided for in property donated to the church.

Sunnyside

Under the pastorate of another veteran church builder and worker, Rev. Don A. Allen, early in the year the site of the Water Works at Sunnyside, covering nearly an acre of ground splendidly located for church purposes, was secured for a merely nominal sum. Last Sunday, September 17th, Dr. E. P. Ryland and the Superintendent dedicated a $3000 church at that point.

Euclid Heights

Euclid Heights has at last apparently shaken itself free from the burdens which would have daunted most pastors and people. The church is united, harmonious and hard at work. The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension has granted them a donation of $500 and a loan of $4000 with which to complete their $24,000 plant. This has also been made possible through the wise and persistent efforts of its pastor, A. W. Cummings, and his officials.

Elysian

This work was begun by Edendale Church, but was turned over to and fostered by Epworth Church; during the year a suitable lot was secured and a $1500 church is nearly completed. Its pastor, Stephen L. Smith, is a student in our University.

Westland

At the corner of South Main and 89th Street there has stood for years an old portable church. It was venerable both on account of its age and decrepitude, but chiefly because it has been used to start the work at Vermont Square and West Adams. Another student pastor, Harry B. McFarland, led his people in the building of a new $3000 church at this point.

St. James

A fine new auditorium worth about $12,000 is nearly completed at St. James Church, Los Angeles. The pastor, Bede A. Johnson, not only took the initiative in starting the project, but has saved, by his supervision of the construction, several thousand dollars to his people.

Mission and Industrial Plant

At the last session of our Conference Mr. J. E. Carr, one of our most devoted and liberal laymen, a member of First Church, Los Angeles, offered to the Southern California Conference as a site for a Mission Plant and Deaconess' Home, a lot worth $75,000 on the corner of Seventh and San Julian Streets. It was accepted by the Conference but, after very long and careful investigation, it was found to be impracticable to build the plant as proposed. Mr. Carr, with a fine Christian spirit characteristic of him, has recently changed his proposition, which will be presented to you for your approval and acceptance. He has agreed to put a deed to the lot in favor of the Southern California Conference, in escrow, to be delivered upon the erection upon the site, of a five-story reinforced concrete building. This matter has been taken up with the Trustees of the Southern California Conference, the Trustees of the Southern California University, the Woman's Home Missionary Society, the Board of Fifth Street Missions and the Trustees of the Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society, with the result that a plant in which all the above organizations will have a place and a part, has been planned, and, if approved by you, the campaign for raising funds will begin the first of October and be pressed to a conclusion by the first of January, 1917. The present plans are to use the basement, first floor and mezzanine floor for mission and church purposes, the present membership and workers of Newman Church to be the nucleus of the church. The second floor to be used by the Sociological Department of the Southern California University, together with a Medical, Dental and Legal Clinic. The third floor to be used, free of cost, as the home for the theological students of the Maclay School of Theology, thus giving them the benefit of training in Mission and Settlement work and also locating them so that they can get the benefit of the training of our great First Church. The fourth and fifth floors are for the use of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Southern California Conference, and to be the Deaconess' Home and School, thus giving them the benefit of the advantages of the University, Theological School and Methodist Hospital.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society has, through its leaders, already agreed to put $30,000 into the plant. Dr. David D. Forsyth, Secretary of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension Society, on a recent visit to the city said that, without definitely pledging the amount, it was in the minds of the members of the Board of Home Missions to grant the request of the Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society and other organizations for $5000 a year for five years, half of which would go toward the work of this plant. At a recent meeting of our City Society Mr. S. P. Mulford of First Church made the first individual donation of $1000.

Fifth Street Mission

The Fifth Street Mission, under the guidance of Mr. J. E. Carr and its Board and the Superintendency of Mr. C. E. Sweet, has done good work this year.

United Methodism

In harmony with the action of both General Conferences, commissions equally representative of our two great Methodist bodies have recently been appointed in our local Conferences and are now engaged in an earnest effort to readjust the work of the two bodies where they overlap, so that we may avoid duplication of efforts and save any unnecessary expenditure of missionary money.

Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society

Under the Presidency of Mr. Egerton Shore, assisted by Rev. A. D. Traveller, as Field Agent, and Rev. E. Guy Talbott as Secretary, with the support of an unusually fine Board of Trustees, the Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society has had the best year of its history in the matter of both finances and results. The receipts for the year to date have amounted to $8803, which is an increase of $2000 over the preceding year.

The Society has helped, this year, in the building of fourteen churches, and has pledged aid to five more. It is in great need of the very liberal support of all the churches. If we are to take care of the large foreign element settling in the heart of the city, and to prevent it being turned into a slum section, this Society must have funds to carry on the Mission work, not only among English speaking but also among the foreign population of that section. It is equally imperative that we shall follow our people into the newly forming residential and suburban sections and provide them with church homes.

The President of the Society reports that during the past ten years this Society has been the means of establishing thirty churches in Los Angeles and vicinity, and has helped to build thirteen others. The present value of the churches started by the Society is $243,850. These churches have an average membership of 139. Last year they contributed one-half of the support of the Society and paid on an average over $464 in benevolences.

Sunday Schools

The work in the Sunday Schools gives evidence of greatly improved methods and efficiency. There has been an increase of over 750 scholars in all departments.

Epworth Leagues

Sixty-one Epworth Leagues report a membership of 3315, and 30 Junior Leagues have 921 enrolled.

Brotherhoods

The men of our churches usually under the leadership of their Brotherhoods have greatly helped the work of many of our churches.

Financial and Benevolent Records

$31,374 was paid on building new churches and in making repairs and $38,290 of old debts were paid off during this year of financial stringency. The various benevolences show an increase over last year of over $18,000.

Haven

This church is located in a section of the city where our people are moving out. It had a heavy debt considering the size of its membership. Brother H. S. Munger became its pastor at last Conference. He at once determined to free the church of debt. His people said at first that it could not be done, but when Bro. Munger placed at their disposal all his life's savings and gave a liberal gift beside, his people responded heroically and Haven is now free of debt. All honor to them and their pastor.

Methodist Hospital

The Methodist Hospital, under the guidance and control of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, has had a most successful year. It was only about a year ago that this thoroughly up-to-date new building was dedicated, and yet, notwithstanding the difficulties incidental to the equipment and operation of a new plant, it has more than paid its running expenses. Two thousand, two hundred patients have been treated. The receipts have been over $93,000. Receipts from the field work, under the able direction of Rev. Byron H. Wilson, have been over $20,000. By wise exchange of properties a fine home for nurses has been secured very near the hospital.

University of Southern California

Our greatest asset and opportunity is easily our University of Southern California and Maclay School of Theology. President Bovard reports an enrollment in all departments for last year of 3106. Of this number over 1500 were enrolled in the Department of Liberal Arts. The graduating class in June numbered 456. One hundred of these will go out into the schools of the state and are sure to become an influential factor in moulding the educational life of the State.

Two new professors give their full time to the work in our Theological School, viz.: Professors C. C. Douglas and Carl Knopf. We have an exceptionally fine number of student-pastors, of whom nineteen have been at work on the Los Angeles district during the year. It is a noteworthy fact that not only have they, as a whole, done admirable work and more than held their own with other pastors in the work of winning men and caring for them after they are in the church, but also out of the thirteen new churches either completed and dedicated this year or now under construction, seven of them were under the pastoral care of students.

Ladies' Aid Societies

The Ladies' Aid Societies of the District were never more deserving of very high praise than this year. Most of the smaller and newer charges have been greatly helped by the tireless efforts of their Ladies' Aid Societies. All of them are worthy of praise.

Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies

The Woman's Missionary Societies will report large gains in their contributions. They furnish models of industry, sacrifice and have well laid plans carefully carried out.

During the three years that I have been Superintendent of the Los Angeles District the church membership has increased 2192; Sunday Schools have increased from 56 to 70 and there has been an increase of over 4000 scholars. The churches have paid over $283,000 for Disciplinary Benevolences; $77,298 of "old debts" have been paid off; 19 new churches and three new parsonages, valued at $131,000, have been built or are now nearly completed. New work has been opened at 14 strategic points in or near Los Angeles. These added to the work done on the Fresno District make a total of over 100 churches and parsonages and over 50 new charges added to the Southern California Conference during my nine year's work as a Superintendent in the Southern California Conference.

HARCOURT W. PECK.

SPANISH AND PORTUGUESE DISTRICT

Our District now has 20 salaried workers, 31 regular preaching places and outstations, 14 Sunday Schools with 651 scholars, more than 50 per cent increase. There is an average attendance of 435. It was 289 last year. The four Epworth Leagues of last year now number eight with 220 members, nearly double in increase, 5 Junior Leagues with 125 members, 111 members of Ladies Aid Societies. During the year the heaven has been hidden in about 2500 different Latin-Americans in over 50 different communities. We have 285 full members, 238 probationers, total 565, a gain of 60 per cent, not counting 536 adherents, and allowing for 240 lost to our records by joining American churches, by death, removal or yielding to the heaven of sin. There have been 247 converts and candidates. There have been 54 baptisms. There are 33 organizations in our churches. Our pastors report 52 who can vote and who will vote for California dry. Our people have given $223 to benevolences, $788 on self support, a total of $1050, a gain of $138 over last year. This is encouraging considering war and hard times.

The past year has seen more strenuous labors than ever before, 3419 meetings held and helped, 23,300 visits, nearly 1900 pieces of clothing and portions of food and 473 poor folks aided, 210 Bibles sold and 437 given away, about 18,000 tracts given, 9,100 letters, the workers traveling nearly 70,000 miles.

We have received this year from the Board of Home

Missions	$ 2,925.00
From the Southern California Conference.....	8,528.89
And from personal subscriptions outside of the Conference	149.16

Making a total of.....$11,603.05

The expenses have been as follows:

Office expense, telephone, stereopticon and kodaks, $356.08; "El Mexicano," printing, Bibles, hymnals and tracts, $324.63; welfare, miscellaneous (including moving expense), furniture and fixtures, $356.26; traveling, auto, rents of office and Los Angeles hall, $1,145.32; salaries of seventeen workers, $7,494.72; salary of District Superintendent, $1,750.00; cash balance on hand (Sept. 30, 1916), $176.14, making a total of $11,603.05.

Received and expended for building and rents of pastors, $2,393.00.

Anaheim, Fullerton and Placentia

The beautiful new church at last stands on the large and commanding lot in the very heart of Anaheim.

The Mexicans of Fullerton are stretching out their hands unto God. Pastor Jiminez sowed seed for many weary months. Brother Narro also spent many months seeking to get a foothold in Fullerton. When his daughter, Rosa, returned from the Deaconess

1. Anaheim Mexican Church
3. Carson Hall and Westlake Cottage,
Spanish-American Institute, Gardena

2. Pasadena Mexican Church
4. El Modena (Orange) Mexican Church

Training School she and her mother soon began enthusiastic services which are being held regularly.

Fillmore, Ventura and Moorpark

Fillmore was practically a new field, new to American ways, but the heroic struggle of more than a year has resulted in most encouraging services and fruits in historic Ventura. And Fillmore, with its boot-legging and bigotry has, at last, yielded to the loving ministry of the family of our beautiful hymn writer, author and preacher, Vicente Mendoza. The Christmas concerts and the sweet singing of that cultured family in the Mexican community in Fillmore precipitated a victory which surprised even the pastor, himself. The leading Catholics of the people came to see him, asking that he should prepare for them a patriotic program for the 16th of September. He improved the opportunity and they placed all their boys and girls in his hands for exercises in our own humble chapel. Everything went forward with greatest enthusiasm and devotion, but suddenly a sad event occurred. The leading spirit, the patriot in whose honor this celebration was to be held, fell ill and in four days died. By the vote of the people the money which had been collected for the festival was given to the widow for the expenses of the funeral. A mystery of Providence, but the Mexican people of Fillmore have at last been won.

Hanford, Tulare and Ingomar

The Portuguese work is peculiar. They change their names when they can to English names and usually become well to do. They want respectable chapels and have a general atmosphere of devil-may-care about them. Missionary Tavares during the year, has nearly burned his eyes out in study, and so nearly burned his heart out with his mountain-high obstacles, that he became willing to give it all up, at one time, but prayer and counsel have restored his soul. Until he can have a respectable church or hall, his best method is the cottage prayer meeting plan. Brother Tavares this year has held twice as many meetings and made double the number of visits, sold 14 Bibles, has given the gospel to over 326 different Portuguese and Mexicans, with 13 deciding for Christ. His members have united with at least three different American churches that we know of, and some more have been frightened away by the priests, while he has prayed and waited for a hall. There seems to be a good possibility of our getting a beautiful little Methodist Church South and parsonage in Hanford. Then will come the organ, hymn books and then some statistics for Annual Conference.

Rivera, Olinda, Richfield and Yorba

A peculiar blessing seems to abide on the mission begun by the Whittier young people at Rivera. Emilio Hernandez of the Spanish-American Institute, the converted peon of five years ago, has a thriving circuit reaching from Rivera through Olinda, Richfield and Yorba. He has a total membership of 34. The 12 Sunday School scholars of a year ago now number 55. His benevolences are all up and he has sold 22 Bibles and held 228 meetings in addition to his work at the Institute.

Long Beach

Brother Gonzales has supervised this work with Sr. Mata as resident worker. The Sunday School was organized last November and has now an average attendance of 30 with $10 raised by the Mexicans for buying hymnals and supplies. A live board of Spanish work led by Harry Fleming in Long Beach, has done most efficient work in night school, sewing club, Christmas concerts, charity and other good work.

Pasadena

This is probably the finest Spanish Methodist church in the world. It is a hive of industry in its steady development. It has six organizations instead of two a year ago, the total giving has doubled, and its membership has exactly doubled. The cooperative laundry, night classes, sewing and basket weaving classes are strongly impressing the community. Twelve Mexican mothers, most of them Catholics, came to the Missionary meeting this month, pleading for their children to be admitted to the Francis De Pauw School. This church has a wide open door for a great new year.

Santa Paula, Limoneira and Sespe

Work here was launched after the murder of a marshal. We read you a letter just received from his successor: "The former turbulent character of the Mexican residents of Santa Paula is now much more satisfactory. There is now on the whole question a mutual confidence and a better understanding between the Mexican and American population of our town. Gospel work done among them is a sure guarantee of peace and order." (Signed) W. H. Robinson, Deputy Marshal and W. L. Ramsey, President of the Board of Trustees of the Santa Paula High School." Neither of these men is a Methodist. Statistics show that about 100 have taken a stand for Christ this year in Santa Paula. The four organizations are thriving. The total giving has been multiplied by four. The new church built so hastily less than two years ago on that stony, untidy lot by the railroad station has had a great transformation with its paint and screens, its artistic bulletin board, and more particularly, the luxuriant and beautiful flowers about the church and climbing over the front.

Celia Flores, after her first year in Deaconess Training School did a wonderful work this vacation among the young people and children. She had more than a score of the children at our recent service repeating thoughtfully the catechism before a packed house. It will be remembered that Pastor Jiminez is a product of this work, not even possessing a Bible six years ago. This year he will be ordained an elder. His people love him passionately. Brother Jiminez has preached the gospel to 75 persons at Sespe whither he took medical attention and other aid. One, Pablo Mendez, who received five bullets from drunken enemies, now confesses the Lord.

San Fernando

This is a new field which has long invited us because of its property owning Mexicans and the surrounding ranches offering employment. Leonardo C. Flores was invited by the Inter-Denominational Board we have organized there to take the work on a very small salary and with promise of employment. On Brother Gonzales' first visit 36 Mexicans were present at the service. A lady has left a property to the Spanish work there which we hope will mean a chapel within the next year. At least 75 different Mexicans have had the gospel, there have been three converts, and there is a Sunday School of 15. Thirty services have been held.

El Modena

Begun as an outpost from Santa Ana. On last Thanksgiving they built a simple but very convenient little chapel upon two large lots well located. El Modena is a wonderful illustration of the missionary genius of Brother Gonzales; his sacrifice, his enlisting of American support, his tireless patience and loving ministry to the Mexicans themselves, helping them to employment, easing their sentences in court and ministering to the families whose parents have sickened, died or fallen by the ravages of drink.

Westminster, Huntington Beach and Los Alamitos

These are grandchildren of the Santa Ana work. The present untiring and capable, though unpaid pastor, Tranquilino Gomez, was one of our first accessions at Anaheim which grew out of our Santa Ana work. Westminster has a little hall on the highway with "Protestant-Mexican Mission" in Spanish neatly and conspicuously displayed in front. It has from three to six meetings a week, all well attended. Recently 38 new members were received. From Westminster the workers are reaching out to Huntington Beach and to the large camp at Los Alamitos.

Santa Ana and Delhi

Orange County has had the greatest year in its history, having harvested a million and a half dollars of walnuts, six and a half million dollars of sugar, two million dollars of beans. She has spent probaby $700 on her four or five thousand Mexicans, and has, here also, had a big crop, as Brother Gonzales' report shows. The total members have almost trebled, numbering now 256. Forty-five converts, three times the record of last year, and the total giving has increased 50 per cent. The most notable new thing is the regular $5 monthly on the pastors' support coming in from Santa Ana, with a like amount from El Modena. The church reported this with pride at the Quarterly Conference. The benevolences have increased 50 per cent and the number of baptisms doubled.

Los Angeles and Watts

The total membership of this metropolis of Spanish work in the United States even in our cramped conditions has advanced from 95 to 130. Every one of its five organizations is running full blast. The number of meetings during the year has doubled, benevolences have more than doubled, and pastoral visitation and total giving trebled. But that dismal, dark hall with only 73 unpainted chairs cannot hold more than 80 people, so we do wonder where Brother Sein puts his 86 members and six Sunday School classes. His people have to come in relays. All this, in the midst of a mass of 60,000 Latin-Americans in Los Angeles would appear to be the tragedy of the Pacific Coast. The most satisfactory meetings of the year have been out on the Plaza where the thoughtful message in rousing tones has rivaled in reach the sweet cornet leading in Christian hymns under the Plaza lamps.

Probably no pastor in that great city has made and supervised 1200 visits under greater difficulties of extent and expense than Pastor Sein. Brother Sein, with the Superintendent, represented the Board of Home Missions at the great Panama Congress for Christian work in February.

Maria Soto, our first Bible woman, enters, as our third Mexican student, at the Deaconess Training School this Fall. Mrs. Vincent, the J. O. C. missionary, makes 60 visits at least monthly, to homes, the jail and the hospital, beside numberless other duties.

Esther Turner, in charge, especially, of our 220 Mexican Epworth League members has dealt with 532 different Latin-Americans and has helped 37 to decide for God, and done great work in U. S. C., Industrial Schools, Glendale, the Epworth Leagues and the Plaza Church.

One of our best workers, Marie McMillan, has just reached Santiago, Chili, one of our five Spanish workers who are now in South America, and that good work has just begun.

The troubles with Mexico, yet unsolved, the new direction given to sentiment and service by the Panama Congress, the tremendous proportions of our Latin-American work, have caused me often to cry out to God for something out here to help all our people to realize.

Then I thought of a Christ of the Rio Grande who might look away Southward to the Christ of the Andes in mute appeal. But, more and more I see that what the Christ of this new world now wants, is an enduring monument of service on the historic Plaza of Los Angeles. This is our one great prayer of faith. I found it echoed and re-echoed in the reports of our twenty workers—a respectable church for the Latin-Americans to be erected on the Plaza and there is but one Plaza to Latin-Americans North of the Colorado. We have organized a Board as in the case of the Spanish-American Institute, to care for the property interests and to have authority to receive annuities and bequests. This Board has been incorporated as the Methodist Board of Latin-American Missions, Robert J. Taylor, President. It has been decided to purchase on January 1st the $25,000 lot on the N. E. corner of the Plaza. The clinic, the English Classes, Gospel Services, Lectures and Views, work of philanthropy and employment have all been begun, but are scattered and unhoused. The $25,000 church will be built first and then the Institutional Building as God and you make it possible.

V. M. McCOMBS.

PASADENA DISTRICT

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

I cannot come to you in this first report without first paying my respects to my predecessor, Dr. F. D. Mather. I do not have to come and say that I could have done a great work had I found the conditions different, for no one could have left a work in better condition than he left the Pasadena District. For his brotherly spirit and helpful advice through the year, I desire in this public way to give him most hearty thanks.

It is with a sense of both joy and sadness that I bring this first report. Joy because of the many privileges that have come for service and for the faithful way in which they have been met by both pastors and people. In some instances the heroic thing has been done and in every charge there has been real service rendered. But sadness has had its part in the year for two of our parsonage homes have been visited by the death angel and two of our loyal pastors have gone home to their reward. When the appointment were read last fall, Brother Robert Barton was re-assigned to Lordsburg, although he was a very sick man at the time. No one can measure the devotedness of that people as they tried to share the burdens of those days with this man of God and his faithful wife. Everything that could be done was done, but God knew best, and on the 18th day of March he went home to the glories of the other world. He was a faithful pastor and for twenty years made his life felt in this Conference.

On Sunday morning, June 18th, Brother Edwin H. Fretz addressed the Sunday School of his church, the Lincoln Avenue church of Pasadena, and felt in his usual health. Just before the preaching service he felt a pain in his head and went to the parsonage to rest awhile. Becoming worse a physician was called who told them he must have rest and quiet for a week at least. During the afternoon he felt much better, so much so that he thought he would be able to go to the Preacher's Meeting in Los Angeles the next morning, but at seven o'clock that evening, while his devoted companion had gone to answer a ring of the door bell, his spirit slipped out to be with God. Another faithful pastor had gone home to his reward. He will be greatly missed for he had many friends in this Conference.

On June 30th, Mrs. Jennie Kahler, the wife of our deceased Brother S. J. Kahler, went home to join her husband who had preceded her four years before. She was a good woman and her heart was in the work of the Kingdom. During her last days she arranged for many benefactions for the various organizations of our church. Among these was the gift of her home, valued at $4000, to our church at San Fernando to be used as a memorial parsonage for that charge. It was a gift that will make many a heart glad in the years to come.

Buildings and New Work

During the year three new churches and one parsonage have been built. At San Gabriel three lots were purchased at a cost of $850 and a bungalow church, costing $1750, was erected. It was a heroic effort on the part of both pastor and people for it was a difficult field to undertake such a task, but they now have a beautiful and convenient church home and it will all be paid for within a few months.

At Annandale more room was needed for their growing Sunday School and early in the year they made an addition to their building. This, however, was only temporary in its arrangement, for it was soon seen that it would not suffice, so a new location was secured and the church building moved to the new site and enlarged to about twice its former size. They now have a convenient building in a much better location and will be able to do a splendid work.

Much has been said from time to time about the city wide movement for Methodism in Pasadena. Conforming to this plan three lots were purchased during the year at Bonney Avenue and Colorado Street, just one block from the High School. A beautiful bungalow was erected, which for the present will be used for Sunday School purposes and later will be completed for a parsonage. On Sunday, March 5th, a new Sunday School was organized which meets in the afternoon and already they have an average attendance of 72. It has its own officers and teachers, but is under the care of our First and Lake Avenue Churches. During the coming year it will be continued as a Sunday School only and will meet a growing need in that section of the city.

At Lamanda Park new lots were secured last year and early this year the church building was moved to the new site and entirely remodeled at a cost of $1000.

At Marengo Avenue, Alhambra, the church was remodeled at a cost of $1000. Several new class rooms were added, the auditorium was entirely rearranged and the old seating replaced with new opera chairs.

At Fillmore a neat and commodious parsonage was built at a cost of $900 besides a good deal of donated labor.

At Glendora the basement of their church has been completed at a cost of $700.00. This will add greatly to the efficiency of their growing Sunday School. They have also built a cabin in San Gabriel Canon to be used by the Sunday School for camping purposes.

At Lake Avenue, Pasadena, three new class rooms have been added at a cost of $200.

First Church, Glendale, is almost ready to begin the building of their new $30,000 structure. The excavation for the basement has been completed and within a few days the contract will be let for the building. The plans call for a very fine building.

Other expenditures for improvement of church and parsonage property has been made as follows: Alhambra, First, $100; Azusa, $100; Baldwin Park, $260; Bardsdale, $250; Chino, $56; Cucamonga, $75; West Glendale, $25; Lankershim, $70; Highland Park, $100; Monrovia, $150; Montebello, $175; Ontario, First, $133; Scott Chapel, $19; Washington Street, Pasadena, $200; Pomona, First, $100; Simi, $10; South Pasadena, $320; Tropico, $50; Tujunga, $25; Uplands, $150; Van Nuys, $300; Ventura, $100; Santa Paula, $400; Garvanza, $450.

A new Sunday School has been organized at Dayton Avenue, Los Angeles, in connection with our work at Eastlake Memorial. For the present they are holding in a tent and from present indications a new organization will be the outcome of the work done there.

Debt Raising

We are glad to report that although the financial conditions have not been the best, yet a considerable amount has been paid on debts against our churches. In some places they are rejoicing that the whole debt has been lifted. At Azusa a campaign was launched at the beginning of the year and a debt of $2250 was entirely paid off, the mortgage for the same being burned on Sunday, March 19th.

Covina had a debt of $10,500 as reported last year. Very early in the year they waged a campaign and when they were through they had more subscribed than the debt called for. It was a great day for them when this was accomplished.

The debt which has rested upon Lake Avenue, Pasadena, for a number of years and which has called forth a very heroic and sacrificing effort, is a thing of the past. On July 30th a great jollification took place when the old mortgage was burned and they started on a new era in their church life.

There have been some good payments made in other churches as follows: Alhambra, First, $1400; Baldwin Park, $366; Bardsdale, $700; Casa Verdugo, $754; Eagle Rock, $100; El Monte, $500; West Glendale, $200; Asbury, $100; Monrovia, $1000; Montebello, $75; Mountain View, $400; Ontario, First, $1525; Scott Chapel, $42; Lincoln Avenue, Pasadena, $500; Washington Street, Pasadena, $50; Puente, $250; San Fernando, $789; South Pasadena, $260; Tujunga, $130; Upland, $500; Van Nuys, $400; Santa Paula, $175.

Evangelism

At the first Quarterly Conference of each charge I asked if they would allow me at least one Conference off that I might go out into the smaller charges and help in evangelistic work. Each of them granted that privilege. For almost three months I used all of my time in preaching and the Lord has wondrously blessed the work. I do not know how many conversions there have been in that time, I would not dare to count them, but I do know that I have been privileged to see more than 500 persons bow at our altars seeking a better knowledge of Jesus Christ. I know that some of these have been saved and I hope that all of them are bearing a new relation to their Master. This would not have been possible but for the circle of prayer that has been kept up all over the District. For all of this I am truly grateful and to Him be all of the praise. I have been privileged to preach on an average of every other night during the entire year.

I do not know what the final records will be as to gains in membership, but from reports sent in by the pastors I find 40 charges made a gain of 944 and that 14 charges report a loss of 238, leaving a net gain of something like 700. The indications are that the benevolences will be a little in advance of last year.

In conclusion let me say that I have not used the names of any of the men in this report as a good many of them said they would rather have me report the charge and not say anything as to themselves. A more loyal set of men cannot be found anywhere than the men of this District. I wish I could say a word about each of them, for they are worthy of it. Let me say I came into this office with fear and trembling. I did not know all that would be required of me nor how I would be received by either the men or the churches. No one could have had a finer reception than I have had. There have been some burdens to bear, but the joy of the fellowship has been sweet indeed. May each of you be kept in the joy and fellowship of Him who makes every burden light, is my prayer for you.

A. RAY MOORE.

FRESNO DISTRICT

For three years this district has experienced financial stringency, not because of poor crops, but for lack of a market; but I am pleased to report that this year we have both the crops and the market; but the Conference session comes too early for our reports to show much material gain. In fact, it would be far better for our work, if the Conference came one month later.

Building Activities: It has been our plan, in occupying undeveloped missionary territory of the district, to build a small church in a community and to leave it free from debt, rather than to feed the pride of the people with a larger and more expensive building, which would leave a debt to burden the preacher and to mortgage the financial and spiritual activities of the society.

Following this policy A. W. Gray led in the building of a neat church, costing $1000 at Fairview on the Sanger Circuit. Another building adequate to the needs of the community is nearing completion at Fort Romie on the Greenfield Circuit.

The society at Van Ness, Fresno, almost crushed to death with a debt of $2,000 on its lots, traded its site for a new location, making $1,000 by the exchange and losing little if any advantage in the new location. It then purchased one of the temporary Normal School buildings, moved it on to its lots and fixed it up for church and Sunday school purposes. It was brought to completion by the untiring efforts of J. E. Herrinton and the faithful Board of Trustees. Francis M. Larkin dedicated the building September 10th.

Patterson, under the wise and inspiring leadership of M. A. Wimberley, of the Nebraska Conference, has built a fine church with basement and League room, worth $5,500, but costing the society much less, as it was constructed largely with Exposition lumber. This is a fine achievement in face of the fact that two years ago this society thought to disband.

It has been a hard task to build a church at McFarland, but the persistent efforts of C. W. Roberts, with the help of a few loyal people, made possible the erection of a building costing some $3,500. The church was formally opened by Bishop Leonard and Francis M. Larkin, Sunday, August 27th.

A notable enterprise has been brought to completion at Tranquility, where five young women raised the money and led in the building of a neat bungalow church worth $1,200.

But the achievement which brings highest personal satisfaction to me is the erection of a $2,000 church at Mountain View, on the Bakersfield Circuit, a permanent memorial to the name of Rev. Samuel A. Thomson, the man who has given over fifty-three years to the ministry of our church, and was formerly a presiding elder of the Fresno District. The church is all paid for, and we plan to have Dr. Thomson preach in it, that the people may get some idea of the genial warmth of his spiritual personality.

Each of these seven churches has been built to occupy new territory for Methodism, and four of them are where we are the only denomination at work.

Lots have been purchased and plans made for a $4,000 church which is very much needed at Sultana. C. T. Harrison has $3,000 subscribed towards the building. Harry S. Ryder, with his determined and sagacious persistency, has persuaded the people of Parlier to sign up in regular legal form $11,000 for a new church, and a contract has been let for an elegant and commodious house of worship which, when completed, will cost about $14,000.

Parsonages—Some of the good sisters of this Conference will rejoice to know that the excuse for a parsonage at Visalia has been taken down and an elegant eight-room, two-story, modern house built in its place. This fine achievement was accomplished through the Philathea Class and the Ladies' Aid Society under the leadership of Brother Metcalf.

A neat and comfortable five-room parsonage has been built at Shandon, through the efforts of Will Schubert.

The church at Riverbend has also voted to build a parsonage.

Debt Paying—Debts have been paid and burdens have been lifted in a number of charges. The long-standing debt of $750 on the parsonage at Arroyo Grande has been subscribed and $250 of it paid. A note of $300 and $150 of other debts which irritated a number of pastors at Grangeville charge have been paid off by the united efforts of pastor and people. Scott E. Winebrenner has served this church very acceptably, as the Conference records will show. The Hanford church has subscribed $4,500 to cover its indebtedness of $4,300. On Easter Sunday Geo. A. Warmer inspired the Lindsay church to give a thank offering of $500 for missions and to subscribe $6,500 to cover its indebtedness. Oliver Saylor persuaded the people of Lompoc to pay their entire indebtedness of $1,300 in cash subscriptions. Wasco has paid its debt of $325 and at an early date this church will be dedicated.

Merced has paid $570 on debt and interest. Santa Maria has paid $250 on debt, Springville $300, and Selma, has covered its debt of $3,800. Tulare, under the leadership of its highly appreciated pastor, has cancelled its debt of $12,500 and expects to have the same paid by January 1st.

Other items of indebtedness paid are: Alpaugh, $100; San Luis Obispo, $800; Armona, $70; Clovis, $74; Dinuba and Queen, cash, $150; Lakeside, $185; Bakersfield First Church, $400.

Improvements—Armona has painted its church, at a cost of $300. Kings River has put in disappearing doors, also kitchen, and has painted the property, at a cost of $432, all paid. Lancaster and Reedley have improved their parsonages, and Sanger has spent $275 on preacher's home. Newman has resingled its church, and Paso Robles has spent $150 on improvements. Corcoran, under the efficient leadership of A. W. Shamel, has built in a gallery and put in pews. The improvement cost $860, all paid.

Evangelism—It has been a good year in evangelism. Thirty-nine churches reported to me at Easter an increase of 537. Hanford had a program which engaged the attention of the whole church and culminated at Easter in the reception of 96 members. The same kind of spiritual objective was held before the Parlier church and 35 were received into membership.

Both branches of Methodism united in a revival at Madera. Brother H. H. Weyant did the preaching and 29 souls were converted. Reedley had a union meeting early in the fall which added 69 to the membership of our church, which reports a net gain of 79 for the year. At Santa Barbara 92 were received into the membership of the church. Paso Robles reported an increase of 30 and Tulare the same.

But probably the most notable evangelistic record will be in the increase shown in the Sunday schools. This has been helped very materially by the use of the Lincoln Highway Sunday school auto race, which was invented by W. C. Loomis and is used in 22 of our schools.

Fred R. Ross has worked as Conference Evangelist and rendered very commendable service on the Fresno District. The churches at Poplar and Shandon and Del Rey and the Camp Meeting at Arroyo Grande felt the power and inspiration and profit of his preaching and personal work.

S. L. Todd gave eight weeks of service to evangelism and helped many other pastors in their evangelistic meetings.

Benevolences—Forty-one charges reported an increase of $476 in Foreign Missions, and an increase of $218 in Home Missions.

Unification—Last fall, by a unanimous vote, the preachers of the Church, South, were invited to unite with us in the San Joaquin Valley Methodist Ministers Association. They accepted the invitation and some 20 of them came into our fellowship. We find these men deeply spiritual and thoroughly evangelistic, so that they have helped many other pastors in their evangelistic meetings.

In our pre-General Conference discussions of unification we found ourselves one in spirit and desire for unification, and through our fellowship some misunderstandings have vanished and some material gains have come to both branches of the church.

May 2nd, the church and parsonage of the Church South at Bakersfield burned down, and when the inspiring vote of the General Conference so nearly expressed the spirit for union in both churches, Presiding Elder W. R. Thornton and the pastor, C. E. Bower, thought it not wise to attempt to rebuild but to turn their membership over to us, but this left their pastor without a charge; but, as E. D. Barton, our pastor at Laton, had asked for leave of absence until Conference to go into the Dry Campaign Federation work, C. E. Bower was appointed to supply Laton till Conference, which he has done with great acceptability.

Oliver Laizure of Kingsburg asked for a leave of absence until April in order to go into Temperance work. The church granted his request, but had some difficulty in finding a supply to fill the pulpit, and the Trustees wired me at Saratoga Springs for consent to worship with the Church South, which was readily given, and these two congregations have been strengthened in their federated fellowship.

Since that time Presiding Elder Thornton and I have prayed and worked together to take some stumbling blocks and hindrances out of the path that leads to the permanent union of Methodism in our territory, and on July 28th a joint commission on federation, composed of Bishop Leonard and Bishop W. R. Lambuth and the district superintendents and presiding elders, authorized us to canvass our churches and, after taking the matter up with the local commission in Fresno, to report our findings to them in Los Angeles September 19th, when we made our recommendations, which were accepted, and the movement for unification found spiritual expression and made definite material gains.

The recommendations were as follows: That we match the surrender of the field at Bakersfield by the Church South with a surrender of the field at Exeter, and a week ago last Sunday, after an address by your Superintendent, the membership voted unanimously to become one with the Church South; that we form federated churches at Sanger and Kingsburg, with the understanding that the Southern branch of the church appoint the pastor at Kingsburg, and that our branch of the church appoint the pastor at Sanger. And it was further recommended and accepted that, as the Church South had within the past year surrendered the field at Hanford and Woodville, their membership coming to us, and that we had taken over their work at Poplar, that we plan to leave the field to them at Clovis as soon as we can persuade our people to join in federated or organic union.

The working out of these problems has been a most blessed work, and the fullness of the blessing of Christ in the ministry of the Holy Spirit abides to make effective the prayer of our Lord and the labor of our love that His church may be one.

Noteworthy Items—W. C. Loomis closes a four-year pastorate at Hanford, and during his ministry there the Sunday School has grown from 200 to 344, the membership from 246 with no probationers to 340 with 25 in preparatory membership. The new parsonage has been built; and this year the saloons have been voted out, never to return. He made First Church, Hanford, a blessing to all our churches in Kings County.

Frank B. Cowgill, who closes a three-year ministry in First Church, Fresno, has received 388 members into the church and leaves on the roll a net gain of 277. This means a net increase of over 37 per cent in three years—a remarkable achievement for any church.

F. W. Gamble, who seems to have a complete antidote for Satardarianism, has served our small society at Arlinda and has helped to protect our churches from the materialistic teaching of Adventism.

H. A. Carpenter has traveled the Palmdale Circuit this year, journeying 4,000 miles to fill his appointments. He has preached in 21 school houses covering 800 square miles of territory, and has ministered to over 200 families, who would have had no gospel privileges without his consecration and sacrifice.

Two of our young preachers, J. Crawford Trotter and Will Schubert, have heard the call of the spirit to work in the foreign field.

It may interest you to know that the District Superintendent in 75 days since the 4th of July has visited 122 communities in the interest of the church and her ministers, and during this time I spent eight nights on the train. It would be wise, whoever be the District Superintendent, for the Conference to adopt the alternate plan, approved by the General Conference, in respect to support of the District Superintendent, in order that a man might be appointed to a territory which he could adequately serve without wearing himself out physically or feeling too keenly the denial of home privileges.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

The Epworth Leagues of Southern California Conference have had a prosperous year. The activities of the young people in the various charges have been a great help and inspiration to the pastors and churches.

Missions—The following resolution, adopted by the Conference Epworth League Board of Control on recommendation of both the faculty and membership of the 1916 Huntington Beach Institute, shows to some extent what our Leaguers are doing on missionary lines:

“Resolved, That we recommend to our district Leagues that we assume the Spanish and Portuguese work of our Conference and the newly proposed Panama mission as our primary interests, respectively, in home and foreign missions; and

“That we specifically recommend that for the current League year the respective district cabinets undertake to provide at least $2,400 support for the Spanish and Portuguese work and (as an initial undertaking) $600 for the Panama work.”

This undertaking will, without doubt, be carried to successful completion, as practically the entire amount is already pledged. It represents only a portion of what our Epworth Leagues are doing. Each district has, in addition, other missionary enterprises it is supporting.

Temperance—The Epworth Leaguers throughout the Conference are most enthusiastically and loyally supporting the California Dry Campaign. Everywhere they are rallying to the cause and doing effective work under the direction of the Dry Federation.

Conventions—The four District Conventions of the Conference were held in close proximity to each other, so that many of the speakers were able to address at least three of the four conventions. The programs were strong, the attendance record-breaking, and the enthusiasm ran high, while the reports showed efficient work being done.

Institute—The Huntington Beach Institute outdid all former efforts. Three hundred and forty-six Epworth Leaguers, representing 69 different chapters, were enrolled. Six out of the ten classes had an enrollment of over 100 in each class. Ninety-seven received central office certificates, having attended five lectures in four different studies; while at the closing service 53 came forward and consecrated their lives to definite Christian service as a life work. The faculty, all of whom with the exception of Miss Emma A. Robinson of central office are members of this Conference, did most excellent work and their classes grew in size and interest from day to day.

Bishop's Bahquet—One of the marked features of the year's work was the great Epworth League banquet given in honor of the Board of Methodist Bishops November 2, 1915, by the Leaguers of the San Diego, Los Angeles and Pasadena Districts. It was indeed a memorable occasion, with an attendance of 2,300 Epworth Leaguers, and honored with the presence of twenty-three of our Methodist Bishops, each of whom favored the assembly with a few words of greeting.

RESOLUTIONS

We wish to record our appreciation of the splendid manner in which the churches of Orange County, under the direction of Rev. E. J. Inwood, arranged for our entertainment and comfort. We are grateful for the generous hospitality of the homes, for courtesies shown us and favors extended to us during our stay. Especially do we wish to thank:

1. The Epworthians of Orange County for their thoughtfulness in welcoming us in such royal fashion on Tuesday evening.

2. The local churches, their faithful pastors and their efficient committees for all conveniences provided for the use of the Conference; to the organist and choir of the First Methodist Church of Santa Ana for their faithful attendance and efficient services.

3. The ladies of the various churches for the royal entertainment at the noon hour in the exceeding bountifulness of the meals served by them.

4. To the local press of Santa Ana for the interest and fullness given to reports of our sessions from day to day.

5. To our efficient secretaries, treasurers and associates and to the local banks for large favors shown.

6. We note with pleasure the coming of Bishops R. G. Waterhouse and W. R. Lambuth of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. As a Conference we express the earnest hope and offer the fervent prayer that the time may speedily come when our Methodism shall be one.

7. We record our deathless determination to drive the liquor traffic from California and pledge ourselves to utmost diligence to the last hour of the last day. We rejoice in the splendid work accomplished by the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals of our church under the direction of Clarence True Wilson, D. D. We also express our deep appreciation of the earnest, inspiring message of the Hon. J. Stitt Wilson.

8. We would make special mention of Lynn Harold Hough, D. D., of Garrett Biblical School of Theology for his penetrating, compelling, vital messages. We would welcome with delight his return to us again.

Lastly. We are profoundly grateful for the assignment of our resident Bishop Adna Wright Leonard, D. D., LL. D., to the presidency of our Conference. His great fairness in presiding, his fine brotherly spirit, his strong spiritual messages have won for him an abiding place in our hearts. We assure him of our love amid his great responsibilities and pledge our loyalty to the program outlined to us. We will anticipate with keen pleasure his early return to preside over us again.

LATIN-AMERICAN MISSION

Be it resolved, by this Annual Conference, That we heartily indorse the work of the Spanish and Portuguese District; and, further,

Be it resolved, That we, realizing that an Institutional Church giving religious, social and industrial advantages to a people desperately in need of all these things is the best means of reaching them, do indorse, and will in every way possible aid in bringing to pass the Latin-American Institutional Church on the Plaza of Los Angeles; and, further,

Be it resolved, That we cordially indorse the Methodist Board of Latin-American Missions in its efforts to provide church homes for the Mexicans and other Latin-Americans of our state.

ROBERT J. TAYLOR.

THE HUNTINGTON BEACH METHODIST ASSEMBLY

Your Trustees of the Huntington Beach Methodist Assembly desire to make a brief report which you will quite fully discuss.

The status of our property interests is unchanged. There are about twelve acres of land, or four city blocks including the streets within them, which belong to us. From this we have given ground for the Huntington Beach Methodist Episcopal Church and its parsonage. The tenting and all commercial business on our grounds are conducted by the Huntington Beach Tent City Company, under a lease, which has four more years to run. We have spent about $15,000 in improvements. A conservative valuation of our holdings is $40,000, against which there is a mortgage of $4,000, incurred this past year, to pay for paving two blocks of our street frontage.

Our session this summer, though not the most largely attended, was in some respects the most fruitful we have held. We gladly record our gratitude to Dr. J. O. Randall, the Rev. C. Norman Guice, the morning lecturers, Dr. D. F. Howe and our Bishop, Adna W. Leonard, for their messages and leadership, and most of all to "God who giveth the increase."

But with all gratitude for this and all previous years, we are not content, but the more anxious that a greater future should be built upon them. Our ideal is nothing short of this:— That the Huntington Beach Methodist Assembly should be a vital power in every charge of this Conference. We have had hundreds of our members and scores of our ministers in attendance, but we cannot be content without hundreds of ministers and thousands of our members receiving its benefits in evangelism, training in Christian service, and experience of Conference fellowship.

We believe that if this Conference would discuss the Assembly, adopt a policy for it, and every pastor put himself into its work, this could be accomplished, with unmeasured good to all our churches.

We do not suggest a policy, for that would make it ours, not yours, but we urge you to frame such a policy as you will support, and send out the directors whom you elect today, to make the most possible of your Assembly.

CHARLES H. SCOTT.

COMMISSION ON FINANCE

We wish to call attention to the advanced program of church finances adopted by the last General Conference, and urge upon every charge within our Conference the adoption of the Disciplinary Plan as outlined in paragraph 410 of the Discipline.

It is further urged upon every charge to prepare early in the Conference year a working program whereby the connectional and non-connectional causes may receive adequate consideration upon the basis of present and probable future needs. To this end, we encourage the selection of a Benevolence Committee, in keeping with the new legislation, to thoroughly canvass the local church and set forth a program to include special emphasis upon Christian stewardship and the education of the church regarding the importance of our benevolent work.

We recommend that each pastor call the attention of his people to the fundamental relations of the Connectional Boards to the work of the local churches, and request that they be given first claim upon the benevolent giving of the church.

We recommend that the Woman's Home Missionary Society Auxiliaries and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society Auxiliaries be granted the privilege of taking thank offerings in their respective churches.

We desire to encourage the Epworth Leagues of our Conference by co-operating in their plans to secure $2,400 for the Spanish and Portuguese District and $600 for the Panama Mission, and by recognizing the apportionments as handed down by the Conference Board of Control.

We further recommend that we accept the apportionments for the Spanish work as follows:

Fifteen cents per member for the Spanish and Portuguese District.

Ten cents per member for the Spanish-American Institute.

For our Conference educational collections we recommend the following apportionments:

Twenty-five cents per member for the University of Southern California.

Ten cents per member for the Maclay School of Theology.

Four cents per member for General Educational Fund.

BIBLE CAUSE

The greatest commendation of the American Bible Society must be found in its purpose and its achievement. That purpose is to place the word of God in the hands of every man and in every home where it is not; and to place it there in the language of the recipients, no matter what that language may be. To do this at the very lowest cost; and, if need be, no cost at all to the receivers. From the immigrant at Ellis Island to the frontiers of our nation this Society scatters broadcast the seed of the Word, the only seed from which a harvest of personal and national righteousness can be reaped. And this great work it seeks to do in all lands. Last year this Society distributed on the Pacific Coast, by sale and gift, 120,000 copies in 64 languages and dialects.

It is easy to commend the Bible, but can the Bible commend us if we do not in every way oppose its ejection from our public schools, the very place where it is so much needed, and never more so than today? We most heartily support the efforts of the National Reform Association for the use of the Bible in the public schools of our state. We appreciate the leadership of Dr. James S. McGraw in this great work. We urge our pastors to give the Bible Cause a due proportion of interest in our benevolent collections.

SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION

The Conference Commission on Social Service reports with gratitude the action of the General Conference in adopting the report of the Committee on the State of the Church concerning the relation of the Methodist Episcopal Church to the problems of industry. After full discussion, the General Conference adopted the most far-reaching statement of the Christian attitude on Industrial Democracy that has ever gone forth from any denomination. In this connection we remind ourselves that the General Conference of 1908 gave to the world that epochal pronouncement on the relation of the church to social questions which has come to be known as the "Social Creed of the Church," and which has since been adopted by most of the Protestant denominations in this country and by the Federal Council of Churches.

The Methodist Federation for Social Service, through its Secretary, Harry F. Ward, has done the church great service, especially in the field of education and in the literature of the church on social questions. The secretary of this Conference Social Service Commission is also California State Secretary of the Methodist Federation for Social Service, and was the fraternal delegate from the Federal Council of Churches to the last convention of the American Federation of Labor.

As a Commission we recommend that the Conference endorse the proposed laws for One Day Rest in Seven in California, and for State Farms for term prisoners in the counties; and that the Conference instruct the Commission to work for the passage of such legislation by the next California Legislature.

In harmony with action by some of the Conferences in the North, we recommend that the Conference invite Prof. Harry F. Ward, Professor of Social Service in Boston University School of Theology, to be the Conference speaker at the next session of Conference.

COMMISSION ON SOCIAL SERVICE.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANT'S ENDOWMENT FUND

Beginning the work for the Conference year of 1915-16 at El Monte on October 31st, I have visited 57 charges. The responses in subscriptions and cash have ranged from $27 to $752. This largest response was made by Westlake. Next to Westlake stands First Church, Pasadena, with $587; third on the list, South Pasadena, $459; Long Beach First, $430; Redlands First, $418. The amount for the year totals $9,698.

The five payment plan, with the bond certificate, has been a very helpful accessory in securing these subscriptions.

I have lectured 32 times. The voluntary offering for these lectures has amounted to $202. I secured in this manner for the last half of last year $102, making a total of $304.

Giving these lectures has been entirely voluntary and gratuitous on the part of the Field Secretary, with the sole motive of increasing as much as possible the endowment fund. If they in any way have been helpful to those who heard, then I am content.

The charges visited have been very sympathetic towards this cause, and, considering the numerous appeals made to the churches aside from their regular church budget, and the depressed financial condition existing, the response has been highly gratifying.

While not out on the field the Secretary has given much time to the clerical work attendant upon this enterprise, and in assisting in various ways our Conference Treasurer, Dr. J. B. Green, whose devotion to his work keeps him in his office about ten hours daily.

It has been a real pleasure to come in close contact with our choice pastors and the devoted people whom they serve. My only regret is that the results have not been much greater for this most worthy and superlatively important cause.

WESLEY K. BEANS, Field Secretary.

AUDITING

The District Superintendents' accounts were audited and found to be correct.

F. M. WOODSIDE, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON FEDERATION

No event in the history of our great church has stirred the hearts of pastors and laymen with greater satisfaction than the action of the General Conference at Saratoga Springs regarding the unifying of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church South. We sincerely hope and believe that, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the committee to whom this great and important task has been committed will be able to so remove or adjust the obstacles and difficulties that now exist that these two great forces for righteousness will soon join heart and hand and sing: "We are not divided, all one body, we, one in hope and doctrine, one in charity."

We most heartily commend the wise and brotherly administration of District Superintendent John Oliver, by which a union of churches has been brought about at Bakersfield, Hanford, Exeter, Kingsburg and Sanger, and we trust wherever such a union is needful our District Superintendents will take such steps as to bring about the desired results.

We commend the work of the California State Church Federation and request the District Superintendents to appoint one minister and one layman for each 1,000 members on each district, as representatives from this Conference on the Council of the State Church Federation. We also respectfully request the Bishop to appoint Rev. E. Guy Talbott as Executive Secretary of the Federation.

J. E. FISCHER.

PUBLIC MORALS COMMITTEE

Dr. Lynn Harold Hough said in one of his addresses that the Methodist preacher ought to be at the back of every movement for the moral progress and social improvement of the community.

The present situation of the temperance question is extremely critical, and as California is the strategic point of contest, so should every pulpit and every preacher be a part of the big machinery to make California dry. If every preacher will be at the task between now and the 7th of November, we shall have a marvelous victory.

No preacher should fail in his message to inspire confidence and insure workers against the church's deadliest foe.

We are aware that the battle will not be won from the pulpit or the platform but through heart-to-heart talks, through men and women in their home, social and commercial life.

No greater illustration of the effect on the morals of the community is needed than is shown by the dancing in public drinking places, viz., Venice, Vernon Country Club and Seal Beach; and the effort of the liquor forces to bring about these same conditions in Los Angeles City by a special election forced by them, submitting an ordinance permitting dancing in hotels and cafes where liquor is sold.

Be it therefore resolved, That we as a Conference urge every preacher and layman in their Conference to do his utmost to make California dry, and that until October 7th he each Sunday urge the necessity of registration.

Be it further resolved, That, so far as possible, all our preachers who are to move this year continue to live in their present homes until after November 7th.

E. P. RYLAND, Chairman.

INTERNATIONAL PEACE

Your Committee on Peace was appointed by the last Annual Conference to serve with like committees from other denominations as a joint peacemakers' committee of the California State Church Federation.

During the year there have been several meetings of this joint committee and its executive committee, especially with reference to relations between the United States and China, with Japan and with Mexico. We heartily endorse the world alliance for the promotion of international friendship through the churches, and declare our belief that this time of world crisis both in Europe and the Orient presents to the church in the United States a great challenge to make effective Christ's gospel as applied to international relations. We urge upon our churches the use of the new course of study proposed by the world alliance on the new world situation and the study of Dr. Gulick's book, "The Fight for Peace." We would urge each church to appoint its own peace-makers' committee to further the study of the problem of international relations from the Christian standpoint. We commend Dr. Gulick's proposal regarding changes in our immigration laws which will allay friction and suspicion between this country and China and Japan by restricting immigration on an equitable percentage basis.

E. P. RYLAND.

SPANISH AMERICAN INSTITUTE

During the third year of the Spanish American Institute at Gardena there have been 35 boys in its care. No more could be accommodated. The ever-increasing number of urgent applications for admission have had to be met with the answer, No Room. The development of our Mexican boys during the three years has been most encouraging. There is such marked improvement in their lives and character that your Board of Trustees and the Faculty are exceedingly anxious to provide additional accommodations so that many boys may be added to the number who are now having the advantages of the school.

The Board of Trustees determined to raise a fund of $14,000; $6,000 to pay off the mortgage, $6,000 for a new building to be known as Industrial Hall, and $2,000 for its furnishing and equipment and for other much needed improvements. Toward this fund subscriptions now amount to $11,700, leaving $2,300 yet to be secured. A good portion of the amount subscribed has been collected, and on September 15th an obligation for $6,000, carried from the time of the purchase of the property, was paid in full and the mortgage released. Thus the 10 acres of land with good well and pumping plant, school house and dormitory, superintendent's cottage, laundry, farm cottage and barn, are now free from debt. When the $2,300 still needed is all subscribed, work on the new two-story Industrial Hall will be begun promptly. It is planned to have the first floor adapted for shops where carpentry and other trades may be taught, and the second floor for a dormitory. There would then be room for about 70 boys, or twice as many as are now in the school.

The sympathetic interest of the Annual Conference and its hearty support are greatly appreciated by those in direct charge of this work.

The current expense account of approximately $6,600 for the year shows all bills paid and a very small balance in the treasury. If the number of boys is to be doubled the monthly bills will be greatly increased. With the help of all the members of the Conference and of the charges they represent by meeting in full the apportionment for the support of the Spanish American Institute, the Board of Trustees believe they can safely incur the additional expense.

FRANK S. WALLACE.

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

The denominational college has its one unique and incomparable place in the realm of higher education; because it places a just and larger emphasis upon soul culture. It is not any the less devoted to the student intellectually and physically, but in its curricula it enshrines the exquisite sentiment of England's sainted laureate, "What know we greater than the soul, on God and God-like men we build our trust." The Christian college has no down-right excuse for its existence unless it gives the student the opportunity of Christian culture; that is a viewpoint of the wisdom of the world from the foot of Calvary's Cross; and to emphasize the great truth that any education which leaves the Christ ideals out of its methods is not the highest and fullest culture.

Your Committee on Education has great satisfaction in assuring the Southern California Conference that your great institution, the University of Southern California, under the Presidency of Dr. Geo. F. Bovard, is without question fulfilling all the highest ideals and purposes of a Christian university. While the students and graduates of our University are not behind any others in their scholastic attainments and in their equipment for the various professions, and while they are the equal of any others in debate and elocution and on the athletic field, yet the faculties are not satisfied with their work unless the things of the spirit dominate all other influences in the class room.

Hundreds of students are connected with the Young Women's and Young Men's Christian Associations and the weekly devotional meeting, so, while the attendance is voluntary, it is regularly supported by hundreds of undergraduates.

It would seem wholly superfluous to remind ourselves that we have within the boundaries of your Conference a truly great University. Under the brilliant incumbency of President Bovard our great institution has steadily grown in influence until it is now recognized as one of the most notable educational forces of the Pacific Coast. The undergraduates of the University of Southern California are accredited at Harvard and Johns Hopkins and the State University of California; and can pass from our institution into any of these without loss of time or class standing. The scholastic standing of our University is as high as the highest standard maintained by all the leading educational institutions of America.

You will be interested to know that when it was proposed that the State University establish a Summer School in Southern California the administration took the position they had made a careful investigation of the situation and that they had declined to entertain the suggestion because they could best serve the interests of Southern California by co-operation with the University of Southern California, which, in their opinion, was supplying every need in that direction; and recently Dean Hart of the University of California has proposed to Dr. Bovard that during the regular semesters of the college year there be an exchange of professors between the University of California and the University of Southern California, acknowledging, of course, in this suggestion, that the members of the faculty of our University were the equals in scholarship and teaching ability of the instructors of the State University.

It is with pardonable pride and undisguised satisfaction that we are able to report the continued and increasing phenomenal success of the University of Southern California. No year has equaled the enrollment of this semester. There are now enrolled in the Liberal Arts Department 1,260 students, which is 104 students in excess of last year's remarkable record.

The graduating class last June numbered 456 and was the largest in the history of the University.

The facilities for preparing young men and women as teachers in the high schools of this state are shared only by the University of California and Stanford University. Nearly 300 teachers bearing high school certificates are in the schools of California. The University of Southern California has great satisfaction in finding the graduates of the University of Southern California in the high schools of many of their parishes.

The Methodist Church never has, from its humble beginnings far back at Oxford University, been compelled to apologize for itself among scholars, and it does not need to do so in Southern California. The fact that nearly all of our younger preachers have had the advantage of collegiate and seminary training is mainly due to our noble University. Probably no Conference in Methodism has more members in it that have had scholastic opportunities than our own; and it is an auspicious presage that the standards are not to be lowered.

The University of Southern California has created such an atmosphere of refinement and culture and scholarship in the southern part of our state that every Methodist preacher is proud to remind his constituency that the University of Southern California is a big Methodist institution.

We would not be doing justice to ourselves if we failed at this time or when opportunity offers to give to President Geo. Finley Bovard his full meed of praise for the extraordinary achievements of our University. He is a large man in every way. Being a member of the Board of Trustees will bear your committee out in the unqualified statement that, although many others are capable and devoted, yet the noblest Roman of them all is President Bovard, whose masterful generalship controls and advances every department of the great enterprise.

The Maclay College is doing its work faithfully. It has 19 graduates and 29 students, with a faculty for this year larger and more efficient than ever before. Happy is the young man who in his preparation for Christian ministry can come under the influence of the ideals and refining visions and finished scholarship of Dr. Healy. It is no disparagement to the efficient members of the faculty of our Theological School to say that the Maclay College is Dean Ezra A. Healy. Garfield thought that all the university he needed was a log with Dr. Mark Hopkins on one end of it and himself on the other. Many a preacher in this Conference can say the same of Dr. Healy.

May the bows of President Bovard and Dean Healy long abide in strength.

It is with deep regret that we announce the death of Dr. Geo. W. Coultas, an alumnus and one of our most faithful Trustees and friend of the University.

We are happy to inform the Conference that Bishop Adna W. Leonard has consented to serve on the Board of Trustees. Besides Bishop Leonard to fill the unexpired term of Dr. Coultas, we nominate to serve as Trustees for three years, J. E. Carr, P. F. Cogswell, Alfred Inwood, W. W. Beckett, G. F. Bovard, B. C. Cory, W. M. Bowen, J. A. Geissinger, A. J. Wallace, H. W. Brodbeck.

We wish also to assure the leaders of the University of our heartiest co-operation in the great Jubilee Campaign for funds for the University which will be launched with the opening of the new year. The Jubilee Campaign is in commemoration of the one hundred and fiftieth year of the founding of Methodist education in America and also of the fiftieth year of work of the Board of Education. All of the Methodist educational institutions in America are uniting with this church-wide campaign, and it is confidently expected that a large amount will be added to the endowment of our own University.

We recommend that the present apportionment of 35 cents per member for the University of Southern California be maintained and that two-sevenths of the sum received shall go to the Maclay College and 4 cents additional per member to the Board of Education.

We urge the continued observance of Children's Day with its collection. More than 20,000 students have been aided from its funds; last year, 2,288.

We endorse and commend the appointment of religious workers to serve our own and tax supported schools when requested.

As the General Conference has provided for an Annual Conference Board of Education, the ministerial members of which shall constitute the Committee on Education of the Conference, we therefore make the following nominations in accordance with the explicit provisions of paragraph 415 of the new Discipline:

To serve for three years, 1919—Ministers, Chas. Edward Locke, Chas. H. Scott, H. E. Murkett, C. P. Metcalf; laymen, Egerton Shore, A. M. Drew, C. P. Clocke, Wilbur A. Fiske.

To serve for two years, 1918—Ministers, H. S. Ryder, C. M. Crist, R. D. Hollington, R. J. Taylor; laymen, Dr. C. S. Stoddard, W. S. Allen, M. M. Parker, E. P. Clark.

To serve for one year, 1917—Ministers, H. W. White, C. H. M. Sutherland, W. E. Tilroe, C. B. Dalton; laymen, Geo. N. King, C. I. D. Moore, W. L. Frew, A. J. Visel.

The President of the University and the Dean of the Theological Seminary are ex-officio members of this Board.

As stated above, the ministerial members of this Board shall constitute the Annual Conference Committee on Education: Chas. Edward Locke, Chas. H. Scott, H. E. Murkett, C. P. Metcalf, H. S. Ryder, C. M. Crist, R. D. Hollington, R. J. Taylor, H. W. White, W. E. Tilroe, C. H. M. Sutherland, C. B. Dalton.

We heartily congratulate the Board of Education upon the "Christian Student," a magazine which is in much favor among the educators of other denominations as well as our own. Its superior excellence should commend it to all our people.

The committee was appointed by the Board of Trustees of the University of Southern California consisting of the following members: J. B. Green, chairman; J. E. Carr, Geo. I. Cochran, President G. F. Bovard, E. A. Healy, A. J. Wallace, to report to the Annual Conference the decision of said Board to begin a campaign for the endowment of the University in a minimum sum of one million dollars. The said committee reported as follows: The Annual Conference is requested by the Board of Trustees to appoint a committee for advisory co-operation with said Board of Trustees in devising a plan of the endowment campaign as to organization, mode of operation, date of beginning, etc. This request is in harmony with the order of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. It includes a general campaign throughout Methodism marking its one hundred and fiftieth anniversary by the strengthening of our educational interests everywhere. Our request is in harmony also with the cordial adoption of the General Conference order by the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church. As this matter having been reported to the Committee on Education by the Annual Conference, we would nominate as members of this advisory committee the District Superintendents and Egerton Shore, E. P. Clark, R. D. Hunt, A. M. Drew and Z. L. Parmelee.

BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS

A personal note about three of our brethren is called for in this report. Harold J. Smith since last Conference has proceeded to India and is now engaged in learning the language. Thomas C. Maxwell, formerly a missionary in Malaysia, has gone to labor in the great peninsular empire again. C. C. Hartzler, one of our younger brethren in attendance at this Conference, is now under appointment to the heart of Africa, and for some weeks will be available for sermons and illustrated lectures wherever the brethren will invite him, without charge, accepting only a silver offering at his lectures to cover his expenses.

Here are some figures for your prayerful consideration. In 1912 there were in this Conference 42,325 members, who contributed to the funds of our Foreign Missionary Society the sum of $20,676. Last year we reported 50,178 members, but our contributions were only $19,747, an actual decrease. This year, through the courtesy of the statistical secretary and the treasurer, we are permitted to state that our membership is 52,617 and our Foreign Missionary contribution from churches, Sunday schools and special gifts is $37,436.

A communication from the Parent Board, addressed to the President of your Board, states that, while the Presbyterian Church contributes $1.29 per member per year to this cause, and the U. P. Church $2.57, the offering of the M. E. Church is only $0.49 per member per year. The Southern California Conference in 1915 gave $0.50 per member, which includes the contribution from the Sunday schools of $6,423. Our average for the year now closed is, from all above named sources, 71 cents per member. But is that worthy of a great Conference like ours? Is it at all commensurate with the blessings, material and spiritual, we and our people have received at the hands of the good Lord? Compare our giving to this cause last year with our giving for other causes. We quote the figures supplied to every pastor by Brother E. Guy Talbott:

Current expenses	371,519.00
F. M. Parent Board.....	19,747.00

And yet our slogan is "As much for others as for ourselves." True, that does not represent the whole of our giving in the F. M. cause within the bounds of our Conference. The grand total was $68,215.00, but the W. F. M. S. was responsible for $35,213.00 of that (52 per cent); from our Sunday schools we received $6,832.00 (10 per cent); special gifts, $6,423.00 (9 per cent), and from the churches as above, $19,747.00, or 29 per cent of the whole.

On the opening morning of this Conference, our Bishop told us that he was going to urge upon us the great tasks of definite evangelism and social service, and if to these he will add, as doubtless he will, a new and strong appeal in behalf of Foreign Missions, the Board will be deeply grateful.

To give effect to such a program the Board offers the following resolution, which, if approved by the Conference, we request may be printed in the minutes:

"Whereas, the past five years have witnessed a small but persistent decrease in the contributions from the churches to the funds of the Foreign Missionary Society, be it resolved:

"(a) That in line with the action of the General Conference held in May last, every pastor in the Southern California Conference have his attention once more drawn to the report published under the title of "The World Situation," with a view to bringing the facts contained therein to the notice of all his people.

"(b) That the resolution passed last year be reaffirmed, viz., that in every charge without exception the claims of the Foreign Missionary Society be presented in sermon or address early in the Conference year (preferably about Thanksgiving) and pledges taken which should be paid by means of the duplex envelopes, or a similar system.

"(c) That the literature covering the various activities of the Parent Board be obtained and used freely in connection with that annual appeal; and, finally:

"(d) That in all future Conferences the requirements of the Book of Discipline, 1916 (paragraph 424, section 2), be observed, and an anniversary meeting be held when our Foreign Missionary work shall be presented to the Conference and its assembled visitors."

JOHN HEDLEY.

METHODIST HOSPITAL

At our Annual Conference one year ago, we were on the threshold of the hospital's first year. So many problems confronted us that our anxiety amounted almost to trepidation. During the year one problem after the other has passed away with a happy solution, so that the work has been one continual delight.

From the first month of its opening, the hospital has been filled with patients. Friends have come from everywhere. The kind of physicians we desire have brought their practice and shown their sympathy with our work. The required number of young ladies have responded to the call for student nurses at the beginning of each semester. They have been of the kind and character that has helped to give our school and hospital high standing. The second year will open with 70 choice characters.

During the year there has come into the work from the field $400 in supplies, $19,877.14 in cash gifts, $3,500 in property gifts, $7,700 in annuities and $6,000 in endowment, making the total outside receipts $37,477.14. The receipts from the work of the hospital have amounted to $93,683.38, making the total receipts for the year $131,160.52.

The hospital now has assets amounting to over $300,000. The total indebtedness is $120,186.04. We have unpaid subscriptions amounting to approximately $17,000, which, if they could all be collected, would reduce the indebtedness to $103,000. Of course, we count on losing a certain per cent of this subscription.

The demands for charity are increasing fast; God is unfolding to Methodism of Southern California a wonderful opportunity for service.

The modern hospital with its beneficent influence has become a mighty bulwark of defense and a potent influence in entrenching religious hierarchy in America. If Methodism with her virile message of salvation by faith could stand at the Bethesdas with Christ and say to the physically infirm, "Take up thy bed and walk," it would give a mighty impetus in helping to liberate those who are bound by blind ignorance and superstition.

Our hospital is a triumphant beginning of an institution of large proportions. Loyalty should be the watchword of every pastor and member of the Methodist Church until the building is enlarged so that it is commensurate with the needs, the debt is paid and a nurses' home is erected.

In giving a summary of the work so that we may understand the situation for working purposes, we will state as follows: The hospital in the first year of its history has paid its own expenses, donated $300 per month out of its receipts to charity work, and has paid interest amounting approximately to $750 per month. If the hospital continues even this record (and the natural supposition is that it will do much more the second year), then all that comes in from the field can be applied directly on our indebtedness. This is a condition that should bring a chorus of thanksgiving from the Methodists of Southern California.

The following is a statistical summary of actual work done in the institution during the first year:

Number of patients treated	2,162
Number of free patients treated.....	74
Number of discount patients treated.....	117
Number of major operations	669
Number of minor operations	694
Total number of operations.....	1,363
Number of births	305
Number of deaths	66
Number of days of service.....	29,994
Number of patients from ministers' families.....	39
Number of days of service for ministers' families.....	337

BYRON H. WILSON, Field Superintendent.

HOSPITAL COMMITTEE

The past year has been one of remarkable interest and surprising progress in our hospital work.

The new building has met a long-felt need with the medical profession, as they have shown by their enthusiastic support. Hundreds have hailed with delight the privilege of attending a Christian hospital while sick.

In this institution the church has a real, effective avenue of approach to those she seeks to serve for Christ's sake. Twenty-two hundred patients have been treated during this year, 74 have been treated free of charge, 117 have been assisted so that they could receive treatment where otherwise it would have been impossible.

There is no more intimate contact between the church and those who need sympathy and help than the thoroughly modern and genuinely Christian hospital.

We do therefore recommend that the Southern California Conference pledge to this institution its sympathy and hearty support in every way possible.

We further recommend that each charge observe one Sunday during the year as Hospital Day; that a sermon be preached on the subject; that literature when furnished by the institution be put into the hands of the people, and that when practicable a collection be taken to help liquidate the indebtedness on the institution.

BYRON H. WILSON, Chairman.

DEACONESS BOARD

The growing importance of the deaconess work within the church may be seen in the fact that the property holdings have risen in value in the past four years from $4,853,340 to $6,421,431—an increase of almost two million—while the receipts for the work have increased $180,000.

Your Board has given careful consideration to the work within the bounds of our Conference and beg leave to report that it is in excellent condition and that more and more demand is being made for the services of the deaconesses.

Our property holdings are as follows: Hewett Street property, valued at $8,000; Moneta, $900; Shenk Home on Glen Albyn Drive, valued at $5,000, and the Rest Home at Huntington Beach, valued at $3,500, a total valuation of $17,500, on which there is an indebtedness of $3,250. It is expected that the Rest Home, which is at the service of our deaconesses at any time needed (through the benevolences of Mrs. Umlauf of Huntington Beach), will soon be formally dedicated.

Twenty-three deaconesses have been connected with our work the past year and their work has been ably directed by Miss Isabel Leitch. After consideration, the Board of the Deaconess Home decided to increase the allowance of our deaconesses to $12, in compliance with the ruling of the General Deaconess Board that the allowance may be increased not to exceed $15. During the year Anna and Henrietta Van Dam have each tendered their resignations to the Home on account of family obligations that have made it impossible for them to continue in the service, and they have been granted honorable discharges.

The following churches have had the services of Deaconesses for the entire past year: First, Vermont Square, Westlake, Asbury, Los Angeles; First and Lake Ave., Pasadena; First and Trinity, Pomona; Central, San Diego; Grace, Long Beach; First, Monrovia; San Luis Obispo and St. James, Los Angeles have had help during a portion of the year.

Ninety-three hundred and four persons have received "Traveler's Aid;" 17,503 calls have been made; 2607 visits to the sick; 1155 bouquets have been distributed; 2551 trains and boats have been met; 351 meetings have been conducted; 2833 letters have been written; 709 families have been given relief, besides 1544 persons not included in families; 5822 garments have been given to the needy and employment secured for 110.

The following deaconesses have had their licenses renewed: Isabel Leitch, Nettie Chaffee, Demis Smith, Margaret Fries, Stella Lawson, Geneva McCrory, Florence Smith, Grace Adams, Adelaide Applegate, Celore Cheney, Jessie Pratt, Clara Mills, Eunice Sayre, Pauline Guthrie, Minnie Steel, Nellie Sanborn, Bessie Way, Hazel Morehouse, Ellen Anderson.

We recommend that Mrs. J. B. Green and Dr. H. W. Brodbeck be re-elected for the term of three years and that Mrs. A. F. Pomeroy be elected for a like term.

The Board wishes to heartily endorse the work of the San Francisco National Training School under the able supervision of Rev. Dr. E. R. Willis. Many of our deaconesses received their training in that institution and we commend its opportunities to all young women expecting to enter the deaconess work.

Your Conference Board respectfully calls the attention of the District Superintendents, pastors and churches to Par. 233, S3, which reads as follows:

"The appointment of the deaconesses to their respective fields of labor shall be subject to the approval of the Annual Conference Deaconess Board.

CALIFORNIA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE

Whereas, The California Christian Advocate was established in 1851 and during all the years has been an efficiency force in promoting the connectionalism of our church and every department of church work, and has become a necessity to Methodism on the Pacific Coast and is not a luxury or a mere convenience, and

Whereas, The cost of the Methodist Book Concern products for the coming year will be increased on account of the recent rise in paper and printing material about three hundred thousand dollars, which has made an increase in the selling price of the paper an absolute necessity, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we as ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church hereby pledge ourselves to observe one Sunday within the next two months as Advocate Sunday and that we will put forth every effort by personal solicitation to impress upon our people the importance of becoming a subscriber to this paper as one of the essential means of promoting the work of the church not surpassed by any benevolence required to be presented to our congregations by the law of the church.

CHARLES EDWARD LOCKE.

Laymen's Resolution

Resolved, That we as laymen of the Methodist Episcopal Church hereby agree to support our pastors in the observation of one Sunday within the next two months as Advocate Sunday, and that we will put forth every effort by personal solicitation to impress upon all the members of the church the importance of becoming subscribers to this paper as one of the essential means of promoting the work of the church.

PASTORAL ADDRESS

We, your fellow brethren and pastors of churches in Southern California Conference, greet you, the laity of Methodism, with tender and affectionate regard. We acknowledge all your faithfulness, devotion and liberality in the affairs of Christ's Kingdom. The year through which we have just come has been marked by signs of unmistakable progress. The Sunday Schools, Epworth Leagues, Methodist Brotherhoods, Women's Missionary Societies, together with our general congregations have with rare exceptions shown thrift and enterprise. The general statistics which go out to the world in our "Official Journal" show a great forward movement on all lines of endeavor. There was never a time when the problems of the church pressed so heavily upon pastors and people as right now. Things to be done are almost countless for number, and many of them are so far-reaching and wide-spreading and in many cases interlacing or overlapping as that even the most earnest and wide awake Christians and churches may well exclaim "Who is sufficient for these things?" Love of money, love of pleasure, and love of ease are in the way of true church progress. We need to keep well-guarded against all that is sensual, selfish or sordid. We should be much in prayer and constant in endeavor. The winning of our friends and neighbors to Christ, the spread of New Testament evangelism in all the earth, the overthrow of the liquor traffic under our own flag, the subversion of moral evil in all its organized forms, the education and moral training of the young, the equipment and endowment of our great schools, hospitals and orphanages, the real effectiveness of our own local churches, are matters so great and imperative as to rebuke all indifference and neutrality on the part of those who bear the name of Christians. These things call for the very best there is in us all. Therefore we, your pastors and fellow brethren of the ministry, acknowledging ourselves bound by the same obligations and challenged by the same issues hereby call upon all men, women and children of our common Methodism to come forth "clear as the sun, fair as the moon and terrible as an army with banners," that with heroic effort and unexcelled devotion we may make the record of the coming year far richer in its spiritual fruitage than that of the year which has just closed. The 51,000 members of this Southern California Conference led on by their faithful pastors, ought to compass tremendous gains in the year upon which we enter.

A. W. LAMPORT, Chairman.

(i) Auditor's Report

December 18, 1915

To the Board of Trustees of the Southern California Annual Conference:

I have this day completed an audit of the books of the Annuity Endowment Fund, the Hough Endowment Fund and the Conference Fund for the last two years or from balances of August 28, 1913, and where the origin of an account was not clear I have traced its history through the books, in some cases covering a period of 15 years. I found all accounts to be correct and assets and liabilities to be as per my detailed report to you on this date, which report was incorporated into the minutes of the Board meeting of this date.

ETHEL CHAPIN TIBBOT, Auditor.

Auditor's Additional Report

September 18, 1916

I have since examined and checked all accounts and vouchers to Aug. 31, 1916, and find them correct and they are properly recorded in records of your board.

RULES OF BOARD OF EXAMINERS

1. Committees of Examinations shall meet the classes on the day preceding the day appointed for the opening of the session of the Conference.
2. Candidates for the Conference classes shall be marked on a scale of 100, which shall be the maximum, and 70 shall be the minimum, and no person shall be advanced if conditioned in more than one study. A certificate of graduation from one of our theological seminaries will be accepted in place of examination in all the biblical and the theological studies in this Conference course.
3. Examinations will be held on the Tuesday preceding the opening of Conference at 9 A. M., at the seat of the Conference.
4. All applications for admission on trial must present certificates of graduation from a High School, or from an institution of, at least, equal standing.
5. All candidates holding bachelor degrees from accredited colleges shall be exempt from further examination in all the studies that are not included in the term biblical and theological, and all graduates of accredited theological colleges shall be exempt from examinations in theological and biblical studies. Certificates for this work should be sent to the Registrar not later than September 1st.
6. Sermons and essays shall be typewritten or in ink, and sent to W. E. Tilroe, U. S. C., not later than September 1st.
7. The Registrar and Examiners will be glad to communicate with undergraduates regarding studies. Enclose stamps for reply.
8. Deduction will be made on each paper in which the spelling, grammar, writing, or general execution is slovenly.
9. A notebook containing an outline of each book "to be read" is to be presented to the Examiner at the examination.
10. Sermons should contain 2000 to 3000 words, and essays 2000 to 4000. The paper used shall be letter size and folded when sent.
11. All applicants from other conferences or from another denomination, also theological students who have been excused from the course of study by virtue of their work in college, shall be examined concerning their personal attitude toward our doctrine and discipline, by a committee of three, said committee to report to the Board of Examiners.
12. As early in the Conference year as possible all applicants for admission on Trial shall send to the Chairman of the Board for application blanks, which are to be filled out with all care and returned to the Chairman.
13. On the completion of the entire course of study by an undergraduate, or in case of his retirement or transfer from the conference before its completion, he shall be entitled to a certificate, covering all his work, signed by the Chairman and Registrar of the Board.
14. The annual meeting of the Board of Examiners shall convene at the seat of and on the day before the session of the Annual Conference, at the hour of 9 o'clock a. m.
15. College or Seminary graduates, thereby excused from the course of study, shall be required to read the books assigned "to be read," and report the same in writing; they shall write the sermon or essay required; and shall also present a certificate with the grade of each study, for the work done in College and Seminary.
16. Inasmuch as thirty-five years is the standard set by our Church as the measure of a full life of ministerial service, we should not receive into our membership those who do not seem to have the prospect of serving for at least the major part of that time; the age limit of 42 years being a general guide to be set aside only on the vote of the conference. It is the sense of this Conference that the educational standard of those to be admitted in full to this Conference shall be a college education; and a seminary course in Theology; except in cases of unusual ability on the part of the applicant, or exceptional need of the work.

Memoirs

In Memoriam

GEORGE W. COULTAS, S. T. D.

"Forgive my grief for one remov'd
Thy creature, whom I found so fair
I know he lives in thee and there
I find him worthier to be loved."

George W. Coultas was born November 5, 1863, at Bridlington Quay, Yorkshire, England. He was the only son of John Gray Coultas, a fine old English gentleman, a local preacher in the Wesleyan Methodist Church, noted for his faithfulness and sturdy piety. Mr. Coultas traced his ancestry to Coultartus, a centurion in the army of Gnaeus Julius Agricola, who when his leader had completed the conquest of northern Britain, A. D. 84, settled in the lowlands of Scotland. George W. Coultas in many of the striking features of his character might well claim the fine old Roman warrior as his ancestor.

He grew to manhood in his native land and came direct to San Diego from England in 1889. He was married on September 22, 1891, to Miss Fannie M. Baker, who in every way for nearly twenty-five years was a helpmeet for him and did much to make his ministry a great success.

Brother Coultas had already heard the call of God to be his ambassador and at once began the work of preparation. He entered the Academy of the Southern California University in 1892 and was graduated from our University as Bachelor of Philosophy, (Cum Laude), in 1895. Whatever he did was done thoroughly and hence he went to Boston University School of Theology to complete his theological training and graduated from that school, Bachelor of Sacred Theology, in 1899. For years he studied, in absentia, and in 1913 received the degree Doctor of Sacred Theology from Milton University, Baltimore, Maryland. For three years, in addition to his pastoral work, he served very acceptably as a professor in our Maclay School of Theology and was for the past six years registrar of the Board of Examiners of the Southern California Annual Conference.

G.W. Coultas

W.F. Wenk.

Silas Sprowls

E.H. Fretz

Robt. Barton

As a faithful ambassador of Jesus Christ he served with unusual efficiency the following charges in his Conference: Redondo Beach, 1895-1898; Fullerton, 1899-1901; South Pasadena, 1901-1907; St. James, Los Angeles, 1907-1912; Whittier, 1912 up to the time when he met his tragic death near Santa Ana, July 8, 1916.

He was intensely loyal in his allegiance to Jesus Christ as the only Begotten Son of God and to the Bible as the Word of God. He brooked no attack upon either but preached the Word as God's message of redemption and salvation for sinful men. He believed it and taught it and loved it and lived it with an intensity of devotion which backed by an unblemished life carried unusual conviction with his messages.

His sermons were thoughtful, sound, earnest, vigorous and delivered in a way which fastened upon his hearers the truths he sought to convey.

As a pastor, he was always ready to help, sympathetic, patient, diligent, and he gave himself without stint to his work of ministering the Gospel of the Son of God. He had a remarkable faculty in handling men and reconciling their differences. It was not easy either to be, or to do, wrong under the leadership of such a man and the fact that he was still serving, at the time of his death only his third charge since 1901 speaks volumes as to his ability to win and hold the love and confidence of his people.

He was a man, a dependable man, a man of God, tried and true, test him how and when you would. He spent much time in communion with his Lord and instinctively one recognized the unseen but indwelling presence of the Divine in him.

Every one of the great audience assembled in the church which he loved and served so faithfully unto the death, gave assent to the words of his personal friend and associate, Bishop Matt. S. Hughes, who, standing in the presence of that which was mortal of our brother, said, with deep emotion, "There has not been any man associated with George W. Coultas in the work of the ministry or in the work of the church who, when he heard of his tragic passing called to mind anything which he wished were different in his life, and that, my friends, let me say, is a pretty big achievement."

HARCOURT W. PECK.

WILBUR F. WENK

Wilbur F. Wenk, son of Thomas B. and Elizabeth Wenk, was born at Lebanon, Ohio, October 23, 1853, and passed to his reward from Greenville, California, June 1, 1916. In 1861 Brother Wenk, with his parents, came to California, and lived in Sonora and Stockton. After completing the work of the public schools, he entered the College of the Pacific, from which he graduated in 1875. Later he attended the Boston School of Theology. He was married October 15, 1885, to Miss Harriet L. Dull, who, with the daughter Elizabeth, and two brothers, the Rev. R. E. Wenk, of the California Conference, and Morris Wenk, of Martinez, survive. After teaching school a few years, Brother Wenk entered the itinerant ranks in 1881. He joined the Southern California Conference in 1882, where he labored faithfully until 1908, when he took the retired relation. In 1910, at the request of Dr. S. A. Thomson, Superintendent, Brother Wenk took work in the Nevada Mission. He served Ely, Goldfield, and was nearing the end of the third year in Greenville and Taylorsville, when his promotion came. Brother Wenk was always painstaking in his work. He served his Conference as Secretary and also as Railroad Secretary. During his five years in the Mission he served as Railroad Secretary and Auditor. He was a good musician and was always ready to help at the organ or as a leader in song. He has been instrumental in the building of several churches, and numbers of people were converted on his charges. In coming to Nevada, Brother Wenk followed a man who had failed. The Superintendent said of the matter, "I wrote to the people of Ely I had sent them a man I had known well and favorably for over twenty-five years, and I would lose no more sleep over Ely." No better characterization of the man can be given. He was laid to rest by the side of his father and mother in the Rural cemetery at Stockton, Cal., the Rev. H. E. Beeks speaking tender and sympathetic words in remembrance of his life and service.

E. A. PALMER.

SILAS SPROWLS

Silas Sprowls was born March 20th, 1844, in East Finley, Pa. An early call to the ministry was followed by educational preparation. He graduated from Allegheny College, in the class of 1871. He entered Boston School of Theology, graduating from it with the class of 1874. He entered the New England Southern Conference, and labored there for thirteen years. He was married to Miss Henrietta Crocker, of Barnstable, Mass., the children of this union being Ralph M. and Madeline. In the year 1887 he was transferred to the Southern California Conference and served faithfully for sixteen years. His wife having passed away, he was married in 1895 to Miss Kate Wing, a well known educator of Orange county. On account of throat trouble he took the retired relation in 1903, and made Los Angeles his residence until his death, which occurred after a brief illness, December 11th, 1915. The funeral service was held in Westlake Methodist Episcopal Church, and was conducted by the pastor, the Rev. D. F. Howe, assisted by Dr. C. E. Locke, Dr. W. A. Lamb and Dr. A. W. Bunker. To those who knew Dr. Sprowls words of commendation are not necessary. His brethren in the ministry know his complete and unfailing loyalty to the church. The people of his charges know that in the pulpit he faithfully delivered the message of his Lord, and not his own; and in their homes he came in the tenderness and sympathy of the great and good Pastor, Jesus. The outside world knew him as the man who in honesty and purity walked worthy of his great vocation. His family knew him as the husband and father to whom all domestic and human relations were sanctified by the tender and beautiful grace of God. Westlake church, where he and his family were communicants so long, knew him and loved him for the blessed influence of his presence, and for his faithful and valuable participation in all the work of the church. And I, the pastor of that church, knew him and loved him as one of the most congenial and helpful associates I have ever had. His going has left a hallowed place in my memory, and has wonderfully enriched the heritage of my hope.

D. F. HOWE.

EDWIN H. FRETZ

The brief biography of Edwin H. Fretz in our Conference Journal reads: "Lordsburg; Prospect Park; Haven; Missionary in Japan; Alamitos Park; Alhambra First; Lincoln Avenue, Pasadena."

Turning to earlier records we find that he was a native of Pennsylvania, born January 5, 1867. Then we trace him in pursuit of the liberal education which he acquired, from Pennington Seminary, through the Middletown Wesleyan, to Northwestern in Evanston, whence he was graduated in 1897. Miss Mary Stuart, a fellow student, graduated in the same class, and they were married in that year.

Remembering a former residence in California, in which we had known him as associate pastor of Vincent Church, Los Angeles, Mr. Fretz brought his bride to our State and they began the pastoral service noted above.

The call to Japan as Missionary teacher seemed appropriate as he had always the attitude which denoted accurate scholarship and true Christian character.

Impelled by failing health to come home after four years' occupancy of the chair in English in a branch of the Imperial University, he was soon able to re-enter the pastorate.

Until his last day of this life E. H. Fretz lovingly met all the demands of the pastorate.

On Sunday morning, June 18, of this year, he spoke earnestly to a Sunday School class, was taken ill and rested till evening when he slept away to the eternal morning.

We wonder why some are called so early to reward from a service given with a cheerful loyalty, and then we remember that for him who heard the summons it meant to depart and "Be with Christ which is far better."

ROBERT BARTON

Robert Barton was born near Zanesville, Ohio, March 21st, 1851. In his early boyhood, he was converted, and a few years later, while acquiring an education, he heard the call of God to enter the Christian ministry. In due time he joined the Central Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. On November 30th, 1871, Mr. Barton was married to Miss Jennie Reddan of LaCon, Marshall County, Illinois. Two children were born to them, Geo. C. Barton, Professor in the High School of Berkeley, Cal., and Elsie M. Barton, who is girl's matron in our David and Margaret Home at Lordsburg.

In the summer of 1896 Brother Barton came to California on account of the failing health of his wife, locating at Paso Robles. The effort to save his beloved companion proved unavailing, however, and on Nov. 4th, 1896, at the age of 44 years she passed away leaving husband and children sorrow-stricken and desolate, strangers in a strange land.

Two years later our brother returned to Illinois and brought back as his bride his former wife's most intimate friend, Miss Cynthia Schotty, a woman of rare sweetness and beauty of character. For five and a half years she lived to brighten the home, her life a benediction to every member of the family. On Jan. 8th, 1904, she, too, was called to her eternal home, leaving a baby boy, Robert, of 22 months. After her death and for ten years, father and daughter kept the home together, rearing most tenderly the frail and motherless little one.

Brother Barton gave twenty years of labor in this Conference, and during that time served the following named charges: Paso Robles; Central Church, San Diego; Garden Grove; Colton; Epworth Church, Los Angeles; Vernon Avenue Church, Los Angeles, and Lordsburg.

During his second year's pastorate in Lordsburg, on Aug. 18th, 1914, Brother Barton was again united in marriage, this time to Mrs. Emma Laird, the widow of Rev. John M. Laird of the California Conference. This marriage was, like the others, a happy one. In her he found an efficient helper, a loving companion, and during the long months of suffering which preceded his death a most tender, faithful and untiring nurse.

Brother Barton preached his last sermon on May 16th, 1915, in the Lordsburg church, to the people who were so dear to his heart. There is something surpassingly beautiful in the tender regard shown on the part of the Lordsburg church for their pastor. During the months of his serious illness every attention was shown him, and though in physical pain and often in mental anguish, this kindly consideration ministered much to his comfort.

On March 18th, last, at 6 o'clock in the evening, at the Methodist Hospital in Los Angeles, our beloved brother passed quietly away from suffering and conflict to victory and to life eternal.

The funeral services were held in the Lordsburg church, and were in charge of the District Superintendent, A. Ray Moore, Brothers S. J. Carroll, W. M. Sterling, M. W. Beckwith and C. M. Crist assisting. His body was laid to rest in Rosedale cemetery.

ALVIN K. STABLER

Alvin K. Stabler was born April 5, 1867, and passed to his reward June 29, 1916. On Jan. 2, 1888, he was licensed as an exhorter; on Aug. 18, 1888, he was licensed as a local preacher. He joined the Cincinnati Conference in 1889 and served the Lebanon Circuit two years; he then preached four years in Colorado. In 1895 he returned to Ohio and spent two years at Walker Union, four years at West Carrollton, and four years at Grace Church, Norwood. In 1905 he was appointed pastor of Broadway Church, Dayton, Ohio. In his ministry in Ohio he soon came to a position of distinction. He was early recognized as a man of sterling quality and of unusual worth. Having serious throat trouble he was transferred to the Southern California Conference in 1905 and was stationed at Globe, Arizona. Realizing that preaching was too great a strain upon his voice he entered the educational field. Young life greatly appealed to him and his school work became a delight, but the deepest regret of his life was that he had to leave the pulpit. The strongest passion of his soul was his desire to preach, but bowing to the inevitable he threw himself into his educational work. He became principal of the schools at Globe and in two years was called to the Principalship of the High School at Phoenix; here he did a monumental work; through his leadership the Phoenix High School took highest rank among the High Schools of the nation. When I pass the magnificent High School buildings of Phoenix I say to myself, there is Alvin K. Stabler's monument. Brother Stabler was a builder; he was a builder of youth, a builder of life and because a builder of life he was a builder of civilization. Young life moulded and fashioned by the best types of manhood helps to construct nations and to build empires and as the years come and go it will be seen more and more that Alvin K. Stabler was one of the chief builders of his commonwealth.

RAY C. HARKER.

MRS. JOSEPH HENRY

California Rachel Stone was born in Greensboro, Green County, Pa., July 6th, 1850, daughter of Dr. John A. Stone, who was a local preacher in the Methodist Episcopal church. She was united in marriage to Rev. Joseph H. Henry of the Pittsburgh Conference, Sept. 14th, 1871, and for 44 years shared with him the joys and burdens of the Methodist ministry. Fifteen of those years were spent in the Pittsburgh Conference and 29 in various charges in Southern California Conference. Mrs. Henry was a woman of sterling character, quiet even to reserve, conscientious, sensitive in respect to duty and Christian reputation.

She was a fine musician and taught piano and voice culture very successfully in the various communities where their work was assigned them. She was a woman of fine mind, independent in judgment, yet unusual in modesty and tender in heart and hospitable in her home. She fell asleep in Jesus Sept. 25th, 1915. Her funeral was held in Glendale and the body was laid to rest in Forest Lawn cemetery.

MRS. CHARLES F. BELLER

Leola E. Kinsey was born near Morrill, Kansas, July 14th, 1876. She departed this life Oct. 2nd, 1915. In early childhood she was converted and spent the remainder of her life in the service of the Master. Rev. Chas. F. Beller, a promising young minister won the love of this choice young woman and March 30th, 1898, they were happily united in marriage. Three children came to complete the joy of this parsonage home: Lona, Miriam and Ralph. God has been good to spare the lives of these to comfort the father in his bereavement.

Mrs. Beller with her husband served the following charges of which he was pastor: Glenville, Holstein, Calway, Shelton and Fullerton in the Nebraska Conference. In 1905 they came to Southern California and were later transferred to the Southern California Conference and have served the following charges: Kern, Estrella, Bardsdale and Florence. From the latter charge in their third year she was transferred to the Church Triumphant.

She was a lover of home and contented with its blessings. There was no complaint from her when privation and self-denial must come. Even the extreme suffering of her fatal illness was endured with bravery, patience and fortitude. Christian faith and optimism characterized her closing hours, which were spent in almost constant prayer.

MRS. JENNIE CHURCHILL KAHLER

Mrs. Jennie Churchill Kahler was born near Wilmington, Ind., July 21, 1834. She united with the church of her choice in childhood. Teaching to pay her way she graduated from Moore's Hill College, Ind., in 1858, with the highest honors of her class. While instructor in the Preparatory Department she married Rev. S. J. Kahler, then Professor of Mathematics in the same school. Three children blessed their union, all dying in infancy. Three years after his marriage Brother Kahler entered our ministry, taking appointments in Indiana, Kansas and Southern California. In 1883 failing health brought them to San Fernando where she resided 27 years. Brother Kahler went to claim his crown Feb. 24, 1912, and Sister Kahler followed him June 30, 1916. Like to noble trees of the forest, standing on the edge of the River of Life, with branches lovingly intertwined, when the flood of Death swept one away the other leaned far toward the stream and soon followed its companion into a blessed reunion in the sea of eternity.

Sister Kahler was broadly and liberally educated and an artist of no mean ability. Having no close kindred she left almost all her estate to the church. Her paintings are equally divided between the Methodist Hospital, the David and Margaret Home and the Deaconess Home where they gladden all hearts. She had already given about half her estate to the Superannuates' fund of our Conference, and in May, 1915, she deeded her $4,000 residence to be a memorial parsonage for the local church, retaining only a life interest for herself. Sister Kahler, in addition to great usefulness in the local church, was a member and the founder of the local W. C. T. U.; she was also a member of the Ebell Club, both of which orders attended her funeral services in a body; these were simply and impressively held by Brothers Loofbourrow, her pastor, Dr. Green, a lifelong friend who made the main address, and the writer, a former pastor.

(b) Minutes of Laymen's Association

The Laymen's Association of the Southern California Conference convened in the United Presbyterian Church, Santa Ana, Thursday, Sept. 21st, 1916.

The President, Egerton Shore, called the meeting to order at 9:15 o'clock. The hymn "Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing" was sung, after which prayer and song continued until 9:30 o'clock.

Mr. J. S. Smart of Santa Ana made the address of welcome.

This was followed by the President's address on "Laymen in Christian Leadership," which was a clear statement of the Laymen's position in church work, spiritually, mentally, and financially, recognizing that no great work or battle can be fought and won by leaders alone. There must inevitably be the rank and file as coordinate workers. The address was full of suggestiveness for the accomplishment of the advance of Christian citizen leadership, not only in Methodist matters—therefore moral and religious in their influence—but also in civic and political matters and movements, all of which should have as their goal the moral, physical, and spiritual welfare of the community, the state, the Union, and the world-at-large. God having called us as co-workers together with Him, we must work on at His command.

Then followed appointment of committees.

On Credentials: Prof. M. M. Parker and T. D. Allin.

On Nominations: E. P. Clarke, J. H. Dimmitt, Z. L. Parmelee, Mrs. S. F. Johnson, and Mrs. Sharon.

On Resolutions: W. F. Cronemiller, H. M. Chapman, and Mrs. S. Sprowls.

The Hon. A. J. Wallace, Ex-Lieutenant Governor of California, was the appointed speaker for the subject, "Lay Representation in the Annual Conference," but he was unavoidably absent, addressing the Realty Board in Los Angeles, on "California Dry." Mr. E. P. Clarke of Riverside, who was to lead the discussion on this topic, stepped into the breach at a moment's notice and very ably laid before his audience the fact of the great change in the attitude of both ministers and laymen towards this subject. He looked forward with optimism to the near future, when ministers and laymen shall meet together for the discussion of all subjects vital to Methodism. Mrs. Belle Anderson then followed with a very interesting five minutes' speech on this vital question, citing ancient and modern history and other statistics, urging the need for this co-operation. Discussion followed in which the following took part: Mrs. Chas. Klingerman, R. H. Young, F. A. Powell, Mrs. A. J. Boston, J. H. Dimmitt, F. S. Wallace, Mrs. S. F. Johnson, C. E. Carver, Mr. Holt, and J. S. Smart.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Lay Association expresses its approval and appreciation of the action of the General Conference in submitting to the annual conferences and lay electoral conferences a constitutional amendment providing for lay representation in the annual conference; and resolved further that we are heartily in favor of the principle of lay representation and earnestly hope the change proposed will receive the endorsment of the church when the time comes for the vote to be taken.

Mr. E. P. Clarke proposed that we go on record as a Convention that we urge the General Conference to adopt the measure as soon as possible.

Dr. Larkin, editor of the California Advocate, was the next speaker, urging every member of the Conference to become a subscriber for this paper because of the educational and connexional matters of importance and interest therein.

Resolved, That we as laymen of the Methodist Episcopal Church hereby agree to support our Pastors in the observation of one Sunday within the next two months as Advocate Sunday, and that we will put forth every effort by personal solicitation to impress upon all the members of the church the importance of becoming subscribers to this paper as one of the essential means of promoting the work of the church.

The next subject, "Plaza Institutional Church," by Charles E. Carver, was a plea for the full sympathy and practical help of every member of the Methodist Church to make this a reality for the Latin Americans who throng the Plaza in Los Angeles every day. Such an institution will have a beneficial effect upon the Mexicans themselves, and the community in which they live. We can't accomplish this desirable end unless we feel our individual responsibility. Immediately following this address the following resolution was presented and adopted by unanimous vote:

Whereas, The program of the Methodist Laymen's movement includes prominently community uplift with an attempt in all churches having immigrant neighbors to find a point of contact with them, and

Whereas, The greatest recognized immigrant problem in California is that of the Latin Americans, more particularly the Mexicans, therefore be it

Resolved, That we, realizing that an Institutional Church giving religious, educational and social advantages to a people desperately in need of all these things, will be the best means of reaching them, do endorse, and will in every way possible aid in bringing to pass the Latin American Institutional Church on the Plaza of Los Angeles (City), California.

H. M. Chapman made a stirring appeal for this object.* Frank S. Wallace was scheduled to speak on the "Spanish American Institute." He was there to make his personal appeal for this worthy institution, but gave part of his time to Rev. John P. Howe, the Superintendent of the Spanish American Institute, who spoke in a very interesting manner about the boys under his care, showing how they develop, physically, morally and spiritually, under Christian influence, manifesting characteristics which were dormant until they came under Protestant Christian care. Mr. Wallace then followed with an interesting statement of the financial condition of this branch of our work, showing how much has been done in a brief time and the cost already defrayed for some of the buildings now erected. He asked his hearers to support the appeals for further funds to erect other buildings necessary for the advancement of this work.

NOON ADJOURNMENT

1:45 o'clock. Reassembled for song service.

Mr. J. P. Hillis of Pasadena sang a solo entitled, "Make Me a Channel of Blessing Today," in his usual effective manner.

Rev. E. Guy Talbott then spoke on the popular and modern subject, "The Laymen's Missionary Movement." Being a National officer and having the Pacific Coast as his field of labor, he was well equipped with "up to the minute facts" and projects contemplated for the advancement of this latest organization. His plea was for a renewed spirit of zeal and self-sacrifice from every member of the Methodist Church. Statistics of wealth per capita for the last 10 years were quoted, which he regretted did not compare favorably with the generosity which ought to have been manifest in equal ratio in the church benevolences during the same period of time.

Mrs. S. F. Johnson, National Officer of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, then took up her subject, "Woman's Work in Foreign Missions." Having filled her official position in this Society for many years, she was well qualified to speak for, and on behalf of her sisters' work in the foreign field. Her whole address breathed the spirit of loving service which she and many others are giving daily on behalf of the foreign missionary field. Her address was well calculated to inspire new zeal in her hearers.

Mrs. S. Sprowls, President of the "Women's Home Missionary Society," followed with an address on "Woman's Work in Home Missions." Like the previous speaker, she was able to handle her subject with an authority and knowledge of facts only possessed by one closely allied with the organization. Statistics of numbers and finance were cited in an interesting manner—Southern California Conference holding the premier position of any Conference in Methodism for generous gifts for the advancement of this important branch of Methodist work. This organization covers another very important phase of church service, namely: The Deaconess Homes, where girls and women are trained for Christian service rendered to the poor and needy in every city. In addition to this, they are, to a large extent, responsible for the erection and maintenance of our Methodist Hospitals, in order that they may render the service of the "Good Samaritan" to the needy ones daily pleading at their doors. Forty Industrial Schools are also directly under their charge, all of which are solving great National problems.

Rev. Wesley K. Beans was then given a few minutes to present his favorite theme, "Conference Claimants."

At this time Bishop Adna Wright Leonard, D. D., arrived and was given an enthusiastic Chautauqua salute. The Bishop gave one of his brilliant and spiritual appeals to the laymen to open their minds and hearts to the calls coming from the North, South, East and West for renewed devotion for the advancement of Christ's work upon earth which can be accomplished by laymen. He showed how the same spirit which prompted our predecessors actuates us likewise; yet it must be remembered that this old spirit must have modern methods applied to make them successful, just the same as any old commercial enterprise must have all the newest equipment, both in the workshop and office, in order to meet the keen competition it has to fight. His address was made very interesting by illustrating our lives as open to the different influences coming from the four quarters of the globe. Only those permitted to hear him can form any conception of how he weaved his thought into the warp and woof of our experience and made each one feel a new impulse for further consecrated service in His name.

W. F. Cronemiller had as his subject a modern term: "The Budget Plan of Church Finance." Those knowing the speaker know also, that he would not be speaking long ere he brought in his ideal of "tithing" as being the easiest, surest, quickest, and pleasantest way of both raising and giving money for the service of God.

His budget plan outlined a system applicable because of its elasticity to any and every church in Methodism, be it wealthy or otherwise. This would enable every church to increase its gifts to benevolences and other church demands. Figures were quoted by the speaker which made very unfavorable comparisons between present day wealth and Sabbath offerings. One other great factor will be accomplished if we get our church finance under one board of control; namely, the elimination of the inequality of the appropriation and distribution of the church funds, just the same as any other association, commercial or civic body distributes its revenue. Discussion followed this address in which the following participated: Bros. E. J. Swayne, Blood, Allcock, Mason, Townsend, J. A. Welch, Mrs. King and Miss Cave. Most of those participating were enthusiastic tithers.

The Credential Committee reported as follows:

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 22, 1916

Layman's Association Continued. 9:30 A. M.

The hymn "A Charge to Keep I Have" was sung, after which prayer was offered by Mr. Wm. Bowen.

The Treasurer, Miss F. M. C. Cronemiller, presented her report, showing a gross income of $92.83, including a balance on hand of $41.41. Disbursements, $28.50, leaving a balance of $64.23.

E. J. Wightman of Long Beach, spoke on "The Organized Sunday School to Date." His remarks were brimful of suggestion and thought for all school workers if they desire an efficient organization. Beginning with the Primary Department and running through each one to the Senior, or adult organized class. Then taking the officers, he suggested ideals for each one if they desired efficiency. He laid special emphasis upon the need of suitable class rooms for every teacher if success is to be attained. Discussion was led by N. G. Felker of the Pasadena Lake Avenue Sunday School. He is naturally a successful superintendent. Consult him for suggestions. Then from the floor some very practical suggestions were made from actual experience by the following: Mrs. Klingman, Mr. Blood, Mr. Watt Fessler, and Mrs. King.

The Hon. A. M. Drew, Ex-President of the Laymen's Association, then took up the interesting subject "Church Union Between the Methodist Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church South." This question has been one of controversy for years and now is one of vital importance because of its recent reappearance in the General Conference. Mr. Drew's time was too limited to give more than a brief outline of the past history of this interesting question. Some of the events he cited were naturally interesting to the younger generation of Methodists.

W. S. Allen led the discussion which followed and E. J. Swayne took up the theme for five minutes. Both of these speakers recognized the difficulties surrounding this question, but were optimistic about its fruition, if each section of these churches have "Charity." Hon. A. J. Wallace followed with some of his brilliant thrusts at obstructionists. At this point the Conference adjourned in order that we might hear Bishop Adna Wright Leonard give the address to the men who were to be received into full connection for the ministry.

At 1:45 o'clock we reassembled.

Bros. Todd and Reunitz favored us with a duet, which was greatly appreciated and encored.

Wm. Cooper, Laymen's Secretary, then read the minutes of the previous day.

Prof. T. C. Knoles took his appointed subject, "Organized Men's Work." He spoke first about how Christ, as a leader, moved in and out among his hearers and made his impressions upon them not so much by his logic, verbal teaching, or writings, but rather by his practical everyday help and sympathy rendered to every needy case coming within his scope. The speaker then showed how Christ organized a band of followers to carry on, and continue his beneficent work for the physical, moral, and spiritual welfare of mankind. Our duty is to continue this work of organization, to fight for every social and moral influence amongst us. He urged the need for active Brotherhood work in our churches and stated that this is one of the opportunities for social service and active interest in our own cities, not only in the church, but in our civic relationship. By such organization we can make our personal influence felt in local, state, or National affairs.

F. A. Powell of Hollywood also spoke briefly on the same subject.

E. Guy Talbott next presented the subject, "The Methodist City Mission." His plea was, "First remove the causes of vice and poverty, then the need for much of our present mission work will cease, preventive means being far better than corrective measures." The contemplated Institutional Church to be erected at East Seventh and San Julian streets, Los Angeles, is going to be a center of industry and education towards this end. Here again is another example of what organization can do.

Brother Todd, upon request, gave another solo, very appropriate to the present topic of mission service. Brother C. E. Sweet, from the Los Angeles City Mission work, then followed with a brief, fiery and enthusiastic address upon the results already achieved by that mission during the ten years he has been converted. His recapitulation of figures of activities were as rapid as the actions of a quick firing gun, but the results were constructive and not destructive. Only those who know Brother Sweet can appreciate how much enthusiasm he can create in seven minutes.

S. W. Odell of Pasadena, Chairman of the Southern California Campaign Federation, was the next speaker. "California Dry" was his theme. He made some pleasant comparisons of conditions which were more favorable for making our beloved State dry this time than in 1914. "Everybody in the churches registered" will undoubtedly be the first step. Without this no "unregistered delinquent" can take the second step to the polls in November; and make the third step inevitable later, namely, California dry! Many of the objections raised against us last time have been removed, and thousands of people who voted against us are going to vote for us this year.

H. A. Wheeler's "Review of the Situation" was an enthusiastic speech of fifteen minutes, urging everybody to get into this fight as "self starters" and not wait to be "turned by a crank." He regretted there were a lot of self starters still in the garage! Work for everybody and everybody at work will make November 7th historical for California, and probably influence the balance of the states to "follow in their train."

Hon. A. J. Wallace, President of the California Campaign Federation, was the next speaker. Enthusiasm does not describe the President's attitude on this question. He is a "booster" through and through. Such enthusiasm must inevitably enthuse some drones. He is optimistic as to the outcome if every one will register and then vote. Such action will have a great influence upon the heads of our government and the nation at large.

Hon. A. M. Drew, of Fresno, gave some interesting facts refuting some of the statements made by the opponents of national and moral reform for which we are fighting.

The Committee on Resolutions reported and the following resolutions were adopted:

"Resolved, That we recommend that all of our Methodist churches in Southern California, form tithing bands and that they also adopt the duplex envelope system and budget plan as outlined by the General Conference of our church.

Resolved, That this Laymen's Association urge upon the ministry of our church the advisability of their bringing before their churches at an early date, the subject of tithing and that they keep it before them during this conference year.

"Resolved, That as the present situation of the temperance question is extremely critical, and as California is the strategical point of contest,

That we do hereby pledge the support of the Laymen's Association to untiring service until such question is settled right."

"Resolved, That we extend a vote of thanks to the United Presbyterian Church for the use of their church and to the janitor for his services, and that $5.00 be paid the latter."

"Resolved, That we, the Laymen's Association, do hereby tender to our retiring Secretary, Brother Cooper, our deepest thanks for the valuable and efficient services he has rendered during the past two years."

"Resolved, That this Conference appoint a commission of three ministers to act with three laymen, to be appointed by the Laymen's Association, which shall be empowered to act for this Conference in the matter of establishing a Methodist book room, or depository, in the City of Los Angeles.

"2nd. That this Conference request the Laymen's Association to appoint five laymen as members of this commission.

"3rd. If said commission shall be appointed, that we request that they take immediate steps for the establishing of such a book room, or depository, and that we pledge our hearty support to such action, the President of the association to act as Chairman for the Laymen's Association."

The laymen appointed on the book room committee were, Egerton Shore, Hon. A. J. Wallace and Hon. A. M. Drew.

"Resolved, That a committee be appointed to have W. F. Cronemiller's paper on tithing printed and distributed during the year."

The following were appointed for this purpose, W. F. Cronemiller, W. H. Cline and

The Association adjourned at 4 p. m. with the Doxology and benediction offered by the President.

WM. COOPER, Secretary, Pasadena.

Your Financial Adviser

can secure safety for your investments and the highest rate of interest consistent with that aim, provided he has ability, experience and responsibility.

Such an adviser feels that his business is one of trust and that he assumes a moral responsibility to care for your investment as long as you hold the mortgage which he has sold to you.
